

The Jamestown Quadricentennial Commemorative Medal and Medallion

The Virginia Society SAR is commemorating the quadricentennial of the settlement at Jamestown.

The Virginia Society SAR is also seeking contributions for the 2007 SAR National Congress.

The Congress is OVER!
These medals are now priced to GO!

For each voluntary contribution of $5.00, the Virginia Society will express its gratitude by bestowing on you a miniature medal.

For each voluntary contribution of $10.00, the Virginia Society will thank you with a full-sized medal.

And for each voluntary contribution of $15.00, the Virginia Society will recognize your help with a collectible medallion.

Left, the full-sized version (1 1/4") of the Jamestown Commemorative Medal. The miniature version (3/4") is not shown.

Below left, the obverse of the Jamestown Commemorative Medallion (2 3/4").

Below right, the reverse of the Medallion.

(Images smaller than actual size.)

*Designed by Stan Poczatek.
© by the Virginia Society, SAR*

*The Congress is over, but Jamestown Commemorative medals and medallions are still available!
The minimum contribution for one of these fine commemoratives has been reduced drastically!
These medals are priced to GO, so get your Jamestown Commemorative medals and medallions NOW!*

Please make your check payable to "Virginia Society, SAR"

Please send this form and your check to:

Joseph W. Dooley, Chairman
2007 VASSAR Congress Planning Committee
3105 Faber Drive
Falls Church, Virginia 22044-1712

	Quantity	For each voluntary contribution of	Total per medal or medallion
Miniature medal:		$5.00
Full-sized medal:		$10.00
Medallion:		$15.00

Total voluntary contribution enclosed:

Name: _____
Address: _____
Phone #: _____
e-mail: _____

- I'm including an extra $5 for postage and handling,
OR
 Please deliver my medals/medallions to me at the next
NSSAR Leadership Conference or Congress.