The PRESIDENT GENERAL'S MESSAGE ~~~

from Fort Lauderdale, Florida

MATTHEW B. SELLERS, III
PRESIDENT GENERAL

My term of office is more than half over and it is difficult to tell where the time has gone. My visits to our State Societies have been enjoyable and I hope beneficial to all concerned. My hosts have been most gracious and I want to thank them again for their consideration.

So far I have visited Louisiana, Nebraska, Oregon, California, Utah, Nevada, Colorado, Illinois, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Florida, New Mexico and Arizona.

This spring I intend to visit Georgia, Kentucky, Indiana, West Virginia, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Texas, Alabama, Kansas, Maryland, Michigan, Washington, DC, Wisconsin and Tennessee. Many of the meetings are District Meetings with several other states represented.

Most of our state societies recognize that the obtaining of new members is one of their important goals and the methods of achieving this has been one of my main topics of discussion. Along this line, the formation of new chapters is one of our prime objectives. This is the best way to guarantee the growth of our society. I recently installed the Southernmost Chapter of the SAR in Marathon Shores, Florida. Helping me with the installation were two Vice Presidents General, a member of my Executive Committee, a National Trustee and the State President. I mention this to emphasize the importance we place on new chapters.

The sale of our National Headquarters is just about complete and probably will be by the time this magazine reaches you. We are now faced with finding a location for our new headquarters. We have had many suggestions and are evaluating all of them.

Our By-Laws Committee is at work with several major by-law changes. If you have suggestions for by-law changes, your state society should submit them to the Chairman of the By-Laws Committee, Richard H. Thompson, Jr., 1311 Brightwaters Blvd., N.E., St. Petersburg, Florida 33704, as soon as possible.

EDITORIAL

WARREN S. WOODWARD EDITOR

You see. I'm basically an old-fashioned guy who wants to believe that his President is the wisest and most patriotic of all Americans. However, I also believe that he is not a celestial being, above criticism. If you object to my frank opinions, turn the page now because I'm going to explain just why I'm worried.

Amnesty: This was President Carter's first official act, and it is an unforgivable betrayal of the 50,000 dead and 300,000 wounded Americans of the Vietnam War. Its impact upon our future defense is obvious and undeniable.

Theodore Sorensen: His nomination to head our intelligence agencies was rejected, but why was he selected in the first place? He publicly supported the theft of the Pentagon Papers, and personally abused his own access to classified information. This self-proclaimed pacifist, with no qualifications for the post, disregarded confidentiality and violation of personal oath. His praise and assistance of breaches of national security denote characteristics that would have further crippled our intelligence capabilities.

Paul Warnke: Nominated by the President as the nation's chief arms control negotiator, this man constitutes another incredibly bad selection. Warnke's known philosophy is that we should disarm first as an example to the Soviets. How naive can one be?

Gun Control: The President's national campaign manager, Hamilton Jordan, less than 2 months ago, said "... Carter will really go on gun control and really be tough. We're going to get those bastards."

Andrew Young: I need only quote our new Ambassador to the United Nations: "... it may take the destruction of Western civilization to allow the rest of the world to really emerge as a free and brotherly society". "... Communism has never been a threat to black people." "... the Cubans bring a certain stability and order to Angola." What a representative for the United States of America!

Terrorists: They're "bad guys" if they're Arabs or Irish, but if they're African blacks . . . well, that's different. We're going to support them. Remember that when Rhodesia and South Africa fall within the Soviet block, Russia will control the world's platinum, uranium, vanadium, manganese and gold!

Panama Canal: In the deceitful tradition of Henry Kissinger, subvert discussions continue for handing over the Panama Canal Zone to the Communist enemy. A recent poll by a member of Congress indicates that the American people are 553 to 1 against the impending giveaway.

Nationalist China: Vice President Mondale has returned from a visit to our allies, but the Administration saw fit to snub one of our oldest and most trusted allies, the Republic of China on Taiwan. A new Carter "face", Michel Oksenberg is on the National Security Council, working to oust Free China, and replace recognition with the Mainland Communist bandits. The last Gallup poll reported that 7 of every 10 Americans favor retention of our diplomatic ties with the free Republic of China

Plan NOW to attend the 87th Annual Congress June 26, 27, 28, 29, 1977 The Pfister Hotel & Tower Milwaukee, Wisconsin

U.S. Congressman Dan Quayle (R.-Ind.) becomes SAR Compatriot Quayle as Registrar Gen. Jack K. Carmichael (rt) presents his membership certificate. The induction ceremony took place at the Congressman's office in Washington, D.C.

Harold Brown: The new Secretary of Defense who doesn't seem to believe in adequate defense. At this critical time when we are militarily weaker than the Soviets, he has proposed $2.8 billion in reductions in our defense capability. The programs and production that have been phased out or reduced are truly frightening. All this, in spite of a Dec. 15 poll by Opinion Research Corp. showing that 65% of the public believe that the U.S. should be militarily stronger than Russia. Only 29% believe that we are.

I'm also shocked by the Carters' choice of a convicted murderess to be a White House guest during the Inauguration. The Georgia Parole Board was cajoled into granting the lifer a 3½ day pass, so she could attend inaugural ceremonies including 2 inaugural balls with the Carters, and sleep 2 nights in the White House. By contrast, our President General, the head of America's largest male patriotic society, was ignored without even a token invitation to any inaugural function. Now, it has been announced that the convicted murderess will remain at the White House as the nation's First Baby Sit-

I fervently hope that my fears are not realized, and that Jimmy Carter will ultimately emerge as one of the finest Presidents in our history . . . but at this point, I have grave doubts. I pray that I am wrong!

NOW HEAR THIS

Based on the detailed and painstaking research of the History and Museum Division, Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, Washington, D.C., and in particular its Director, Brigadier General E. H. Simmons, U.S.M.C., Ret., I wrote an article entitled. Marines in the Revolution, which was published in the Philethes Magazine in two parts, October 1975 and October 1976. Without this research, no article would have been written by me.

Consequently, it is with great pleasure that I commend to your reading another fine work compiled by Martin K. Gordon entitled, Joseph Henry Pendleton: 1860-1942, A Register of His Personal Papers-1975.

This publication documents the fact of Major General Pendleton's SAR membership as well as his Masonic and civic activities. A copy of this book is in the library at National SAR Headquarters.

NEWS and events

Your SAR Magazine staff recommends that state societies appoint a qualified compatriot to assemble and transmit ready-to-print material to the office of the Editor. Cooperation by such state societies will obviously enable us to accord them a maximum of representation within these pages.

Do not send newspaper clippings or chapter notices, instead of ready-to-print resumes of activities.

Many situations necessitate the editing of submitted copy, and we reserve the customary editorial prerogative of condensing or omitting that which circumstances justify.

Due to limited space, the text of speeches and essays cannot be published.

Submitted photographs must be black and white glossy prints, for satisfactory reproduction, and must be "SAR subject-related."

Do not send photographs or material which are of such value that their return is necessitated. A service charge of $1 will be made for each photo or item that must be returned. Any news material that predates the last previous deadline will be considered too outdated for publication, and will be rejected.

Craig's membership was approved on Aug. 18, his 18th birthday! He is probably the youngest SAR in the nation. His father is Chief Justice James Cameron of the Arizona Supreme Court; and his mother, Suzanne Pratt Cameron, Past DAR State Regent, is the daughter of Pres. Edward H. Pratt of the Palo Verde Chapter, SAR. As Guest Speaker, Pres. Gen. Sellers discussed membership, the relocation of our National Headquarters and "At The Beginning", the Arizona Society's art gift to the National Society. The work was created by Comp. Loyal R. Addington of the Saguaro Chapter. State Pres. Peyton commended Comp. & Mrs. Edward H. Pratt and Comp. & Mrs. C. Spencer Shotwell for their splendid efforts in planning the Sept. 17 program. A significant event that accentuated the festivities was the 36th wedding anniversary of Pres. & Mrs. Peyton, and their smiles of happiness reflected the many happy years. Before the conclusion of the program, Comp. Sellers was presented with a beautiful bola tie, the official neck-wear of Arizona.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY

The critical Battle of Trenton on Dec. 26, 1776, was also memorialized. First V.P. Leroy Coffroth arranged the program and Pres. James B. Hoge chaired the event. Almost 100 attended, enjoying the magnificent atmosphere of the Officers Club at McClelland AF Base.

An opportunity of exceptional merit has presented itself, incorporating the cooperation of the SAR and the Military Order of World Wars (MOWW) in the promotion of patriotic education, not only within the organizations, but to encompass all freedom-loving and God-fearing groups throughout the nation.

Few realize that, on a very frugal budget, Patriotic Education has been able to distribute patriotic publications to thousands of youth and adults through schools, civic groups and other organizations such as Farm Bureaus and American Legion Boys States and Girls States for the past 25

This is a step in the right direction to increase Patriotic Education effectiveness by generating more support and interest from sustaining memberships. If you'd like to assist in this vital program, please write to Patriotic Education, Inc., 1447 W. Euclid Ave., Deland, Fla. 32720.

The Padre Says . . .

SAMUEL J. HOLT, D.D., Chaplain General

Tolerance is a beautiful word when you use it in the sense of a common term of reference. In the religious spirit of the present time, it is good to see Protestants, Roman Catholics and Jews sharing their common understanding of the moral and spiritual values that go back to Adam. It is a good and unifying thing for this country to lay aside the religious bigotry that divided our common testimony to a faith that takes us back to the dawn of recorded history. It has enriched the observance of our Bicentennial to have recognized the common contributions made by members of these various groups in the struggle for our independence. I am proud of the white cap that I have from a Jewish wedding, and I count it a privilege to have served on the altar of St. Peter-in-Chains Cathedral. I am not less of Presbyterian pastor, but more of a servant of God for these experiences.

Tolerance can be an ugly word when it is used to group together those who have no frame of common reference. It is a weasling effort to compromise the principles of faith and practice. To pretend that Christianity and Communism have common backgrounds and common purposes is pure false-

Yes, Communism is a religion. It has its category of saints and its cathedral on Red Square in Moscow. It has its own god-matter in motion, dialectically directed. Its Chosen People are the Proletariat destined to inherit the earth, and its sacred writings are those of Marx, Lenin and the record of their deeds. They definitely believe in a "last judgment", with its separation of the sheep and goats, saints and sinners, which is to be found in Communism's violent overthrow of Capitalism and the enthronement of the Proletariat. This is their day of salvation which shall be Now

Some seem to feel that Communism is a Christian heresy, and that somehow or other this heresy might become orthodox. This is false. Communism stands in opposition to our faith. It is not a Christian heresy, but a world religion contending with Christianity for the souls of men. Let us recognize that should Communism engulf the world that Christianity will survive once again through suffering and martyrdom. However, we shall survive though what else may be left of the world that now exists as the accomplishment of the centuries may be a question. No matter how we may differ as to the nature of the Church "built upon this rock", "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Christianity is concerned with the Kingdom of God, but to have a kingdom, you must first have a King. This is where many have gone astray. They have tried to create a kingdom without a king. They have too readily equated social progress, political platforms and economic reforms with the Kingdom of God, without God's spirit in the hearts of men and at the center of their programs. We have been told that if we had a world in which peace prevails, in which there is no coercion, with its people well fed, well housed, and well clothed, then we would have the Kingdom. But-do you have a Kingdom when truth is suppressed?—when personality is defamed?--where there is slavery?--when multitudes are confined behind an Iron Curtain?

War demands special efforts for in the contest, while there may be no winner, there is destruction for the loser. No soft, easy going practice of religion can prevail. Just as through the winter of suffering and devotion to God and country at Valley Forge, there came later the victory of Yorktown, so we must be willing to witness to a compelling life directing faith which provides the soil for freedom. No land falls to Communism where there is a vital faith in God and whose institutions have Him for their foundations. Man-made tryanny and the love of God are not compatible, and this was the faith of our forefathers.

Liberty Bell Visits Elementary Schools

After the dedication of our replica Liberty Bell at SAR Headquarters on Oct. 30, Bicentennial Chairman Joseph Head visited 25 Baltimore and Northern Virginia elementary schools. He spoke to grades 2 thru 6, numbering about 10,000 students. The students showed as much interest as the young visitor shown in the pictures of the dedication. The interest of the children in Joe Head's talk is proved by the close attention and therefore quiet attendance throughout all of his 30 minute talk. Several compatriots have attended various school visits including one who attended 14 schools. They as well as the principles have observed this strong interest. The lecture included the history of the original bell in Philadelphia, stories from American history and messages of patriotism, private enterprise and personal living told at the children's level. Access to the schools has been easy. Telephone calls to the area superintendants have resulted in return calls with a schedule of visits. Principals and teachers have cooperated fully. A visit requires under 2 hours including ringing of the bell parked beside the school by all of the children.

SAR MAGAZINE

The President General and SAR First Lady win hearts in Albuquerque, N.M.

(Top) It: Albuquerque Chapter Pres. Nelson T. Turner presents the City's Certificate of Appreciation to Pres. Gen. Sellers. rt: Comp. and Mrs. Sellers "visit" with DAR Chapter Regent Carole Tingley (It).

(Bottom): The happy atmosphere of the event is reflected in the bestowal of SAR Medals of Appreciation to DAR V.P. Gen. Alma Fricke (It) and to DAR State Regent Bernece Ocksrider.

According to some Compatriots who attended the Philadelphia Congress, the following resolution was adopted there.

WHEREAS: The Government of The United States of America, deriving its just powers through the consent of the governed and having its authority limited by the written Constitution, exists with a purpose to maintain the rights of the individual citizen; the historic right of every citizen is his to declare as his possession home and land; in that right all citizens may thereby enjoy the fruits of their labor and thrift:-and

WHEREAS: Support of that moral concept of Private Property assures liberty and freedom, so does denial of the enjoyment of property to an equal measure subtract both liberty and freedom;-

WHEREAS: The "Habitat Conference on Human Settlement" of The United Nations with 134 nations attending, proposes world-wide control of all lands by government; it condemns private ownership of land and harangues our custom as "Social Injustice":-and

WHEREAS: The rules of The United Nations are accepted as superseding those of our constituted government; such rules in making, would grant that government becomes the single and exclusive landlord with ourselves as but tenants; this Socialistic objective threatens confiscation of our homes, our land and surrender of our liberty and our freedom;-and

WHEREAS: The United Nations by a series of acts has placed itself outside of our concurrent aims and our trust; acceptance of the stated objectives of The United Nations would be at a peril comparable to tyranny: therefore-

BE IT RESOLVED: That we in patriotic sincerity and as The Sons of the American Revolution, petition The Government of The United States of America to withdraw support and its membership from The United Nations; -and

BE IT RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be directed to the President of the United States, the Ambassador to The United Nations, the Foreign Relations Committees of the Senate and the House of Representatives and to all members of the United States

In Philadelphia on this 200th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. Adopted June 16, 1976.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

"Run away from the subscriber, living on Jacob's creek, near Stewart's crossing, in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, on Sunday night, the 24th instant, a convict servant man, named William Orr, the property of Col. George Washington. He is a well-made man, about five feet ten inches high, and about twenty-four years of age. He was born in Scotland, and speaks that dialect pretty much. He is of a red complexion, and very full-faced, with short, sandy-colored hair, and very remarkable thumbs, they being both crooked. He had on, and took with him, an old felt hat, bound with black binding; one white cotton coat and jacket, with black horn buttons; one old brown jacket; one pair of snuff-colored breeches; one pair of trowsers, made in sailors' fashion-and they are made of sail duck, and have not been washed; a pair of red leggins, and shoes tied with strings; two Osnaberg shirts, and one Holland shirt marked 'V.C.,' which he stole,

"He stole, likewise, a black horse, about fourteen hands high, branded on the near shoulder and buttock 'R.W.,' and shod before. He had neither bridle or saddle that we knew of. I expect he will make to some seaport town, as he has been much used to the seas. Whoever takes up said servant, and secures him, so that he and horse may be had again, shall receive the above reward, or three pounds for the man alone; and reasonable charges, if brought home, paid by me.
