The President General's Message

Dear Compatriots:

It seems but yesterday that Twila and I attended the 113th Annual Congress in Chicago – and when I was installed as your President General! The Congress was a most impressive and outstanding success. Illinois Society Compatriots, under the leadership of Joe Smith (who served as Chairman of the Host Society Congress Planning Committee), deserve our gratitude and appreciation for a job well done.

My visits to District and State Society gatherings started in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania July 25-26 for the Annual Meeting of the Atlantic Middle States Conference. On hand for this traditional event were Compatriots from both the North Atlantic and Mid-Atlantic Districts – and for the first time representatives of the New England District. I had the distinct honor of bringing greetings from the National Society and attending a variety of functions. Numerous national officers were there, too – as were candidates seeking national office. Their comments and presence added greatly to this unique meeting.

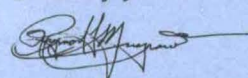

By the time this issue of our magazine is distributed, I will have attended the Annual Meeting of the American Legion at St. Louis. I had been invited to be a "distinguished guest speaker" on their program. Naturally, I accepted for this presented an opportunity to discuss who we are and what we have accomplished to preserve America's heritage. Also important was the opportunity for this descendant of America's first legion to join with today's veterans to preserve freedom and liberty.

Now I am looking forward to presiding over the Fall Meeting of the National Trustees scheduled for Louisville at the end of September. As is always the case, we have an array of matters to consider and resolve.

In conclusion, I want to urge those who have not already done so to contribute to the funds being raised to construct the Center for Advancing America's Heritage. Your attention is drawn to the handy envelope inserted in the center of this issue. It is designed as a simple means for your making a gift at this time – or a pledge to do so in the future. We look forward to hearing from you!

Please accept my thanks for electing me to the top position in the National Society. It will be a distinct pleasure to serve you over the coming year.

Sincerely yours,

Raymond G. Musgrave
President General

Over 50 Compatriots from across the country participated in a number of programs as members of the National Society Color Guard. Here they are shown forming two columns outside of the church in which the Sunday Memorial Service was held. Marching between them to the church entrance was a Color Guard fielded by the Patriotic American Heritage Youth Organization from Waukegan, Illinois. This group, sponsored by the Christian Fellowship Church, is under the direction of Compatriot Greg Bozarth.

Productive Annual Congress Held In Chicago

When the gavel was lowered to signal conclusion of the 113th Annual Congress held in Chicago during early July, the nearly 400 Compatriots and guests on hand wholeheartedly agreed that the Illinois Society had done a commendable job of handling a myriad of details. Largely responsible for seeing that business and social activities moved along smoothly was Joseph E. Smith, who served as Chairman of the Host Society Congress Planning Committee. He was backed by Maryland Compatriot Barrett L. McKown, Chairman of the National Society Congress Planning Committee.

Elected our new President General was Raymond G. Musgrave, a member of the West Virginia Society who previously had been Secretary General. Note the special news story on page 11 about him as based on an interview conducted at the Congress by California Compatriot Marston Watson. All of the selections of the Nominating Committee, except one, were also elected — as reported elsewhere in this issue of the magazine. The post of Historian General was contested, with Maryland Compatriot Bruce A. Wilcox being elected by secret ballot.

The new PG named the following to the Executive Committee: former President General B. Rice Aston, TX; Walter F. Baker, NM; Charles R. Lampman, CA; J. Philip London, DC; and Robert W. Proctor, MA. He also has announced membership of National Committees as shown beginning on page 20.

All of the key Congress programs, except the traditional Memorial Service on Sunday, were staged in the elegant Hyatt Regency Hotel in the heart of the city. Photos accompanying this news story portray many of the meeting's highlights. Added news and actions of special interest to the broad membership follow.

Opening Business Session Monday, July 7th

Prior to the opening of the Congress on Monday in a cavernous room in the Hyatt, attendees and guests were treated to a rousing band concert by members of the U.S. Navy Band stationed at Great Lakes Training Center north of Chicago. This set the scene for the entry of General Officers, National Trustees and several dignitaries marching behind the National Society Color Guard consisting of over 50 Compatriots from State Societies across the nation. Addresses of welcome were given by representatives of the SAR and DAR in Illinois. These were followed by greetings from Mrs. Paul M. Niebell, Sr., Honorary Senior

Committee Reports Made

After reports of the General Officers and Vice-Presidents General had been given, Committee Chairmen gave theirs. Selected ones are summarized here.

Several Resolutions were approved as introduced by Charles W. Britton, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, as follows:

- Urge the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services to include written questions in its citizenship test on our common civic culture, the founding of our country and our history and the ability to communicate in the English language, and that the test include written questions concerning the rights, duties and responsibilities of citizenship, especially those duties set out in the Oath of Allegiance including the oath of sole loyalty to the United States, the oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the oath to bear arms to protect the United States when called upon to do so. The Resolution also resolved that a copy be delivered to the President and Vice President of the United States, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

- Convey to President George W. Bush their (the NSSAR) affection, admiration and gratitude for having served so well and wish him Godspeed in his efforts to bring peace to America and freedom and opportunity to the people of Afghanistan and the Middle East. The Resolution also resolved that the President General deliver the Resolution to President Bush.

- Convey to (British) Prime Minister Tony Blair their (the NSSAR) affection, respect and gratitude which he has so justly earned. The Resolution also resolved that the President General deliver the Resolution to PM Blair.

- Urge the Congress of the United States to pass legislation that would establish English as the official language of this nation. The Resolution also resolved that copies of it be circulated by NSSAR Compatriots to members of the House of Representatives and members of the United States Senate in their respective districts and states.

- Call on Congress to pass legislation authorizing the National Park Service to establish a program to observe the 225th anniversary of the American Revolution and to authorize and appropriate sufficient funds to support the NPS program. The Resolution also resolved that a copy of it be sent to Compatriot President George W. Bush and to the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives with a request that it be distributed to each member of Congress. Since this action was taken, President General Raymond G. Musgrave has appointed a special National Committee

Congress Delegates Boost Applications Fees

Upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and concurrence of the Budget Committee, delegates to the 113th Annual Congress in Chicago voted to increase Membership Application Fees effective with the 2004 membership year.

During a discussion of this important move, which was done in accordance with National Society Bylaw 19, it was reported that a study of the actual cost of processing applications had been conducted in 2001. It revealed that fees only covered a portion of the processing cost, thus creating the need to subsidize them from other funds. The fees increase will avoid this problem.

The new fees, as reported below, will be effective November 1, 2003 for applications submitted on or after that date. The fee for supplementals is effective January 1, 2004.

Item	Present Fee	New Fee
Regular Application	$35	$60
Family Discount	$17.50	$30
CAR Transfer	0	0
Under Age 25	$ 5	$30
First Year's Dues	$25	$25
Supplementals	$20	$40

to take needed action to carry out the spirit of the Resolution – as is reported in an accompanying news story.

Changes Made In Bylaws

Bylaws Chairman Edward Overton Cailleateau introduced proposals to change the National Society Bylaws. These had been approved by the National Trustees at their Spring 2003 meeting and voted that they be sent to the Annual Congress for consideration.

- One amends Bylaw 19 that, in effect, sets the date when dues shall be paid by a State Society to the National Society and how such payment shall be calculated.

- The other amends Bylaw 18, Section 1(a) by deleting Paragraphs 2 and 3 in their entirety.

Report By The Registrar General

Registrar General Roland G. Downing reported that the total membership at the end of 2002 was a record 27,743. As of just before the Congress, this figure stood at 25,998 because of drops/reinstatements and added new members. He praised local leaders (in particular, Registrars, Genealogists and Recruiters) who are making it possible for the SAR to grow while other similar organizations are losing members. He reported that "Census of Qualified Prospects" forms are to be automatically sent to new members as they join; their replies will be added to the existing National Prospect Database at Headquarters, while contact information will be distributed to Chapters for recruiting. He stated that a new Youth Membership Pamphlet has been prepared and is accessible on the NSSAR web site. Additionally, a new universal membership application form for all categories of membership has been created; the old forms are still acceptable.

New Avenues for Membership

Dr. Ralph D. Nelson, Chairman of the

Cindy Harbin, the Society's Director of Development, answered queries about the proposed Center for Advancing America's Heritage to be built near Headquarters in Louisville. One of the visitors to her informational exhibit was former President General George H. Brandau. A large number of Congress delegates contributed to the fund raising campaign now underway for the Center.

The Germany Society plans to publicize this list in Germany and the United States to attract descendants who are eligible to join the SAR. He also reported that in February 2003 the Genealogy Committee, Executive Committee and the Trustees approved guidelines for patriotic service in New Spain (the Southwest U.S., California and Mexico). These include (after the formal declaration of war by Spain against England) any member of the army or navy of Spain or militia or "donativo", providing they were stationed in New Spain.

Delegates Resolve To Mark War Events

Delegates assembled in Chicago for the 113th National Congress unanimously approved a resolution calling on the United States Congress to task the National Park Service with establishing a commemorative program to observe the 225th anniversary of the American Revolution. The resolution also says Congress should provide the funds the NPS will need to carry out the project.

As luck would have it, there is identical legislation pending in both houses of Congress that, if passed, will accomplish this SAR legislative mandate. The Senate bill is sponsored by Hillary Clinton of New York and John Warner of Virginia. Principle sponsors of the House measure are Maurice Hinchey of New York and Jo Ann Davis of Virginia.

Compatriots are asked to contact each member of their congressional delegation and urge him or her to co-sponsor these important pieces of legislation. The 225th anniversary period actually began in October 1999 with the 225th anniversary of the Battle of Point Pleasant and will continue through September 2008 when we observe the 225th anniversary of the signing of the peace treaty in Paris, France.

In addition to this congressional initiative, President General Raymond G. Musgrave has appointed a special committee to help guide the State Societies and Chapters through the remaining 225th anniversaries associated with the American Revolution.

For example, next year we have the 225th anniversary of major battles at Kettle Creek, GA; Vincennes, IN; Stony Point, NY; Paulus Hook, NJ; the Battle of Flamborough Head (the Bonhomme Richard under John Paul Jones vs. Serapis); the coldest winter of the war at Basking Ridge near Morristown, NJ; and a few other events of note.

The committee will hold its first formal meeting during the Fall Trustees Meeting in Louisville at the end of September. It draws its members from a wide range of expertise within the Society to include members of the color guard, writers, historians, reenactors, and Compatriots with broad experience in working with Congress and the National Park Service.

Robert L. "Bob" Bowen of Virginia will chair the committee. Others include SAR Magazine Editor Win Williams (WI); Headquarters Dispatch Editor Don Moran (CA); Historic Celebrations Committee Chairman Les Foster (MD); Flag Committee Chairman Walter Baker (NM); Newsletters and Periodicals Committee Chairman George Thurmond (GA); CASSAR Trustee Chuck Lampman; NCSSAR Vice President Joe Harris; Winchell (Win) Carroll (PA), Historic Celebrations Committee; Dennis Marr (NY), National Park Service Committee; John Sauer (WV), Color Guard Committee; and Vice-President General Andrew Johnson (DC), Government Relations and SAR-W3R Committees.

Library Launches Unique Web Site

On Memorial Day of this year the Library of Congress launched a new web site – called Courage, Patriotism, Community – featuring three presentations: Experiencing War, Stories from the Veterans History Project; Patriotic Melodies, Selections from "I Hear America Singing"; and Community Roots, Selections from the Local Legacies Project. The site is accessible at www.loc.gov/courage.

Experiencing War (www.loc.gov/warstories) features selected stories from the Library's Veterans History Project in the American Folklife Center. Created by an Act of Congress in 2000, the project provides veterans and the civilians who supported them the opportunity to record for posterity their wartime experiences. These poignant accounts, told through video, audio and written personal accounts from 21 veterans and civilians, also include photos, diaries and scrapbooks. This initial release will be followed by many more from the 7,000 collections received to date. Encompassed are materials relating to World Wars I and II and the Korean, Vietnam and Persian Gulf Wars.

Patriotic Melodies (www.loc.gov/patrioticmusic) features some of the nation's most beloved patriotic tunes as well as the story behind the creation of each. The 26 initial selections include "The Star-Bangled Banner", "America", "Anchors Aweigh", and "Yankee Doodle Boy."

Community Roots (www.loc.gov/folk-life/roots) documents America's local festivals, community events and other grassroots activity. One local tradition has been selected to represent each state, the District of Columbia, the territories and trusts. For example, included is Buccaneer Days in Texas, which celebrates a time in history when pirate ships sailed the Gulf waters.

Six New Minutemen Recognized At Congress

In 1951 the Minuteman Award was created to salute Compatriots who have given outstanding service of an exceptional nature to the National Society. A maximum of six may be offered each year, with those recognized at the 113th Annual Congress reported in this news story.

The first awards were presented at the Annual Congress in 1952, with former President General Benjamin H. Powell receiving the initial one. Since then 308 Compatriots have been so honored, including those in Chicago in July. In addition to a handsome certificate, the award consists of a sterling silver medal which bears the likeness of a Revolutionary War Minuteman.

Here are those honored this year (the positions indicated were held as of or previous to the Congress):

Charles F. Bragg - Indiana Society. Compatriot Bragg was admitted to the SAR in 1991 and has since served as National Trustee of the Indiana Society and Vice-President General for the Central District. He has served on numerous Committees, including as Chairman of the Membership, Library Task Force and Library Fund Drive Committees, and as a member of Americanism, Genealogy, Long Range Planning and George Washington Endowment Funds Board. He organized two new Chapters in Indiana and has been first line signer on 114 Membership Applications.

Edward Overton Cailleteau - Louisiana Society. Admitted to the SAR in 1968, Compatriot Cailleteau has served as National Trustee for the Alaska and Hawaii Societies and as Vice-President General for the Southern District. He has been a member of the Bylaws Committee for 17 years, 10 of those as Chairman. He has also seen extensive involvement in the C.A.R., Congress Planning and Resolutions Committees. His SAR experience encompasses the formation of two new Chapters in Louisiana.

Thomas Fisher Craft, Jr., Ph.D., - Georgia Society. - Compatriot Craft was admitted to the SAR in 1991 and has been National Trustee of the Georgia and Switzerland Societies and Vice-President General for the Southern District. His extensive service includes membership on 19 Committees, a number of them as Chairman, Co-Chairman or Vice-Chairman. Committee assignments vary from the George Washington Endowment Funds Distribution and GWEF Fund Raising to Music. He helped organize two Georgia Society Chapters and has been the first line signer of 37 Membership Applications.

Roland Granville Downing, Ph.D. - Delaware Society. - A member of the SAR since 1990, Compatriot Downing has served as both Historian General and Registrar General, Vice-President General for the Mid-Atlantic District and National Trustee of the Delaware Society. He has 40 service years since 1994 on Committees, importantly as Chairman of the Task Force to Preserve United States History. He was instrumental in launching the Junior Membership Program and the Census of Qualified Prospects Program. He is the recipient of the Stewart Boone McCarty Award for best furthering the preservation of U.S. History and its traditional teachings in our schools. He has authored several articles for The SAR Magazine.

Phil Rodney "Rod" Hildreth, Alabama Society. - Compatriot Hildreth became a Compatriot in 1988 and since then has served as National Trustee of the Alabama Society and Vice-President General for the International District. He has served on 12 Committees, ranging from Rumbaugh Oration (including as Chairman) to Lineage Research Workshop. He was instrumental in developing the Outstanding Elementary Level History Award and the Lineage Assistance Booklet. The first line signer for 64 members, he also has helped organize seven new Chapters in Alabama.

Bruce A. Wilcox, Virginia Society. - Compatriot Wilcox was admitted to the SAR in 1982, has served as both Librarian General and Historian General and has been the National Trustee of the Virginia Society. He has been a member of a number of Committees, including Executive, Special Purpose (Chairman for two years), Library, Rumbaugh Oration, Long Range Planning, and JROTC. He has been Master of Ceremonies at five of the Oration Contests held at Annual Congresses.

Meet Your President General: Raymond G. Musgrave

If there is one word that could describe how the 100th President General, Raymond Gerald Musgrave, feels about his life, it might be pride.

He is proud of his accomplishments in a law practice that was started by his grandfather. One of ten children in a coal town in Mason County, West Virginia, grandfather Frederick Gerald Musgrave completed only the 8th grade but eventually graduated from the West Virginia College of Law in 1901 and started a practice in Point Pleasant, West Virginia. His son Raymond Frederick Musgrave, Ray's father, opened a law practice in Mullins, West Virginia, which he later moved to Winfield, West Virginia. There, he practiced law and was elected to West Virginia State Senate. Afterwards, Ray's grandfather and father formed their law partnership in Point Pleasant as Musgrave and Musgrave, which this President General has carried on for the last thirty-nine years. Ray's brother, Compatriot John Musgrave, is the lottery director in West Virginia who once paid out a record $137 million dollars to a lottery winner.

Like many young men in his day, Ray graduated from high school and matriculated at West Virginia University. Not ready for the rigors of a college education, Ray soon found himself in construction with his uncle at Cape Canaveral, Florida. A year later he entered the University of Charleston where he received his undergraduate degree in clinical psychology. He graduated in 1964 from the West Virginia College of Law and became a third-generation member of his grandfather's and father's law practice.

The Thomas J. Bond Photography Award was won by Virginia Compatriot Robert L. Bowen. His submission depicts Fincastle Resolutions Chapter Compatriot Scott Sarver leading a group of aspiring Patriots during the Battle Day program at Point Pleasant, West Virginia on October 4, 2002.

Ray is proud of his accomplishments as a trial lawyer and as Proctor in admiralty law. He has been a defense attorney in a number of capital cases, argued cases before the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals and appeared before the United States Supreme Court.

Pride in Ray's family was evidenced by their presence at his installation during the 113th National Congress in Chicago. His son by a previous marriage, Matthew Gerald

The C.A.R. Activity Award (To the State Society which has documented their work with the Children of the American Revolution over the past year and has completed the filing process for entering this award): Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Mississippi, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia Societies.

The Howard F. Horne, Jr. Award (To the State Society with the largest percentage increase of George Washington Fellows based on total membership – $500 Cash Award): Arizona Society.

The Florence Kendall Award (To the three top Compatriots who recruited the largest number of new members): P. Rod Hildreth, ALSSAR (31); Stanley G. Henderson, CASSAR (28); David L. Van Wormer, COSSAR (27).

Serving capably as Master of Ceremonies for the rather festive program was former President General William C. Gist, a member of the Kentucky Society. It was his pleasant task to announce the winners of awards – and make sure that they had their photo taken for this story.

Musgrave, holds a highly responsible position at Charleston in the new Department of Homeland Security and is married to Lisa. They have Ray's grandson Ian (age 7) and granddaughter Leigh (age 5).

There is a romantic story to be told as well. In 1973, a stunningly beautiful and fashionable model from Houston, Texas brought her family's legal business to the Musgrave law office at Point Pleasant. Heads turned and hearts fluttered that day when Twila (Blair) Kerr Jordan walked in the door. Not wanting to rush things, Ray and Twila spent the next eighteen years cultivating their friendship and eventually developing a courtship, which led to their marriage in 1991. Twila's two sons by a previous marriage are Richard Jordan and Andrew Jordan, who respectively are parents of their six grandchildren.

Ray's pride in his country and the Sons of the American Revolution is evidenced by his early involvement in the Children of the American Revolution, and later in his dedication at the chapter, state and national levels of the SAR. He co-founded the Point Pleasant Chapter in 1994 and has served the National Society as Chancellor General, Secretary General and now as President General. There is no doubt that he hopes to instill that same sense of pride in those who want to join him in advancing America's heritage, invite others to join this Society and promote Americanism in the far corners of this country.

IN OUR MEMORY

MATTHEW B. SELLERS III PRESIDENT GENERAL 1976-1977

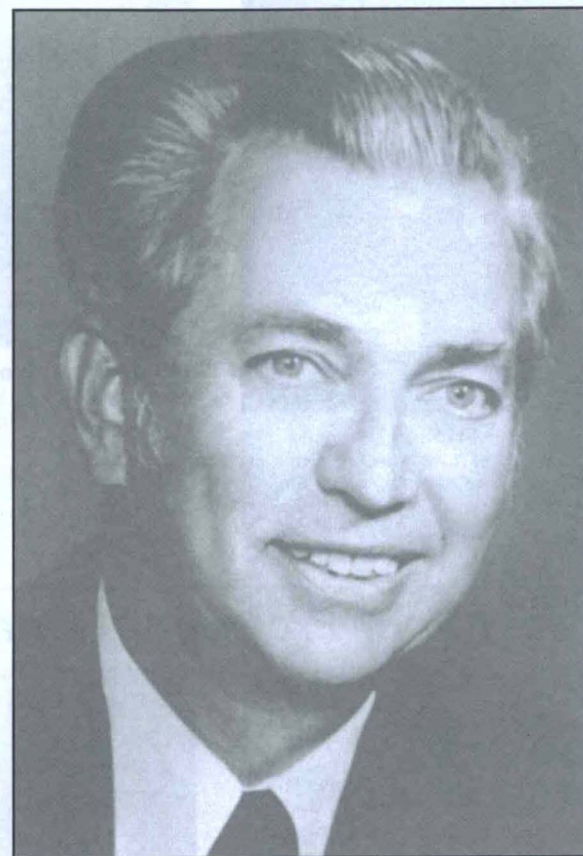

Matthew B. Sellers, a member of the Florida Society, was elected President General during the Annual Congress held in 1976 in Philadelphia – fittingly to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. It was during his term that the replica of the Liberty Bell was purchased and is now on display at our Society's National Headquarters in Louisville. For several years the bell toured about the country under the guidance of Minnesota Compatriot Joseph Head. He presented countless lectures about the historic artifact to a wide range of audiences, with emphasis on school children.

It was also during his tenure as President General that the National Headquarters in Washington, DC was sold to the Ivory Coast for use as their Embassy, followed by a move to an office building in Alexandria, Virginia until a new location could be found. An extensive search concluded with acquisition of the present facility in Louisville.

Prior to becoming PG, Compatriot Sellers had held a variety of posts at the national level, including that of Genealogist General and National Trustee of the Florida Society. At the state level he served as President of the Fort Lauderdale Chapter (1971-72) and as Treasurer, Senior Vice President and President of his Society. While he was President, the Society hosted the 83rd Annual Congress in Palm Beach.

Compatriot Sellers was the proud recipient of numerous medals, including Minuteman; Patriot; Gold, Silver and Bronze Good Citizenship; and War Service. His memberships included the Society of the Cincinnati, Colonial Wars, Sons of the Revolution, Washington Family Descendants and Magna Charta. He also was an active Mason.

Born in New York City in 1919, he attended Lehigh University and was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College with a B.S. in Chemistry. He then joined the U.S. Navy prior to World War II and served on two destroyers, which operated with the Fast Carrier Task Force and participated in most of the battles in the South Pacific. He retired after the war as a Commander with 14 battle stars on his Pacific Campaign Ribbon.

His professional career following military duty was varied. He was District Manager, Ohio Branch of Snow Crop Frozen Foods; Vice President and General Manager of Urban Laundry of Baltimore, Maryland; and Vice President and Secretary of Filterite Corporation of Maryland. After moving to Florida, he became a real estate broker – and managed to find time to be active in the Coral Ridge Yacht Club, where he held a number of officer positions, including that of Commodore.

PG Sellers was called to eternal rest on May 12th in Fort Lauderdale. He is survived by his second wife, Marilyn, two daughters and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His first wife, Gene, passed away in 1986.

Top Winners Of Youth Contests Saluted At 113th Annual Congress

The 5th Annual Youth Awards Luncheon, staged during the 113th Annual Congress in Chicago, honored five students who captured first place in as many National Society competitions. In addition, a monetary award was presented to the National Society of the Children of the American Revolution. Serving as a capable Master of Ceremonies was Kentucky Compatriot Jack J. Early; he had been Chaplain General over the past two years.

The winner of the Joseph S. Rumbaugh Historical Oration Contest was Blake Sercye who was entered by the Illinois Society. A student at Chicago's Fenwick High School, he had competed in the run-off held on Sunday morning with 15 others from across the country, with six finalists on hand that night to offer their orations before several hundred Compatriots and guests. Blake chose as his topic "Alexander Hamilton – The Self Made Man."

Melissa McLaine, who had been sponsored by the Georgia Society, walked off with first prize in the George S. and Stella M. Knight Essay Contest. The pertinent National Society Committee received entries from 40 states and one foreign nation.

The Arthur M. and Berdena King Eagle Scout Scholarship Award was won by Aaron M. Botts of Albuquerque, New Mexico. At age 18, he has over 12 years in Scouting, including Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Varsity Scouting. He has earned 34 Merit Badges, including American Heritage, Genealogy and Law. Aaron had been attending Colorado State University, majoring in Music Education.

Chosen as the Outstanding JROTC Cadet for 2003 was Cadet Captain Patrick Fourroux of Belaire High School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He was originally sponsored by the General Philemon Thomas Chapter. It was reported that last year's winner, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Jonathan Coward of Florida, will soon be heading to the United States Military Academy at West Point for four years of studies aimed at a career in the Army.

Raymond Clapsadle, a member of the JROTC Committee, congratulated Patrick Fourroux as the Outstanding JROTC Cadet for 2003. The lad was awarded a check for $1,000.

For the first time, winners of the newly created Americanism Poster Contest were announced. Spearheading development of this competition has been Douglas H. Stansberry, Chairman of the Americanism Committee. Capturing first place and awarded a $300 savings bond was Andrew Alverson of Marietta, Georgia; he had originally been sponsored by the Piedmont Chapter. Altogether, over 800 posters were judged at the Chapter and State Society levels. The second and third place prizes were $200 and $100 savings bond, respectively. This program is open to 4th and 5th graders, depending upon when the American Revolution is taught in their educational system.

For the fourth consecutive luncheon, a check for $500 was presented to the National President of the N.S.C.A.R. to help fund that officer's project. Accepting was Melissa Leigh Olde of New Jersey. Her project is to aid in the creation of a "hands-on-history" exhibit and a children's activity book at Mount Vernon, Washington's estate in Virginia.

Melissa McLaine, who came in first in the Essay Contest, was presented a check for $7,500 by Contest Chairman Richard W. Sage. Planning to attend Arkansas State University, she maintained a 4.0 average in high school. Second and third place winners were awarded $2,500 and $1,000 respectively.

Melissa Leigh Olde, National President of the N.S.C.A.R., accepted a check for $500 from C.A.R. Committee Chairman Thomas W. Taylor. A few years ago he held the top post in the C.A.R.

Oration Contest Chairman P. Rod Hildreth was pleased to recognize Blake Sercye as first place winner of the competition out of a field of 15 others. He was awarded a prize of $4,000. Second and third place prizes were $3,000 and $2,000, respectively.

Aaron M. Botts walked off with first prize in the Eagle Scout Scholarship Contest. He was offered a check for $8,000 by Eagle Scout Chairman Thomas L. Burgess. His essay topic was "Hessians in the Revolutionary War." Second and third place runner-up prizes were $4,000 and $2,000, respectively.

Americanism Poster Contest Chairman Douglas H. Stansberry exhibited the winning poster, which was rendered by Andrew Alverson of Georgia. This year's theme was "The Boston Tea Party – December 1773." Next year's will be "The First Continental Congress – 1774." Judging of the finalists was based on these criteria: portrayal of theme, originality by the student, evidence of research, neatness, artistic merit and creativity.

Wisconsin Society Dedicates Plaque Honoring Patriots Buried In State

April 19, the very anniversary of the Battle of Lexington and Concord in 1775, was the date selected this year by the Wisconsin Society to unveil and dedicate a bronze plaque honoring 40 Patriots buried in the state. The site was the Wisconsin Memorial Park Chapel located in the Milwaukee suburb of Brookfield.

Serving as Master of Ceremonies for the event was Past Society President Winston C. Williams, while the guest speaker was Robert F. Galer, Chairman of the National Society's Revolutionary War Graves Committee. A wide variety of other individuals and groups also participated, making the overall program a memorable one. These Past Wisconsin Society President Winston C. Williams served as Master of Ceremonies for the dedication program. At the outset he discussed the significance of April 19, 1775. With Easter being celebrated the next day, the Chapel in which the program was staged was resplendent with displays of lilies.

included Wisconsin Society officers; members of the North West Territorial Alliance in Revolutionary War attire; representatives of the Military Order of the Purple Heart; representatives of the Stockbridge-Munsee and Oneida Indian Nations situated in northern Wisconsin; and members of the Patriots American Heritage Youth Organization of Waukegan, Illinois led by Compatriot Greg Bozarth.

The program, which lasted nearly two hours, was highlighted by the recitation of brief information about the life of each Patriot with emphasis on his Revolutionary War service. Interspersed between groups of such readings were items related to the occasion — from the reading of proclamations to special presentations to participants. The climax took place when the plaque was blessed in a moving ceremony staged by military veterans from both of the Indian Nations.

The search to locate Patriot burial sites by the Wisconsin Society began several decades ago. Over the past two years or so, an intensive effort was made to verify which of those actually saw service in the Revolution. The list was narrowed to 40; one was an Oneida, two were Stockbridge-Munsee. The Society has since published a booklet about the 40, including their service record and place of burial. This program was spearheaded by Compatriot Harold Kubertanz, who also was responsible for organizing and directing the dedication.

Prior to the beginning of the dedication program, period music was provided by the Band of Musick, 3rd Conn. Reg't, Webb's Co., a group that plays an important part in the Northwest Territorial Alliance. Lois Jones is the Director.

Offering songs of the Revolutionary War were these ten members of the Patriots American Heritage Youth Organization. They were led by Illinois Compatriot Greg Bozarth (at left).

Guest speaker for the program was Robert F. Galer, Chairman of the National Society's Revolutionary War Graves Committee. Seated at his right was Virgil Murphy, a veteran and representative of the Stockbridge-Munsee Nation. On his left was Eagle Scout Jeffrey Wiswell, who offered background data about some of the Patriots named on the plaque; his grandfather is Compatriot Harold Klubertanz, who headed the committee responsible for the dedication program.

Utilizing an antique bell that came down through his family, Compatriot Roger Boeker rendered a single toll before each Patriot's background data was presented.

Past Wisconsin Society President Thomas Pelham Curtis was responsible for presenting data relative to a number of Patriots buried in the state.

The plaque was unveiled by David A. Dean (left), a member of the Wisconsin Society serving as Vice-President General for the Great Lakes District, and Harold Klubertanz, Commander of the Society's Color Guard; he had served as Chairman of the committee that organized the overall program.

When the plaque was cast, it featured the names of 39 verified Patriots. Right after that the 40th was discovered — an Oneida. His name was added by Kathy Hughes, Vice Chair of the Oneida Nation of Wisconsin.

The plaque was blessed in a solemn ceremony conducted by Paul Ninham (at lectern), a member of the Council, Oneida Nation of Wisconsin, and Robert Little, Commander of the Mohican Veterans Association.

Old North Church Fund Campaign For Restoring Historic Windows

If you can hear the cheers of Paul Revere, Captain John Pulling and Robert Newman, then you already know about the Bush administration's reversal of a longstanding policy that now allows federal grants to be used to renovate churches and religious sites that are designated historic landmarks. What does this mean for the Old North Church and its Adopt a Window campaign?

The article on Just Who Held the Lanterns on April 18, 1775?, and the companion article on Financial Aid Sought to Restore Old North Windows (SAR Magazine, Winter 2003, 4-9), provide background material for this historic change.

This interior view of the Old North Church shows the window arrangement at the side and rear of the sanctuary as seen from the east. The restoration program calls for extensive work on 24 such windows that contain a total of over 2,000 panes.

Interior Secretary Gale A. Norton announced the award of a $317,000 grant to the Old North Foundation of Boston, on behalf of Christ Church (historically known as Old North Church), which gives a significant boost to its nearly $1 million renovation plans. Credit for preparing the Foundation's grant request goes to Cheryl P. Aldridge, former director of Program Development at Old North Church.

The first magazine article offers an interesting scenario on who really carried the lanterns up the steep church steps on that historic night. The details of the famous events of April 18 have been permanently etched in American history, which subsequently led to Old North Church's historic landmark designation and eventual creation of the Old North Foundation of Boston, a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation. It is the Foundation's goal to solicit the funds to repair and restore the Church's historic windowpanes that are nearly 280 years old.

Secretary Norton commented in news reports that the change "ends a double standard" and opens the way for religious institutions to apply for funds under the Save America's Treasure program. It is worth noting that a 1995 regulation upheld by the Justice Department under the Clinton administration let stand the policy of not providing grants to houses of worship with active congregations, even if the church buildings were designated landmarks. The Justice Department under the Bush administration reversed that policy, which it felt would end a discriminatory double standard that has been applied against religious properties. Taxpayers already support the upkeep of 24 active churches on park properties across the country, including a chapel in Yosemite Park.

It is no surprise that the organization of Americans United for Separation of Church and State and its executive director, Rev. Barry W. Lynn, vehemently oppose this policy change as unconstitutional. They have already threatened to sue over this policy shift. However, a number of First Amendment experts agree that providing federal grants to preserve religious sites is constitutionally permissible.

Windows To Be Restored

The Old North Church vicar, Rev. Stephen T. Ayres, made it clear that none of the grant money would be used in the church's operations or normal maintenance program. In fact, he says, "We will only receive the $317,000 grant as reimburse-

This enlightening news story was prepared by California Compatriot Marston Watson, who authored the Winter 2003 cover story titled "Just Who Held the Lanterns on April 18, 1775?" A 36-year member of the SAR, he has served as President of the California Society and Vice-President General for the Western District. He is active in a number of National Committees, including as Chairman of the Genealogy Committee and an elected member of the George Washington Endowment Funds Board. His Volume II on Royal Families: Rev. Francis Marbury will be published this summer.

ment for what we spend on the window project. In this way, no grant money can or will be spent on anything else other than for this restoration." What is involved in this project?

Rev. Ayres stated that 42 windows, with 2,012 windowpanes, must be restored or replaced. Restoration specialists, armed with microscopes and modern technology, will look at how to match the original paint color, without the lead content of course. The newly hired executive director of the Old North Foundation of Boston, Elizabeth Kimmel, will oversee and coordinate much of this project.

The vicar anticipates that bids will go to appropriate contractors by the end of the year, with expectations that the project will last about 12 months. "We will have minimum interruption to our normal activities," says Rev. Ayres. "Parishioners, tourists and wedding couples will only notice one or two windows with boards in place of glass." However, the vicar reiterated that the Old North Foundation still needs another $400,000 or more in contributions to complete the window restoration project, as well as set up an endowed maintenance account. He stated that these funds likely would have to come from individual donors.

Individual Donors Sought

As a windowpane contributor, you will receive a handsome Adoption Certificate signed by the Foundation president, with your name, a pane number and a window number, as well as a Window Blueprint showing the location of your adopted pane. Your name will be entered in the Old North's Adoption Register as a permanent record of its continuing history; and you will be enrolled as a Friend of Old North Church. All donations to the Old North Foundation of Boston (193 Salem Street, Boston, MA 02113-1198) are tax deductible. Contact the Foundation at (617) 523-6676 for further information and a brochure. Your gift (by check or credit card) in any amount will be well spent and much appreciated.

How Best To Protect Historic Sites In Philadelphia Causes Wide Debate

By Winchell S. Carroll, Past President, Philadelphia-Continental Chapter

Independence National Historical Park in Philadelphia is the center of an argument that rages around many well-known national monuments and important public buildings. Since 9/11 there has been increased concern about protecting these sites. Many feel that the reaction has been too strong and that increased security has led to a defacto victory for the terrorists.

On 9/11 the city had refused to close this block because of its importance to the economic viability to the Old City section. In its General Management Plan in the mid-1990s, INHP had proposed closing the block to clear the view of Independence Hall from the new Liberty Bell Pavilion of all modern clutter such as trucks, cars and buses.

and former Governor of Pennsylvania, Tom Ridge, asked the city to reconsider. Nevertheless, the block was opened as scheduled with a large public ceremony and celebration. The day before the opening INHP announced that it was planning to close Independence Hall indefinitely in order to adjust security plans. This action was widely interpreted as retaliation for the opening of the block. The reaction was so severe that the Hall was reopened a few days later.

In May the Superintendent of INHP, Mary Bomar, took our local Senators and Congressman on a tour of the current security facilities. A plan to surround the entire Park with an 8-foot-high fence – similar to

When Chestnut Street, where Independence Hall is situated, reopened on April 1st, Mayor Street (center) along with "Ben Franklin" and a large crowd of local citizens, celebrated with an informal parade through the area. (Photo courtesy Philadelphia Daily News.)

In December of 2002 the city agreed to close the block permanently based, in part, on a security evaluation funded by the Department of Interior. The decision led to a public outcry against it and general negative reaction to other security measures imposed by INHP without public input. A local group, "The Coalition to Free Chestnut Street," funded another study of the security plan at INHP which was presented to the Mayor in February. The study stated that the current security plan offered little or no protection for the historic sites and had appeared to be implemented to show that the Park had at least tried something to protect the buildings.

In March the Mayor reversed his decision and announced that the street would be opened again on April 1st. A few days before the opening Secretary of Homeland Security the sound suppressors one sees along the Interstates – was floated. The plan was rejected as being too extreme and was withdrawn. As recently as mid-June the Secretary of the Interior, Gale Norton, wrote to the Mayor asking him to reconsider his decision in view of the opening of the New National Constitution Center. All indications are that the city will remain adamant.

While the closing of Chestnut Street has received the most public attention, there have been many complaints concerning the overall implementation of security at the Park, some of which the Park acknowledges are valid. It has become clear the heavy-handed security plans are going to be unacceptable to the public and that new, far more sophisticated – and expensive – systems will have to be developed.

"Let the People Decide"

Flag Protection Amendment Begins Journey Through The 108th Congress

By Robert L. "Bob" Bowen, Flag Committee Chairman, VASSAR

Capitol Hill is not a visitor-friendly place these days. It used to be. But, that changed on September 11, 2001.

I was there that day to hear some testimony the National Commander of The American Legion had prepared to present to a joint session of the House and Senate Veterans Affairs Committees. The first attack on the World Trade Center occurred while we were moving from one House Office building to another. The second attack occurred while we were waiting to learn about the first attack. Then, a short while later, we could hear a muffled explosion coming from the southwest. That would be the Pentagon.

It was at that point that we were asked to move quickly, without running, and vacate the House Office Building we were in. Only later would we learn that a fourth plane was in the air, heading for the nation's capital. The passengers would eventually overpower the hijackers of that plane and bring it crashing to the ground in a field in western Pennsylvania.

All of that was brought home to me on June 3rd when I visited Capitol Hill for the final floor vote of HJRes-4, the Flag Protection Amendment, in the House of Representatives. The proposed 17-word amendment says, "The Congress shall have the power to prohibit the physical desecration of the flag of the United States." An identically-worded piece of legislation is currently before the Senate. SJRes-4 has not yet been brought before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Very Tight Security

In years past, visiting the Capitol was an exciting experience. Sure, there was security, but not like it is today.

To visit the House Gallery today, you enter a long white tent-like structure on the south side of the Capitol. A guard there checks to make sure you have a visitors pass signed by a lawmaker. When a sufficient number of "visitors" have arrived, they are taken to an adjacent white building where they go through a metal detector. Once cleared, they are told to exit that building and follow the path to the Capitol.

The experience is much like what cattle must feel in the stock yards. Only the smell is not the same. A series of temporary wooden ramps and pipe fences guide you around to the front of the Capitol and inside a small doorway. Once inside, you're on your own to follow the signs and find the Visitor's Gallery.

I arrived in the Gallery at about 1:30 that afternoon. The final vote on House Joint Resolution 4 (the Flag Protection Amendment) did not occur until after 5:30. In the interim, there was a series of procedural votes on other matters, and a debate and vote on having a final vote on the Flag Protection Amendment. When the dust cleared from that debate and vote, more debate ensued on the actual bill, followed by the offering of a substitute. The substitute was debated and when it failed to gain the required supports, a final vote on the underlying bill was ordered. And, at 5:54, it was announced that HJR-4 had passed by a vote of 300-125.

Compatriot Hatch Sponsor In Senate

The Senate version of the Flag Protection Amendment had 57 sponsors when this was written (principle sponsor is Senator Orrin Hatch, Compatriot of Utah) and 56 co-sponsors. Senator Dianne Feinstein of California heads the list of co-sponsors.

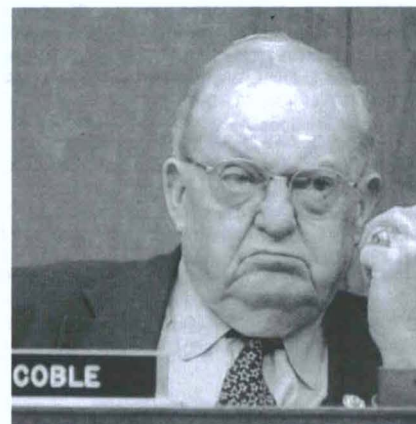

The Flag Protection Amendment has co-sponsor support or pledged support in both Houses of Congress from every state except Hawaii and Vermont, but when you toss the House out of the equation, support in the Senate comes from only 38 of the 50 states. The opposition includes Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin. And that, despite all 50 state legislatures having passed memorializing resolutions calling on Congress to pass a proposed constitutional amendment to protect the flag and send it back to the states for further debate and ratification. It seems the farther some Senators get from their home states, the quicker they forget their constituency.

Final passage requires a 2/3rds vote in both Houses of Congress. The 300 votes received in the House were 10 more than was needed. In the Senate, the number of pledged supporters is 64, four more than is needed to cut off a filibuster, but three shy of the votes needed to pass a proposed constitutional amendment. Our Founding Fathers did not intend for amending the constitution to be easy. And, that is one reason there have been only 27 amendments.

Based on the numbers we've just reviewed, it doesn't take a rocket scientist to see that if we're going to be successful in the Senate, we need the support of three more Senators. Where will we get them?

Unfortunately, there are no Senators who say they are undecided. The 36 Senators listed as opponents include those who have voted against the amendment in the past and those who say they don't support the issue. The Senate did not vote on a Flag Amendment in the 107th Congress. As a result there are a few Senators who do not have a senate voting record on the issue. Senators in that category include Mark Pryor of Arkansas, Thomas Carper of Delaware, Hilary Clinton of New York, and Maria Cantwell of Washington.

Three of the senators who were seeking the Democratic presidential nomination when this was written have voted against the Flag Amendment in the past, but with 80% of the people in support of the flag protection initiative, we should ask them to reconsider their previous position. Put John Edwards of North Carolina, John Kerry of

A ten-term Congressman from North Carolina and a member of the SAR, Howard Coble listened intently during the debate by the Flag Protection Amendment while in committee. He then voted to support the legislation and send it to the full House for consideration.

Massachusetts, and Joseph Lieberman of Connecticut on that list.

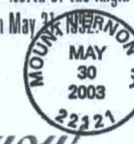

Three of the Democratic presidential candidates support the Flag Amendment, Senator Bob Graham of Florida, Congressman Dennis Kucinich of Ohio and Congressman Richard Gephardt of Missouri (although Gephardt did not vote on the issue this year).

The National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, passed a resolution in support of the flag protection issue at its 112th Annual Congress in Nashville last year. We are one of 144 patriotic, community, veterans, labor and like-minded organizations coalesced under the banner of the Citizens Flag Alliance. The CFA has only one mission: to gain passage of a proposed constitutional amendment to protect Old Glory. The author of this report is the SAR liaison with the CFA.

If you think you might be able to influence a senator to support this important legislation, please do it! Contact the author at bbowen1919@comcast.net for talking points.

First Lieutenant Stewart Boone McCarty, Jr., USMC, 049097, while serving with Dog Company, 2nd Battalion, 7th Marines, 1st Marine Division, Fleet Marine Force in Korea, was awarded the Purple Heart Medal for wounds received as a result of enemy action on Hill Yoke - North of the Imgin River and East of Panmujon - on May 31, 1952.

America
thanks you!

FIRST DAY OF ISSUE

I am thankful that America has values worth fighting for.

CARS, Inc.

A personalized First Day Cover was made available to former President General McCarty as a remembrance of the day. The inscription in the upper left corner reads as follows: "First Lieutenant Stewart Boone, McCarty, Jr., USMC, 049097, while serving with Dog Company, 2nd Battalion, 7th Marines, 1st Marine Division, Fleet Marine Force in Korea, was awarded the Purple Heart Medal for wounds received as a result of enemy action on Hill Yoke - North of the Imgin River and East of Panmujon - on May 31, 1952"

Purple Heart Stamp Issued

Mount Vernon - George Washington's historic estate in Virginia - was the setting in late May for a ceremony that saw the First Day of Issue of the Purple Heart Definitive Stamp staged by the United States Postal Service. This was an especially significant day for former President General Stewart Boone McCarty, who was in attendance as a recipient of the medal 53 years ago to the day while on duty in Korea as a member of the Marine Corps.

Participating were the U.S. Army Brass Quintet, the Armed Forces Color guard and John E. Potter, Postmaster General and CEO, United States Postal Service. Remarks were offered by Mrs. Robert E. Lee IV, Vice Regent for Maryland for the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association (which owns Mount Vernon); Congressman Tom Davis of Virginia; General Claude M. Kicklighter, Assistant Secretary for Policy, Planning and Preparation, Department of Veterans Affairs; and William A. Wroolie, National Commander, Military Order of the Purple Heart. In the audience were several hundred holders of the Purple Heart.

The Purple Heart is awarded in the name of the President of the United States to members of the U.S. Military who have been wounded or killed in action. It is the oldest military decoration in the world in current use and the first award made available to a common soldier.

By way of historical background, it should be noted that on August 7, 1782, during the Revolutionary War, General Washington issued an order that established a badge of distinction for meritorious action. The badge, which consisted of a heart made of purple cloth, is known to have been awarded to three sergeants from Connecticut regiments. Identified as the Badge of Military Merit, the award was distinctive because it was available to the lower ranks at a time when only officers were eligible for decoration in European armies.

After the Revolution, no more American soldiers received the Badge of Military Merit. In 1931 General Douglas MacArthur (a Compatriot), at the time Army Chief of Staff, furthered an effort to establish what became the Purple Heart Award - to be issued on the bicentennial of Washington's birth, February 12, 1932. It was decreed that recipients of the Meritorious Service Citation Certificate during World War I, along with other eligibles, could exchange their award for the Purple Heart.

President Truman retroactively extended eligibility to the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard to April 5, 1917 to cover World War I. Succeeding Presidents also made adjustments in the program to include certain conditions of eligibility. In 1958 Congress chartered the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

At the time of the First Day Cover Program, former President General Stewart Boone McCarty chatted with May Day Taylor, a devoted philatelist. She is the mother of two Compatriots: Thomas, who is serving as Chairman of the National Society's C.A.R. Committee; and Scott.

The House Judiciary passed the Flag Protection Amendment on May 21, 2003 by the vote of 18-13 and forwarded it to the full House for its consideration. The House later voted favorably for the bill by a vote of 300-125.

Genealogical Inquiries

This service of assisting in genealogical research is offered to everyone. Your message will reach over 26,000 members of the SAR.

Payment must be made in advance at the rate of $2.00 per line, with copy either typed or hand-lettered. Total cost may be calculated on the basis of 40 characters in each line, including your name and address.

Mail copy and payment to The SAR Magazine, 1000 South Fourth Street, Louisville, KY 40203. Make checks payable to "Treasurer General, NSSAR."

Searching for proof that Abraham Dixon born about 1756 fought in the Revolutionary War. Probably born in Virginia, but no proof. His off-spring included William Dixon born about 1775. Again, no state known, but probably was Virginia or West Virginia. William Dixon's descendant was another Abraham Dixon born 9/26/1803 in Jackson County, Ohio and died there on 2/27/1853. The family tree is intact from this man on. Will pay fee if required. Thank you. Dixon Mitchell Smith, 11345 Cypress Drive, Clermont, FL 34711. Phone: 352/494/4981

Treaty Facsimile At Club In London

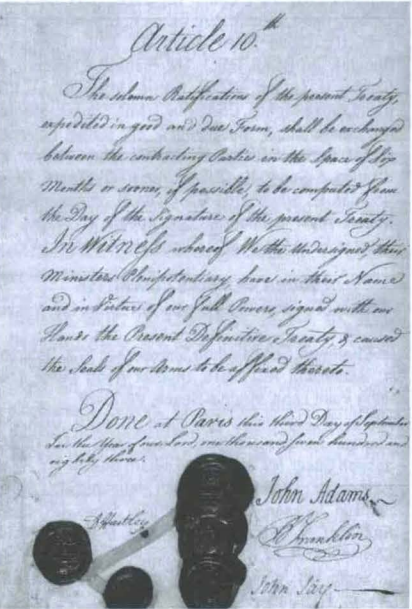

In September of 1983 a large contingent of Compatriots and guests traveled to France and England to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Paris, which established "Firm and Perpetual Peace" between Great Britain and the United States.

The treaty was drafted in the Round Room of Viscount Shelbourne's home off London's Berkeley Square; he later became the Marquess of Lansdowne and his residence became the private Lansdowne Club. The draft treaty was then sent to Paris where it was signed by the American Plenipotentiaries. A facsimile of the final page is on display at the Club, while Great Britain's original copy of the document is in the custody of the Public Record Office in London.

When the 1983 contingent visited the Club, they dedicated a plaque which commemorates the important event that took place there. Leading the group was President General Warren G. Hayes.

Former PG McCarty Visits Site

Earlier this year former President General Stewart Boone McCarty stayed at the Lansdowne Club (through a reciprocal arrangement with the Army/Navy Club in Washington, DC) while in London researching the history of World War II at the Imperial War Museum. He reports that the plaque is still on display and that he viewed the facsimile, which was produced and placed on the wall of the Round Room by the Club's Board Members.

This is a copy of the facsimile of the last page of the Treaty of Paris that is on display at the Lansdowne Club. It was given to the magazine for reproduction by former President General Stewart Boone McCarty.

ACADEMY MIDSHIPMAN RECOGNIZED – In mid-May Historian General Bruce A. Wilcox presented the third annual NSSAR History Award, a dress sword, to Midshipman First Class Justin P. Accomando during a ceremony at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. The award is offered to the graduating midshipman who submits the best honors thesis in the History Department as judged by a panel of professors. Following graduation this spring, Accomando is continuing his studies at Oxford University under a Fitzgerald Scholarship for two years in economics and social history. This award was established by HG Wilcox and District of Columbia Compatriot J. Phillip London; both are Academy graduates. A fund raising program to endow the award for 20 years is nearing completion. Contributions are still being solicited and may be sent to Compatriot Wilcox at 1103 Belle Vista Drive, Alexandria, VA 22307. Checks should be made payable to "Treasurer General, NSSAR" marked for Naval Academy Award. Funds in excess of those required will be transferred to an endowment for a similar United States Military Academy award that will be set up once this one is fully funded.

Kentucky, Tennessee SARs Jointly Mark Graves

The Old Mulkey Meeting House Historic Shrine in Tompkinsville, Kentucky was the site of an April program staged by Kentucky and Tennessee Compatriots to salute 21 Patriots who are either buried there or memorialized by special markers. The Meeting House is the oldest existing church east of the Allegheny Mountains and contains the largest number of Revolutionary graves and memorials in the state.

Welcoming guests were Presidents Floyd L. Jernigan, KYSSAR, and Paul E. Jorden, TNSSAR. The service was opened with prayer by KYSSAR Chaplain Rev. Forrest B. Chilton, while the Colors were presented by Color Guard members from the two states and Kansas.

Robert F. French, Vice-President General for the Central District, offered a brief history of the site and directed the two State Presidents in the laying of wreaths in the grave yard. Chaplain General Dr. Jack J.

Early, KYSSAR, related the importance of these Patriots in founding the liberty and freedom enjoyed today by United States citizens.

Former President General William C. Gist, Jr., a descendant of Patriot Joseph Gist who is buried there, spoke movingly of the efforts of the 21 Patriots in establishing Baptist Churches throughout Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Kentucky. This was followed with an address by former President General Larry D. McClanahan that emphasized the experiences of Patriot Obediah Howard also buried there; he was dressed in the uniform of a Culpeper Minute Man. Then Kansas Compatriot Everett E. Mulkey told about an ancestor for whom the site is named.

Highlighting the ceremonies was the placement of an SAR Patriot marker on the graves of those actually interred on the grounds.

Wearing the uniform of a Culpeper Minute Man, former President General Larry D. McClanahan discussed the life history of Patriot Obediah Howard, who along with other Patriots honored was one of the first settlers in the area and helped form the Meeting House. Compatriot McClanahan's great-great-grandfather was Rev. Captain William McClanahan, Commander of the Fighting Baptist Company of the Culpeper Minute Men. These eight companies came from Culpeper, Orange and Fauquier Counties of the Virginia Piedmont.

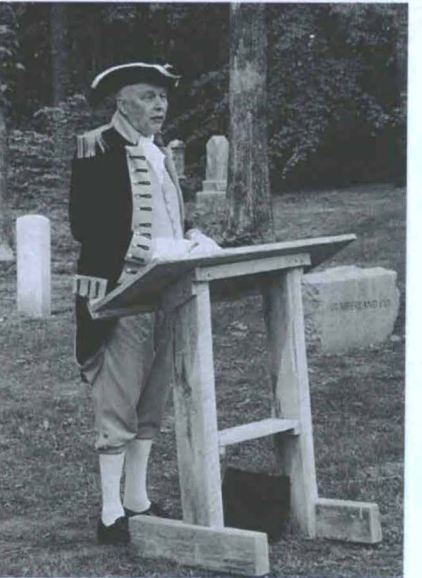

Former President General William C. Gist, Jr. has an ancestor buried on the site, Patriot Joseph Gist. He offered appropriate remarks.

Kansas Compatriot Everett E. Mulkey told about his ancestor after whom the site is named.

Valley Forge Society of the Descendants

Descendants of a soldier who served in the Continental Army under the command of General George Washington at Valley Forge during the Winter encampment period of December 19, 1777 – June 19, 1778, may be eligible for membership in the Society with proven documentation.

To obtain a membership application form, please write to the Commissary General.

Annual Congress Focuses On New Center

The National Society's far-reaching campaign to raise funds for construction of the proposed Center for Advancing America's Heritage received solid support during the 113th Annual Congress staged in Chicago this past July. This took the form of a large number of delegates offering first-time contributions and pledges following a powerful illustrated presentation on the Center by Cindy Harbin, Director of Development.

Another highlight of the Congress was the recognition of those attendees who had made gifts from the time when funds were first solicited through the early days of the meeting. They are identified on the opposite page and are shown, in part, in the accompanying photos that were taken when they were asked to step forward and receive lapel pins, medals and certificates.

The campaign's goal is $6 million, which will include an endowment to provide a permanent source of support for SAR programs and facilities. SARs who have not already made a contribution or pledge are encouraged to do so by using the handy envelope inserted here. Note the chart on the envelope that indicates what donors are given in relation to their level of financial support. Act now to join the rapidly growing list of those who are bringing the Center to fruition!

State Societies

The following State Societies were recognized for their support: Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin

In keeping with the historical objectives of the National Society, the new Center for Advancing America's Heritage will boast a "Jeffersonian" look — in that it will take on some of the architecture attributes of Thomas Jefferson's design for Monticello and the University of Virginia. The facility is destined to become the foremost repository for Revolutionary War documents and artifacts. It will also enable SAR to expand its already outstanding collection of military and genealogical records, books, manuscripts and other pertinent historical materials.

The serene courtyard within the proposed Center for Advancing America's Heritage will feature flags from the 13 original colonies. Plans call for pathways that will be paved with bricks purchased by Compatriots and Society friends. Upon request, an inscription on a particular brick will be emblazoned with the name of one's Patriot Ancestor.

STATE SOCIETY & CHAPTER EVENTS

All news stories about State and Chapter events appearing here and elsewhere in the magazine are prepared from materials submitted through a variety of means, including press releases and newsletters (which should be directed to the Editor at the address shown on page 3). Please note the deadlines below.

DEADLINES FOR FUTURE ISSUES:

Fall (November) – September 15; Winter (February) – December 15; Spring (May) – March 15; Summer (August) – June 15

Black-and-white, glossy photographs are preferred. However, color photos are acceptable if they are of good quality, especially in contrast. They will be returned upon request if accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Individual Compatriots are encouraged to submit ideas for historical feature articles they would like to write. Each will be given careful consideration.

ALABAMA SOCIETY

Society President Kerry Barksdale (pictured) dedicated the marker of Revolutionary War Patriot Jacob Sivley during a grave marking ceremony sponsored by the Tennessee Valley Chapter in early March. The event, held at the Old Airport in Huntsville, was coordinated by Chapter President Jim Maples, and was attended by about 125 guests and descendants. Sivley began his military service as a private in Clark's 8th Virginia Regiment and later with Kirkpatrick's 4th Regiment.

In early May, members of the Tennessee Valley Chapter participated in the Huntsville Pilgrimage Association's Stroll Through Maple Hill Cemetery, an annual event held to honor the city's ancestors. Pictured is Compatriot David Milam, who portrayed Dr. Thomas Fearn, a Huntsville Physician who developed quinine and was the first to use it in the treatment of malaria. Chapter President Jim Maples and Compatriot Jim Alexander portrayed Revolutionary War veterans during the event, which attracted several thousand Huntsville area residents.

A display featuring Revolutionary War Era material was provided by Wiregrass Chapter members as part of a Patriots Day 2003 observance. Mrs. Mary Lou Sowka and her son Michael, 13, examined the display at the Enterprise Public Library.

Byron Strickland, a junior attending Enterprise High School, received the Roy M. Shoffner Good Citizenship Award started in 2003 by the Wiregrass Chapter. President Bruce H. Taylor (right) presented the award, as Byron's father looked on. A second Good Citizenship Award went to Alex Allen of Elba. Recipients are selected by the high school on the basis of academic excellence in history, patriotism and good citizenship in school and community.

ARKANSAS SOCIETY

Compatriots Lynn Gaines, Jr. and Bill Doak represented the Bayou Bartholomew Chapter at the annual Memorial Day program held at the Veteran's Section of Graceland Cemetery in Pine Bluff. A wreath from the Chapter was presented to honor the memory of all veterans who gave their lives in this nation's wars to ensure our freedom. Other wreaths were presented by military and patriotic organizations. Gaines is an Army veteran of the Korean War and Doak is a Navy veteran of WWII and Korea.

A ceremony to rededicate the refurbished headstone of Patriot Jane Wilson McKissick was sponsored by the General Lafayette Chapter in late April. The cemetery in Centerton was the setting, when President Emil Cross (left) served as Master of Ceremonies and Compatriot Terry Burside recognized organizations with representatives in attendance. Among those present were several DAR Chapters, the Northwest Arkansas Marine Corps League, the Ozark Highlanders and VFW Post 9063, which provided an Honor Guard. Also noted was the great-great-great-grandson of Patriot McKissick from Texas, who provided a history and eulogy, and Bishop to the Armed Forces, Daniel E. Bannan, Jr., who gave the invocation.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY

Members of the Thomas Jefferson Chapter held a joint meeting with the San Francisco Chapter in late March, at Sinbad's Restaurant at Pier Two in San Francisco's Embarcadero. Highlighting the affair was a special program honoring the six September 11 heroes of Flight 93 who lived in California. J. Michael Phelps, San Francisco Chapter President, introduced Society President Garrett Jackson, as well as Clarence Lucas, Vice-President General for the Western District. The NSSAR Heroism Award was presented posthumously to the Californians aboard Flight 93, on behalf of President General B. Rice Aston. Family members accepted the medals on behalf of their loved ones.

At the Laguna Beach Patriots Day Parade, the Orange County Chapter was in grand attendance with Compatriot Lou Carlson carrying the SAR Flag while his wife Kim proudly displayed an SAR banner. They were followed by a 1931 Model A Deluxe Coupe, driven by its 93-year-old owner Lou Spielberger! The group received the First Place Trophy for the Antique Auto Division. Over Karen's shoulder is Compatriot Jim Blauer carrying the American Flag.

Lt. Gen. John W. Wright (right), a member of the Texas Society new residing in California, was presented a Certificate of Appreciation by Coachella Valley Chapter Charter President Gale Cornwell following his address at a recent meeting. Compatriot Wright recounted his experiences as a prisoner of war from his capture on Corregidor to his release in Japan at the end of the war. Several years ago, he served as Governor General of The Order of the Founder and Patriots of America.

CONNECTICUT SOCIETY

The Nathan Hale Branch held its Annual SAR Awards Luncheon on May 10 at the Best Western Olympic Inn at Groton. Numerous students representing southeastern Connecticut area high schools were presented with Good Citizenship Medals. In addition, an award for excellence in the study of American History was given to Cadet First Class Nathaniel Johnson of the U.S.C.G. Academy. Local historian Bill Stanley, a noted newspaper columnist and author, gave a presentation on Benedict Arnold and his usually overlooked contributions to early New England and the Revolutionary War.

Stepping into history...the General Israel Putnam Branch manned the historic War Office in Lebanon during the Annual Connecticut Colony Military Association's School of the Soldier. Revolutionary War Governor Jonathan Trumbull was portrayed by Russell Wirtalla (left), Past Society President and Past Vice-President General for the New England District. Society President Kenneth Buckbee (right) played the role of an officer in the Connecticut Militia. The Society has owned and maintained the War Office since 1891, and plans are in the works for an annual "Connecticut Independence Day" at the site.

FLORIDA SOCIETY

When the Palm Beach Chapter held its March meeting, honoring outstanding law enforcement and fire safety officials was a centerpiece of the occasion. The Chapter awarded five Law Enforcement Commendation Medals, four Fire Safety Commendation Medals, and a Medal for Heroism. At right, wearing hat, was Trooper Ben Fargo of the Florida Highway Patrol. He received the Medal for Heroism for the disregard of his own safety in removing accident victims from submerged vehicles in black water at three separate accidents over the past year.

The St. Augustine Chapter recently awarded the Outstanding Citizenship Certificate to Ernest S. Dopp of Minnesota (left). Compatriot John Tinny made the presentation during a March Chapter meeting. Though Mr. Dopp is not a member of the SAR, he has assisted the Chapter on various occasions by carrying the Flag at the bi-annual Massing of the Colors on Memorial Day and Veterans Day, at the National Cemetery in St. Augustine.

Shedding a little light on part of Florida history, David Butler, co-founder of the Hillsboro Lighthouse Preservation Society, spoke on lighthouses and their technology at the April meeting of the Fort Lauderdale Chapter. His slideshow included the history and refurbishment of the lighthouse at Hillsboro Inlet, as well as many of the other 30 lighthouses throughout Florida. A 37-cent stamp will be issued in 2003 depicting the Hillsboro lighthouse as part of a series of lighthouse stamps that span the coast of the United States from Virginia to southern Florida.

The Jacksonville Chapter was delighted to have Admiral Jonathan T. Howe as its featured speaker at an April meeting. He was Deputy Assistant to the President of the United States for National Security Affairs from December 1991 to January 1993, and served as Special Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations in Somalia from March 1993 to March 1994. He has authored a book and has written numerous articles on foreign policy and national security issues.

GEORGIA SOCIETY

The Athens Chapter hosted a ceremony to place a marker at the grave site of Patriot Moses Guest in late May. Compatriots Jackson Wesley Guest (left) of Athens, and Floyd Guest Huston (right) from the Texas Society Paul Carrington Chapter were in attendance, along with other descendants and Compatriots from the two Chapters. Posting of the Colors was provided by the GASSAR Color Guard. Another descendant, The Reverend Glenn Guest of Oak Grove Church in Comer, Georgia, wrote a song entitled "Saint Mo" which he sang as part of the presentation. Moses Guest was born in Virginia in 1750, and died in Franklin County, Georgia, in 1838. He is buried near Toccoa. He married a first cousin of Daniel Boone, Mary Blair, and had sixteen children by Mary, as well as one by his second wife. Guest served with the North Carolina Militia, and later as Sheriff of Franklin County and as a Justice of the Peace.

Past Atlanta Chapter President William Cecil McCullough received a Certificate of Commendation in recognition of his proper display of the American Flag, at a May Chapter meeting. Second Vice President Guyton McCall (right) made the presentation. The McCullough home has an all-weather flag mounted on a flagpole at the front entrance, appropriately illuminated during the hours of darkness.

SAR MAGAZINE

At its May meeting the Atlanta Chapter had the rare privilege of recognizing 60 years of service by one of its members. Compatriot Augustus (Gus) M. Raney, Sr., originally became a member of the Virginia Society and in the 1960s, was welcomed as a member of the Atlanta Chapter, where he continues his service as a dedicated member.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY

Highlighting the Springfield Chapter January meeting was the presentation of the SAR Medal of Appreciation to Mrs. Jacqueline Wright. She was honored for being instrumental in securing new members for the Chapter as well as for her help in coordinating a grave dedication with the three local DAR Chapters. Pictured from left were: Karl Reed, President, Springfield Chapter; Jacqueline Wright; Compatriot Harold Wright; and Society President Stephen Bradley.

When the Kishwaukee Chapter gathered during early April in Rockford to mark their 25th anniversary, the guest speaker was Winston C. Williams, Editor of The SAR Magazine. He traced the history of the National Society and offered remarks about his experiences over the years as Editor – and recalled that he had addressed the Chapter some 20 years ago. The meeting also included installation of the newly elected officers by Compatriot Williams, with Dr. Ken Griswold continuing to serve as President.

"When It Takes Something Special" was the title of a talk given by Jim Law, Executive Director of the Mayor's Office of Special Events for the City of Chicago, when the Fort Dearborn-Chicago Chapter met during May. During the luncheon meeting at the Union League Club of Chicago, Law spoke of the wide variety of tournaments, festivals and special events that are planned with meticulous detail through his office. For instance, there are twelve major festivals annually including the acclaimed Chicago Blues Festival, and the Chicago Air and Water Show. He is also responsible for the LaSalle Bank Marathon, the Chicago Film Festival, and the Big Ten Men's Basketball Conference. "Taste of Chicago" alone brings in 3.5 million visitors to Chicago's Grant Park each year! Law also discussed the financial implications of these events, and fielded questions from an eager audience.

INDIANA SOCIETY

The Clarence A. Cook Chapter, Indianapolis, was privileged to have United States Senator Richard E. Lugar at its March meeting. Senator Lugar, a Compatriot of the Chapter, received the Gold Good Citizenship Award at a ceremony that was also attended by the current and former Presidents of the INSSAR as well as representatives of the Society's Color Guard. A citation mentioned some of the Senator's accomplishments, including his five terms in the Senate, and his influence on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Among his initiatives is the Nunn-Lugar Cooperative Threat Reduction Program, responsible for the dismantling of a huge array of bombers, missiles, submarines and other launch vehicles. Senator Lugar is also a member of the Senate Agriculture committee, building bipartisan support for federal farm program reforms, including the 1996 Farm bill. From left to right: Society President John Kesler, Sr.; Senator Lugar; and Compatriot Jack Moore, Past Chapter President.

KANSAS SOCIETY

In an animated presentation on the history of Fort Pitt, Secretary General Raymond G. Musgrave won the hearts of the Society audience at their 11th Annual Conference held in March. Presiding was President James Brant (left), with newly elected Society President Barnett Ellis observing.

MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY

The Harvard Club in Boston was the setting for the Society's Annual Meeting in February. President Richard Stanley presented the Martha Washington Medal to Mrs. Gordon W. Keegan, Jr., who is the Senior National President of the National Society, Children of the American Revolution. She is the first Massachusetts resident to head the N.S.C.A.R. since its founding by Massachusetts resident Harriett M. Lothrop over a century ago.

This year Patriots' Day was celebrated on April 21 in Concord. Making an impressive appearance were these members of the Society's Color Guard.

MINNESOTA SOCIETY

The Society held its Annual Washington Day Luncheon jointly with the Minnesota Sons of the Revolution at the Fort Snelling Officer's Club. Society President Steven Ernest presided over the meeting, introducing the speaker, LTC Denis Shields, Public Affairs Officer for the Minnesota National Guard. His topic was titled "The Increased Role of the National Guard in the U.S. Military and Local Communities."

MISSISSIPPI SOCIETY

What began as a simple project to mark the grave of Patriot John Wheat by the Bernardo Galvez Chapter in the Wheat Family Cemetery at Crossroads, steam-rolled into a major civic event when it was discovered that four more soldiers – all members of the Wheat family – were also buried there. Two were veterans of the War of 1812 while two served in the Civil War. Upon learning about this bit of history, President Andy Kincaid contacted 1812 and Civil War societies in the area, following which they agreed to conduct one large ceremony. So, as part of Memorial Day observances, several hundred people attended the program, as well as TV stations and newspapers. Over 50 flags decorated the site as bronze plaques were placed on all of the graves. Involved in the program were a firing squad, cannon squad, and two Color Guards. The SAR covered Patriot Wheat's Grave with a Betsy Ross Flag, and after folding it properly, passed it along to a Wheat family member, along with a binder with all of the records, programs, news releases, etc., concerning the project.

It looks like the ranks of the SAR and DAR will surge as a result of this project! The SAR currently has two Wheat members with five applications pending, and is working on six more. The DAR has eleven Wheat family members, three pending and two more in the works.

Compatriot Roland T. Smith, M.D., a veteran of WWI and Korea, surprised the Gulf Coast Chapter at a recent meeting, when he arrived wearing his uniform from his time in the service. He shared an interesting story about the uniform, that a friend of his had actually worn the uniform in WWI, and passed it along to Compatriot Smith, who was told by his commander that it was a proper uniform and that he could wear it if he liked! Even today the uniform is in very good shape – as is Dr. Smith, as evidenced by how well he still fits into it! Dr. Smith served as surgeon under Gen. Douglas MacArthur and received six campaign stars for activity from New Guinea to the Philippines. He served on stateside assignments during the Korean War. Dr. Smith's son, Dr. Jason V. Smith, was the featured speaker at the meeting, and presented pertinent facts on cancer from his specialty. He is an E.N.T. and plastic/reconstruction surgery specialist and head of Gulf South Outpatient Center in Gulfport. Compatriot Jason Smith also belongs to the Gulf Coast Chapter.

MISSOURI SOCIETY

Carl J. White (left) was presented with the first ever "Teacher of the Year" award during May by Compatriot Dave Appleby, in a new program developed by the M. Graham Clark Chapter. Mr. White teaches classes in history and political science at La Monte High School. His curriculum delves deeply into the Revolutionary War, studying the causes of the war, the people involved and how the war was won. Each student is required to do extensive outside reading and research, and his students are prepared with knowledge concerning the war that exceeds what is presented in many college classes.

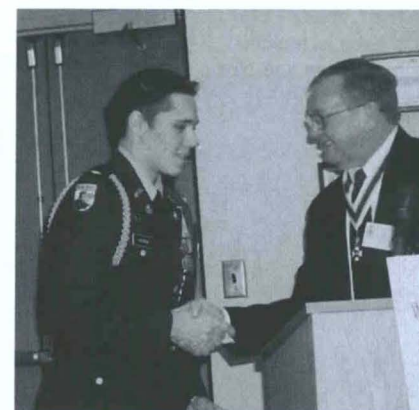

At the 17th Annual George Washington Birthday Celebration held by the Kansas and Missouri Societies in Kansas City, nationally noted presidential historian, Richard North Smith, was the keynote speaker. Smith serves as Director of the Robert J. Dole Institute of Politics at the University of Kansas. Kansas Compatriot Kes Kesler (left) served as Master of Ceremonies, while presenting awards was Missouri Compatriot James Shelby (right).

NEW JERSEY SOCIETY

At the Jockey Hollow Chapter's Spring Dinner Meeting in Chester, President John Moeller presented the group's "Outstanding Citizen Award" to historian Arthur Lefkowitz. Lefkowitz lectured at the meeting on his latest book, "George Washington's Indispensable Men." He commented that the General remained in contact with his staff after the War, which included doctors, lawyers, merchants and farmers, noting that they remained his advisors throughout his postwar career, contributing substantially to his effectiveness as the nation's first President.

SUMMER 2003

Cadet Major Rhys Hearn, a third year JROTC cadet at Burlington City High School was presented with the South Jersey Chapter's "Outstanding JROTC Cadet" award by John R. Gebhart, President and Chairman of the NJSSAR ROTC/JROTC Committee. Competing against the other high schools in the South Jersey Chapter area that conduct JROTC programs, Cadet Hearn was selected as winner for his exemplary scholastic achievements, his extra curricular activities, his diligent work ethic after school hours, his steady growth and development in the JROTC program and the quality of his submitted essay.

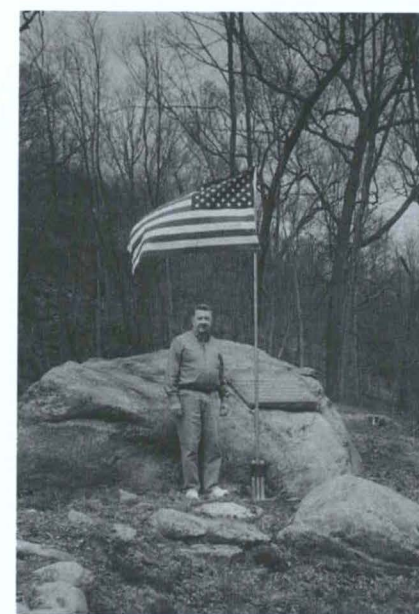

NEVADA SOCIETY

EMPIRE STATE SOCIETY (NY)

The last remaining entrenchment of the American Revolution is in the Ramapo Valley located in Hillburn, New York. While owned by the Historical Society of Rockland County, the site is maintained by the Stony Compatriot Ken Conklin of the Stony Point Battle Chapter, was instrumental in keeping a section of the Revolutionary War entrenchments in the Ramapo Mountain Pass as a fitting memorial to our ancestors.

Point Battle Chapter, which recently donated a flag and flagpole for the site. Compatriot Kenneth W. Conklin installed the pole and through his efforts, the Orange and Rockland Utilities have contributed a light for night lighting. During the Revolution, the area was known as the Ramapo Clove (the Dutch word for pass), and helped to protect the blockhouse which was just to the east. First used by Native Americans and then by early settlers, this pass was one of the few ways settlers from "north of the mountains" could travel to conduct legal business.

The Rochester Chapter was pleased to honor one of its own members, Captain Todd Fleming with the War Service Medal with a SW Asia bar following his tour of duty in Afghanistan in 2002. Captain Fleming was the featured speaker at a January meeting, providing Compatriots with a fascinating and extensive presentation of his time in Afghanistan, punctuated with many of the souvenir items he purchased while there. From left to right were: Society President Bill Woodworth; Captain Todd Fleming and Chapter President Steve Clarke.

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

The Society Color Guard posted the Colors at the 7th Annual Patriots' Day, sponsored by the Alamance Battleground Chapter in early March. The celebration, which took place at the Alamance Battleground State Park in Burlington, commemorated the three Revolutionary War Battles fought in this area in 1781: Clapp's Mill, Pyle's Defeat and Lindley's Mill. Eight North Carolina Chapters laid wreaths to honor the Patriots who died for the cause of independence.

Compatriot Donald E. Bolden was the keynote speaker when the Alamance Battleground Chapter hosted a wreath laying ceremony to commemorate the 232nd anniversary of the Battle of Alamance, and to remember the Patriots who fought there on May 16, 1771. In the background are Chapter Color Guardsmen standing at the battle's monument at the Battle of Alamance State Park in Burlington.

The Society and its Nathanael Greene Chapter hosted the 222nd anniversary remembrance of the battle fought at Guilford Courthouse, considered to be the pinnacle of the Revolutionary War's Southern Campaign because it altered the course of the war and contributed to the American victory at Yorktown months after. The observance was held in March on the grounds of Guilford Courthouse National Military Park in Greensboro.

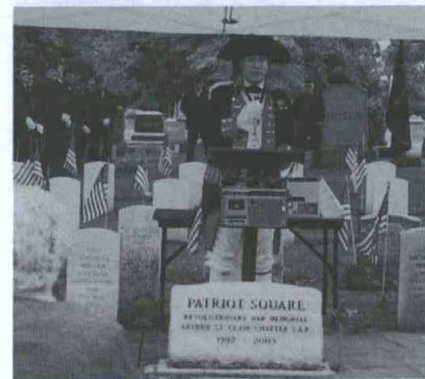

The Chapter Color Guard led the procession which included SAR Color Guards from Georgia and North Carolina, the New Jersey Light Infantry, Guilford Courthouse Fife and Drum Corps, wreath and flag bearers from units of the SAR, DAR and C.A.R., and Colonial Dames of the XVII Century. George Thurmond, Vice Chairman, Southern Region Historic Sites and

OHIO SOCIETY

Springfield was the site chosen by the Society for its 114th State Conference held May 9-11. The guest of honor was Secretary General Raymond G. Musgrave, who came from his home in West Virginia. Presiding over the affair was President Terry Whetstone, who presented a Certificate of Appreciation to his father, Past President Martin Whetstone, for his help and support.

Society President Terry Whetstone (right) presented the Patriot Medal to Cincinnati Chapter Compatriot Charles Edwards in recognition of his many contributions to the Ohio Society – including being responsible for submitting news items to The SAR Magazine!

A 13-year project of the Arthur St. Clair Chapter culminated at Grandview Cemetery in May when the Chapter dedicated a book about Revolutionary War Patriots buried in Ross County. The project also involved placing 34 memorial stones in 10 cemeteries, part of the 101 stones set throughout the county by the Chapter. Pictured is Society President Larry Perkins addressing the participants at the dedication of Patriot Square in the cemetery. Twenty-one descendants of six Patriots were present, including seven who are descendants of Henry Hill, an African-American.

Celebrations Committee, presented the SAR's wreath. Georgia Society President Dr. Milton Johnson, Jr., presented a Battle Streamer to the Nathanael Greene Chapter Color Guard, and Society President Dr. Randy D. Steele addressed the attendees, as did Park Superintendent Charles E. Cranfield.

A wide variety of awards were presented, including the Patriot Medal to Cincinnati Chapter Compatriot Charles Edwards and Benjamin Franklin Chapter Compatriot John Williams. Chancellor General Donald Moyer was awarded the prestigious Ohio Society Hub Scott Award in absentia, since he could not be present due to illness.

OREGON SOCIETY

Highlighting the Annual Meeting of the Pacific District in Portland was the dedication of a new government marker at the grave site of Patriot William Cannon, the only known Revolutionary War veteran buried in the 19 western states. The April event took place at the nearby town of St. Paul. Participating in the solemn ceremony were President General B. Rice Aston and these Compatriots who made up the Color Guard (from left): Garrett Jackson of the California Society and three members of the local Lewis and Clark Chapter, James Yaple, Ralph Brooks and Larry Mylnechuk.

PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY

Society members participated in the 50th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Memorial Bell Tower at Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge on April 11. Among the festivities were an afternoon service, and a recital by Doug Gefver, Chapel Carillonneur.

The Washington Memorial Chapel is an Episcopal parish with an active congregation, as well as a church that welcomes visitors who are touring Valley Forge. The Chapel was built as a tribute to George Washington; the cornerstone was laid in June of 1903. The Bell Tower was dedicated in 1953, with the DAR instrumental in raising the money for the tower. The bells are played from a clavier high in the tower by a carillonneur, using feet and clenched fists.

Philadelphia-Continental Chapter Color Guard is shown ready to march into the Chapel to present the Colors.

Pictured here were SAR members J. Thomas Showler, President, PASSAR; Guy Lisowski and Jim Willis of the Philadelphia-Continental Chapter's Washington Life Guard Color Guard, along with Mrs. Linda Tinker Watkins, President General, NSDAR. They participated in the Memorial Chapel program.

The 110th Annual Meeting of the Society was held May 2-3, highlighted by a formal banquet on Saturday night. Pictured are (from left): Leroy Moody Lewis III, newly elected President of the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution and who is in the process of joining the Washington Crossing Chapter; Harry E. Killen III, who was sworn in as Society President; and Tom Showler, who is now National Trustee. Friday's program included a lecture titled "A First Person Impression of William Penn" by Dr. William Kashatus of the Chester County Historical Society. The Annual Meeting was held Saturday morning, followed by an afternoon Memorial Service.

RHODE ISLAND SOCIETY

A number of dignitaries were present when the Rhode Island Society of The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America marked its 75th anniversary at The Hope Club in Providence in early May, including (from left): DAR Regent-elect C. Elizabeth Candas; RISDAR Corresponding Secretary Barbara Booth; RISDAR Regent Tonya L. Jones; Society Vice President Carlen P. Booth; Society President John McCue; and Robert Baxter, Governor of the OFPA Rhode Island Society.

TEXAS SOCIETY

In late May the Patrick Henry Chapter sponsored a ceremony that honored Patriots Robert Rankin and Stephen Williams buried in the State Cemetery at Austin. Both men were also veterans of the War of 1812 and the Texas Revolution. Among those taking part were Past Society President Frank Gibson, who served as Master of Ceremonies; President General and Mrs. B. Rice Aston; Texas Governor Rick Perry; Society President Richard Robinette; and a large number of Chapter members and representatives of the DAR. Posting the Colors were members of the Chapter Color Guard.

Chapter Compatriot John Knox presented Governor Rick Perry a Commemorative Medal for his participation in the ceremony.

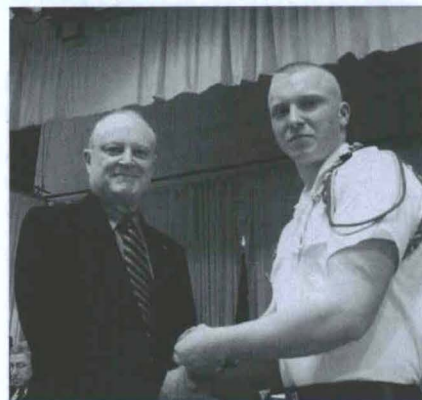

Kyle Krueger, a 5th grade student representing the Alexander Hodge Chapter, went on to win the Texas Society's annual poster contest after taking first place in the Chapter's competition. She is shown here receiving a $300 Savings Bond from Society Past President Jim Robertson at the 108th State Convention. Her poster was then entered into the National Society's contest.

Astronaut Byron Lichtenberg presented a program based on his two space shuttle missions to eager Compatriots of the Athens Chapter at a recent meeting. Dr. Lichtenberg, an Athens resident, participated in his first mission, SPACELAB 1, in 1983 aboard the shuttle Columbia. His second flight came in 1992 aboard the shuttle Atlantis. Dr. Lichtenberg explained how he prepared for each flight, the effect of zero gravity with the spacecraft, the details of viewing earth from space, and the sensation of reentering the earth's atmosphere. He previously served in the Air Force, where he flew combat missions in Vietnam, earning 10 air medals and two Distinguished Flying Crosses. He is currently a captain for a major airline, and is also a consultant to NASA. For his educational, historic and patriotic duty to his country, Dr. Lichtenberg was presented with the Silver Good Citizenship Medal.

Peter A. Galbraith, Supervisory Senior Resident Agent with the FBI, spoke on "Terrorism Issues of Today" when the Capt. Wm. Barron Chapter met for its March meeting. As an FBI Agent, he is a trained Crisis Management Coordinator and has been certified by the Dept. of Energy as a searcher for nuclear weapons. Galbraith has run command posts for Weapons of Mass Destruction, and has been involved recently in the prevention of future attacks.

VERMONT SOCIETY

Society President Thomas P. McKenna recently presented the ROTC Medal to Army ROTC Cadet Fabich at Norwich University.

VIRGINIA SOCIETY

In May the Col. Fielding Lewis Chapter staged two ceremonies relative to the Revolutionary War. LEFT: A plaque was presented to the City of Fredericksburg in recognition of the city's contributions to the conflict. As shown here, a Joint Color Guard from the Virginia, Maryland and North Carolina Societies participated in the program, which saw placement of the plaque in the newly renovated Market Square. Serving as City Hall in the early 1800's, the building was one of the locations that General Marquis de Lafayette visited in 1824. RIGHT: Following the plaque ceremony, Chapter President Bob Bowen presided at a grave marking for Charles Yates, a member of the Fredericksburg Committee of Correspondence in 1775. Yates and some ten other Patriots are buried in the Old Masonic Cemetery next to the James Monroe Museum.

"The First Shots Fired" was the title of a lecture given by guest speaker Peter R. Henriques, Associate Professor of History at George Mason University, when the George Washington Chapter held its April meeting in Alexandria. Mr. Henriques, a well-known scholar and writer on George Washington and the Revolutionary War period, teaches American and Virginia history. His book, The Death of George Washington: He Died as He Lived, was published by the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association in 2000. He has authored numerous articles and is a member of the editorial board for the George Washington Papers as well as a member of the Mount Vernon Committee of George Washington Scholars. He is a frequent speaker at Mount Vernon and is currently writing a book on various aspects of Washington's life and character.

The Richard Henry Lee Chapter was privileged in April to hear about the plans to restore Menokin Plantation as an architectural research site. Menokin Foundation Executive Director Doris Lackey described the history of the 1,000-acre plantation from the time of its gift to Francis Lightfoot Lee as a wedding present in 1769 through present-day efforts of the Foundation to preserve and restore the ruins. The Foundation received a $366,000 grant from the National Park Service to aid the restoration and preservation efforts. The grant will be matched by gifts from Foundation members and other interested groups. From left were: Chapter Vice-President Charles Farley, Doris Lackey and President Dan Robertson.

The Richard Henry Lee Chapter learned more about George Washington as presented by Andrew Packett, a Park Ranger and Education Coordinator for George Washington Birthplace National Monument, at its June meeting. In his program, "The Greatest Character of His Age," Packett revealed the influences on young Washington that shaped his character and leadership. Packett received the Northeast Region Freeman Tilden Award, the highest honor bestowed by NPS, for interpretation and education. He has researched, written articles and presented many programs concerning Washington.

SAR MAGAZINE

George Washington's Mount Vernon was the setting on Flag Day – June 14 – as the George Washington Chapter joined with the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration services (BCIS) and the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association in bestowing citizenship on 99 immigrants. Among those participating in the impressive ceremony were (from left): Virginia Congressman Tom Davis; Gordon England, Deputy Secretary, Department of Homeland Security; Hon. Eduardo Aguirre, Interim Director of the BCIS; Chapter President Richard P. Kusserow; and James C. Rees, Executive Director of the Association. After an eloquent speech, Mr. Aguirre administered the Oath of Citizenship (also known as the Oath of Citizenship). Following this event, the new citizens came forward as their name was called to receive their Naturalization Certificates. Each was greeted in a receiving line consisting of those shown here. Also featured in the program were the United States Marine Band and the United States Armed Forces Color Guard. In his remarks, Mr. Aguirre noted "I arrived in the United States as a 15-year-old Cuban refugee with no family, no money, no working knowledge of the English language. Like those who preceded me, I came to America from another country in search of freedom, in search of opportunity, in search of a better life. I found all three, for which I am grateful beyond words."

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

When the Pacific District and Washington Society met concurrently in early April at Portland, two dignitaries representing the National Society were on hand: President General B. Rice Aston and Cindy Harbin, who serves as Director of Development and is based at Headquarters in Louisville. The PG spoke informally during the Washington Society's Executive Board meeting and then had to leave because of other commitments. Cindy spoke in support of the proposed Center for Advancing America's Heritage, which will be constructed across Fifth Street from Headquarters. She emphasized that plans call for it to become the foremost repository of Revolutionary Era documents and artifacts, as well as a vast collection of genealogical materials.

Compatriot Glenn Oliver addressed the Alexander Hamilton Chapter with a harrowing story of hardship and courage during the Chapter's May meeting. "My 1,270 days as a POW of the Japanese" was the subject of his talk that covered unbelievable human suffering and mistreatment at the hands of the Japanese that spanned nearly 3-1/2 years and included participation in the Bataan Death March and the sinking of the ARISAN MARU (an unmarked Japanese freighter being used as a prisoner of war transport by a U.S. submarine).

WEST VIRGINIA SOCIETY

Adam Stephen Chapter Compatriots were treated to an enlightening lecture by Dean Mark Stern, (right) Vice-President of Academic Affairs at Shepherd College, at its May meeting. President Charles F. Printz introduced the speaker, who described the role of a German Major, Julius Schnelling, in a French Huguenot town and his dedication to safeguarding a small parish and their pastor during World War II. Although Major Schnelling was a German officer who had been coerced into joining the Nazi party, he was actually anti-Nazi. He was given a Certificate of Appreciation by President Printz (center). A Certificate of Appreciation was also given to Compatriot William McGavin (left) for properly flying the American Flag at his home in Charles Town.

WISCONSIN SOCIETY

Madison, the capital of Wisconsin, was the April locale for the Annual Meeting of the Great Lakes District presided over by Vice-President General David A. Dean. Among the dignitaries present were President General B. Rice Aston, former PG Russell D. Page, Treasurer General Henry N. McCarl, Historian General Bruce A. Wilcox, Presiding over the Great Lakes District Meeting was Vice-President General David A. Dean, a member of the Wisconsin Society.

Wisconsin Society President C.E. Thorp, Illinois Society President Stephen Bradley and Michigan Society President Lou Hoos. Each addressed attendees at the business meeting, while PG Aston was guest speaker at a formal banquet. Illinois Compatriot John Dyrud was nominated to serve as VPG in the term that will begin at the end of the 113th Annual Congress in Chicago.

President General B. Rice Aston was guest speaker at the banquet staged during the Annual Meeting of the Great Lakes District. Accompanying him to the gathering was his wife Ursula, our Society's charming First Lady.

A large group of Compatriots, DARs and members of the C.A.R. were present when the Society held its Annual Meeting and Awards Luncheon in mid-May near Milwaukee. The guest of honor was Indiana Compatriot Charles F. Bragg, who is serving as Chairman of the National Society Fund Raising Committee; his remarks emphasized the importance of the proposed Center for Advancing America's Heritage set for construction in Louisville. For having served as President over two terms, C.E. Thorp was awarded both the Past President's Pin and the Meritorious Service Medal, Receiving the Patriot Medal was Harold Klubertanz in recognition of his outstanding efforts on a number of fronts, including efforts in organizing the Society's program that recognizes the 40 Patriots buried in the state (as reported in a separate news story in this issue of the magazine). Clayton O. Tolleson was awarded the Silver Good Citizenship Medal and the Heroism Medal, the latter for rescuing two people who were trapped in a burning house. President Thorp gave the Distinguished Service Medal to Past President David A. Dean. The Meritorious Medal was also presented to David A. Dean, Donald D. Hall, John W. Plummer, and Winston C. Williams. Receiving the Medal of Appreciation were Past DAR State Regent Beverly West and Jean Thorp.

Incoming President James D. Waid (right) was pleased to offer a miniature Liberty Bell to retiring President C.E. Thorp in recognition of his service of over two years in the top post.

Awards Committee Chairman (and incoming Society President) James D. Waid (left) was pleased to present the Patriot Medal to Harold Klubertanz, who is Commander of the Society's Color Guard. Observing were Mrs. Klubertanz and Guard members.

Awards Committee Chairman James D. Waid (right) was proud to present the Heroism Medal to Compatriot Clayton O. Tolleson in recognition of his rescue of two people from a burning house.

Mark Grave Of Continental Surgeon

The National Society, assisted by the Fairfax Resolves Chapter of the Virginia Society, marked the grave of Dr. James Craik in mid-May at the Old Presbyterian Meeting House in Alexandria. He was the Chief Physician and Surgeon of the Continental Army and a close personal friend of General George Washington.

According to information sent to the magazine by Virginia Compatriot Robert E. Bowen, NSSAR Executive Director James N. Randall attended the ceremony and placed a wreath on behalf of the Society. Also presenting wreaths were James A. McCafferty, Vice-President General for the Mid-Atlantic District, and John Dickie, President-elect of the VASSAR.

The program was organized by VASSAR Vice President Larry McKinley. Past President Dr. John Sinks described the life and service of Dr. Craik during the Revolutionary War.

Compatriots will recall the news story that appeared in the Winter 2003 Issue of the magazine that reported the gift of a miniature portrait of Dr. Craik to the National Society Museum in Louisville by Kentucky

Past Virginia Society President Dr. John Sinks discussed the life and contributions of Dr. James Craik during the May ceremony.

Serving as guest speaker at the Annual Meeting was Charles F. Bragg, Chairman of the NSSAR Fund Raising Committee.

Compatriot and Mrs. James S. Craik; he is a direct descendant of the famed Patriot. The miniature was rendered by Charles Willson Peale and has been appraised by a professional to be valued at $500,000.

After graduating from Medical School in Edinburgh, Dr. Craik came to America and settled in Virginia in 1750. Some sources claim that he was commissioned a surgeon in Col. Joshua Fry's command, which Major George Washington commanded after Fry's death in 1754. Both Craik and Washington took part in General Braddock's ill-fated attempt to subdue both the French and their Indian allies in the summer of 1755. From then on Washington appears to have increasingly relied on Dr. Craik as his personal physician.

During the Revolutionary War, Dr. Craik served in the medical department. He was present at the surrender of Cornwallis in 1781. After the conflict, he moved to Alexandria, Virginia at Washington's request. He was called when Washington became seriously ill and died in 1799. His grandson, the Rev. James Craik, came to Louisville, Kentucky in 1844.

James N. Randall, Executive Director of the National Society, presented a memorial wreath at the grave of Dr. James Craik.

Not All Oneidas Left New York After The Revolution

Readers of The SAR Magazine will recall that the Fall 2002 Issue featured a major article about the American Indians that appeared under a series heading titled "Ethnic Heritage of the Revolutionary War." It was prepared by former President General James R. Westlake.

The manuscript implied that the Oneidas – who played a major role in the Revolution on the side of the colonists – eventually moved from their homelands in New York State to Wisconsin. This is not a fact as is pointed out in the following excerpts from a letter received by the Editor from Dale Rood, Tribal Clan Representative of the Oneida Nation Men's Council, Oneida, New York:

"I congratulate your magazine and author James R. Westlake on the article in the Fall 2002 SAR Magazine about the role American Indians played in the Revolutionary War. This article does much to inform and educate your readers about the contributions of American Indian patriots, which have been ignored for too long.

"Unfortunately, the article also perpetuates the myth that American Indians in general, and the Oneida in particular, were "removed" from the eastern United States in the 19th century. Although some Oneida Indians did indeed relocate to Wisconsin and Canada, many remained on their ancestral homelands in Central New York, where their descendants form a thriving community today. In 2002, the Oneida Indian Nation, located in Upstate New York, has its own government and its own economic base in the same place where our ancestors decided 225 years ago to cast their lot with the American colonists.

"The Oneida people are proud of their place as America's first allies. We are active participants in ceremonies marking the anniversary of the Battle of Oriskany and we are partners with Fort Stanwix National Monument, where some of our ancestors are buried in the same grave with other patriots at the Tomb of the Unknown Revolutionary War Soldiers. In fact, our Members and our employees have formed a Revolutionary War re-enactors group, of which I am a part, to demonstrate the interactions among American militia and Oneida warriors during this critical period of history.

"I invite you and the author to visit the Oneida Indian Nation in New York, so you can experience for yourself both the rich history and the vibrant present of our ancestral homelands."

Editor Win Williams wishes to thank Mr. Rood for setting the record straight. And he adds, "It would be a real pleasure to visit the Oneida Nation. Many thanks for the invitation."

Huge Family Files Free On Internet

Progeny Software, a Nova Scotia, Canada-based firm that produces CDs for sale by the NSSAR, has announced a free genealogy web site for searching one of the world's largest collection of family trees.

According to Progeny President Bob Thomas, Internet searchers can simply type in the name of a family member in the search field and find every mention of that name in the database. People can quickly see if the collection contains their ancestors before they decide to purchase the records on CD.

These 55-million genealogy records have been submitted by people worldwide to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. These unedited family tree files are compiled and published by the Church in a growing collection of CDs called Pedigree Resource File (PRF), with over 1,000 new family trees added each month. While the Church also publishes these records online, www.findyourfamilytree.com is a web site solely dedicated to promoting the PRF collection.

"All 55-million names are lineage-linked," Thomas emphasizes. "If you find one ancestor, changes are you'll find hundreds, possibly thousands from that branch of your family tree."

Along with the individual's name, the online search directory also reports life events (with dates and place names), parents, and contact information about the submitter. With this information, the researcher can decide whether to purchase the PRF CD.
