from Point Lookout, Missouri

M. GRAHAM CLARK
PRESIDENT GENERAL

On a recent evening at home I sat enjoying the warm comfort of a cheery fire in the open fireplace of our living room. I gazed abstractedly at a Christmas tree that had been set up in anticipation of being decorated by the grandchildren.

Then suddenly I found myself contemplating the next speech I was scheduled to make at an SAR meeting. What hope and cheer and encouragement could I pass on to my Compatriots in an era when the entire world seems so out of joint—when both domestic and foreign affairs present so many apparently insurmountable obstacles to the “peace on earth” we should enjoy at Christmastide? Not even our hallowed Christmas season, it seems, will be exempt from the pall of the problems of inflation, strikes, work shortages, ecology and energy crises, and the starvation threatening the very survival of peoples everywhere.

A white oak log and a piece of red cedar from my Ozark hillside crackled in the fire sending sparks like miniature stars glowing against the sooty black of the fireplace resembling for a brief moment the stars in the dark sky of a crystal clear wintery night. Then as if by a lap dissolve into history I was seeing another wood fire and the scene it illuminated nearly two hundred years ago at Valley Forge.

Suddenly I was experiencing that wintery night and the anxious thoughts of a harried figure in the uniform of a general as he tramped through the snow in a dense grove of trees. General George Washington was making the rounds of the flickering campfires over which his men hovered—little knots of weary men, their frostbitten feet wrapped in rags, and huddled together sharing such tattered coats or blankets as they had. Stopping at the fires to give heart to his men, doubtless the general chafed at the inefficiency and bungling of the struggling Congress that had permitted army issue to rot in warehouses miles away from the winter headquarters of his army. His dwindling force should not be in such desperate need of those supplies which had been begged from France and Spain.

Did General Washington as he sought to cheer his cheerless men blame himself for the fact that his troops were near starvation, that they went days without bread and had meat and potatoes only when they reluctantly scavenged neighboring farms for them?

Washington had selected Valley Forge as the site of his winter headquarters in the belief that the productive agricultural community would furnish provender. But he had failed to take into account the human frailty of greed, especially in those persons who were not particularly enthusiastic about the cause for which he and his men were risking their very lives. The farmers around Valley Forge wanted cash when all he had to offer was Continental money. His paper could not compete with the gold the British in Philadelphia twenty-two miles away were willing to pay for the farmers’ beef and grain.

As he left the grove and returned to the stone house which was his headquarters, he would have been less than human had he not indulged in thoughts of Mount Vernon where he had known the comfort of a gentleman’s way of life: a warm mansion with ample food from herds and gardens and servants to prepare and serve it, the fellowship of companions on fox hunts, and remembrances of strolls through well laid out walks and groves of trees he himself had grafted. Would he not think of Martha and the children celebrating this Christmas eve in the much loved Mount Vernon home?

But if George Washington’s mind dwelt long on the creature comforts he was missing while carrying out this lonely assignment as commander of a raggle taggle force, there is no record of it. There is a legend of how he was found kneeling in supplication for help for the American cause. And there is ample record of his devotion to the duty which he had taken an oath to pursue. Here was a man who bore disaster without flinching, who had fortitude, who knew what honesty, courage, and faithfulness in a public servant meant to the welfare of his country.

General Washington was painfully aware that the cause of the American Revolution had the support of only a fraction of the people of the nation. Yet that did not deter him in his sworn purpose. He had loyal followers in these suffering men of his army—those patriots who were our ancestors, the forefathers through whom we claim brotherhood as Sons of the American Revolution. They were men devoted to liberty, justice, and equality. (He knew, too, that his men were the best marksmen on the continent and that they knew to keep their powder dry until the proper time to fire).

Those stubborn attributes of General Washington and his equally stubborn men saw them through to victory. We need to nourish today these same qualities in ourselves if we are to be their worthy successors. It is our bounden duty to rededicate ourselves to the cause of freedom, justice, and equality. We must hold firmly our patriotic purpose as an organization carrying high the banner under which General Washington and his men suffered and fought and conquered.

As the fire in the hearth burned low I paused in my reflecting to pick up another log from the woodbox to rekindle the blaze. I dropped back into my chair, glanced again at the evergreen tree, symbol of everlasting life, and my mind drifted back this time nearly two thousand years when under the most humble circumstances was born the Savior whose birthday we celebrate at this season. General Washington knew this Savior; his God who provided a mighty armor that sustained him and his army is our God. He has sustained this nation throughout its history. I have the faith that as long as we continue as “one nation under God, with liberty and justice for all,” His mighty armor will continue to sustain us.

Then my thoughts were again interrupted, this time by the sound of the fresh young voices of a group of School of the Ozarks students outside our door singing Christmas carols. Someone opened the door and the carolers trooped in, faces reddened by the crisp Ozark air, their voices singing joyous thanks and praise for the fact of Christmas. A young native Ozarker from down in the hills of the White River country shouted out a hillman’s traditional greeting, “Christmas gift!” The little band of carolers warmed themselves at my fire and sang, a cappella, many more gay, folksy, and reverent hymns. My wife brought cider and cookies in which they appreciatively indulged then took their leave.

This was the time to go into my study and write my greeting to you. At this Christmas time may you, too, my Compatriots, Sons of the American Revolution, experience the true meaning, the hope, the joy, the love, and faithfulness of Christmas which spurs us to devotion to liberty, justice, and equality, and gives us the victory. Let it lie in our hearts and wills.

Let us rejoice and with hearty sincerity wish each other, “Christmas Gift!”

WARREN S. WOODWARD
EDITOR

Compatriots deserve our respect for having acted firmly upon their personal convictions.

I have never felt that my conservative voice was unfair to our liberal members because the liberalistic philosophy is overwhelmingly and unceasingly directed at all of us through the news media, our centers of learning, our pulpits and even many departments of our federal government. Altho’ my writings have always reflected my own independent opinions, they have never been in conflict with the Annual Resolutions of our National Society. Therefore, is it likely that these dissenters also object to our resolutions? I fear they may also force abandonment of these balloted expressions of opinions of the SAR majority.

However, we can better implement the stated purposes of our Society by avoiding dissension within our ranks. I certainly do not want my column to be a vehicle through which internal discord could be developed.

I respectfully suggest that readers convey their opinions to our President General, Dr. M. Graham Clark, The School of the Ozarks, Point Lookout, Missouri 65726, indicating whether this editorial column should or should not be continued. Remember, the SAR Magazine is your magazine.

The Congress is coming!

Don't miss it!

IMPORTANT!

Due to unforeseen circumstances, together with developments beneficial to our Society, the 85th Congress arrangements have undergone a slight change.

We are pleased to inform you that The Copley Plaza (Copley Square, Boston, Mass. 02116) will be the site for our 1975 Congress, the dates being June 29 through July 2. A special reduced convention room rate has been granted us, and this will be extended for those desiring to remain in historic Boston during the Fourth of July festivities. We are indeed fortunate in obtaining the facilities of the majestic and world-famous Copley Plaza.

All indications promise a most successful and enjoyable 85th Annual Congress. Plan NOW to attend with your family and friends. You’ll be glad you did!

Restoring George Washington's Pistols

By COMPATRIOT ROY VAIL
Empire State Society, SAR

Even in a lifetime of building and repairing fine firearms, one is only rarely privileged to handle the property of a man of George Washington's renown. Though the Father of Our Country is believed to have owned nearly 50 sporting and military firearms, less than a dozen authenticated ones survive, and those have been guarded carefully by gun collectors for over 150 years.

Every rule has its exception, however, and when I was contacted by the late Gerald Stowe, then curator of the West Point Museum, and asked to repair two of Washington's pistols I felt honored and pleased. Stowe delivered them to me at his first chance.

When I first viewed these fine pistols I was appalled. Unlike other specimens, these had seen many years of hard service. Repairs would not suffice. Restoration was in order.

The pistols were gifts to General Washington from Thomas Turner, a neighbor whose home, "Walsingham on the Rappahannock" was near Mount Vernon. After Washington's death, they passed through the hands of several collectors until purchased by Clendennin Ryan of New York in 1951. Ryan donated the pistols to the West Point Museum.

Built by the English gunmaker Hawkins, these arms typify high quality holster pistols of the period. The cast brass barrels are cal. .67, unrifled, and bear the marks of R. Wilson, a barrel maker of the mid-18th Century. They are London proved. Hawkins made and signed the locks and fitted locks, barrels and furniture together in two fine pieces of plank-sawn walnut. The pistols are mounted with silver, cast in relief and hand finished. A 1748-49 hallmark gives a clue to age of the pistols. Side plates show the British lion and unicorn in a military motif. Intricate silver escutcheons on the grips also carry out the military theme: drums, battle flags, and foliate designs. Slender tangs from these escutcheons extend down the back of the stock toward the butt cap. The tangs have been cut off for installation of rolled silver bands, each bearing the inscription "Gen. Geo. Washington." Although convenient for the owner's name, the real purpose for these bands, which are not original, is to conceal cracks in the stocks of both pistols.

Massive silver butt caps, held in place by handmade iron screws, also have long silver tangs running up the sides of the stocks. These were for further reinforcement and esthetic purposes. The butt caps are finished with relief-carved grotesque masks, one of which has been lost.

The graceful locks were made by the London craftsman who completed the pistols. He worked between 1750 and 1775. Ornamental designs are filed at the tips of the springs and a fine raised border outlines the locks. Rain gutters are pierced at the rear of the pans.

Prior to their restoration, the pistols showed considerable evidence of hard service. Holster wear had almost obliterated the designs in some of the silver ornaments. One pistol was evidently dropped from some height. There is a large gouge in the silver of its butt cap and the wood at the muzzle was broken away for about 3". Its flint hammer was broken at the neck.

Through the years the pistols were repaired several times. One stock mend was performed with hand forged finishing nails, probably by a blacksmith, in the early 19th Century. No glue was used. At the same time a handmade screw was installed in the lower portion of the stock.

Later both pistols were repaired with cut nails and, still later, the silver plates bearing Washington's name were installed. More screws were then inserted for additional reinforcement and the nail holes at the breaks under and around the name plates were filled with a mixture of glue, red ochre and whiting.

Despite their frequent repair, it is unlikely that the pistols had ever been disassembled. Upon dismounting the barrels the channels were found to bear traces of brick-colored sandy loam, typical of the Virginia Piedmont. Similar soil and bits of wheat were lodged in a crack in one of the pistols' stocks.

To restore the wood, a piece of English walnut was selected which matched the stocks in age as well as color and grain pattern. Chips of this old wood were cut and inletted into the grips to fill holes left by an earlier repair. Another piece was cut to fill the broken fore-end of one pistol and was glued in place and shaped to match the original wood. The maker used wax and oil to finish the stocks and this old finish was thoroughly cleaned and the repairs stained and finished to match.

The brass barrels were cleaned using a mild, non-abrasive chemical which removed surface dirt, but not the patina that fills the decorative engraving. Silver escutcheons and side plates and the lockplates and screws were similarly cleaned. Welding was needed to repair the cracked cock. Using the remaining one as a model, a replacement mask was carved and fitted to the butt cap of one pistol.

When restoration was completed, the pistols were test fired. Both functioned well, giving a good spark and rapid ignition. Accuracy, however was disappointing. The interior of the barrels is not in keeping with the quality of the pistols. Both bores were cast off center and neither is well finished.

Now back in the hands of the West Point Museum, these pistols are on permanent display. Visitors can see them as they are today, proud reminders not only of our first president, but also of his appreciation of fine firearms.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

by Colonel Glenn I. Epperson

U. S. Cavalry-Ret., SAR, OSB, SCV, MOWW
Chairman, Americanism Committee, NSSAR

We are a bankrupt nation—bankrupt of funds and bankrupt of morality!

Our 200th Anniversary will not be celebrated in a blaze of glory. Appeasers in Government are aiding and abetting the terrorists and criminals who are determined that our Bicentennial will be an unhappy one.

The progress of our nation during our generation has been repeatedly extolled, but what is seldom mentioned is that we have done it all with borrowed money which we have never repaid. At the end of the Spanish-American War we had a national debt of 1 billion $. State, county, and local debts were proportionate. Today our national debt is over 500 billion $ and local government adds a like amount. If we tried, we could never pay our debts by honest methods, and we Americans seemingly don't even want to try. Why? Because of greed—individually and collectively.

While the Administration and whiz kids keep experimenting with our economy, we are hoping for miracles and, in the meantime, listen to their theories and exhortations in a vain attempt to make any sense out of what they are saying and doing. The primary reason for our troubles is so basic and simple that it may escape the learned experts and economic wizards. The root cause of most of our economic problems (inflation, shortages, unemployment, balance of payments, etc) lies in one word. That word is greed, pure and simple greed—greed for money or greed for power or both.

If only we could again get together a group of men of the moral caliber of those 39 patriots who framed our Constitution in 1787. The records of those whom we have chosen or who are being appointed as our leaders do not reflect the standards of morality or conduct of our Founding Fathers.

"God give us men. The time demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and willing hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking;
Tall men; sun-crowned; who live above the fog
In public duty and in private thinking."

Long ago a great prophet wrote, "Evil men and false teachers will become worse and worse, deceiving many, they themselves having been deceived by Satan." 2 Timothy 3:13. Theodore Roosevelt paraphrased the Holy Writ by saying, "To educate a man in mind, but not in morals, is to create a menace to society."

An over-educated so-called intellectual who likes to argue issues recently said, "Well, since you are so damned smart, just how would you solve the problems with which our country is faced?"

Our reply, "Well, for a starter, restrict our Federal Government from doing anything that is not expressly authorized by our Constitution. Second, have our Government follow the advice of George Washington set out in his Farewell Address, particularly about attending strictly to our own business. Lastly, enforce the Monroe Doctrine designed to prevent foreign and un-American ideologies from contaminating our hemisphere."

We patriots must start lighting the birthday candles. Emphasize "I can" in Americanism. Restore faith in our Government and morality in our land.

Chapter and State Societies

NEWS and events

Your SAR Magazine staff recommends that state societies appoint a qualified compatriot to assemble and transmit ready-to-print material to the office of the Editor. Cooperation by such state societies will obviously enable us to accord them a maximum of representation within these pages.

Do not send newspaper clippings or chapter notices, instead of ready-to-print resumes of activities.

Many situations necessitate the editing of submitted copy, and we reserve the customary editorial prerogative of condensing or omitting that which circumstances justify.

Due to limited space, the text of speeches and essays cannot be published.

Submitted photographs must be black and white glossy prints, for satisfactory reproduction, and must be "SAR subject-related."

Do not send photographs or material which are of such value that their return is necessitated. A service charge of $1 will be made for each photo or item that must be returned. Any news material that predates the last previous deadline will be considered too outdated for publication, and will be rejected.

ARIZONA SOCIETY

The Saguaro Chapter, largest and most active in Arizona, continues with its many successful programs.

As a fitting remembrance to each compatriot who has died since Jan. 1, a donation is made by the Chapter in his name to the SAR Building Fund. This practice has been recognized by the President General and National Society with high praise.

In addition to a regular newsletter, which has been praised in journalistic and patriotic circles, The Saguaro Chapter holds breakfast meetings and

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY

The California Society and the San Francisco Chapter were hosts at an August dinner in honor of Treasurer Gen. Ralph M. Pabst. State Secty. James B. Hoge and Chapter Pres. Roger Jobson are credited with the excellent arrangements. Comp. Pabst charmed all present with his interesting, knowledgeable and inspiring remarks. Other guests present included V.P. Gen. Robert H. Fulton and Exec. Secty. W. S. Woodward.

The San Francisco Chapter has started an ambitious Bicentennial project with Lincoln Univ. consisting of a series of 1/2-hour TV programs on the Revolutionary period with SAR compatriots assisting with production and portraying many of the roles. San Francisco Chapter members invited compatriots from other chapters to watch the 3 pilot programs at a special luncheon meeting on Aug. 28. The programs were shown on Channel 6, the city's public TV station, in Sept., and each program was shown twice, making a total of 3 hours of TV time. Many future showings are scheduled. Comp. William R. Lutton has been particularly active in the project, and took part in the 3 pilot programs entitled "The American Connection." The setting is the salon of a leading Paris hotel, and the time is the late 1700s. Americans have arrived in Paris to bring news of revolutionary victories and details of the new republic. Participating SAR-actors included Compatriots Lutton, Bergen van Brunt and Roland W. Walters, all of whom used the names of their revolutionary antecedents during the programs. Costumes were supplied by a firm which supplies the San Francisco Opera. Music was researched by Comp. William L. Wooster who chose "The Battle of Trenton," composed in 1785 and dedicated to Gen. Washington. This music is used to open and close each program. It is hoped that many more programs may be produced. A 4th one is planned, for which Comp. Jobson will make a public description and appeal for funds. The first 3 programs were tele-recorded on 3/4" color video cassettes which are suitable for cable TV use, but not adaptable for network station use. Compatriots or chapters interested in having the programs screened on a public TV channel in their area, or in helping sponsor the program, may write to Comp. William R. Lutton, 2121 Broadway, San Francisco, Cal. 94115.

The Redwood Empire Chapter received its charter at a meeting in Sonoma when State Pres. Chunn presented the certificate to Pres. Earl B. Stover. Other charter officers include Compatriots John E. Kirkpatrick, C. Franklin Daily, Dwight W. Curtis, Sherman B. Boivan and Vance G. Davids.

Thirteen Santa Barbara Chapter members participated in the largest July 4 parade in recent years. Comp. Thomas Oliver was parade chairman, and his assistants included Compatriots Winslow Walker and Dee Merrow. The Chapter's president, Col. William F. Brand, is vigorously promoting the sale and use of SAR tie clasps, rosettes and other accessories as listed in the national magazine. He is also implementing a program whereby items are donated by members, and sold to augment the chapter treasury. The first donor was Comp. George Wilkens, whose gift added $10 to the

The Sacramento Chapter, together with the C.A.R. and DAR, enjoyed an outstanding program on July 4 with 101 in attendance, including State Pres. Chunn. In addition to a magnificent buffet dinner at the home of Dr. Leroy Coffroth, there was swimming, skits and an impressive supervised fireworks display.

The Palo Alto Chapter bade farewell to its president, Comp. T. Larned Eastmond, who has moved to southern California.

COLORADO SOCIETY

The Colorado Society held its annual picnic in the recreation area at Fitzsimons General Hospital on July 6 with about 50 compatriots, friends and relatives in attendance.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SOCIETY

The traditional ceremony honoring Elbridge Gerry, the only signer of the Declaration of Independence buried in the District of Columbia, was held on July 4 under the sponsorship of the D.C. Society with participation by local DAR, C.A.R. and other lineage and historical societies. Gerry also helped draft the Constitution and, at the time of his death, was Vice President of the U.S. The ceremony, held in Congressional Cemetery, was colorful with 8 wreaths placed on the tomb, and a U.S. Marine colorguard, firing squad and bugler for the formal salute. The principal speaker was Gen. Lewis B. Hershey who gave a brief but very effective speech, pointing out that the founders of our country had infinite courage. In citing the misguided advice we are subjected to today from so many "authorities" who do not know what they are talking about, he quoted Mark Twain: "It isn't what you don't know that hurts you; it's what you know that ain't so."

FLORIDA SOCIETY

The Fort Lauderdale Chapter participated in Broward County Pioneer Days with a color guard dressed in Revolutionary War uniforms leading the parade. They also had a display booth for this 2-day affair. Nat. Trustee Matthew B. Sellers was outdoor activities chairman.

Saramana Chapter has adopted a Bicentennial project, a program of patriotic education with teaching materials for inclusion in the public school systems of Sarasota and Manatee Counties. Pres. Charles W. Morgan has congratulated Patriotic Education Comm. Chairman Jack Gillum for his fund-raising efforts resulting in purchase of "40 Famous Documents of our American Heritage" and related materials as a first installment. Comp. Marcus T. Monk has been named Vice Chairman of the chapter's Bicentennial Celebration Committee.

On July 4, Pres. Sidney S. King of the Caloosa Chapter represented his compatriots at the annual wreath-laying ceremony at Mt. Vernon, an event conducted by the George Washington Chapter of Va. Pres. King announced that his chapter has, in addition to ROTC medals, been presenting Good Citizenship medals to worthy students in Lee County and Ft. Myers schools.

SOCIETY IN FRANCE

Fourth of July ceremonies were organized and conducted by the Society in France at the monuments of Washington and Rochambeau, and soon after, at the grave of Lafayette in Picpus Cemetery. Pres. (Comte) Rene de Chambrun greeted the American Ambassador, Mr. John N. Irwin, and Admiral Harold E. Shear, Commander of the U.S. Fleet in Europe, who changed the American flag on the grave in the presence of many French officials representing the President of the Republic, the Government, the Senate, the City of Paris, etc. Detachments of French and American troops were present.

GEORGIA SOCIETY

The Atlanta Chapter's annual "Keep Freedom Ringing" Dinner at Druid Hills Golf Club was a complete success, enjoyed by all. Total attendance was 81 (36 SARs, 20 DARs, 16 wives & 9 visitors). The interesting Bicentennial-flavored program included a historic presentation of colors by the William Craig-led 7-man color guard of the 2nd Georgia Battalion in Revolutionary uniforms. Guest speaker Bill Coolidge, DeKalb County Commissioner, spoke briefly and movingly on the historical importance of Independence Day. Pres. Benjamin E. Holland toastmastered the dinner, and is to be commended for a job well done.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY

The Piankeshaw Chapter held a joint dinner meeting with the DAR on Sept. 17 honoring Constitution Week. The principal speaker was the Dean of the Law School of the University of Illinois, and his address was enjoyed by the large number attending.

INDIANA SOCIETY

The Summer Meeting of the Indiana Society's House of Delegates was convened in Vincennes, and was the best-attended in many years. Several members present, who were delegates at the Baltimore Congress, gave their impressions and reported on the activities. All agreed that it was a most interesting and productive Congress, and one which moved along very smoothly and efficiently under the gavel of then-President Gen. Marion Crawmer. One item of business discussed was that of the compliance by

KANSAS SOCIETY

On July 19, a special state meeting was held at Parsons for purposes of discussing the formation of a new chapter to be located in the southeastern part of Kansas. The attendance was large, with representatives from all Kansas chapters. The new group will be known as the Benjamin Franklin Chapter.

On Sept. 20, more than 100 members and guests attended the charter banquet of the new Benjamin Franklin Chapter at the Independence Country Club. Following the sumptuous repast, students from the Independence Community Jr. College entertained with musical selections. The Mayor of Independence proclaimed the day as "Sons of the American Revolution Day", and the stately proclamation was formally presented by Vice Mayor Jack Sanders. With State Pres. Bernard H. Christian presiding, V.P. Gen. Paul Garrison installed the following new officers: Robert Q. Rohde, Pres.; George M. Paine, V.P.; Dr. Frank W. Shelton, Registrar; Paul T. Wilbert, Chancellor; Dr. Erik Conard, Genealogist-Historian; and Judge Ora D. McClellan, Chaplain. The highlight of the evening was an address by Pres. Gen. M. Graham Clark, and his stirring speech was received enthusiastically. He was accompanied by Mrs. Clark and his aide-de-camp, Comp. (Col.) Seth Caperton. A key to the City of Neodesha was presented to the President General by Mayor Leonard Johnson, and the following V.I.P. guests were introduced: Okla. Nat. Trustee Ross Robe, Chapter Pres. Arthur M. King, Chapter Pres. Augustus di Zerega, Chapter Pres. Halbert G. Horton, State Secty. William C. Baker, State Chancellor Ralph F. Glenn, State V.P. Scott W. Kelsey and Past State Pres. Raymond A. Collidge. Closing remarks by Charter Pres. Rohde outlined plans for future progress of the new chapter.

LOUISIANA SOCIETY

Again this year, the Louisiana Society's 4th of July activities were led by the team of Compatriots David O. Crumley, John S. Arthur and Beale H. Richardson. The program consisted mainly of extensive TV and radio coverage with Comp. Crumley appearing on several shows and interviews, at which he urged viewers and listeners to fly their flags, and urged all churches and schools to ring their bells. On the Eric Tracy show, Comp. Crumley related, at great length, what the SAR is all about.

On Sept. 27, the Louisiana Society held its Constitution Week banquet at the New Orleans Country Club. Highlights of the program were presentations of the Gold Good Citizenship Medal to Congressman Joe Waggoner and the Patriot to State Secty. (Col.) Shelton P. Hubbard.

MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY

Ceremonies were held at Cheshire recently to mark the transfer of the Stafford Hill Memorial to the Town of Cheshire. The memorial, a replica of the Old Mill in Newport, R. I., was the property of the Mass. Society, SAR, and was built in 1927 to mark the tomb of Col. Joab Stafford, and to honor the contingent of Berkshire Co. men whom Col. Stafford led to the Battle of Bennington in 1777. Time was taking its toll on the structure, and it was felt that the Town could best give the proper maintenance. A large crowd heard State Pres. Clark B. Loth speak on the background of the Memorial, and saw State Secty. Homer F. Dean present the deed to Michael Hutchinson, Chairman of the Historical Commission. The Color Guard of the Mass. Society was present, as was the Hoosac Valley Band and the Silver Greys, the latter group representing Col. Stafford's unit, who gave a cannon and musket salute. Several local and state dignitaries spoke on the importance of preserving our Revolutionary sites.

MISSISSIPPI SOCIETY

During Constitution Week, Pres. O. M. Smith of the Colonial Patriots Chapter arranged for 4 radio stations to broadcast appropriate announcements. On Sept. 17, Pres. Smith and a DAR representative shared a half-hour on WLOX-TV in an interview covering the meaning and importance of our Constitution.

Under the direction of Pres. O. M. Smith, Jr., the Colonial Patriots Chapter sponsored an outing for 65 underprivileged children from New Orleans on Aug. 27. They were brought by bus, given a tour of Biloxi, and were then taken by boat to Ship Island where they were shown Fort Massachusetts with an explanation of its historical significance.

The Colonial Patriots Chapter has been active in sponsoring, with the Miss. Heart Assoc., a blood pressure test program during the Gulf Coast Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo in July during which 751 persons were tested without charge, and 52 were referred to their physicians for further examination. The Chapter has also actively promoted the ringing of all bells for 2 minutes commencing at noon on July 4 from Pass Christian to Pascagoula.

On June 4, Pres. (RAdm.) Francis J.

Mee and 1st State V.P. Walter S. Welch, both of the Dr. Joseph Warren Chapter, bestowed the SAR Law Enforcement Commendation Medal upon Sheriff Paul L. Barrett of Warren County.

The Greenwood Chapter co-sponsored, with the DAR, the "God-Honor-Country Drill Team" of drill sergeants from Fort Polk with 2 performances at the Greenwood Little Theater. Their program, based upon Gen. MacArthur's farewell speech, portrayed man's duty to God, Country and himself. On July 26, the Summer meeting of the Chapter was held at the Greenwood Country Club. Attendees heard State Pres. Johnson deliver an interesting and informative talk on the new Patrick Boggan Chapter and on the recent 84th Annual Congress.

The Patrick Boggan Chapter received its charter on June 29 from State Pres. S. L. Johnson at Meridian. After the charter presentation, an organizational meeting was held and the following officers elected: Pres. W. W. Bogan, V.P. (Dr.) Charles E. Lindley, Secty. H. H. Daniel, Treas. Earl T. Johnson and Chaplain Tom W. Crigler. State Pres. Johnson gave a brief report on the recent Baltimore Congress, and State Chaplain (Dr.) James B. Butler reviewed the history and purposes of the SAR. State Secty.-Treas. T. J. McCall also contributed much to the success of the program.

The Indiana Society, Sons of the American Revolution,
Proudly Presents and Endorses

JACK KEMPER CARMICHAEL

As A Candidate for the office of Registrar General at the 85th Annual Congress in Boston in 1975

A seventh-generation Hoosier, Compatriot Carmichael has been a member of SAR since 1963. He joined on the service of James Harrell of the Virginia Regulators commanded by Captain John Washington. Others of Compatriot Carmichael's ancestors who rendered military or patriotic service were: James Sparks of Pennsylvania; William Harvey of North Carolina; James Allnutt, Sr., of Maryland; and John Forster and James McCormick, Sr., of Virginia.

Compatriot Carmichael has been Secretary of the Continental Chapter, Muncie, for seven years. At the state level he served two years each as Treasurer, Vice President, and President, of the Indiana Society. He is currently National Trustee.

A delegate from the Indiana Society at six Annual Congresses, he was co-chairman of arrangements for the Indianapolis Congress, for which he planned and organized the State Presidents' Caucus. Compatriot Carmichael has been a member of the National Executive, DAR, and Young Members Committees, for which he served as chairman of the latter.

He is an Air Force veteran and a graduate of Indiana University. He serves as a Deacon in Hazelwood Christian Church of Muncie. Compatriot Carmichael is a member of several historical and patriotic organizations, and he is active in the affairs of his community and state, including: First Vice President of Muncie Kiwanis Club; member of Board of Directors, Delaware County Historical Society; and member, Indiana American Revolution Bicentennial Commission. He also serves on committees of the Chamber of Commerce at the local, state, and national levels.

The Indiana Society enthusiastically presents its National Trustee for consideration by the Delegates at Boston for nomination and election as our next Registrar General.

NEVADA SOCIETY

The Nevada Society had a most successful Constitution Week dinner-meeting at Las Vegas. Pres. William W. Southard of the Southern Nevada Chapter presided, and many guests, including DARs, were in attendance. Asst. U.S. Attorney Ray Pike, a graduate of Northwestern and Boalt Law School, delivered a fine address, "Constitutional Crises of the Day." The highlight of the evening was bestowal of the coveted Martha Washington Award medal and citation upon the charming wife of Nat. Trustee (and Supreme Court Justice) John Mowbray. The couple are the proud parents of 3 sons who have all been state

C.A.R. presidents. Sharing the SAR spotlight was Mrs. Edgar Fountain, who was justifiably honored with the SAR Medal of Appreciation for her splendid service to our Society.

NEW JERSEY SOCIETY

Restoration of a cemetery dating from 1692 has been adopted by Montclair Chapter as its Bicentennial project. With Comp. Edward Butterworth as supervisor, work has already commenced, and 1 acre is ready for seeding. Pres. John Jacklyn recently awarded the silver Good Citizenship Medal to Comp. Butterworth at a picnic in Essex Fells, at which time State Pres. Marvin Shepherd praised the recipient.

A reception marked the rejuvenation of the John Hart Chapter. The home of Dr. George F. Hutchinson was the scene of the event, held in honor of State Pres. Shepherd. On this occasion, Comp. Shepherd donated historical documents to the Chapter which, in turn, will donate them to the Princeton Historical Society.

State Sr. V.P. John R. Naisby addressed the Paramus Chapter, discussing the signers of the Declaration of Independence. His delivery was well received, being accurately-researched and of interesting character.

The Col. John Rosenkranz Chapter heard excerpts from National Society minutes during a talk by State Pres.

At a Flag Day luncheon of the Charles Duncan Chapter (Ky.), Pres. (Judge) Thomas W. Hines and Organizing Pres. Selby E. Smith (rt) are shown with Mrs. J. Vernon Hardcastle, a DAR regent whose chapter co-sponsored the program.

Shepherd at Sparta on June 13. He further discussed the early history of the SAR.

West Fields Chapter observed Memorial Day and Independence Day with participation in public programs. The chapter color guard were resplendent in their continental uniforms, in the local program and one at Mindowaskin Park. Color guard members are: Compatriots James Parlee, Denis R. Hepburn, Robert Buckley, Stephen Elder and James Buckley. They were joined by DAR and C.A.R. members in ceremonies at the Revolutionary period cemetery.

Jockey Hollow Chapter held its annual picnic on June 30 at the home of Past Pres. Skyler Martin. Past State Pres. (Dr.) D. Stanton Hammond, a noted author and historian, was among the guests. In the Somerset County Independence Day parade, the Chapter sponsored a float, "The Pursuit of Happiness."

Cranbury Chapter entered a Battle of Monmouth float in an anniversary parade on June 30 which portrayed a model of Old Tennent Church on a grassy hillside, surrounded by tombstones. Wounded soldiers were being attended by a physician. (The church was used as a hospital during the battle, and later.) The Chapter's color guard also attended a local historical society picnic in July, at which the mayor made an address.

NEW MEXICO SOCIETY

The New Mexico Society held its annual Flag Day meeting on June 13 at the Kirtland Officers Club. Following a banquet attended by many DAR and C.A.R. senior officers Past C.A.R. Society Pres. Marsha Dean spoke on the topic of C.A.R.-SAR relationships and the New Mexico C.A.R. plans for the coming year. Miss Dean was then presented the 1st James G. Marsh Memorial Award of the state society by Pres. Robert G. Luckey, who also awarded the Patriot Medal to Comp. (Col.) Watson Ambruster in absentia, Mrs. Sue Ambruster accepting for her husband. (Comp. Ambruster was serving as a leader at the 1974 N.M. Boys' State where C.A.R. Tod Hirt's attendance was sponsored by the N.M. Society.) During the program, elections were held and the new officers were inducted by Past Pres. Joseph J. Mullins, following presentation of the slate by Past Registrar Gen. Robert G. Norfleet. Incoming Pres. Wright then presented a Past President's Certificate of Appreciation to outgoing Pres. Robert G. Luckey.

EMPIRE STATE SOCIETY

Compatriot Robert D. L. Gardiner acted as host to the Gen. William Floyd Chapter in his magnificent home at East Hampton during Constitution Week ceremonies. This home was once the Summer White House. Pres. (& State Chancellor) Robert Diedolf opened the program with greetings and the introductions of distinguished guests, many of whom were DAR officers. Comp. George Weeks, the County Historian, spoke on Long Island history, followed by State V.P. Thaddeus Hopper who discussed the coming Bicentennial. Comp. Gardiner closed the program with a stirring oration on the preservation of our Constitution and American way of life. Attendees were treated to a conducted tour of the stately mansion by Comp. Gardiner, who also owns world-renowned Gardiner's Island.

The Adm. George Browne Cap. Dist. Chapter unveiled a bronze marker observing the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Saratoga on Aug. 4. U.S. Congressman Samuel Stratton was the principal speaker. Chapter V.P. LaVerne W. Getman capably conducted the ceremonies, held on the battlefield. Pres. Delbert Browne is credited for arrangements. More than 200 were present.

OHIO SOCIETY

Pres. (Col.) H. G. Webb of the Richard Montgomery Chapter recently awarded the Good Citizenship Medal to Secty.-Treas. Morris F. Fergus.

The annual pilgrimage of the Cincinnati Chapter was held at the Golden Lamb in Lebanon on June 29. Well attended, State Pres. (Rev.) Samuel J. Holt was the speaker, and his inspiring and meaningful message was gratefully received.

OKLAHOMA SOCIETY

The Great Plains Chapter held its annual election of officers recently at the home of Comp. Irby B. Cate. The slate, headed by Pres. Cecil F. Olson, was thereupon duly installed. Pres. Olson reported on the Chapter Awards program, and urged its continuing success.

PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY

The Pennsylvania Society Board of Management held a charter presentation ceremony at Pottsville. The charter was presented to Pres. Irwin M. Leiby of the newly-approved Fort Schuylkill Chapter by State Pres. Carl R. Black. The officers of the chapter were installed by V.P. Gen. Franklin W. Kinnamon of the Mid Atlantic District, who then presented a handmade gavel to the new President. More than 100 members and guests attended the reception and banquet.

The Conococheague Chapter attended the recent Franklin County Naturalization Court in Chambersburg as 21 men and women from 8 countries became U.S. citizens and received the basic documents from members of the chapter.

Chaplain Gen. Luther F. Gerhart delivered the sermon at the 3rd annual Philadelphia-Continental Chapter church service held at the Arch St. Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia. Following the service, members and guests repaired to the Penn Center Holiday Inn where they enjoyed a reception and luncheon.

The Pittsburgh Chapter joined the local DAR for a Flag Day ceremony at the Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Hall. Chapter President Grafton Duval presented to the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall Assoc. a series of flags under which the armies of the U.S. have fought. State Pres. Carl R. Black was the speaker for the occasion. Eighth grade students received 78 SAR Good Citizenship Medals for 1st place and 156 certificates as Guard of Honor runners-up. Each student also received a 13-star flag.

The Arthur St. Clair Chapter enjoyed a genealogical talk by Comp. Richard Silvis, a local attorney, at a luncheon meeting at Adamsburg. The purpose of the talk was to help members assist prospective members. Many DARs and visiting SARs attended the meeting.

The George Washington Chapter, the 3rd oldest chapter in the state, celebrated its 50th anniversary at Washington, Pa. Mr. Clifford Smith, an Aliquippa historian, spoke on "Those Who Signed America's Birth Certificate." Comp. J. Harold Chapman was presented the Silver Good Citizenship Medal and certificate for 50 years of continuous chapter service. Executive Director Dean C. Gross, of the Citizens Library, received a copy of the Pennsylvania Society's 1955 Year Book, and Viet Nam veteran, Comp. Michael D. Kelley was awarded the SAR War Service Medal with Viet Nam bar.

RHODE ISLAND SOCIETY

The Rhode Island Society was pleased to have Director Alfred Hawkes of the R.I. Audubon Society as speaker at a recent dinner meeting at the Wannamoisett Country Club in Rumford. Compatriots, their ladies and invited guests were enthusiastic in their approval of Mr. Hawkes' address, which was both informative and interesting, ornithology proving to be a most intriguing topic. Past Pres. Albert A. Remington presented the Patriot Medal to Past State Secty. Robert F. Eddy, who was cited for his dedicated past service as Secretary and Awards Chairman. Comp. Eddy's secretary,

A second award of the Patriot Medal was made by Pres. Richmond H. Sweet to Past Pres. Gen. Walter R. Martin in recognition of his total dedication and active support of the R.I. Society, and for his continuing guidance and counsel.

TENNESSEE SOCIETY

At a recent meeting of the Memphis Chapter, History Professor Maurice Crouse of Memphis State University, a historian specialist on the Revolutionary War period, spoke on "Paying for the Revolution." Dr. Crouse also discussed plans for the coming Bicentennial.

At the Alamo, Shrine of Texas Independence, on July 4, five distinguished SAR compatriots are shown, following the annual public reading of the Declaration of Independence. (l to r): Comp. Joseph Lambert, Past V.P. Gen. Louis Casten, Comp. (U.S. Senator) John Tower, Pres. Alexander Fraser of the San Antonio Chapter, and Past State Pres. Oliver Chamberlin.

TEXAS SOCIETY

As Master of Ceremonies, San Antonio Chapter Pres. Alexander Fraser presided at the 7th annual public reading of the Declaration of Independence on July 4 at the Alamo, the cradle of Texas liberty. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Past State Pres. Oliver B. Chamberlin, followed by the Invocation given by State Chaplain Elmer W. Stahl. Comp. John Tower, the Sr. U.S. Senator from Texas, spoke, and his words were received with enthusiasm and applause by the more than 200 in attendance. Past State Pres. Randolph S. D. Lockwood read the inspiring words of the Declaration, and ceremonies concluded with the placing of a large and beautiful wreath by Compatriots Tower and Casten to a niche flanking the double doors of the Alamo Chapel. Wide publicity was given by all 3 TV stations in San Antonio, and the annual ceremonies have become a stirring tradition under the sponsorship of the SAR.

An annual Constitution Day observance was held on Sept. 16 at the Trinity Episcopal Church in Houston by Paul Carrington Chapter. About 100 compatriots and guests, representing other patriotic societies of the area, were present to listen to the excellent program and to enjoy a fine repast prepared by the ladies of the church.

Texas Society Pres. George Red was at the head table, and was introduced to the assembly, along with other notables at the table, and guests among the gathering. Chapter Pres. Carl C. Lavery welcomed the assembly, and spoke briefly of the strength of the Constitution, adopted 198 years ago. President-for-Life Paul E. Wise told of the 1875 Texas constitution, manuscript copies which he had on display. Larry Parks gave an unusual recitation of the Spanish poem, "Versos Sencillos" for which he had won a prize. Larry is the nephew of Comp. Lorne C. Parks, Chairman of the Constitution Day Observance Committee. President Emeritus Hendrix Davis, of the Texas Committee for the Constitution, as the speaker, gave a deliberate and revealing view of the many facets of the subversive forces within our country. In his very fine presentation, Mr. Davis counseled that a continued vigilance be exercised to thwart the many agents of this threat to the Republic and to our constitutional processes.

Members of the Chapter attended the annual naturalization ceremony and patriotic observance at Jefferson's home, Monticello.

The Richmond Chapter celebrated its annual Ladies' Night on June 14 by inviting members of the Thomas Jefferson and Williamsburg Chapters, along with their consorts, to a formal dinner at the Jefferson Hotel. Over 85 members and guests heard Lt. Cmdr. Paul A. Galanti, former prisoner of war in North Vietnam, speak on his recruiting activities. At the conclusion of his talk, Lt. Cmdr. Galanti was awarded the SAR's Gold Good Citizenship Medal by State Awards Chairman Joseph H. Cottrell on behalf of the Richmond Chapter and Virginia Society. An impressive number of VIP guests were on hand.

The Williamsburg Chapter received, from the Virginia Society, the Col. Carroll Wright Silver Membership Cup for recruiting the most new members during the past year, and the Kenneth C. Patty Award for being the outstanding chapter in 1973.

At a recent meeting of the Williamsburg Chapter, Mr. Charles A. Williamson, of Yorktown, spoke on "Our Revolutionary War Heritage." Mr. Williamson is author of the book, Your Yorktown, and other fine works.

Three students were honored by the Williamsburg Chapter on June 11 for outstanding reviews of the book, The Making of George Washington. This book was chosen to promote one of the SAR goals, "the inspiration to live as patriotically in our generation as our Revolutionary forebears did in theirs." The contest was open to all 7th graders, and was initiated this year by the SAR.

The Lt. David Cox Chapter held a joint meeting with the local DAR chapter at Shatley Springs, on August 2 with 112 present. After a delicious country-style dinner, Pres. (Dr.) Palmer W. Fant introduced the many distinguished guests. Surgeon Gen. Walter A. Porter presented the Virginia Medal For Distinguished Service to Mrs. Katherine Stark of the DAR for her outstanding and continuing assistance. Pres. Fant awarded a Certificate of Meritorious Service to Comp. Paul G. Cox for his services to the chapter over the years. Judge Matthews spoke briefly on the tremendous and technological advances made by our civilization during his lifetime and the necessity for similar progress in diplomatic and spiritual endeavors. After adjourning, the male members found an intriguing exhibition of swimming prowess in coon-hounds in progress at the Shatley Springs Lake (in which a caged raccoon on pontoons was towed across the lake with hounds in hot pursuit), an unplanned but exciting finale to the evening.

HUNDRED CLUBS

Our obligation, as citizens, to law enforcement personnel

by Compatriot Ordway P. Burden, National Chairman, Law Enforcement Committee

Chairman Burden

When SAR President General (Dr.) M. Graham Clark, Jr. officiated at the establishment of the Law Enforcement Committee, he said, "This important committee emphasizes our concern for the need for additional support and the deep interest of our Society in law enforcement." These words could be equally applicable to another organization and its concern for law enforcement—The Hundred Clubs.

Completely autonomous units composed of local civic-minded citizenry, the Hundred Clubs now number more than 50 across this land of ours. They are mini corporations with boards of directors and executive directors, who meet perhaps once or twice a year, have neither sales or profits, and who would be only too happy to go out of business, but know they can never do it. Tax-exempt by the I.R.S., the Hundred Clubs collect funds from select members, created a treasury and provide instant financial assistance to the widow and dependents of law officers and firemen killed in line of duty.

The clubs, also known as the Bluecoats, Heroes, Backstoppers, 200 Clubs and by other names, are composed of selfless individuals, often businessmen, who contribute so much annually to support the laudatory work. With rare exceptions, members have no connection with law enforcement work. They do their work quietly and without fanfare. Gifts of $1,000 or $2,000 are given to widows, often within 24 hours of the tragedy, to ensure that they are not confronted with financial burdens in addition to the already unbearable burden of the loss of a husband.

With funds generated by initiation fees, dues and contributions, the Hundred Clubs make benefits available to widows regardless of whether the death was due to the man in blue being felled while directing traffic or giving the last full measure in a drawn gun battle with a notorious criminal. Funds are given whether the uniformed officer died in a blazing house fire or while conducting a prisoner to jail. All families of law enforcement officers and firemen within the jurisdiction of the local clubs are the beneficiaries.

The warm personal attention stemming from the local character of the clubs, in which members know the officers, is in sharp contrast to conventional survivor benefits and pensions of work contracts. This personal hand can be seen in the Christmas gifts to youngsters, scholarship programs for college, paying off mortgages, wiping out debts and offering legal guidance.

Perhaps the most cherished benefit is that the widow knows she is not alone in her grief. Bereaved, and often bewildered, the widow can rely on the Hundred Clubs for guidance in handling financial affairs, legal questions, real estate transactions and the like.

The SAR Law Enforcement Committee, which I am privileged to serve as first chairman, is deeply concerned with law enforcement and the need for broader support from the citizens of this country. We are encouraging SAR members in particular and the public in general to support law officers and their work. Along those lines we supervise and administer the awarding of the SAR Law Enforcement Commendation Medal. If you recall, the first recipient of the award was the long-time Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Mr. J. Edgar Hoover.

Another facet of our Committee is that it supports the work of the Hundred Clubs, which in turn supports our law officers and law enforcement. As firm believers in government under law, our international association of more than 20,000 descendants of men who actively supported the American cause during the Revolution in 1776 can be a powerful influence in support of the law officer and his family.

Perhaps it would be helpful if I reviewed the history of the Hundred Clubs for you.

Originally, when the Detroit, Michigan, Hundred Club—the first in the nation—was formed in 1950, benefits were only for survivors of policemen killed in line of duty. Through the years, with the creation of more clubs, coverage has been expanded to include assistance to survivors of firemen, marshalls, correction guards, and others. Many cover state troopers and federal law officers, and a growing number now include conservation officers in their charters.

Initiation dues and fees differ significantly among the clubs. Some charge $100 initiation fees and $100 dues annually while others require $200 on both counts. Still others have initiation fees and no dues. Some rely solely on voluntary contributions. A number offer $1,000 life memberships, while a few have graduated scales for individuals and corporations. The term Hundred Club stems from the initial club's invitation to 100 businessmen to join the Detroit unit. Some clubs retain the limit of 100. But that number ranges up into the thousands for some clubs.

The need is definitely there. In 1973 guns, knives and assorted and sordid weaponry and accidents killed some 134 law enforcement officers. With firemen, this totals to more than 200. Preliminary F.B.I. figures indicate that total was matched in 1974. Their deaths left nearly three times their number in immediate family survivors. A very few areas have somewhat adequate survivor benefits; unfortunately, the vast majority do not. Moreover the Hundred Clubs are more than just a written check—they are people.

Vice-Chairman of the SAR Law Enforcement Committee, The Honorable John Mowbray, Supreme Court Justice of the State of Nevada, and I believe that support of the Hundred Clubs is in keeping with one of the purposes of the Sons of The American Revolution, which is to promote and develop constructive citizenship among the people of the United States. We should care for those law officers who care for us. Unfortunately there are not enough such Hundred Clubs in the country.

The majority of the existing ones are east of the Mississippi River and primarily in the Northeast. Drawing a straight line from the Texas-Louisiana boundary on the Gulf of Mexico to the North Dakota-Minnesota border on Canada, there are only four of the 17 western states with Hundred Clubs. They are Texas, California, Nebraska and Colorado, with seven clubs. There are 45 clubs in the remaining 31 continental United States and one in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Cleveland leads the nation with clubs; New Jersey is next with four; and New York, Florida and Michigan have three each. But there are whole areas with no clubs. Ironically, and tragically, it is those areas which have the least survivor benefits and officers pay scale which do not have such Hundred Clubs.

Last year (May 4, 1974), the Hundred Clubs Informational Council was formed at a meeting in which 55 officers and directors, representing some 20 Hundred Clubs from Arizona to New Hampshire, as well as chiefs of national fraternal police organizations, attended. I was honored to be named chairman.

The Hundred Clubs Informational Council, among other things, will be a central clearing house for the exchange of information on what clubs are doing and a source of information on legislation affecting the law enforcement profession.

But I hope it will be much more. I hope it will be the touchstone to spark a generation of new clubs all across the nation. Coordinated efforts by the Hundred Clubs will certainly result in greater effectiveness. The Council has produced a number of newsletters which have enjoyed wide circulation and has attempted to stimulate interest in the movement and volunteers to create new units. We have already heard from interested citizens and we hope that the seeds of hope sowed at the 1974 meeting will bear fruit. It would be a sweet reward.

But the real beneficiaries are not only the widows but the communities, when its men in blue know that such organizations as the SAR and the Hundred Clubs are behind them.

We are certain that SAR members support the Hundred Clubs in areas where they are already formed. But perhaps there are no such clubs in your area, county or state. Perhaps you can be the stimulus for formation of one. If you and other law-minded citizens would like to form one, please let me know and I'll supply you with all the data and information you need and names of officials of clubs nearest you. I pledge you my assistance as well.

(Please contact Ordway P. Burden
250 East 87th Street
New York, N.Y. 10028, regarding the possibility of starting a Hundred Club in your area.)

At ceremonies marking the transfer of the Stafford Hill Memorial from the Mass. Society, SAR, to the Town of Cheshire, are portrayed (l to r): John Abbott, State Secty. Homer F. Dean, Eugene Richards, Michael Hutchinson, Taylor Massie, State Pres. Clark B. Loth, David Gray and John Abbott. Compatriots Loth and Dean are shown presenting the deed to Town Rep. Hutchinson.

Nature's Way

SENTIMENTAL MEN AND WOMEN, observing the weaknesses of the human race, hope to spare their fellow-beings pain and suffering by relieving them of personal responsibility.

Thus we get our uplift movements, our paternalism, our coddling of the shiftless, the thriftless, the unfit.

This man will not save money for his old age; therefore, we shall do his saving for him.

Another man will not learn a trade; therefore, we shall protect him against the consequences by unemployment insurance. A third man refuses to conserve his health; therefore, we shall pay him a weekly dole in time of sickness.

That is not nature's way. Nature would compel us to suffer the consequences of our acts. Nature puts the responsibility on the individual.

We do not argue for less sympathy and kindness. We merely urge the necessity of responsibility.

Calendars are not returnable

AMERICA takes just pride in her accomplishments of the past—her rise from a few scattered settlements in a wild unbroken country to those Thirteen independent, liberty-loving Colonies of Washington's time. In brief, this lovely Historical Art Calendar tells this dramatic story—the discovery and exploration of the continent, and the settlement, the fight for independence, expansion, progress and growth of our people—and does it pictorially. Here is a calendar which presents in a fascinating way the amazing growth of our nation, its great personalities in history, and the remarkable achievements accomplished by our people in the American Way of Life. It is a calendar which will instill confidence and give optimism to the American future through an interesting study of America's glorious past and of the traditional sound character found in our people. It provides inspiration for, and an education in, the American Way of Life. It is of especial value and interest to school children and history lovers, a colorful addition to any American home.

NOTABLES ATTEND NATIONAL TRUSTEES' RECEPTION IN WASHINGTON

A colorful reception for the National Trustees, hosted by President General and Mrs. M. Graham Clark, Jr. was held on October 11 at our National Headquarters. The Compatriots and their ladies enjoyed a sociable evening and exotic repast. The event was enhanced with the presence of U.S. Congressman John R. Rarick and two foreign ambassadors of nations friendly to our country.

Top: Pres. Gen. Clark greets Ambassador Sevilla-Sacasa, who is the highest-ranking foreign diplomat in the United States.

Center: Congressman Rarick, a close friend of the SAR, addresses the Compatriots and their ladies.

Bottom: Ambassador Sevilla-Sacasa brings greetings to the SAR from the diplomatic community of Washington.

A magnificent patriot, Congressman Rarick, confers with Ambassador Shen and Mrs. Rarick.

Two warm friends of the United States, Ambassadors Sevilla-Sacasa and Shen, greet each other as Congressman and Mrs. Rarick look on.

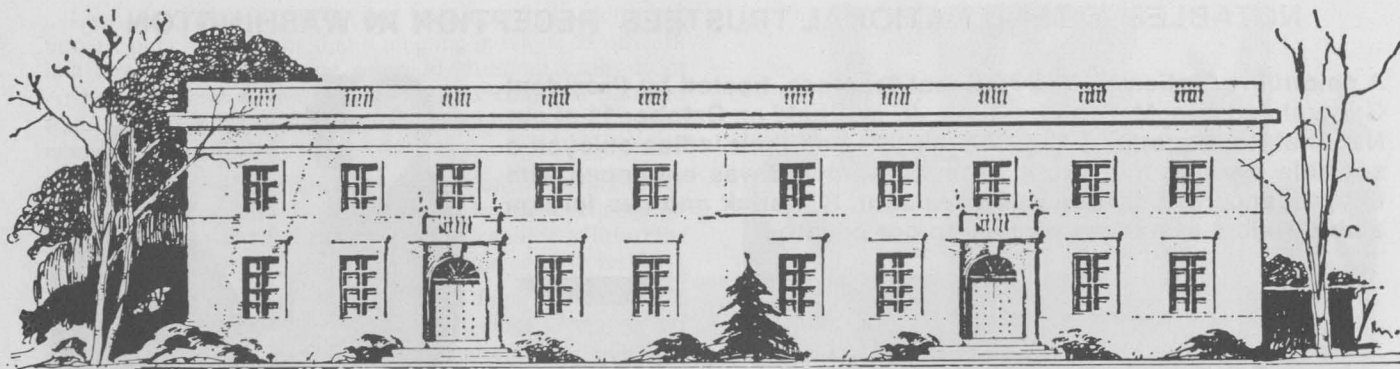

Announcing

The 85th Annual SAR Congress at The Copley Plaza, Boston, Mass.

Plan now to join in the pleasure and excitement of an SAR Congress at one of the most historic locations in America, headquartered at one of Boston's most luxurious hotels, with the nicest people in the world... your Compatriots, their Families and Friends.

June 29, 30, July 1, and July 2, 1975

Present SAR National Headquarters

Projected Addition

It is becoming increasingly difficult for the National Headquarters staff to operate efficiently because the present facilities, originally designed as a private home, are no longer adequate. With the mounting work load, together with a growing inventory of genealogical volumes and museum items, we must have more space for offices, records, library and museum. The practical and most economical solution is the construction of an adjoining building, to be built upon our adjoining side lot. The building has been authorized by the National Trustees and the 77th Annual Congress . . . subject to our ability to raise the necessary funds. Exhibit the spirit of sacrifice displayed by your Revolutionary forebears, and join the distinguished ranks below. Your tax-deductible donation may be dedicated to the memory of a loved one. Please act today.

Donations to the Building Fund

The following list acknowledges those who have donated $100 or more to the SAR Building Fund. Due to the space factor, listing of donors of lesser amounts will be printed but once, in the magazine issue following the donation.

The National Society
Sons of the American Revolution

Washington, D.C.

It is our privilege to announce limited availability of THE WINDSOR COLLECTION to members and friends of the SAR. These truly magnificent lithographs portray twelve American regimental uniforms worn during the first ninety years of our independence. The collection is on display at our National Headquarters, and all viewers thus far have been enthusiastic in their praise.

For those purchasing these lithographs through the SAR National Headquarters, the publishers, Heirloom Fine Art Publications of Wimbledon, England, will donate 15% of the purchase price in the buyer's name to the SAR Building Fund, to their state society or to their local chapter.

Ideal for personal enjoyment, or for presentation.

To Commemorate the Bicentenary of American Independence

Please send me without obligation to purchase full color folio of the Windsor Collection and Subscription Application Form.

BOSTON WELCOMES YOU!

Dear Compatriots and Guests,

Boston, The Hub City and known as "The Athens of the Western World," invites you to the 85th Annual Congress. We are planning your visit to include many of those great places which will bring back the moments when our nation and its principles of personal liberty, the rights to property, and freedom of faith and communications were first established on this earth.

Many of the great educational institutions of the world are located here, and you are invited to visit Harvard, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Wellesley, Radcliffe, and a score of others. Here were educated many of the great men of our country, including Benjamin Franklin, J. P. Morgan, Elihu Yale, the two Adams Presidents, and others. Close by are many of the great prep schools, including Phillips Academy, Andover; St. Mark's; Middlesex, and others.

At Concord was fired "the shot heard 'round the world" and from the belfry of the Old North Church, there shone the lanterns on the night of April 18, 1775, which alerted Paul Revere to start his great ride to every Middlesex village and farm, "A hurry of hoofs in a village street . . ."

You will thrill to the decks of the U.S.S. Constitution, designed, built, and launched in Boston, oldest and most famous warship in commission and afloat, a ship which quelled the Tripoli pirates and was immortalized by the lines of our own poet, Oliver Wendell Holmes:

"Aye, tear her tattered ensign down!
Long has it waved on high . . ."

It was the men from Marblehead who rowed George Washington across the Delaware, and it was from the docks of Salem that many of the great fortunes of the country commenced.

Here Dr. Alexander Graham Bell heard the first words ever carried by electricity.

We shall hold our church service in Trinity Church, the architectural masterpiece of Henry Hobson Richardson, whose pulpit Phillips Brooks made world-famous.

And today in the hurly-burly of industry and science, the names of Raytheon, Polaroid, The First National Bank of Boston, the Massachusetts Investors Trust—the largest of the mutual funds—and a score of other names rank prominent.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Massachusetts Society, SAR, eagerly await your arrival, and will do their best to ensure a happy and successful Congress.

Asa E. Phillips, Jr.
State Chairman

Greeting to the Ladies,

One of the nicest parts of life is making warm friendships. In these times when many are indulging in the dangerous pastime of downgrading America, it is a special joy to be with those who support it and want to make it greater.

While the men sit in meetings, we are free to shop, chat, and live again those stirring times when, as now, liberty depended upon a willingness to become involved. Come to Boston so we can get to know each other better and share in the inspiration which comes from revisiting scenes where our ancestors staked their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

Yours with faith in America,

Anne W. Phillips, M.D.

THE RT. REV.
FRANK H. BENNING,
S.T.D.

The GEORGIA SOCIETY proudly presents its own Chaplain and National Trustee, The Rt. Rev. Frank H. Benning, S.T.D., as its Candidate for Chaplain General of the National Society, at the 85th Annual Congress in Boston in 1975, AND CORDIALLY INVITES EVERYBODY'S SUPPORT.

Bishop Frank Benning and his wife, Elizabeth Ramsey Benning, have four unmarried children, and the Bishop is an enthusiastic SAR Compatriot. He is Chaplain of the Atlanta Chapter and the Georgia Society, and is the Georgia Society's National Trustee.

Bishop Frank Benning, native Atlantan and Auburn University architectural graduate, is a registered, practicing architect. He is a York Rite Mason, a Shriner, and rector of St. James Anglican Episcopal Church, Atlanta.

Long time Protestant Episcopal layman, Brotherhood of Saint Andrew member, lay reader, Sunday School Superintendent, Vestryman, Junior Warden and Senior Warden, Frank Benning left that Church in 1968 to help organize an Anglican parish in Atlanta.

Frank Benning studied for the priesthood, was admitted by examination, and ordained deacon and priest in 1968. His S.T.D. degree was conferred in 1969 by Evangelical Bible School and Seminary. He was consecrated Suffragan Bishop, Jurisdiction Eastern U.S.A. by the Anglican Episcopal Church in late 1973.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF NATIONAL TRUSTEES OCTOBER 12, 1974

President General Clark called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m. The Invocation was rendered by Chaplain Gen. Gerhart, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. The roll was called by Secty. Gen. Miller, establishing the presence of a quorum.

It was moved by Past Pres. Gen. Sterling, seconded and passed that the minutes of the last meeting stand approved as distributed by mail.

It was moved by Comp. Bryan, seconded and passed that visitors be granted freedom of the floor without the right to vote.

Pres. Gen. Glark delivered a verbal report of his term in office to date. He reported that he has done much traveling and has been busy carrying out his obligations. He commended Exec. Secty. and Mrs. Woodward for a most successful reception the previous evening at National Headquarters, adding that the program was greatly enhanced by the presence of the Ambassador of the Republic of Nicaragua (Dean of the Diplomatic Corps), the Ambassador of the Republic of China and U.S. Congressman John Rarick.

Secty. Gen. Miller delivered his report verbally. Treas. Gen. Pabst distributed copies of his report to each attendee. Registrar Gen. Amsler delivered his report verbally. He reported an increase in membership, and urged all members to step up their recruiting efforts. Historian Gen. Remington and Genealogist Gen. Bryan stated that their reports were on file. Chancellor Gen. Brady delivered his report verbally. Chaplain Gen. Gerhart delivered his report verbally. All Vice Presidents General in attendance reported on their districts individually.

Exec. Secty. Woodward reported that President Ford is now an SAR member. He commented that President Ford is the only President to have joined while in office. He further noted that Vice President Designate Rockefeller has been an SAR member for several years. He further reported that all of the Resolutions of the last Congress were reprinted in their entirety seven times in the Congressional Record. Comp. Woodward announced that Past Pres. Gen. Sterling had donated the new sound system which was being used at the meeting. He thanked Past Librarian Gen. Grahame T. Smallwood, Jr. for his genealogical assistance in preparing the papers for President Ford's membership. He further added that we are indebted to Past Vice Pres. Gen. Donald Baldwin for assisting in the President's membership. Comp. Woodward also expressed the Society's thanks to Secty. Gen. Miller for his substantial gift to the last Congress.

Americanism Committee Chairman Epperson was not present but his report was delivered by Secty. Gen. Miller.

Basic Documents Comm. Chairman Long reported verbally.

Bicentennial Comm. Chairman McGuire spoke at length, and stressed that our projected new building is the official SAR national Bicentennial project. He further urged members to donate at least $50.00 so that they would qualify for a silver Bicentennial ingot.

Building Fund Comm. Chairman Anderson reported that the cornerstone for our new building should be laid on July 4, 1976. However, before construction can begin, donations must accelerate. At this point, Compatriots Hoffman, Haley, Miller and Edwards made sizeable donations to Chairman Anderson.

Building Fund Management Comm. Chairman Howard Anderson gave his report verbally, referring to the financial report that had been distributed to all present.

Bylaws Comm. Chairman Burch stated that his report had been filed.

Flag Comm. Chairman Edwards reported verbally.

How-They-Vote Comm. Chairman Erwin delivered a verbal report of promising growth of his program throughout the nation.

Audit Comm. Chairman Harris reported verbally.

Insurance and Pensions Comm. Chairman Gardiner delivered an oral report, and moved that the SAR adopt a health benefit program. The motion was regularly passed unanimously.

Membership Comm. Chairman Sellers stated that his report had been filed.

Permanent Fund Comm. Chairman Burn delivered a detailed report, and much discussion followed. Mrs. Shore, National Headquarters accountant, and the Executive Secretary assisted in answering pertinent questions from those present.

Resolutions Comm. Chairman Barnes delivered a verbal report, and requested that compatriots submit proposed resolutions throughout the year.

Revolutionary Graves Comm. Chairman Walworth stated that his report was on file.

A motion by Secty. Gen. Smith that a memorial page in the magazine be dedicated to Past Pres. Gen. Charles A. Jones was passed unanimously. Past Pres. Gen. Sterling stated that he had made a donation to the Building Fund in memory of Comp. Jones, and recommended that all do likewise.

The resignation of the California Trustee was submitted. A motion by Comp. Bryant that he be replaced by Comp. Robert H. Swadley was passed.

A recommendation by the state presidents at the last Congress was presented, relative to free distribution of membership applications to all state societies. It was the recommendation of the Executive Committee that this action be tabled. A supporting motion by Comp. Sterling was defeated. Comp. Burn moved that each state society be sent 12 sets of application blanks. He withdrew this motion for one by Comp. Sellers that these blanks be furnished only upon specific request by a state society. Upon motion by Comp. Burri, Comp. Sellers' motion was tabled. A motion by Comp. Gardiner that free application forms be sent to each state society was regularly passed. The motion specified that the quantity be limited to 10% of each state society's membership as indicated by its last annual report. Preparation instruction booklets are not to accompany the application forms unless they are expressly requested.

A motion by Comp. Sterling that staff members with more than one year of service be granted the usual Christmas bonus of two weeks salary was regularly passed.

Upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, Comp. Len Young Smith moved that the dates for the next Executive Committee and Trustees Meetings be Feb. 14 and 15, 1975. The motion was carried.

The recommendation of the Executive Committee that a promotional brochure be prepared by the Building Fund Committee was discussed. A motion by Comp. Anderson to table the recommendation was regularly passed.

There was no old business.

"New business" commenced with the introduction of Vincent G. Burns, Poet Laureate of Maryland, by Vice Pres. Gen. Head. Mr. Burns requested $1,000 for the printing of 500 copies of a patriotic play he has written. A motion by Comp. Head to refer the matter to the Bicentennial Committee was passed.

Comp. Morse described SAR Bicentennial activities in Connecticut.

Past Pres. Gen. Martin spoke at length on the projected new building, and expressed his opinion that our Building Fund goal could be realized only when a promotional brochure was available.

The Benediction was delivered by Chaplain Gen. Gerhart. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:12 p.m.

According to the President's report, "To Establish Justice and Insure Domestic Tranquility", only 3/10 of 1% of all people possessing firearms were responsible for all gun crimes, most of whom were previously convicted felons.
