

(L-R) President-elect Bob Bowen presents the VASSAR wreath during the annual Battle Days program in Point Pleasant, WV. Accompanying Bowen are VASSAR Color Guard Commander Larry McKinley and National Color Guard Commander Joe Dooley. Virginia Compatriots in attendance at the program included (front row) Dennis Fritts, Genealogist General Joe Dooley, Larry McKinley, Darrin Schmidt, Lance Carter (second row) Andy Johnson, Bob Bowen, Allen Brahin (top row) Historian General Lindsey Brock & Secretary General David Sympton.

(L-R) The Martin Station and Lt. David Cox Chapters joined for the marking of Revolutionary War Veteran John Hounshell's grave at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Rural Retreat in August. Taking part in the ceremony were Martin Station members Dough Lewis, Bill Cheak (a descendant of the soldier), Caleb Campbell, Chapter President Tom Coker and Donnie Campbell. Lt. David Cox Chapter members present included Don Philen, Chapter President Charles Crockett and Ralph Sweeney. --- Col. William Grayson Chapter President Bill Broadus presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Lucy Baker-Dickey, author of a new book about the life of Grayson titled "William Grayson and the Constitution 1788". During a book-signing ceremony at the Manassas Museum on September 19.

Support VASSAR Trust Funds

Are you a member of VASSAR's First Virginia Regiment? If not, contact Regimental Quartermaster Joe Dooley for details. Contact Joe at joexyz@verizon.net for details.