FOR YOUR FAVORABLE CONSIDERATION

I regret the necessity of again taking up with the membership the troublesome question of finances. The conditions which have operated to increase expenses in our homes and in our business undertakings have unavoidably increased the expenses of the National Society. The enormous volume of work in the Registrar General's office is most inadequately compensated. The services of the Secretary General, if rendered in the business world, would command a much larger remuneration than the Society is able to pay him. I doubt if there is any other organization in which so many individuals expend money for the benefit of the organization without rendering expense bills therefor. Even so, the revenues of the National Society do not now cover its necessary and minimum expenses. We have dispensed with the Year Book, but we cannot give up the BULLETIN. It is the organ by which the National Society maintains touch with the individual compatriots, wheresoever dispersed. We were under no expense for rent during the lifetime of A. Howard Clark. He stored our records for us in the Smithsonian Institution. Since his death it has been necessary for us to rent quarters in Washington.

I bespeak favorable consideration of the amendments proposed by the Executive Committee for the relief of the treasury. The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, now collects an initiation fee of $5.00 and a per capita tax of $1.00 for the use of the National Society. These exactions have not checked the growth or diminished the usefulness of our sister Society. Can we not profit by their experience?

Minutes of the Meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Held at the Union League Club, New York City, February 17, 1922.

There were present the President General, Hon. Wallace McCamant; Directors General James Harry Preston, Louis Annin Ames, Arthur P. Sumner, and Major W. I. Lincoln Adams; also Secretary General Frank B. Steele and Treasurer General John H. Burroughs.

The meeting was called to order by the President General as chairman, and the Secretary General read the minutes of the former meeting of the Executive Committee, held in Buffalo, on May 18, 1921, and also the minutes of the Executive Committee business that was carried on by mail in the interim, as designated by the Board of Trustees.

The Report of the Treasurer General was received and ordered filed.

The Report of the Registrar General was received, accepted, and ordered filed.

It was moved by Director General Preston that the future BULLETINS contain a brief statement of purposes and objects of the Society and a statement of the requirements for eligibility to membership in the Society. This was adopted.

Director General Adams reported upon the work of the special committee appointed to take up the matter of enlarging the Board of Trustees, made necessary by the increased number of General Officers. It was moved and adopted that this committee should continue its work until after the meeting of the National Congress in Springfield in May.

It was moved by Judge Sumner that the Executive Committee propose the following amendment to the Constitution and recommend its adoption:

That Article VI of the Constitution of the National Society be amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE VI.—Initiation Fee and Dues.

SEC. 1. In addition to the initiation fee, if any, charged by a State Society, there shall be paid an initiation fee of five dollars for membership in the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution. Said fee shall be forwarded to the Registrar General with each application for membership. The payment of said fee shall include an engraved certificate of membership for each newly elected compatriot, to be furnished by the National Society.

SEC. 2. Each State Society shall pay annually to the Treasurer General, to defray the expense of the National Society, fifty cents for each member thereof, unless intermitted by the National Congress.

SEC. 3. Such dues shall be paid on or before the first day of April in each year for the ensuing year, in order to secure representation in the Congress of the National Society.

This resolution was adopted

It was moved by Judge Sumner that the Executive Committee propose the following amendment to the Constitution as an alternative to the amendment proposed above, as follows:

That Article VI of the Constitution of the National Society be amended to read as follows:

Each State society shall pay annually to the Treasurer General to defray the expense of the National Society, one dollar for each member thereof, unless intermitted by the National Congress.

Such dues shall be paid on or before the first day of April for the ensuing year, in order to secure representation in the Congress of the National Society.

(Italics indicate words changed or added.)

A letter was read from Vice-President General George Hale Nutting suggesting and recommending that a complete index of the membership of the National Society and ancestors be printed and distributed.

This resolution was adopted.

The President General appointed Vice-President General Nutting, Secretary General Steele and Genealogist General Watkins as this committee.

Upon motion, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the Chair.

(Italics indicate amendments added, and brackets, words omitted.)

Such amendment will be presented at the meeting of the Congress of the National Society at Springfield, May 15-16, 1922.

PURPOSES AND OBJECTS OF THE S. A. R.

(Extracts from Constitution)

The purposes and objects of this Society are declared to be patriotic, historical, and educational, and shall include those intended or designed to perpetuate the memory of the men who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics, and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war and of the Revolutionary period; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and to carry out the purposes expressed in the preamble of the Constitution of our country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

Qualifications for Membership

Any man shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unflinching in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence, or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence, or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature, or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

Fees and dues are regulated by the State Societies.

Application for membership is made on standard blanks furnished by the State Societies. These blanks call for the place and date of birth and of death of the Revolutionary ancestor and the year of birth, of marriage, and of death of ancestors in intervening generations. Membership is based on one original claim; additional claims are filed on supplemental papers. The applications and supplementals are made in duplicate.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Major Washington Irving Lincoln Adams, of New Jersey, Director General of the National Society, made the Washington's Birthday address, on "Washington," at the Westinghouse Radio Station in Newark, speaking to an audience from two to three hundred thousand, it is estimated.

The fact that Major Adams bears the name of Washington and was also born on February 22 gave a personal significance to his selection as the orator on this occasion. He was perfectly heard as far south as Texas, as far north as New Brunswick, and west to the Mississippi.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have caused to be introduced in Congress a bill to make Yorktown, Va., a military park. The importance of the events which took place at Yorktown in 1781 is obvious to all compatriots. It is remarkable that the site of these events has remained in private ownership all of these years. Notwithstanding this fact, the breastworks which were stormed by the armies of Washington and Rochambeau are still very largely intact. The acquisition of the land and its preservation as a patriotic shrine will involve the expenditure of a comparatively small amount of money. The purpose is in every respect praiseworthy and in line with the objects for which our Society is organized. Each compatriot is requested to write to his representatives in both branches of Congress, requesting their support for this bill. The bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Frank Kellogg and in the House by Representative Walter R. Newton.

Haller McManis

President General.

Compatriot Admiral George W. Baird, of the District of Columbia Society, has been appointed by President Harding a member of the Perry Monument Commission, which holds its annual meeting at Put-in-Bay in August.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
November 29, 1921.

To the Secretary National Society, Sons of the American Revolution:

Acknowledgment is made of the tribute placed by you on the bier of the unknown American soldier who lost his life during the World War and whose burial took place November 11, 1921.

The War Department is deeply grateful for this evidence of sympathetic reverence to the spirit of those who made the supreme sacrifice for a great ideal.

Very respectfully,

(Signed)

P. C. HARRIS,
The Adjutant General.

The new Service Bars to be worn with the Insignia are now available. The illustration below will give an idea of its appearance on the ribbon.

These may be had in silver gilt at $1.50, or in solid gold at $2.65. Compatriots should apply for these directly to the Secretary General, with a copy of service discharge or commission. A permit to purchase the Bar will upon receipt of such proof of service be issued.

Compatriot Cornelius F. Posson, of Indiana, chairman of the Indiana Society's Committee on Patriots' Markers, writes: "I was much pleased to note in the October BULLETIN, under Indiana Society notes, the mention of the activity in which our Indiana Society is engaged. As a result of this bit of publicity quite a little correspondence has come to me from other States, from men who were formerly Indianians, affording me information concerning the location of some Revolutionary graves. I have been able definitely to locate three graves directly as a result of that article." The article in the December BULLETIN by Compatriot Posson gave the story of the finding of one of these graves. Publicity helps!

MOUNT VERNON

By W. L. CURRY, OF THE OHIO SOCIETY

O ripple of Potomac's stream, break gently where the tread
Of thousands press the hallowed sod about our greatest dead;
Mount Vernon, freedom's dearest shrine, guard well thy sacred trust,
Locked in thy royal heart of hearts, we keep the patriot's dust.

I see him glide among the huts that dot a cheerless gorge,
The Joshua of a struggling band, the man of Valley Forge;
Where'er he goes his smile illumines the shades that thickly lie,
And all who hear his words resolve with him "to do or die."

The pilgrim comes from lands enslaved beyond the restless sea,
To meditate where sleeps the man who taught men to be free;
The glitter of the blade he drew makes bright the world today,
And hands unborn will crown its hilt with laurel and with bay.

He needs no granite shaft to tell of glorious actions done;
His monument the fairest land that lies beneath the sun;
Tonight with swelling pride we seek the banquet board once more
And drink to him whose fame goes far beyond Virginia's shore.

Thus back to Washington tonight our thoughts like eagles fly;
'Twas he that gave our flag the stars that shine in Glory's sky;
Wrapped in his cloak, he calmly sleeps upon Mount Vernon's breast,
Of liberty's immortal sons the greatest and the best.

WASHINGTON, THE GENTLEMAN

A BRIEF OUTLINE OF THE ADDRESS GIVEN BY THE PRESIDENT GENERAL BEFORE
MANY OF THE STATE SOCIETIES ON HIS RECENT TRIP

Washington was so many-sided that it is not possible to do justice on any one occasion to his life, work, and character. It is a good plan to emphasize some one thought on each occasion when we meet to do him honor. I suggest as a suitable theme for consideration by our Society this year, on his birthday, "George Washington, the Gentleman."

He was well born. He came of a long line of high-spirited, self-respecting men and women. He had the affiliations of a gentleman; his friendships were with such men as Philip Schuyler, Anthony Wayne, Alexander Hamilton, Gouverneur Morris, Henry Lee, and Lafayette. He had the dignity and the delicacy of feeling of a gentleman. He was modest, thoughtful of the feelings of others, kindly, courteous, and self-effacing.

Washington was the soul of honor; scrupulous, punctual, and exact in the fulfillment of his obligations, pecuniary and otherwise. He was generous and mindful at all times of the debt owing by a man of means to the community. He was chivalric in his treatment of women.

Washington had the presence of a gentleman. He enjoyed the comradeships of a gentleman. As a friend, he was staunch, loyal, helpful, and dependable. His devotion to his comrades in arms was one of the marked characteristics of his later life.

As a public man, he was respectful to those who differed with him. He was always mindful of the ethics of controversy. On all occasions he was tactful and mindful of the little things which mark the well-bred.

Washington lived the life of a gentleman. His tastes and pleasures were those of a gentleman. He was unfailing in his hospitality. He was a hero even to his private secretary.

We have felt a pride that the commander under whom our forefathers fought was the purest of all patriots, the noblest of military chieftains, and the master builder of the American Commonwealth. Let us be mindful that he was also the first gentleman of his time.

THE INSPIRATION OF NEW JERSEY

When any of our State Societies or any of our Chapters achieve some success or accomplish a particular object, it is the policy of the officers of the Society and the Editors of the BULLETIN to feature this achievement in a fitting manner and give to this Society or Chapter all the credit that is due to it.

To show how one Society or Chapter has accomplished its endeavor should be an inspiration to all of our other bodies and help them to go forward to similar ends. We are one big, splendid, patriotic organization, working for the betterment of our country and its citizenship, and the utmost harmony should prevail among our several State Societies and Chapters. There should be no jealousies and no recrimination and the esprit de corps of the whole Society should be of the highest and noblest.

Therefore, when we look at the results that have been accomplished by New Jersey and her remarkable body of men, who have worked together during this past year so successfully, it is only fair to give that progressive State full credit for its achievements.

Starting this year with encouragement because of the success of the year previous, this State has gone forward with renewed vigor, and today New Jersey, if not actually at the head of the list of States in numbers, is so near that pinnacle that it may take the official count at the annual Congress to determine if she has not reached this much-desired place.

The details of what has been accomplished would take more space than can be given in this number of the BULLETIN, but some of the outstanding results may be named: Two splendid new Chapters, Westfield and Paterson, have been chartered. These Chapters, having a large membership to start with, are going ahead with the others of the State with every prospect of further increase. Probably the achievement which best demonstrates the energy and progressiveness of the State is the purchase of a building in Newark for the headquarters of the State Society. Having been almost literally thrown out in the streets by the encroachment of a railroad, the resourceful compatriots of New Jersey were not daunted, and by good luck were able to purchase a building in the down-town section of Newark and now are fully established and running their business from 33 Lombardy Street. This alone is a great accomplishment. The activities during the year of the State and the many Chapters have been the best in the history of the Society, and the results in increased membership have shown this.

How has all this been done? First and foremost, by the hard, persistent, and determined personal work of the officers and members of the State Society and its several Chapters, who have given liberally of their time. As has been said before, the general rule in any Society like ours is to leave the work or running of the organization to a few men, and the rest simply do not function. In New Jersey, though the burden of the detail of this work has fallen upon the most efficient, untiring, and energetic Secretary of that Society, men deeply interested in the growth and welfare of the work of our organization have put their shoulders to the wheel and have succeeded in putting this State in the enviable position in which she stands today.

That there is no jealousy over what New Jersey has done, and that only the best of spirit exists with her sister State across the Hudson, was shown while the President General was the guest of both of these Societies, on his recent visit to the East. At all the meetings held compatriots from both States were present, and the interchange of kindly greetings and sincere congratulations were heard on all sides. It was a remarkable illustration of the spirit of our organization, and if our Societies in other parts of the country will adopt this same splendid spirit our great organization will hold its splendid place as one of the most powerful organizations for good American citizenship which our dear country maintains. Let us take New Jersey's example to our hearts and let her inspire us to similar effort and endeavor!

THE PRESIDENT GENERAL'S TRIP

On the 2d of February the President General left Portland on a trip of visitation to the different State Societies. On the 5th of February he met with the California Society at the Commercial Club, in San Francisco, and called the attention of the membership to the fact that a highly objectionable school history is in general use in the public schools of California. Assurances were given that the California Society would give this matter its immediate attention.

On the 9th of February he visited the Louisiana Society, lunching with the board of managers and dining with the membership generally. The Louisiana Society was found to be live, active, and aggressive. Under the leadership of Col. C. Robert Churchill, it is measuring up to all its responsibilities. The only regret is that the compatriots in this Society are not better known to our membership in other States.

On the 11th of February the President General was in Chicago, speaking at a dinner given in honor of Gen. John J. Pershing and in commemoration of Lincoln's Birthday. The Illinois Society is also active, aggressive, and ably led.

On the 13th of February the President General visited the Anthony Wayne Chapter of the Ohio Society, at Toledo. The annual meeting of the Chapter was held on this date and Hon. O. S. Brumback was elected President for the ensuing year. He presided at an exceedingly interesting dinner.

February 15th was Ladies' Day night in the District of Columbia Society and Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge dignified the occasion by their presence. The President General was greatly favored in being able to meet the compatriots at Washington on this occasion. While in Washington he called at Continental Hall, but was unable to see Mrs. Minor, President General of the Daughters of the American Revolution, because of her absence on a trip in the West. He did confer with Vice-President General Larner and with Registrar General Parks.

On the evening of February 16 the President General met with the Maryland Society at a dinner given at the Maryland Club, in Baltimore. The hospitality of Baltimore is well known, and this occasion measured up to the reputation of the city.

On the 17th of February the President General entertained the Executive Committee and Past Presidents General at luncheon at the Union League Club, in New York City, and after luncheon a meeting of the Executive Committee was held.

On the 18th of February Director General W. I. Lincoln Adams and a number of the officers and members of the New Jersey Society escorted the President General to Washington's Headquarters at Morristown. After an hour spent in this most interesting shrine, the party went to Newark, where a dinner of the New Jersey Society was held in the evening.

On the afternoon of Sunday, February 19, the President General spoke in the First Congregational Church at Montclair. The service was largely attended, not only by our own membership, but by representatives of the Daughters of the American Revolution and many other organizations. The meeting was interesting and inspiring.

On the 20th of February the President General appeared before Commissioner Hirshfield, in the Municipal Building, at New York City, and made known the interest of this Society in the matter of school text-books on American history. Disclaiming any desire to punish the present generation of Englishmen for the sins of George III, he insisted that the story of the American Revolution should be told in our school histories with emphasis on the righteousness of our forefathers' cause and with colorful portrayal of the sacrifices and achievements by which our liberties were won. The municipal authorities of New York City have directed an inquiry into the matter of text-books on American history, and Commissioner Hirshfield has the hearing in hand. It is believed that the public attention which has been focused on the subject will result in great good.

On the evening of February 20 the President General dined with the Connecticut Society at Hartford. There was an excellent attendance, and the Connecticut Society was found to be active and deeply interested in the perpetuation of the memories of the great men of Revolutionary times.

On the 21st of February the President General returned to New York City and spoke on the evening of that day at a dinner of the New York Chapter given at the Army and Navy Club. He amplified his views on the school-book question as above outlined.

On the 22d of February the President General was in Boston and had the privilege of attending the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Society. The meeting was in all respects in harmony with the best traditions of this important branch of our organization.

On the 25th of February the President General completed his tour by attending a dinner at Louisville, Ky., given jointly in honor of Washington and George Rogers Clark. The Kentucky Society was found to be flourishing, well led, and alive to its opportunities.

Every Society and Chapter visited was found to be composed of gentlemen and of genuine Americans. The trip was one of great privilege, and acknowledgment is made of the courtesy and hospitality which were everywhere extended.

REPORT OF GENEALOGIST GENERAL AT BUFFALO CONGRESS, MAY 16, 1921

The Genealogist General has received several requests for information on genealogical questions and service records, and among other matters of interest had the pleasure of preparing the papers of Vice-President Calvin Coolidge.

Correspondence has shown the need of a more complete form of application paper, a blank with spaces for localities as well as dates. These are necessary for more ready verification of the data filed. A locality serves to identify an individual in the period previous to the middle of the last century, when the majority of names had no middle initial.

Another advantage could be obtained to future applicants by the compilation of abstracts of the war service of Revolutionary pensions and its publication by the Federal Government.

I would be glad to present, as a supplement of this report, a compilation of the printed works giving the lists of Revolutionary soldiers, issued by the original States of the Union. In this I refer to the omission by the majority of the printed lists of pensioners given in three volumes (Vols. XII, XIII, XIV) of the report of Secretary of War Lewis Cass, in 1834, on the Pension List.

WALTER K. WATKINS,
Genealogist General.

REPORT OF THE HISTORIAN GENERAL AT BUFFALO CONGRESS, MAY 16, 1921

HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BUFFALO

Buffalo, the "City of Homes," lies on the outlet of Lake Erie, at the head of the Niagara River and on Buffalo Creek, which constitutes its harbor. It was formerly occupied by the Eries, a most powerful and warlike tribe of Indians, who resided on the south side of the great lake which bears their name.

In 1655 the Eries were exterminated by the Iroquois, or Five Nations, a confederation formed between the Mohawks, Oneidas, Onondagas, Cayugas, and Senecas (of the Huron family), the most important tribes in New York State. Later the Tuscaroras migrated from North Carolina, joining the Union for their own protection, which thus came to be known as the Six Nations.

The occupation of this locality by the Senecas, the most powerful of the Six Nations, followed these events, and from the fact that large herds of buffalo formerly visited the salt lick or spring on the banks of the creek in this vicinity, they called it Buffalo Creek, from which Buffalo takes its name. History records that Buffalo Creek was the name by which this locality was known as early as 1784, as it is used in the treaty made with the Six Nations at Fort Stanwix in that year.

In a letter of General Irvine (who commanded the Western Department from 1781 to 1783) to General George Washington, in 1788, this place is spoken of as Buffalo.

In 1792 a Mr. Winney is said to have been the first white man to reside in Buffalo. He was an Indian trader, his house being well stocked with rum, whiskey, Indian knives, and trinkets peculiar to the times. John Palmer was the first innkeeper, building his house there in 1794, and remained in Buffalo until 1802, as it appears from the public records that a road led "from Batavia to the mouth of Buffalo Creek, near John Palmer's house," at that time.

Buffalo was originally laid out by the Holland Land Co. in 1801 and was entirely burned by the British in 1813, with the exception of two buildings; but the commencement of the rapid growth and great importance of the "City of Homes" may be dated from the opening of the Erie Canal, in 1825. The head of the Erie Canal, which connects Lake Erie with the Hudson River and ocean traffic, is at Buffalo, and the immense concentration of railroad lines is drawn here largely by the Lake traffic.

Buffalo stands in the full glow of the electrical sunrise, the reservoir of this marvelous force being Niagara Falls, at Buffalo's very door, and the time will come when at the foot of Lake Erie and along the shores of the Niagara River will flourish a city of such large proportions that it will rank among the greatest in the world.

BURNING OF THE "GASPEE"

One of the most famous and decisive acts which marked the prelude of the Revolutionary War was the burning of His Majesty's armed schooner Gaspee, of eight guns, as she lay aground at Namquit Point (now Gaspee Point), which runs off from the farm of the late Governor John Brown Frances on Narragansett Bay, one mile below Pawtuxet and six miles south of Providence, Rhode Island.

The first appearance of the Gaspee in the waters of the bay was in March, 1772, being dispatched here by the commissioners of customs to prevent breaches of the revenue laws. The Gaspee had become exceedingly obnoxious by the indiscreet zeal with which its commander, Lieutenant William Duddingston, strove to enforce the revenue laws. He had seized twelve hogsheads of rum, a quantity of sugar, the property of Jacob Green & Co., of Warwick, sending it all to Boston for condemnation, instead of libelling it at the vice-admiralty court of the colony at Newport. This was directly contrary to the law.

Duddingston had made it a practice to stop and board all vessels entering or leaving the ports of Rhode Island or leaving Newport for Providence, a course which created much annoyance and irritation to the whole population, as it was at a time when commercial intercourse between the different parts of the colony was very largely carried on by small craft upon the waters of Narragansett Bay.

On the 9th of June, 1772, Captain Benjamin Lindsey, of the sloop Hannah, left Newport for Providence, and soon after the Gaspee was underway in pursuit, continuing the chase as far as Namquit Point.

Lindsey was well acquainted with the waters of the bay and hove about at the end of the point, standing to the westward. Though Duddingston changed his course, it was too late, for his vessel, being of a greater draft, grounded. Lindsey continued his way to Providence, and upon his arrival informed Mr. John Brown, one of the leading merchants, of the Gaspee's situation.

Soon after sunset Daniel Pearce passed along Main Street, beating his drum, informing the inhabitants, and at midnight eight of the largest long-boats, with muffled oars, embarked from Fenner's wharf, directly opposite the dwelling of James Sabins, on South Main Street, who kept a house of board and entertainment for gentlemen, being the same house purchased a few years after by the late Welcome Arnold. The party proceeded down the bay, and between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock, on the morning of June 10, 1772, the Gaspee was boarded and captured before resistance could be made.

Lieutenant Duddingston was wounded, his being the first Tory blood shed in connection with the Revolutionary War. The officers and crew were ordered to collect their clothing, etc., after which all were removed and the vessel set on fire, which consumed her to the water's edge. Duddingston was landed at the old Still House wharf at Pawtuxet and placed in the house of Joseph Rhodes, on Still House Lane (now Ocean Street), where his wounds were dressed by Dr. John Mawney.

The bold enterprise excited much interest and the news made a tremendous stir, both in the Colonies and in Great Britain. A court of inquiry was instituted, and it was proposed to send the offenders to England for trial, if they could be caught; but, like the Boston Tea Party, a year later (1773), the secret was closely kept until it was too late to punish the offenders.

The sword had been drawn, and undoubtedly this tended to hasten the separation of the Colonies from the mother country and bring on the storm that was soon to break forth in fury over the land.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE CARPENTER ARNOLD,
Historian General.

SUPPLEMENTARY TO THE REPORT ON OBSERVANCE OF CONSTITUTION DAY IN DECEMBER, 1921, "BULLETIN"

Some time prior to September 17 the Secretaries of all the Chapters in the State were requested to take steps to secure the observance of Constitution Day in their respective localities by their own Societies and by other organizations and public boards, and that they report as to what recognition was paid to the day.

Mr. E. R. Whitney, Superintendent of Public Instruction of the City of Schenectady, reported that the day was observed in the public schools of Schenectady on Friday, the 16th of September, and in his letter stated that his department found it a very valuable means of Americanization, especially with a large foreign-born population.

Frank B. Steele, Secretary General, reported that the Mayor of Buffalo issued a special proclamation for the observance of the day, and that the Superintendent of Schools of the City of Buffalo made a special request for its observance and recognition in the schools. He also reported that it was generally brought to the attention of the community, although no special celebration was had by the Buffalo Chapter.

Constitution Day was observed in Rochester by the welcoming of three hundred newly naturalized citizens by the Council for Better Citizenship of the Chamber of Commerce. This Council for Better Citizenship has done remarkable work in the city of Rochester during the past year. It has been financed through an appropriation from the Chamber of Commerce and also from private contributions, and about four times a year dinners are given to the newly naturalized citizens. The one this year was fixed on September 17 and special stress was laid upon the day upon which this function was held. A fine five-course dinner was served and the program was one which would inspire both the native and the foreign-born. The day was also observed in the public schools of Rochester and programs appropriate to the day were given in many of these schools.

It is a matter of regret that I cannot give you a detailed report from other cities, but I know that celebrations were held in many localities.

Very respectfully submitted,

HARVEY F. REMINGTON,
Empire State Society.

EVENTS OF STATE SOCIETIES

The Arizona Society held its 26th annual meeting on the morning of February 22, at which Lloyd B. Christy was elected President; Harold Baxter, Vice-President; Clarence P. Woodbury, Secretary; Kenneth Freeland, Treasurer; Evan S. Stallcup, Registrar; Rt. Rev. J. W. Atwood, Historian, and Rev. J. Rockwood Jenkins, Chaplain. A dinner in the evening followed, with retiring President H. B. Wilkinson presiding as toastmaster. The speakers of the evening were Harold Baxter and W. P. Sims. Presentation was made of the prizes won in an oratorical contest which was held at the high school the preceding evening. Floyd Holdren, of Chandler, was awarded a silver medal and twenty dollars in gold for his address on "America's Power to Keep the Peace of the World," and Gleeson Northcroff received a bronze medal and ten dollars in gold as second winner for his address on "America's Duty to Our Immigrants." The Society voted to continue the prize essay and oratorical contests in the high schools of the State for the ensuing year. The Society also voted to co-operate with the Arizona D. A. R. in raising funds for a memorial to the Oatman Family, Arizona pioneers.

The California Society had the privilege of being the first State Society to receive and entertain the President General, as he started out for his long tour of the States, early in February. Judge McCamant arrived in San Francisco on February 4, where the California Society held a luncheon and reception in his honor at the San Francisco Commercial Club, and were addressed by him. Members were privileged to bring guests. The State Society of California is about to award three prizes, of $25, $15, and $10 each, to high-school pupils of the State for the best essays on the following subject: "The Origin of the Ideas in the Declaration of Independence as Written by Jefferson." This is an annual offering of the California Society, the contest closing March 1. On February 22 the compatriots joined with the Daughters of the American Revolution in a George Washington memorial program at the San Francisco Museum of Art, in the Palace of Fine Arts.

SAN DIEGO CHAPTER, No. 2, of the California Society held an annual meeting at the San Diego Hotel on Tuesday evening, November 15. This was ladies' night and a large attendance resulted. The date marked the 144th anniversary of the adoption of the Articles of Confederation by Congress. The speaker of the evening was Brigadier General John McClellan, U. S. A., retired, who had as his topic "The Political Future of the Hawaiian Islands." The Chapter now has forty-one members, seven new members being presented at this meeting. War Service medals were presented to four members. The newly elected officers of the Chapter are Dr. Fred Baker, President; James C. Elms, Jr., and George W. Heston, Vice-Presidents; Allen H. Wright, Secretary; Franklin P. Reed, Treasurer; David W. Schick, Historian; Kenneth McKenzie, Registrar; Dr. W. Harmon Hall, Marshal; Rev. Alfred H. Haines, Chaplain.

The Connecticut State Society held its annual banquet February 22 at the Stratfield Hotel, Bridgeport, with President White, of the Connecticut Society, presiding as toastmaster. President White, after calling for a silent toast to

George Washington, addressed the members, making a special plea for more active interest and more members, and spoke of the traditions of Connecticut in the organization of the S. A. R., receiving its charter on January 13, 1889, and contributing three Presidents General to the National Society, the first one, Lucius P. Deming, recently deceased; the second, the late Gen. Edwin S. Greeley, and the third being Judge Morris B. Beardsley. Prof. Charles M. Bakewell, of Yale University, made a fine address on "America's Idealism," followed by an address by Rev. William Horace Day, who spoke optimistically of the "New Spirit of America."

THE DAVID HUMPHREYS BRANCH, of New Haven, has recently issued an interesting leaflet describing the interesting career of David Humphreys, "Soldier, Statesman, Poet, and Manufacturer," for whom the Branch is named, and also the lake recently created by the dam built by the Connecticut Light and Power Company across the Housatonic River, thus perpetuating the name of one of Connecticut's Revolutionary sires, who also did much for his community and his country, both at home and in diplomatic circles abroad.

COL. JEREMIAH WADSWORTH BRANCH, of Hartford, held its annual meeting on February 20 at the Hartford Club, having the President General as special honor guest for the occasion. President Herbert H. White, of the State Society, was also a guest and addressed the Society, taking some of the early colonial families of Connecticut as his theme, while the President General made a splendid address on George Washington. The President of the Hartford Branch, George S. Godard, presided and spoke of an interesting document, believed to be the first edition of the Declaration of Independence, prepared by a woman, Mary Catherine Godard. Copies of Col. Francis Parson's article on "The British Attack at Bunker Hill" were distributed, the booklet being published through the kind offices of Clarence Horace Wickham, National Trustee for Connecticut.

District of Columbia Society held a Ladies' Night reception and banquet on the occasion of the visit of President General McCamant to Washington, February 15. The Society also had as its special guests Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge, for whom a special reception committee was appointed. Following the formal reception a ceremony attending the presentation of two new flags, which included the formal salute, the repetition of "The America's Creed," and the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner," was held. Then, under the direction of President Selden M. Ely, new members were installed. An entertainment of music and esthetic dancing followed, after which refreshments and social dancing were indulged in.

On February 22 the eighth joint celebration of the Sons of the Revolution in the District of Columbia, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Sons of the American Revolution of the District of Columbia took place. This was a formal program of patriotic music and addresses, the principal speaker being Dr. Thomas Edward Green, of the American Red Cross. This was the occasion upon which a gold medal was awarded by these Societies jointly for an historical essay by a high-school pupil, Registrar General William S. Parks being the chairman of committee of judges for this award. The title of the prize essay was "The Expedition of George Rogers Clark," which was written by Karl G. Pearson, of the Eastern High School.

Illinois Society held, on February 11, in Chicago, the largest banquet in the history of the Society when its honor guests were General Pershing and President General McCamant. Past President General Elmer Wentworth was also a guest, and all three of these gentlemen delivered inspiring and splendid addresses on Lincoln. General Pershing greeted personally 352 guests. On Sunday, February 12, President General McCamant spoke at the Fourth Presbyterian Church. The Illinois Society has presented six victrolas to the Hines Hospital, where the wounded soldiers will much enjoy and appreciate them. One thousand copies of the "American's Creed" book have been presented to the Chicago schools, and this action has been highly commended by Superintendent Mortison.

SPRINGFIELD CHAPTER held a celebration in honor of Washington's Birthday, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, with a banquet, at which the President, Mr. Charles S. Andrus, presided as toastmaster. The speakers were Hon. Len Small, Governor of Illinois, and Hon. Oliver H. Shoup, Governor of Colorado. The feature of the evening was the presentation of eleven War Service medals, ten of these being for World War service and one for Spanish-American War service. The recipients of the medals were Compatriots Ben B. Boynton, Frank L. Hatch, Henry R. Helmle, Philo B. Kane, William J. Leaverton, David Lockie, Charles P. Power, John G. Ruckel, Earl B. Searcy, John M. Tipton, and Herman H. Tuttle. The presentation was made by Mrs. James B. Searcy, of the Springfield Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, whose three sons and son-in-law were in the World War. The Springfield Chapter has started active efforts for 100 new members.

The Indiana Society.—The board of managers of the Indiana Society of the Sons of the American Revolution accepted the invitation of John Morton Chapter to hold the 1922 annual meeting in Terre Haute, Saturday and Sunday, February 25 and 26. The annual business meeting was held Saturday afternoon and the banquet Saturday evening. The Sunday program included a motor-car pilgrimage to the grave of Patriot William Ray, near Riley, Ind., where the official marker was erected.

Members were to plan their trip so as to arrive in Terre Haute as early Saturday as possible, to meet some of the more than fifty new members who have registered in the Society this year and to see at first hand some of the big work Compatriot Posson has been doing in locating the graves of soldiers of the War of Independence.

JOHN MORTON CHAPTER planned some special entertainment. One session was held in the recently restored Memorial Hall, now used by all patriotic societies. This building housed the first chartered bank in Indiana and is opposite the court-house, where hangs the great bell, made possible through the bequest of Colonel Francis Vigo to the county which bears his name.

The program also provided for a visit to the new Indiana Theater, the most beautiful show-house in the country, and in which Compatriot Raymond Townsley, World War band leader, directs a great orchestra of selected musicians.

The Society adopted a permanent bronze marker to place on graves of Revolutionary soldiers, and directed that the setting of each marker be attended by appropriate ceremonies. It pledged its co-operation to the State Board of Education in developing the study of Indiana history in the schools of the State—a work which has been persistently urged by the committee of the S. A. R. since 1908 and which is now definitely assured. Resolutions were adopted expressing the appreciation of the achievements of the Indiana History Committee; indorsing the adjusted compensation advocated by the American Legion for soldiers of the World War; urging continued activities in the work of marking historic places in Indiana; appealing to the State to make a permanent memorial of the site of Fort Sackville, Vincennes; and thanking the Knights of Columbus for perpetuating the name of the patriot-priest Father Pierre Gibault in establishing its State home for dependent boys in Vigo County. Charles T. Jewett, Trustee for Indiana, read a message of greeting from the Hon. George A. Gordon, 101 years old, of Eureka, Kansas, the last surviving member of the Indiana Constitutional Convention of 1850. Mr. Gordon is a grandson of George Gordon, a soldier of the War for Independence, and the Society elected him to honorary membership and made him Honorary Vice-President for life. The meeting was in all respects considered the most successful in the thirty-three years of the Society's existence. Compatriot Cornelius F. Posson, of Brazil, is the newly elected president.

The Society mourns the loss by death this month of Compatriot Edward Gilbert, of Tampa, Florida, Honorary Vice-President of the John Morton Chapter, of Terre Haute. Mr. Gilbert was a brother of Compatriot Henry Curtis Gilbert and their father was the first postmaster of Terre Haute and the first clerk of the circuit court. Edward Gilbert moved to Florida several years ago to live with his daughters. In recognition of services he rendered to the Society as Secretary of the Fort Harrison Centennial Association, he was voted an Honorary Vice-President of the Chapter.

The Kansas Society held its annual dinner and business meeting on February 22, at the Elks Club, in Topeka. Addresses were made by Dr. Edmund J. Kulp, of the First Methodist Church, and Judge Henry F. Mason, of the Supreme Court, interspersed with a musical program. Amendments to the constitution and by-laws were adopted, permitting an increased number of vice-presidents, to be selected from various portions of the State. Much is hoped by this action toward an increase of interest and activity in the organization. Activities for the year will be centered upon securing for Kansas a bronze replica of the Houdon Statue of General George Washington. The Society has offered to co-operate with the State of Idaho in doing honor to the memory of a former Governor of Idaho, who recently died in poverty in Kansas. The Society will join this year as previously, with the local D. A. R. in providing instructive entertainment to newly naturalized citizens periodically through the year, a service greatly enjoyed and appreciated both by those for whom it is arranged and by the officials in charge of naturalization.

Maryland Society.—This Society deeply mourns the sudden and tragic death, on March 20, of its honored President, Osborne I. Yellott. Mr. Yellott was killed in an automobile accident, and details are not at hand at this writing. The sympathy of the National Society is extended to the Maryland Society in this shocking event.

Massachusetts Society celebrated Washington's Birthday in a noteworthy manner, having as its guest of honor the President General, Judge Wallace

McCamant. The exercises were held at the Hotel Victoria, and were opened with an informal reception at 11 o'clock, followed by luncheon. The receiving committee was composed of the President of the Massachusetts Society, George Hale Nutting, assisted by Past Presidents of the Society, General Francis Henry Appleton, Nathan Warren, Edwin S. Crandon, Luther Atwood, Vernon A. Field, Charles French Read, and Henry Fuller Punderson. Vice-President Burton H. Wiggin was chairman of the committee of arrangements. The President General addressed the compatriots on "George Washington the Gentleman," an extract of which address is given elsewhere in this issue of the BULLETIN. After the addresses the ceremony of presentation of World War Service Medals took place. Four Medals were awarded to members of the Society who had given World War service.

GEORGE WASHINGTON CHAPTER, of Springfield, held its annual meeting at the Nyasset Club, and reported a membership of 237. A fine address by Representative C. L. Brier, of Boston, in which he outlined and demonstrated the foresight shown by George Washington, as evidenced by many of his utterances and policies. He instanced, among other points Washington's advocacy of the right of self-determinism, or the right of every group or of States to determine which way they should go, and his views on the problem of taxation. Washington's belief, that "our obligation with the rest of the world is that of consultation," was pointed out, and his stand with reference to the maintenance of a reasonably sized army and navy, although a well-known upholder of peace, were characterized as similar, if not identical, with the aims of the Washington Limitation of Armaments Conference. His attitude on the problem of immigration, too, believing in selected types of immigrants and an enlarged consular service in order to properly care for this important matter, were among the points of Washington's character and policies brought out by the speaker. A report of progress in the plans for the coming National Congress of the Sons of the American Revolution, to be held at Springfield in May, was made by the President, Mr. Charles F. Warner, the tentative program for which is to be found on another page of this BULLETIN.

Michigan Society.—WASHTENAW CHAPTER (Ann Arbor) held a meeting on Thursday evening, December 29, to which members were privileged to invite guests. President W. B. Hinsdale entertained the Chapter with an address, illustrated with lantern slides of pictures taken by himself last summer, showing Indian remains in Ohio and elsewhere.

KENT CHAPTER (Grand Rapids) held a meeting on January 10, at which an address was given by Compatriot John S. Lawrence on "The Constitution." At their meeting on February 7 Compatriot Mark Norris gave an address entitled "A Forgotten Revolutionary General."

DETROIT CHAPTER held a meeting on January 31, at the Hotel Statler, Detroit, at which the members of the Daughters of the American Revolution were invited guests. The principal guest and speaker was Superintendent Frank Cody, of the Detroit public schools, who spoke on "Patriotic Education." His account of the activities in the public schools in Detroit was illustrated by an exhibition of moving pictures showing the pupils at play and work. The progress made in musical instruction was evidenced by the playing of an orchestra of fifty-four pieces from the Cass Technical High School, of which Compatriot Benjamin

F. Comfort is the principal. President Carl F. Clark, of the Detroit Chapter, presided at this meeting. This Chapter held a unique historical meeting at the Detroit Public Library on February 23. Clarence M. Burton, past President of Michigan Society, was the first speaker and introduced William L. Jenks, of Port Huron, Historian of Michigan Society, Sons of the American Revolution, who read a most interesting paper on "William Hull, First Territorial Governor of Michigan." Mr. Jenks presented the career of Governor Hull in a more favorable light than commonly recalled and gave many hitherto-unpublished details of his life, and asserted that he had been punished during his court-martial for results due to the inefficiency of his superiors and the departments at Washington rather than for his own fault.

Miss Krum, librarian of the Burton Historical Collection, spoke of Mr. Burton's magnificent contribution to the people of Detroit, of the historical and genealogical collection acquired by him through years of effort, and described its invaluable worth. Those present were then taken into the adjoining rooms, where the Burton Historical Collection is beautifully housed.

Mr. Burton pointed out particular priceless treasures of early manuscripts and Indian deeds, maps, and diaries, and related how possession of these had been obtained, and their destruction prevented.

Secretary Raymond E. Van Syckle announced that the new Year Book of the Chapter disclosed that 30 per cent of the membership of Detroit Chapter served in the Army and Navy of the United States during the late war. Of the 378 members enrolled, 117 received Service Medals from the Chapter in recognition of their services in the war.

Anthony Wayne Chapter held its annual meeting for the election of officers February 13, at the Toledo Club, with Hon. Wallace McCamant, President General, as guest of honor and speaker of the evening. His address on the life and character of Lincoln was scholarly and eloquent. Another guest was Dr. Martin, of Grand Rapids, who while a young man occupied desk room in Lincoln's Springfield office. Still another guest was Rev. Robert Lincoln Long, of Toledo, pastor of Collingwood Avenue Presbyterian Church, born in Kentucky and named after the son of the great emancipator. A committee was appointed for marking historic sites in northwestern Ohio and another committee on American history in the public schools of Ohio.

The Minnesota Society has made a notable advance by issuing for the first time a charter to a local Chapter, namely, Minneapolis Chapter, No. 1. The Chapter was organized on December 14, 1921, due to the energy of Mr. Charles E. Rittenhouse, then President of the State Society, who at that time delivered the charter to Dr. Douglas P. Wood, the President of the Minneapolis Chapter, and fifteen members, who had originally petitioned for the same, and the charter roll has now been signed by about fifty-four, and will be held open until the next meeting, to be held on Lexington Day, April 19, thus affording an opportunity to others to come in as charter members. A great deal of interest has been aroused by this organization, and there is every evidence that the State Society will be built up locally through this action. The membership is limited to Hennepin County, in which Minneapolis is situated. The new President of the Minnesota State Society, Kenneth G. Brill, at a meeting on Washington's Birthday, emphasized the importance of this movement in the annals of the State Society. Upon this occasion Dr. Wood offered a prize of $50, to be divided among the junior high and upper grades of the schools of Minneapolis, for the best four essays on the Battle of Lexington and Concord.

The Montana Society held its twenty-eighth annual meeting on Wednesday evening, February 22, in the Y. M. C. A. banquet room. President Marcus Whritenour presided over the business session, using an historical cherry-wood gavel. Five new members were admitted to the Society and applications from nine others were announced. A report from the special committee having charge of a State-wide prize essay contest for pupils of high schools was made by Mr. Charles L. Clark, chairman, and the winning four, two girls and two boys, will receive the S. A. R. medals shortly. Officers for the ensuing year were elected, as follows: President, Paris B. Bartley; Vice-President, Lyman H. Bennett; Secretary-Treasurer, Leslie Sulgrove; Registrar, Willis Jones Egles-ton; Historian, Marcus Whritenour; Chaplain, William R. Burroughs; Librarian, Ranney Y. Lyman. Addresses were made by the retiring President, Mr. Whritenour and the newly elected officers, and later a reception, arranged by the Oro Fino Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, took place, with an enjoyable program of music and dancing.

The New Jersey Society.—Threefold ceremonies under the auspices of the New Jersey Society, Sons of the American Revolution, marked the observance of Washington's Birthday, and which covered a period of four days. Beginning with Saturday, February 18, when Judge Wallace McCamant, President General, was the guest of the New Jersey Society, the final number on the program occurred at noon on the natal of the Father of His Country.

First of all the functions was a luncheon given in honor of the President General by Major Washington Irving Lincoln Adams, Director General and Past President of the State Society, the others present being Frank B. Steele, Secretary General; Rev. Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen, Chaplain General and President of the New Jersey Society; Louis Annin Ames, Past President General; David L. Pierson, Past Historian General and Secretary of the New Jersey Society; Past Vice-President General Thomas W. Williams; Harry F. Brewer, Vice-President New Jersey Society; Carl M. Vail, Past President of the New Jersey Society; Judge Adrian Lyon, and Elvord G. Chamberlin, President of the Montclair Chapter. A number of toasts were proposed, and after the very delightful affair Judge McCamant and Secretary General Steele were escorted to the Ford Mansion at Morristown, where Washington made his headquarters in 1779-1780. After an inspection of the large number of colonial relics gathered there, including the original commission issued to Washington by the Continental Congress as the Commander-in-Chief, the party returned to Newark and to the Robert Treat Hotel, where a banquet was tendered the President General by the New Jersey Society, at 7.30 in the evening.

Major Adams, who presided, announced Sylvester H. M. Agens, President of the Newark Chapter, as the toastmaster. Tribute to the State of New Jersey for its heroic part in the War for American Independence was paid by the President General in the only speech delivered, after the one of welcome by the toastmaster. Toasts were drunk to the President of the United States, the Army, the Navy, and the Sons of the American Revolution. The benediction was offered by Rev. Dr. Allen, Chaplain General.

Then the party adjourned to the headquarters of the New Jersey Society, at 33 Lombardy Street, Newark, which was then given its official housewarming. The building, of brownstone, three stories in height, was occupied on October 27, 1921, the anniversary of Roosevelt's birthday, and in less than two months, the purchase price amounting to many thousands of dollars, was paid, and the property is now held free and clear by the Sons of the American Revolution Realty Company. There was no speechmaking at the headquarters, the reception committee of the house committee being Chester N. Jones, chairman; William J. Conkling, and Russell B. Rankin.

On Sunday afternoon the Montclair Chapter held its annual service, in memory of Washington's Birthday, at the First Congregational Church, on Fullerton Avenue, in that city. The handsome church, nearly filled, has a seating capacity of 1,200. President General McCamant was the speaker of the afternoon, and thrilled the large congregation with an illuminating address on the life and character of the First American. The procession as it entered the church from the chapel was one of the most inspirational scenes connected with the New Jersey Society, in its nearly third of a century of existence. Nearly every Chapter, of which there are twelve, carried its colors, and other societies also were well represented. "Onward Christian Soldiers" was the processional hymn, following which came the invocation offered by President General Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen; the pledge to the Flag by President Elvord G. Chamberlin, of the Montclair Chapter; the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, and an address of welcome by President Chamberlin. Prayer was offered by Rev. Frederick P. Young. Rev. Dr. Allen introduced the President General, as the President of the New Jersey Society, and Major Adams, in behalf of Montclair Chapter.

Another event in the series of celebrations of Washington's Birthday remembrances was the presentation of a charter to the Captain Abraham Godwin Chapter, at Paterson, on Tuesday night, February 21. The Chapter was instituted on October 22, with eighty members. Compatriot Albert Lincoln Wyman, President, and who presided, presented the national colors and Compatriot Peter Quackenbush the S. A. R. colors to the Chapter. Rev. Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen, President, made the address of presenting the charter and then called upon David L. Pierson, Secretary, to make the formal presentation as the one who had suggested and assisted in perfecting the organization. Congressman Walter M. Chandler, of New York, delivered a glowing address on "The Republic of the Fathers." The G. A. R. and the D. A. R. were largely represented in the meeting.

Compatriots of the New Jersey Society gathered at the headquarters in the forenoon of Washington's Birthday, and at 11 o'clock held informal exercises in remembrance of the day. Sylvester H. M. Agens, chairman of the committee of arrangements, made an address of welcome; the invocation was offered by Rev. M. S. Waters, Historian of the State Society, and an address on "Individual Responsibility" was delivered by David L. Pierson, Secretary. Chester N. Jones, master of ceremonies, then formed a procession, led by the chairman and State Secretary, which proceeded to the Washington statue, in Washington Park, and just at 12 noon a large wreath of calix and other leaves, surmounted with the national and S. A. R. colors, was placed thereon by Robert Osborne Washington, eight years old, a direct descendant of the family of which Washington was a member. Returning to headquarters, a picture of the building and of the colors and official party was taken.

PASSAIC VALLEY CHAPTER held a very interesting meeting at the Summit Y. M. C. A. on Friday, February 24. The speaker of the evening was John Lenord Merrill, Past President of the State Society and twice President of Orange Chapter, now occupying the office.

THE SECOND RIVER CHAPTER has elected new officers as follows: John N. Klein, President; Edward C. Axtell, Vice-President; Henry L. Denison, Secretary; Brewster H. Jones, Treasurer; Edwin R. Ackerman, Historian; W. W. Draper, Registrar; Chaplain, Rev. J. Garland Hamner. The Chapter enjoyed a dinner on January 27, at the Second Reformed Church, Belleville, the speakers including Compatriots Rev. Dr. Frank A. Smith, of Elizabeth, and Chester N. Jones, Past President of the State Society.

NEWARK CHAPTER met at the headquarters on January 27 and listened to a very able address by Colonel James W. Howard, on "The Citizens' Duty." Russell B. Rankin is the Registrar of the Chapter, a recently created office. He has been instrumental in adding a number of compatriots to the roster.

Rev. Charles L. Reynolds, Chaplain of the Newark Chapter, was the speaker at the February meeting, held at the home of Colonel James W. Howard, on February 27. An address by Rev. Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen, Chaplain General and President of the New Jersey Society, was expected, but he was seized with an attack of laryngitis during the day and was unable to attend. President Sylvester H. M. Agens presided, and others who spoke were Chester N. Jones, Past President, and David L. Pierson, Secretary of the New Jersey Society. Russell B. Rankin, Registrar, reminded the Chapter that its tenth anniversary will occur on March 29 and it will be observed with a meeting at the State headquarters, as now planned.

ORANGE CHAPTER met at the headquarters on January 23, and, with the genial manners and resourcefulness of President Merrill, the meeting was, with the address on Americanization by Compatriot Harry F. Brewer, Jr., First Vice-President of the State Society, made very delightful.

Francis Edwin Elwell, member of the New Jersey Society, died suddenly at Noroton, Conn., on January 23, while waiting for a trolley car. He was descended from forebears who battled at Concord Bridge and he was a friend of Emerson, Thoreau, Louisa Alcott, and others of the intellectual group gathered at Concord in the period of half a century ago. Compatriot Elwell designed innumerable memorials, but of them all the one at Orange, in the old burying-ground, showing the Dispatch Rider in almost lifelike pose, is considered one of his best. His unusual ability to portray real life and give warmth and glow to bronze makes his work stand out pre-eminently as among the leaders of artistic merit. Mr. Elwell was also a member of Orange Chapter.

Compatriots Major Adams and Albert Lincoln Wyman have both delivered addresses over the radio, the Major on the night of Washington's Birthday, which is also his.

Empire State Society.—The State Society has been active and represented on many important occasions during 1922. It was represented by Compatriot Louis Annin Ames, Director General of the National Society, who spoke before the Montclair Chapter of the S. A. R. on the evening of February 7, at the New Jersey headquarters, Newark, N. J., and attended on Friday, February 17, at the Union League Club, New York, the meeting of the National Executive Board and a luncheon tendered the President General, at the Union League Club, on February 18; also a banquet tendered the President General by the New Jersey

Society at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, N. J.; also at the meetings of the Daughters of the Cincinnati and the Dames of the Loyal Legion.

NEW YORK CHAPTER.—Washington's Birthday observances of the New York Chapter were extensive and successful as usual this year and included the regular Chapter meeting on the eve of Washington's Birthday, Tuesday, February 21, 1922, at the Army and Navy Club. Preceding the meeting a dinner was served and largely attended. The Chapter had as its honored guest Hon. Wallace McCamant, Portland, Oregon, President General of the National Society, who spoke eloquently of the need of active and constructive work by the National Society and all its chapters and members. He spoke of the important need of Americanization work in our schools and gave quotations to prove that many teachers and even text-book histories needed the true Revolutionary Americanization spirit. Such work was pointed out as extremely appropriate and practical for those in the S. A. R. who sought activities of real benefit to the "men of tomorrow."

A patriotic mass meeting was largely attended by members of the S. A. R. at Carnegie Hall, Wednesday morning, February 22, 1922. The annual church service was held on Sunday afternoon, February 26, at the Church of the Divine Paternity, and an eloquent appeal for Americanization was made by Compatriot Joseph Fort Newton, D. D., Chaplain of the Chapter. The cadets of the New York State Nautical School were the escort of honor. The following patriotic societies were represented: Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the Revolution, Sons of the Revolution, Colonial Dames of America, Colonial Dames of State of New York, Patriotic Women of America, United States Daughters of 1812, Daughters of the Cincinnati, Society of Colonial Wars, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, Founders and Patriots of America, Society of American Wars, Saint Nicholas Society, Saint Andrews' Society, Canadian Society, Huguenot Society, National Security League, The Union Society of the Civil War, and Veterans of the World War.

ROCHESTER CHAPTER.—On December 18, 1921, the South Congregational Church of this city conducted a special Forefathers' Day patriotic service, in which the members of this Chapter participated. The pastor, Rev. Joseph B. Kettle, delivered an address upon "The Pilgrim Fathers." On January 20 the regular quarterly meeting of the Chapter was held in the D. A. R. Chapter House, at which the wives of the members, the officers of the Irondequoit Chapter, D. A. R., and many new or eligible members attended. Compatriot Charles Francis Adams, Past President of the Buffalo Chapter, S. A. R., gave a unique and delightful monologue, both in poetry and prose. A luncheon was served in the dining-room of the Chapter House, at which the President of the Empire State Society, Hon. Harvey F. Remington, and wife were present. At the Board of Managers' meeting in December a committee was appointed to co-operate with the Rochester Historical Society in erecting a tablet upon the site of the home of Col. Nathaniel Rochester, founder of the city. This committee includes compatriot Rochester H. Rogers, a descendant of Colonel Rochester. On Sunday evening, February 12, the Chapter members attended a special Abraham Lincoln service at the First Methodist Episcopal Church. On the 28th of February Judge McCamant, President General of the National Society, S. A. R., visited the Rochester Chapter and was entertained by the officers and many compatriots.

THE COL. CORNELIUS VAN DYCK CHAPTER.—This Chapter, in co-operation with the Schenectady Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Beukendael Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, had a very interesting meeting on March 7. Mr. Harry V. Bush, of Canajoharie, spoke on "The Mohawk Valley," which address was illustrated with stereopticon pictures of historical places in the valley. The speaker was introduced by E. R. Whitney, President of the Chapter.

PAINTED POST CHAPTER.—At the annual election of officers of the Painted Post Chapter the following were chosen: Hon. Alanson B. Houghton, newly appointed ambassador to Germany, President; E. Stuart Underhill, Jr., of Corning, Vice-President; John L. Chatfield, of Painted Post, Secretary; William J. Heermans, of Corning, Treasurer; Uri Mulford, of Corning, Historian; Arthur A. Houghton, of Corning, Dr. Byron Pierce, of Coopers Plains, and Hon. Delmar M. Darrin, of Addison, Board of Managers. The Chapter has had an active season.

GENESEE CHAPTER.—This Chapter is co-operating with Deo-on-go-wa Chapter, D. A. R., in a search for the graves of men who fought in the Revolution and who are buried in this county. Many have been located. When one is found, the man's service record is looked up in the rosters of the Revolutionary regiments and tabulated, along with all matters concerning his life. Regular meetings have been held the fourth Friday in each month, which have been well attended and at which important historical matters have been treated. The membership included compatriots in Batavia, Warsaw, Oakfield, Elba, Medina, and Alexander.

THE BUFFALO CHAPTER held a most interesting meeting on the evening of Saturday, February 11, at the Touraine Hotel. The occasion was a dinner, which was attended by about fifty members. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Frederick J. Libby, Executive Secretary of the National Council for the Limitation of Armaments. Mr. Libby gave a most illuminating and eloquent address on the workings of the Conference in Washington and made a plea for the influence of our members toward the early ratification of the treaties.

North Dakota.—This Society has been making very encouraging gains in membership this year, so that it dares to look with envy upon one of the Traveling Banners. Whether successful or not in securing either of these, North Dakota hopes to give other contestants cause to look carefully to their laurels in this important matter. A local Chapter has been organized at Grand Forks, the first one in this State to be authorized by the State Society. The organization meeting was held February 27, local members and ladies attending a dinner presided over by Past President Vernon P. Squires and addressed by Compatriot Prof. John Adams Taylor, of the State University, on "The Social and Economic Life of the Pilgrims." The charter of the new Chapter will be presented at the annual meeting and dinner of the State Society to be held in Grand Forks on Patriots' Day, April 19, at which time the new Chapter will entertain the State Society. The officers of the new Chapter elected at this organization meeting are: President, Vernon P. Squires; Vice-President, John Adams Taylor; Secretary-Registrar, George F. Rich; Treasurer, F. F. Burchard; Historian, A. H. Yoder, and Chaplain, Dr. S. Paige Jordan.

Ohio Society.—Members of Anthony Wayne Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution (Toledo), were delightfully entertained in the home of Compatriot A. M. Woolson, on Parkwood Avenue, Tuesday evening, November 22, 1921. The evening was arranged by Dudley Watson Moor, President of the local Chapter, and Walter J. Sherman, President of the Ohio Society, assisted by Compatriots George E. Pomeroy, O. S. Brumback, George Seney, Whitney, Gardiner, Nye, and Middleton. Prof. Josef Martin, who has lately come from New York to make Toledo his home, gave several splendid piano selections, and an impromptu talk by Dr. Allen A. Stockdale was also an interesting feature of the program.

The Oklahoma Society held its annual meeting on February 22, at which time new officers were elected, Mr. George L. Bowman, of Kingfisher, being the new President of the Society and Mr. Edward Ferris McKay, retiring President, assuming the office of Secretary. Features of the program were patriotic readings and music, including "A Letter of 1748" and the recently issued brochure on Fort McHenry. Mr. Barritt Galloway, the retiring Secretary, spoke on "Fort McHenry Today," having had ten months of service there during the World War. Resolutions were adopted petitioning Congress to make a permanent memorial of Fort McHenry. An address on "Washington" was given by Rev. E. D. Salkeld. Resolutions were adopted requesting the next Oklahoma Legislature to commemorate in some suitable way the centennial of the establishing of Fort Gibson and Fort Towson in Oklahoma, which anniversary occurs in 1924.

The Oregon Society held its annual meeting on February 22, at which the following officers were elected: President, B. B. Beekman; Vice-President, Winthrop Hammond; Secretary, B. A. Thaxter; Treasurer, A. A. Lindsley; Registrar, Alfred Parker; members of Board of Managers, Charles F. Beebe, B. E. Sanford, P. P. Dabney, and J. S. Cooper, Jr. A resolution was passed endorsing the movement to secure congressional action setting aside Fort McHenry as a national memorial park, and a special committee was appointed to confer with Oregon Senators and Representatives relative thereto. The action of the Board of Managers in electing Wallace McCamant President General and Dr. John H. Boyd, now deceased, honorary life members of the Oregon Society was unanimously ratified. The annual dinner on the evening of the same day was an exceptionally pleasant event and was enjoyed by a large number of members and guests. Dr. Richard F. Scholz, President of Reed College, delivered a very scholarly and forceful address upon the subject "Washington and the American Tradition"; Prof. Alfred E. Zimmern, formerly of Oxford University, more recently of the University of Wales, who attended the Washington Conference on Limitation of Arms as observer and is now engaged in lecturing in American colleges on international relations, spoke instructively on "The Present International Situation"; the closing address, given by Dr. William Hung, Professor of History in the University of Pekin, on "Washington's Influence on the Chinese," was very pleasing and informative. The three addresses furnished a most interesting review of Washington's service and far-reaching influence from American, British, and Chinese viewpoints.

The Pennsylvania Society held its annual meeting February 22, with election of officers in the afternoon, at the Chamber of Commerce, in Pittsburgh, and a banquet in the evening, at which addresses were heard by ex-Gov. Andrew J. Montague, of Virginia; Congressman A. W. Barkley, of Paducah, Ky.; Bishop Charles B. Mitchell, of Minnesota, and Dr. Dorsey C. Murphy, dean of Slippery Rock Normal School. The new President of the Pennsylvania Society is Mr. W. C. Lyne, of Pittsburgh, senior member in point of service of the State Board of Managers, and represents an old colonial Revolutionary family, distinguished for service in the English Parliament, the American Congress, the President's Cabinet, and during the Revolutionary period was represented on Washington's staff and the House of Virginia Burgesses, and also furnished, in William Lyne, the chairman of the famous Committee of Safety of King and Queen County, Virginia.

President Lyne has been active in the work of Americanizing foreign citizens, and during the war was on the Executive National Committee, of which Theodore Roosevelt was the advisory head. He also was a delegate to the Win-the-War Convention, held in Philadelphia, presided over by ex-President Taft, and served on the Executive Council of the Four Minute Men, organized by Woodrow Wilson, and was a member of the Intercollegiate Bureau, acting in an advisory relation with the Administration in Washington.

McKEESPORT CHAPTER, the newest chapter of the Pennsylvania Society, was formally organized on February 10 with a charter membership of twenty-five and about fifteen others pending. About fifty attended the organization meeting, at which the charter was presented by officers of the State Society. The charter is dated January 19, 1922. The first officers chosen were: President, A. E. Leffler; Vice-President, A. B. Holmes; Secretary, John A. Kelso; Treasurer, Gilbert F. Myer; Historian, J. C. Miller; Registrar, Marion M. Ginn; Chaplain, Rev. George R. Phillips. The formation of this new Chapter is largely due to the efforts and enthusiasm of the late Dr. J. P. Blackburn, former Vice-President of the Pennsylvania Society and resident of McKeesport.

The Pennsylvania Society deeply mourns the death, on January 22, of Dr. James Power Blackburn, of McKeesport. Dr. Blackburn was Vice-President of the Pennsylvania State Society and member of the Board of Managers. He was deeply beloved by all who knew him and highly respected and regarded among the members of the medical profession. He was always deeply interested in S. A. R. matters and was instrumental in organizing a Chapter at McKeesport, which held its initial meeting on February 10 with twenty-five charter members. Dr. Blackburn was a member of the American Medical Association and the Pennsylvania State and Allegheny County Medical Societies. He was instrumental in forming the McKeesport Academy of Medicine and served as its first President and was on the staff of the local hospital since its inception. He was chief surgeon for the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad and consulting surgeon for the Pittsburgh Railway Company. Dr. Blackburn was also interested in Masonic affairs, being actively associated with McKeesport Lodge, F. and A. M., Royal Arch Masons, Commandery, Knights Templar, and Mystic Shrine. He traced his lineage far back of his American Revolutionary ancestry, of which he was justly proud, to that of William the Conqueror. The Society at large joins with Pennsylvania in a sincere sense of loss in the death of Dr. Blackburn.

The Rhode Island Society annual meeting took place on February 22, the business session being held at noon in the rooms of the Rhode Island Historical Society and a banquet in the evening at the Turks Head Club. The new President of the Society is Mr. Herbert Ambrose Rice. The speaker at the banquet was the Hon. Alexander Monro Grier, K. C., of Toronto, Ontario, who made an eloquent and charming address.

The Tennessee Society.—One more than twice the number ever present prior to this year attended the meeting of the Tennessee Society in Nashville on the evening of February 22, when twenty-two new members took the obligation of the ritual. The Society was addressed, on "George Washington, the Gentleman," by Dr. Edwin Mims, of Vanderbilt University, who said: "It is always a very fine thing to renew the ideals of our country, and if we keep before us always these ideals, this same unselfishness, this same love of country that we were all lifted to four years ago, we have solved the problem of citizenship."

W. K. Boardman, F. W. Millspaugh, John C. Brown, J. Tyree Fain, and Capt. Douglas Henry were elected delegates to the Springfield Congress, with Edward West Foster, Robert C. Foster, Leland Hume, and L. E. Gates as alternates. Tennessee is planning to send a full delegation.

On February 25 the Society presented the patriotic play "America First" in the Ryman Auditorium, in Nashville, before an audience of several thousands. The curtain raiser was "A Colonial Tea Party," a tableau presented by the Colonial Dames, the D. A. R., and the Girls' Cotillion Club. The entire proceeds were given to the 114th Machine-Gun Battalion toward their fund for a marker in honor of the many Tennessee boys who gave up their lives in France in 1918.

On March 12 the Tennessee Society joined with the Colonial Dames in presenting Americanization films, which were seen with great interest by recently naturalized citizens and by those who have applied for naturalization. The series of films will be displayed in local theaters for five weeks by the patriotic organizations of the city.

Tennessee expects to announce to the National Congress the formation of four live chapters in the State.

The Tennessee Society expects to go before the 1922 Congress with an urgent invitation for the Congress of 1923 to be held in Nashville. The Society feels that a great and much-needed impetus will be given to the organization in Tennessee if this invitation be accepted, and that it would also be of benefit to the visiting delegates in familiarizing them with points of historical interest in that section and with its commercial and social aspects.

The Utah Society had a large attendance at its annual meeting, held in Salt Lake City, December 27, 1921. Much enthusiasm was displayed and a resolution was unanimously adopted to invite the holding of the Thirty-fourth Annual Congress of the National Society in Salt Lake City in the summer of 1923, and measures have been taken to, if possible, secure this Congress of the National Society for the Rocky Mountain West, but one meeting of the National Society having ever been held on the western side of the Continental Divide. Hon. Robert E. McConaughy, of Salt Lake City, was chosen as President in succession to former Governor Heber M. Wells, retiring President, now residing in Washington, D. C., and General John Q. Cannon was chosen as Vice-President. The twenty-eighth annual banquet will be held at the Weber Club, Ogden, Utah, on April 19, the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, Hon. Stuart P. Dobbs, of Ogden, being chairman of the banquet committee. This is the first time the annual banquet has been held outside of Salt Lake City, and the Salt Lake members and their ladies will make the thirty-seven-mile trip by automobile over the boulevard connecting these very beautiful cities.

Vermont Society.—The annual meeting of this Society was held in Burlington, on the afternoon of February 22. The officers of 1921-22 were, without exception, re-elected to serve for the ensuing year. In the evening a joint meeting with other patriotic organizations was held, including a banquet at the Hotel Sherwood. The speaker of the evening was President Paul D. Moody, of Middlebury College, and Compatriot Walter H. Crockett, Secretary of the Vermont Society, spoke for the S. A. R.

The Washington State Society.—SEATTLE CHAPTER.—The Chapter has held five meetings during the year, all well attended. The outstanding effort of the year was the Pageant, which held first place in the Independence Day celebration of the city of Seattle. The Spirit of '76, a Bunker Hill Phalanx of thirteen members in Continental costume, a large American Flag carried by the members of the Chapter, followed by a beautiful historical float showing an Indian man and maid, two Pilgrims and Priscilla, George Washington, a Minute Man, Abraham Lincoln, a Civil War Veteran, and the Goddess of Liberty made a really fine display, which was given much space in the local press and created much favorable comment. The Seattle Chapter felt great encouragement over the success of this effort and the impetus given the Chapter generally as a result of this public demonstration. The annual meeting held on the 21st resulted in the election of new officers, with the exception of the President, Mr. Walter Burgis Beals, who was unanimously re-elected.
