Dr. Joseph Warren Medal

Supporting the SAR Rumbaugh Orations Contest

The Rumbaugh Orations Contest's National level awards are not currently competitive among nationwide contests (e.g. other SAR contests, including the American Legion). Currently, the program disperses $11,000 annually in scholarships where competitive levels are closer to $30,000-$40,000. The Orations Committee is seeking to rectify this disparity with an enhanced endowment.

Those who enter the Oration contest are our leaders of tomorrow. Communication skills are learned through practice, and our Rumbaugh Oration contestants use powerful words and diction to persuade others, often to standing ovations! They rivet the audiences with stories of heroes and important philosophical points of view. The contestants research long and hard, and practice the same, thus enhancing their communication and leadership skills.

Joseph Warren, a Boston doctor, was the orator selected to commemorate the anniversary of the Boston Massacre. Because the orator would be heckled by unforgiving British officers and sympathizers, Warren bravely presented his speech with a steady and firm voice. Warren's stirring oratory skill recruited more patriots and moved others to support the Revolution.

Contributions of any amount are needed and very much appreciated ($5, $10, $50). Contributions of $250 or more will be recognized with this new SAR medal (with miniature). The medal is suspended from a Blue, Gold and White drape.

Contributions of $1,000 or more will be recognized with a Campaign Bar for their medal.
