Robert E. Burt Boy Scout Volunteer Award

The Robert E. Burt Boy Scout Volunteer Award is a national recognition approved by the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR). It may be presented to any member of the SAR in good standing who is currently active in a scout unit, district, or council or an SAR member that has displayed outstanding dedication to the Scouting Program.

The emphasis of this award is on the importance of being selective. There is no rule that a quota must be used every year. No honorary recognitions should be made. The purpose of this award is to recognize the recipient's outstanding service to youth through the programs of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA).

Guide for Selection Committee

The following are some award qualifications. An individual who possesses a combination of these would meet the requirements for this recognition. These are offered as only a guide. However, the criteria are indicative of what the Selection Committee should be seeking. This list is not inclusive as there are many other areas that could be considered. The award candidate:

- A.) Has notably served in bringing Scouting to more youth.
- B.) Has assisted local SAR chapters and state-level societies in forming Scouting units to be operated by local SAR societies and other groups.
- C.) Is active in promoting and expanding the use of the American Heritage, Genealogy, and Law merit badges.
- D.) Has recruited youth to earn the American Heritage, Genealogy, and Law merit badges and merit badge counselors to assist them.
- E.) Is fully trained in the skills of Scouting and outstanding in the areas of responsibility, humility, and setting a good example.
- F.) Has made a significant contribution to the SAR and Scouting by bringing the two movements together to serve the community.
- G.) Has led in offering Scouting to all youth regardless of race, creed, or income level, and has been instrumental in organizing Scouting units, especially in the inner city or other low-income community.
- H.) Has participated in promoting the SAR Arthur M. & Berdena King Eagle Scout Award at the chapter, state, or national levels.

Please note that work accomplishment and dedication, rather than a specific number of years in Scouting, should be the criteria for receiving the Robert E. Burt Boy Scout Volunteer Award.
