

More Photos from the 2009 Semi-Annual Meeting.....

A highlight of the Saturday Luncheon was the induction of 25 men, 21 into the Norfolk Chapter, one into the Headquarters Chapter, and three (3) into the Thomas Nelson, Jr. Chapter. Sixteen of the new Compatriots were present to receive their membership certificates. (L-R) Joe Snipes, Sam Endicott & Mike McCarthy, Thomas Nelson, Jr. Chapter; Mark Wilcox, Bill Werner, Maury Weeks, Phil Maliniak, Grey Webb, (HQ Chapter) Lee Webb, Matt Angelo, Ray Megginson, John Crimmins, Gerimy Bailey, Pete Hathaway, Bob Kendal & Jeff Sherbook Norfolk Chapter. Welcome aboard, men!

(L-R) C. Brian and Ingrid Kelly read excerpts from their "Best Little Stories" series of books during the luncheon. Semi-Annual Chairman Dr. Matt Hogendobler was presented the Virginia Society State Service Medal for organizing the meeting. Lee Webb, newly inducted member of the Norfolk Chapter was the keynote speaker and spoke about "Why History Matters".

Wayne Rouse presented the VASSAR wreath during the annual Kings Mountain program in South Carolina on October 7. Other members of the Virginia Society in attendance (from left to right) included Secretary General David Sympson; Fincastle resolutions Chapter Color Guardsmen Allen Brahin and Dennis Fritts; NCSSAR President Frank Horton; VASSAR Color Guard Commander Larry McKinley; Georgia President-elect Mike Tomme; President General Ed Butler; Historian General Lindsey Brock; immediate past VASSAR Color Guard Commander Any Johnson, and Rouse.