THE DEBT IS PAID

DEAR COMPATRIOTS:

Thanks to your splendid cooperation and real generosity, the Debt Liquidation Committee is now able to report sufficient moneys were collected to pay the debt on Headquarters in full, and the certificates of indebtedness are being paid as of July 1st.

We are all very happy to see this obligation finally cleared up, and the Committee wishes everyone to know how much we appreciate the splendid attitude of the Compatriots throughout the country, and particularly the State Societies and Chapters who have helped so much.

It was hoped that in this issue of the magazine we could print a list of the contributors, but as this is written contributions are still coming in and we will have to delay the printing of the list until a later issue.

Thanks again.

Digest of the Minutes of the Executive Committee

Held at the Hotel Prichard, Huntington, West Virginia, May 13, 1947

presiding.

Col. Louis Annin Ames, A. Herbert Foreman, Edwin B. Graham, Wallace C. Hall, Smith L. Multer, Ben H. Powell, G. Ridgely Sappington. Also, Secretary General Frank B. Steele, and Committee Chairman, Will H. Daniel.

Members met at dinner as the guests of the President General which was followed by business.

Secretary General Steele reported that we had during the year ending March 31, 1947 enrolled more new members than in any year for at least twenty, and probably the largest number ever received in one year. He called attention however to the large number of members dropped because of non-payment of dues.

A report by Chairman Wallace C. Hall of the Debt Liquidation Committee was received to the effect that all but a very small sum had been subscribed and he confidently expected to receive the full amount including interest before his final report to the Congress. He was congratulated upon his work and results.

The recommendation of Past President General Multer not to sponsor the proposed film which he had been asked to look into, was adopted.

No report on the cost of micro-filming records at Headquarters.

The request of Harry E. Sherwin, Chairman of Organization for appropriation of an addi-

Present: President General Allen L. Oliver, tional $50.00 for expenses of the Committee until June 1, 1947 was on motion authorized President General Oliver presented a communication from Compatriot Douglas High of Cincinnati offering to contribute $250.00 as prizes for a contest among High School students for the best written and best delivered paper on early American history having to do with the founding of our Nation.

Voted: That the offer of Compatriot High be accepted and that the President General to be elected at the Congress appoint a committee to work out the details with Mr. High. It was suggested that the contestants be drawn either from the State in which the 1948 Congress is to be held, or from that and neighboring states, and that the contest be held as a part of the Congress after preliminary eliminations. The Committee extended its appreciation to Mr. High.

Voted: That refunds of initiation fees in certain cases as presented by the Registrar General be authorized.

Attention was called to the Legacy made to the National Society in the will of our late Compatriot Past President General, R. C. Ballard Thruston.

Voted: Approval of the action of the President General in deferring authorization of a bill pending supporting details.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

FRANK B. STEELE, Secretary General.

Digest of the Minutes of the Board of Trustees of the National Society

Held at the Hotel Prichard, Huntington, West Virginia, May 13, 1947

Present: President General Oliver, presiding. Notation was made of those present, the Secretary General reporting that more than twenty-five Trustees were present and a quorum was declared.

Voted: That the Minutes of the meeting of the Trustees held at Trenton, N. J., May 16, 1946 be approved as published in the July 1946 Magazine.

Voted: That the actions of the Executive Committee as reported in the minutes of the meetings of the Committee held in the interim hetween the last meeting of the Trustees and this meeting, be approved as published in the issues of the Magazine during the year, and that the actions of the Executive Committee just preceding this meeting be also approved.

The President General made a brief report of the activities of the Society during the year and called on the Secretary General to report on the membership enrollment which showed the largest number received for many years, but a disturbing number dropped for non-payment of dues. Discussion ensued and it was the sense of the meeting that active constructive programs in state societies and specific duties assigned to members was the cure for this condition.

Voted: That the Board of Trustees recommend to the incoming Executive Committee a plan of holding meetings of the Committee at various cities throughout the country.

The Treasurer General's report was received for filing, together with a verbal report of the Audit Committee, given in some detail.

Voted.: That the auditor be requested to add a note to his report stating that an inventory of the furniture at National Headquarters is completed and on file.

Report was made by the Budget and Finance Committee, Col. Ames, Chairman, and the same was unanimously approved.

Voted: That delegates from state societies whose per capita tax has not yet been received be seated, and that such societies be given until July 1st, 1947 to pay their 1947-48 per capita tax.

Voted: That the President General, the Executive Committee and other National officers be commended for their excellent and constructive work during the year.

> FRANK B. STEELE, Secretary General.

Medal Awards, Frank B. Steele, N. Y. and D. C.

National Headquarters, Benjamin D. Hill, Jr., D. C.

Flag and Flag Day Observance, Howard E. Coe. Connecticut.

Memorials, James M. Breckenridge, Missouri.

In calling for this report, the President General stated that following its reading, a brief Memorial Service would be held, and tribute paid to our honored Compatriots who have been called away.

Memorial Service

Briefly reviewing his work in trying to ascertain a record of all Compatriots who had served in World War II, the records of which are very incomplete, Mr. Breckenridge read the names of National and State Officers of the Society who have been called beyond during the past year, and a statement that approximately 492 Compatriots were deceased during the year.

This was followed by the tribute to Rogers Clark Ballard Thruston.

The Chairman: A memoir of our late President General Rogers Clark Ballard Thruston will be read by Compatriot Ransom H. Bassett.

National Trustee for Kentucky, after which all Compatriots will stand, remaining standing until Taps are sounded.

Mr. Ransom H. Bassett: (quoting in part) Mr. President General and Compatriots: You have heard the honor that has been bestowed upon me and I am reviewing in brief some of the outstanding facts of the life of one of our distinguished Compatriots—many of you will remember his acts and deeds:

ROGERS CLARK BALLARD THRUSTON was born November 6, 1858, in Louisville, Kentucky, and died in the same city, on December 30, 1946. He was the son of Andrew Jackson Ballard and Frances Ann Thruston. In 1884, at his mother's request, he added her family name to that which he previously bore. His paternal greatgrandfather, Bland Ballard, was killed in an Indian Massacre near Shelbyville, Kentucky, in 1788. His maternal great-grandmother, Frances Eleanor Clark Thruston, wife of Captain Charles Mynn Thruston, was a sister of George Rogers Clark, the conqueror of the Old Northwest. He became a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, in 1890, through his ancestor, Colonel Charles Mynn Thruston.

Compatriot Thruston received the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy from the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University. At later dates, he was awarded honorary degrees by other universities. He was a geologist, metallurgist, literatus, historian, and antiquarian—and yet, though modest, he was a public benefactor.

About the turn of the century, he began to devote himself almost exclusively to patriotic and historic endeavors. He was a devoted member of the Sons of the American Revolution and contributed generously of his time and substance to the State, as well as the National Society. He had held every office in the Kentucky Society and was its only Honorary Life member. His highest attainment was his election as President General of the National Society, in 1913-14. In 1913, Mr. Thruston organized and headed a pilgrimage

In 1913, Mr. Thruston organized and headed a pilgrimage which commemorated the journey of George Washington, from Philadelphia to Cambridge, to take command of the American Army.

American Army. In 1923, Compatriot Thruston became President of the Filson Club in Louisville, Kentucky, and continued as such until his death. He had been a member of this organization since 1892. Through this institution he devoted an untold amount of time, effort, and money, to the research and preservation of historical data having to do with Kentucky. He was a member of many State Historical Societies.

His great labors on compilation of "The Signers of the Declaration of Independence," was a monumental work for the Sons of the American Revolution, and in June, 1928, Mr. Thruston made his final report, presenting one set of eight volumes, which constituted the results to that date of his vast research, to the National Society. He was a true friend and a good citizen. His lasting work will hever be forgotten, and he will be missed for his work will never be forgotten, and he will be missed for his participation in all civic affairs. The Nation, the State of Kentucky, and the City of Louisville, will not see the like of Rogers Clark Ballard Thruston again. His memory will forever remain a Thruston again. His memory will forever remain a cherished treasure. Upon the conclusion of the above tribute, the Chaplain General led the Congress in Prayer, and the audience remained standing while Taps were sounded by the Bugler.

The President General: Thank you for the beautiful and appropriate ceremony.

Answering an inquiry from the floor, the Secretary General explained that the Service Flag hung at the back of the platform represented our members who had served in World War II, the Gold Star, those who had made the supreme sacrifice; that the figures for each have not as yet been compiled and will be indicated below each star when the information is obtained, and stated that this was one of the reasons for Mr. Breckenridge's urgent plea for this information to come from the State officers.

At this time the President General called upon Chaplain General Bulkley to present a matter concerning the current tendency toward materialism, and destruction of the cultural and spiritual life of the Nation.

Chaplain Bulkley made an urgent plea and challenge to the Sons of the American Revolution to find an answer to this problem, and to take an earnest active part in beginning to rebuild the American home in small town and rural places and thus to lay the foundations for the re-building of our urban life, the home life of which is being dissipated.

The President General: (following comments on the above from the floor): After all, we have got to begin in our own homes, in our churches, if we want to get the right kind of results and the right kind of men and women for tomorrow.

Presentation of Washington State Flag

The President General: My Compatriots, the National Society has been the recipient of a State Flag from nearly each of the State Societies. At this time there are only three or four Societies who have not presented to the National Society their State Flags.

The great State of Washington on the West Coast has a State Flag and it is their desire to present the same to this Society and we would like to have that done at this time. Will the Color Guard come forward bearing the Flag?

Vice President General Kemp, State of Washington, will you present the Flag to this Society?

Mr. G. Ward Kemp of Washington State: Coming to the purpose for which I am here, it is a great honor to be present on this occasion for the purpose of presenting this Flag. It is an honor that can come to only a few men because there are only a few states left to present flags. I came twenty-five hundred miles from Seattle largely for the purpose of presenting this flag that had been asked for and promised for years, but we couldn't get it because of the War.

Mr. Kemp proceeded to describe the Flag and the significance of the design (the head of George Washington), and the beauties

As State Secretary and Treasurer of the State of Washington, Sons of the American Revolution, I present this Flag to the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The Secretary General: We, at Headquarters receive this with the greatest pleasure. We have been working for at least, I think, eighteen years, to get all of the States in and we have them all now but three or four and are delighted to have this one from Washington.

The President General: Vice President General Kemp, from Washington, may the President General say to you that on behalf of the entire organization we appreciate your presenting this beautiful Flag to the Society. Thank you. May I intrude on your time to say this personal word: The Flag which is just here (on the platform), is the Missouri Flag which doubtless was placed here in honor of the State which gave me birth and it was my sainted mother who designed and made Missouri's official Flag, so it is with considerable and I think, pardonable delight, that I look upon this Flag as one of those in the State Galaxy of Flags in the Society. Thank you, Resuming reports, the Chair called upon

Wallace C. Hall of Michigan to report for the Debt Liquidation Committee:

Mr. Hall: It is always a disheartening thing for a Committee Chairman to have to admit that we have fallen down on the job. However, it isn't as bad as it might be: but it isn't as good as we want it to be. I am not going to attempt to give you detailed figures from the different States because these have been changing rapidly the last few hours. A complete summary will be published in the July Magazine if the space will permit.

I am very happy to report to you that this morning we have on hand the sum of $5,474.00 in cash, $286.50 by State Societies, and in transit, which makes a total of $5,760.50. We are short $239.50 and I would like to know what you would want to do about it?

There followed numerous pledges of sums of varied amounts from the floor, and a final pledge from the Missouri Society for any balance remaining.

Mr. Hall: Gentlemen, I want to thank every Compatriot and particularly the members of the Committee for a splendid job, and without their assistance, this job would not have been done.

Gentlemen, I want to announce now, formally, that the Debt is Paid! (applause). The President General: My Compatriots and my good friends, this is a very happy moment in the life of your President General, not only in his life of some three-score years. but more particularly in his official life of this vear.

Mr. Oliver continued with many expressions of appreciation to Mr. Hall and the committee and his gratification that this special objective of his administration was successfully reached.

(Resuming Committee reports):

Constitution Day Observance, Charles B. Shaler, Pennsylvania.

Following this report and in reply to inquiries from the floor, Brig. General Henry G. Mathewson of California was introduced, and spoke with deep eloquence on the work of the California Society in its effort to have subversive text-books eliminated from the schools of his State, and it was announced that a Resolution covering this matter would be presented to the Congress.

The President General added an account of the investigation of these books which had been made by the Executive Committee.

A motion was made by Compatriot George Albert Smith that the Congress express to the California Society, appreciation of their "forthright and forward action as Christian gentlemen and patriots in this matter." Unanimously adopted.

Mr. Hall, Chairman: Before I start on the Resolutions I would like to tell you that as near as we can count, we are about $280.00 over the goal on Debt Liquidation, and thanks, again.

The Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, Mr. Hall, now presented the following Resolutions on behalf of his Committee. Adoption of each was moved by the Chairman, duly seconded and each was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, we believe that only an accurately informed citizenry can be a truly free people, and
WHEREAS, it is common knowledge that many of our schools and colleges have become permeated with subversive teachings and that communistic principles are in many instances openly taught, with the result that the minds of the youth of our nation are being turned from the principles of the founding fathers and are becoming tainted with the isms of the old world so that their respect for our Constitution and the American way of life has become impaired; therefore, formation convince us that most of those seeking admittance to America are men and women utterly ignorant of our national ideals and democratic concepts or hostile to them and

WHEREAS, in spite of our quota laws we are reliably informed from official and unofficial sources that thousands of undesirable immigrants are being smuggled into our country every month and that we now have many hundreds of thousands of aliens illegally in our country, competing with our own citizens for jobs and homes and, in many cases, stirring up strikes and civic disturbances to the great injury of our economic life, now therefore be it, by the National Congress of the Sons of the American Revolution in session at Huntington, West Virginia, May 15, 1947, RESOLVED, that we go on record with the greatest

Report of the Committee on Committee Reports was received. Buford Tynes, West

Virginia, Chairman. Acceptance voted. Recess was taken at 12:30 P. M. to reconvene at 2 P. M. THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION,

2 O'CLOCK

The Congress was called to order and the Secretary General was recognized.

The Secretary General: I have a very delightful ceremony to carry on every year: We have the Florence Kendall Award for the two men who have done the outstanding work during the year in the Society (membership increase.) Mr. Kendall has put that money aside (in memory of his mother) and it is used to buy one of these (the Ceremonial Insignia). Mr. Will Daniel was presented with the Ceremonial Badge of the Society (in symbol) as having done an outstanding service to the Society. Mr. Edwin B. Graham of Pennsylvania, was presented with the second Insignia, as entitled to the second award. These gentlemen responded with appropriate remarks of appreciation.

The Chairman of the Committee on Credentials. Mr. Pettit was recognized.

Mr. Pettit: Mr. President General, Compatriots and Guests: The Credential Committee has a report to make that we have exactly 400 reservations, of which 200 are delegates, properly certified, and 200 are guests. We can still add a few names if there are others who wish to register.

The President General now presented Mrs. Harry J. Smith, newly elected State Regent, D. A. R. of West Virginia, and wife of the West Virginia State Secretary, S. A. R. Mrs. Smith spoke briefly in acknowledgment of the introduction.

The Chair recognized Past President General Sterling F. Mutz, Chairman of the Committee on Restoration.

Sterling F. Mutz: There is no report because the Committee was set up at a time when it was necessary to do a particular job and we recommend that the department of Restoration be abandoned in the coming year because the work has been carried on by other departments.

Mr. Pettit of the Credentials Committee: I wish to report 224 delegates instead of 200, which I think is the largest registration ever had in the Society. These have come in very late, just in the final checking.

The President General: Thank you Mr. Pettit.

Action on the proposed amendments was now called for. These had been issued to the State Presidents in accordance with the Constitutional provision. They were read as follows:

By-Laws Article XX, Section 2, to be amended to read as follows:

"State Societies shall be represented at meetings of the National Society by members either duly elected by members of a State Society or duly appointed by the President of a State Society or by the election or appointment of a member or members of another State Society to represent said Society, or who in the absence of regularly elected delegates, may be chosen by the regularly elected attending delegates of such State Society from the members of such State Society who may be present at any meeting of the National Society.

After some discussion and a number of inquiries with reference to this amendment, it was pointed out that inasmuch as a committee is to be appointed for the purpose of revising the Constitution and By Laws, that it would be well to defer action at this time, and it was so moved and seconded, and upon the question being put, the matter was referred to the incoming Committee on Revision.

The Secretary General now read the second proposed amendment as follows:

Amend Article XXVII to read as follows: (New matter in italics)

"The admission fee for membership in the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution shall be five dollars ($5.00), and this fee must accompany the application; provided that a male applicant from the Societies, Children of the American Revolution, or The Children of the Revolution, or the Washington Guards, not later than one year after his twenty-first birthday, with his application for membership in this Society, may present a transfer card to the Registrar General in lieu of the admission fee; and provided, also, that a son of a member of this Society, or the son of a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, who at the time of such son's application is in good standing, or if deceased, was at the time of his or her death, in good standing in the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, or the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, if eligible, and elected to membership in any State Society before attaining the age of twenty-five years, may be admitted without payment of said admission fee of five dollars to the National Society, but shall pay one dollar ($1.00) for his certificate of membership."

It was pointed out that this amendment was for purposes of clarification only, to remedy improper wording of the same amendment that was proposed and adopted two years ago. Upon proper motion duly seconded, the amendment was unanimously ADOPTED. Amendment #3 was read by the Secretary

General as follows:

Amend Article IV by adding the following additional section:

"Section 3. The Board of Trustees may appoint and may prescribe the duties and authority of one or more assistant secretaries, one or more assistant registrars, one or more assistant treasurers and an executive secretary, or any thereof, who may, but need not be, members of the Society, to serve during the pleasure of the Board of Trustees."

This brought forth much discussion following an explanation by Mr. Hall as the reason for the Michigan Society's purpose in proposing the amendment, which was virtually the second time as a similar proposal had been brought to the Congress last year.

In the course of the discussion, Compatriot Bauer of Massachusetts moved that action on the amendment be indefinitely postponed, but in the meantime a Compatriot requested that it be read a second time, which was done. The same delegate moved to amend by striking out the words "who may or may not be members of the Society." Before this could be seconded or acted upon a delegate moved.

THAT THIS AMENDMENT BE LAID ON THE TABLE. THE MOTION WAS SECONDED.

This motion not being debatable and taking precedence, the question was called for and the motion being put, and a standing vote being necessary, the AVES were in the majority, and the Chair declared the motion to table adopted and the Amendment was LOST.

At this point, Mr. Williams of West Virginia, as a member of the Credentials Committee, requested that the ballot of Dr. Clifton P. Clark, who was ill in his room in the hotel, and which he had received from Dr. Clark during a call upon him in his room, be honored and that he be permitted to deposit this ballot in the ballot box when the voting was in progress.

The President General: The Chair rules that this can be done by unanimous consent and by unanimous consent only.

Upon the question being put, the Congress gave its unanimous consent to the depositing of Dr. Clark's ballot.

The President General: Nominations are now in order and the Chair will recognize Mr. Glen Thomson, former President of the Pennsylvania Society, who I understand desires to make a nomination. The nominating speeches are fixed by the Rules Committee to ten minutes, and seconding speeches, two only, to two minutes each.

Nominations

Mr. Thomson: Mr. President General and Compatriots: National Officers, Distinguished Visitors, I consider it an honor both as an individual and as the Past President of the State Society of Pennsylvania to submit for nomination to that honored office, the President General of our Society, the name of Captain Charles B. Shaler, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Captain Shaler was born in a rural district of Pennsylvania in Clearfield County and madehis way to the City of Pittsburgh where he is the head of a distinguished business organization.

Captain Shaler is a member of the Presbyterian Church, the Masonic Lodge, the Consistory of Knights Templar and the Shrine. He was commissioned by the United States Army Air Force and assigned to duty with the Civil Air Patrol where he had a record of a long and distinguished service during the past years.

Captain Shaler has in our State and throughout this nation served long, continuously and faithfully our National and State organizations. He was President of the Pittsburgh Chapter in pennsylvania, our largest local Chapter, and a Past President of the State Society. He is at the present time one of our most active members in our State Society. He has served as National Trustee for two years. He is Chairman of the Constitution Day Committee of our National Society, which he served with an enviable record.

He has, during the last ten years in Pennsylvania organized and installed eighteen new chapters. By such work he has doubled our membership, he has added to the rolls of our National Society 1000 members.

Captain Shaler has served during a long period of time. We state these things, not that we ask an honor to be installed upon him as a medal, but to show to you that in the field of work which he has been doing, he has met with unusual success.

We know that the office of President General is not to be considered an empty honor. But we know also, that the office of President General is to be a place of service and we know that this man who we are submitting in nomination will make that office an office of service.

In his profession and business he has a fortunate arrangement that skilled craftsmen working with and under him can carry on the business whether he is there or whether he is not present. This has permitted him to cross and re-cross our great Commonwealth and will permit him, if elected, to do the same in this great country of the United States.

We submit his name knowing that he has behind him a distinguished record as a private individual. We know that he has had an unusual record with the service in our State Society. We know that in addition to these things, he has served our National Organization with faithfulness and with success.

Captain Shaler is a man who will, if elected, do likewise in our National Organization. It is, of course, true that no one man can do a job, but Captain Shaler has the ability to get people to work with him and he has in our Commonwealth, so he will in this country, get people to work with him and with the hope that the organization which is nation-wide will likewise be doubled in number and in influence. Therefore, members of this meeting, it is with great humility but with a great privilege on my part to ask that this honor be given to Captain Shaler, and to say we think and know that here is a man who, if given the opportunity will serve in the capacity of President General to the best benefit of our National Society.

I move the nomination of Captain Charles B. Shaler of Pennsylvania as a candidate for President General.

Two seconding speeches were made in behalf of Compatriot Shaler by Compatriots Harry A. Estep, President of Pittsburgh Chapter, and by Hon. Robert H. McNeill, Past President of the District of Columbia Society, followed by a number of seconds from various compatriots representing many sections.

The President General now recognized Compatriot Colgate V. Darden, former Governor of Virginia.

Governor Darden: Mr. President General and Compatriots: Having noticed the expedition with which you disposed of the amendments pending a short time ago, I promise that I shall not take the ten minutes allotted for a nominating speech.

I desire to place before you the name of a fellow citizen of Norfolk, Virginia, Herbert Foreman. I have known him for many years and I have come here today to speak in his behalf because, in an unostentatious and unassuming way, I think he has rendered distinguished service not only to this organization but to the Commonwealth of Virginia these many years.

He has for some four years been a member of the Executive Committee of our organization. He has twice been the winner of the Florence Kendall Medal, which is an award given for distinguished and continuous service from amongst the membership of this organization.

He has been President of the Virginia Society and he has been a Vice President General of the South Atlantic District. These things, Compatriots, speak volumes for his attachment and his loyalty and his love of this organization. You are as familiar with that as am I; so that I leave them for your consideration and journey into another field with which I believe I am a little better acquainted than are you.

From early boyhood, Herbert Foreman has been in the fore-ranks of public education in Virginia. He was, as a young man, Superintendent of Public Education in the County of Norfolk, now the largest County in the Commonwealth of Virginia. He was more lately Chairman of the Norfolk City School Board where he served with great distinction; and he is now and has been for the past several years Rector of the old and distinguished College of William and Mary, in Virginia, the second oldest college in the United States.

Now that, my friends has particular significance. It certainly has now when the creeping paralysis of totalitarian government is creeping into all sections of the world because it was there in that area and in that institution of learning that were trained some of the men. at least, who were the architects of the new order in the Western World. There, Jefferson studied. There Henry studied. It was Henry whose tongue licked the fires of revolution in the United States and the colonies that later made the United States; and there, Mason imbibed the fundamentals of the American system that allowed him to pen what in my mind is the greatest single document every written in the history of the United States, the Bill of Rights. It guaranteed to all people, rich or poor, the right to stand unafraid and unchallenged before the most powerful government in the world.

I think it is particularly fitting that this Society stands more than any other Society in the United States for those principles upon which this system is founded and which were enunciated over a century and a half ago by men who were willing to fight and die for it.

I think it particularly fitting that the man that heads the institution that nourished the gentlemen who contributed so much to those principles should be called to leadership today in the Society that stands for them and is an exponent of them at this hour.

I am sure-and I have nothing to say in reference to the distinguished gentleman whose name has been placed in nomination. I have a great attachment for that grand old Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Side by side with Virginia, it moved over the years devoted to the principles that we were attempting to set up here in the new world. I know that he is a distinguished son of a distinguished State.

I place the name of Herbert Foreman before you not in any way as a reflection either upon the gentleman nor upon the great Commonwealth which he represents; but I want to say that through personal experience I know that this man is vigorous and qualified and prepared to carry on in the tradition of this great business of the Congress was resumed.

organization and in a fashion that will make you and me and all of us extremely proud One word more and I am through and five minutes of my time have been consumed. Dur, ing the time that I was Governor of Virginia for four years, those four years were spent almost entirely in a state of war. I had occasion time after time to call on citizens of Virginia, for their help and I called on Herbert Foreman among others and in no single instance did I call him when he failed to respond

He laid aside those things that meant something to him in his practice and a large and lucrative practice it was, and placed his services at the disposal of the Commonwealth of Virginia. He did everything within his power. If he will carry on here-and I believe that he will-in the fashion and in the manner that he carried on but a short time ago in the interest of the Commonwealth, he will be a President General of whom we will all be justly proud.

My Compatriots, for your consideration, I place before you the name of this distinguished Son of this Society and the distinguished Son of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The nomination of Mr. Foreman was seconded by Past President General Smith L. Multer, and Past President General Harvey F Remington in short addresses, and there were numerous seconds from the delegates at large representing many points.

Nominations for the office of President General being closed, the President General asked for suggestions for Tellers of the election and hearing none, he thereupon appointed the following four Tellers from among Vice Presidents General present: Mr. Martin of Rhode Island; Mr. Allen of North Carolina; Mr. Mitchell of Arkansas; and Mr. Kemp of Washington.

Mr. Howard Coe, Vice President of Credentials Committee: (Explaining the method of election.)

We will call on the President General first, and the Past Presidents General and then the other National Officers, Vice Presidents and Trustees. The leader of each State delegation will kindly stand by the ballot box and identify his group to the credentials Chairman. (Thereupon ballots were distributed and the voting proceeded as directed.)

Upon the conclusion of the balloting, the Tellers retired with the ballot box, and the Frank B. Steele for the office of Registrar General, nominated by Benjamin D. Hill, Jr., of Washington.

Ven. William F. Bulkley of Utah, for the office of Chaplain General, nominated by George Albert Smith of Utah.

McDonald Miller of District of Columbia, for the office of Librarian General, nominated by P. Harry Byerly of the District.

The Secretary General then read the list of nominations for National Trustees, asking for any necessary corrections.

By voice vote the list of nominations was confirmed and the same declared elected. (The list appears on page 1.)

The President General now called upon the Chairman of Tellers, Mr. Mitchell, to make the report of the election of President General.

Mr. Mitchell: Mr. President General we find that there were 217 votes cast, of which Mr. Foreman received the majority.

Mr. Shaler: I would like to make it unanimous. This being duly seconded the motion prevailed. (Applause.)

The President General requested all Past Presidents General present to retire for the purpose of escorting the newly elected President General to the platform, during which he took the opportunity of reading into the record the very fine editorial which had appeared in a local paper, "Our American Heritage."

On motion of Mr. Daniel, the Congress by a rising vote expressed its appreciation to Mr. Raymond Brewster, Editor of the Herald Dispatch.

On motion a standing vote of appreciation and thanks was tendered the retiring President General, Allen L. Oliver.

The President General now called for the escort to present the newly elected President General, Mr. Foreman, and they advanced, preceded by the Color Guard, with the Past Presidents General.

Past President General Judge Harvey F. Remington: Mr. President General, I have the honor to present the President General elect, A. Herbert Foreman.

President General Oliver: President Remington, thank you for this presentation of A. Herbert Foreman.

I welcome you to your new position. By the generosity of your friends you have been unanimously elected as President General of this great patriotic organization. May you continue to have the fine support, united and continued support of Compatriots over the nation in order that the objectives of our organization may be accomplished. It is with no little pleasure sir, that I now call upon the Chaplain General to give you the obligation.

The Chaplain General then charged the President General elect with the Oath of Office in the brief ceremony provided, and concluded with Praver.

Mr. Oliver: President General Foreman, I now with great pleasure place about your neck the Insignia of President General, National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and hand to you the gavel of the organization. May you prosper in your work and may it be happy: and may the ideals of our organization go forward under your administration and may your administration be the best administration of any in the history of our organization.

President General Foreman

Mr. President General and Compatriots: My heart is too filled with gratitude to express my feelings. My Compatriots, I want to express to you my sincere thanks for the signal honor you have conferred upon me and the confidence you have imposed in me by electing me to the office to which you have elected me.

Indeed, do I deem it a privilege to be a member of the Sons of the American Revolution; and I consider it a greater honor to have my name on its roster than any other fraternal or social or other organization to which I may belong.

I am cognizant of the duties and the responsibilities imposed upon me by the duties of this office, and I feel very humble in undertaking the same.

However, I am appealing to you Compatriots for your assistance and cooperation and I feel that with the best that I am certain you will give me, that we will this year go forward even with greater achievement than we have in the past.

We recognize that in all organizations, whether they be political, municipal, or legislative, that the main work is done through committees. One of the main duties imposed upon your President General is appointment of several committees. Many of you will be asked to serve upon them. I feel however, that your interest and love for your society will so imbue you with enthusiasm and energy that you will perform the duties of each position to which you have been asked to serve with credit to yourselves and honor to your Society.

All of us were delighted with the excellent report of the Chairman of our National Committee on Organization. Much credit is due to him and his efficient committee. However, we must realize that this achievement was made possible only by the cooperation, help and assistance of the compatriots in respective chapters throughout the country.

We all of us recognize that if our Society is to fulfill the mission which all of us have in view, that our membership must be increased. As every mother instills within its child from early infancy the principle of "hitching your wagon to a star," Compatriots, let us not be satisfied with our achievement of last year and previous years.

However, loyal we be, let us not do that; but let us adopt that same attitude and "hitch our wagon to a star." Let us go back to our respective chapters, wherever they may be, with a determination and enthusiasm and vim that we will make this year an accomplishment, one of the greatest in the history of our beloved Society, and it will become a reality.

Compatriots, in 1945, when the battle cry was ended, when our boys who had fought so gallantly on sea and land and in the air had turned their faces homeward, we felt that the silver lining of the cloud had appeared. However, we soon realized that other clouds were on the horizon and that the winning of peace has been a difficult, a very difficult undertaking. One of the latest utterances of our latest president was "Today, we are confronted with the vehement fact that if civilization is going to survive, we must create the science of human responsibility. That is, we must live in a world of peace and love all nations in every clime, one toward another."

Due to the leadership of and the vaunted qualifications of our military leaders, due to the heroism of our respected boys in their respective fields of service, and to a united home front, the War has been won, Compatriots. That should be inspiration to us to create such science of human responsibilities, which was alluded to by our President.

I feel that each of us will agree with me that, being members of a Society that was founded on love and patriotism, it behooves us to use every influence to controvert those suppressive influences that are at work undermining our democracy.

Friends, Compatriots, when we recall the sacrifices and the bloodshed and the lives that were given by our forebears and by our sons, from Lexington to Okinawa, it should be an inspiration to us to use every influence and means at our command as members of this great, patriotic organization to be a factor, to use every influence to win the peace and make the world safe for democracy.

As our efficient President General Oliver has prepared the program for this Congress, I am going to ask him if he will continue to preside during the remainder of the session, as well as at the banquet tonight.

Past President General Oliver announced that the new Board of Trustees will meet immediately upon the adjournment of the Congress.

Colonel Watson asked that the "chief assistant" to the new President General be presented. Mrs. Foreman was introduced.

Past President General Oliver: The Chair recognizes Mr. Gillam of Minnesota.

Mr. Stanley S. Gillam of Minnesota: The State of Minnesota cordially invites the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution to hold its next annual Congress, of 1948, in the State of Minnesota, and in the City of Minneapolis.

Mr. Gillam supported his invitation by many letters of invitation from numerous officials of the State and City, the Governor, the Mayor of Minneapolis, the Chamber of Commerce, leading hotels and others all most cordial, and closed with a brief description of the beauties and advantages of his State.

The invitation was automatically referred to the incoming Board of National Trustees without discussion, and Mr. Gillam was warmly thanked.

Past President General Oliver then asked the privilege of presenting Mrs. Oliver to the Congress, and she was escorted to the platform.

Thereupon, an adjournment was taken sine die, the members to gather for the annual banquet at 7:00 P. M.

The Courtesy Resolution on p. 16 is a very inadequate expression of appreciation for the wonderful entertainment extended to everyone at the Congress, some of the outstanding features of which were the two special luncheons tendered the men and the ladies, and the delightful Reception in honor of the ladies given by the Buford Chapter D. A. R., at the charming "Cabin" which is its Chapter House. It is a matter of deep regret to the Editor that drastic curtailment of pages for this issue has made a special descriptive story of the hospitality enjoyed at Huntington impossible.

Selected Annual Reports, 1947

The President General

Several hundred years ago Cicero said to us that fellowship is a great asset—that it doubles one's joys and divides his sorrows. And so it has continued down the centuries, even to today. Friendships are priceless, and the principles for which our organization stands are the fundamentals of American life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. How natural and how proper then that we should annually assemble ourselves together in friendly companionship, take stock of our efforts, and rededicate ourselves to the promulgation of the basic principles of American government.

Both our organic law and time-honored custom require that your President General make report to you at the Congress on the state of the Society. That I now do. May I give you first an epitome, and then elaborate.

Your national general officers and your twenty-eight national committees, in addition to the committees of the Congress, have been at work, co-operatively, and we are making progress.

(a) We have recruited more new members into our Society this year than in any year for twenty years past. However encouraging that may be to us, it is not enough. The new year should bring many more. It will take the earnest effort of many men instead of just a few.

(b) The money has been raised this year and is now in the hands of the Society for the liquidation of the entire balance of the debt that has for twenty years rested upon our Headquarters property. The payment will be made, as per legal notice, on July 1st. This is cause for real joy, and I join with you in a feeling of genuine happiness because of it.

(c) We added, some months ago, one more person to our Headquarters Staff to assist our aged but loyal and conscientious Secretary General-Registrar General.

(d) We have a little larger balance in our treasury than at the close of any recent year. (e) We need to establish and announce a definite National Society policy and publicize it. (f) We need to better let our membership know what we are doing and enlist their interest and help in the accomplishment of our objectives. We are losing too many members each year by their becoming delinquent or dropping out. They would not do this if we put them to work. Advertising experts tell me that it costs three and one-half times as much to get a new customer as it does to keep an old one.

(g) We older men must generously and gracefully be willing for younger men to take our places, receive the honors, and do the work. Do this in the Chapters, the State Societies, and in the National Society, and you will be happily surprised to see the gain in momentum and numbers.

(h) We must, without further delay, select and employ a young or middle-aged organizing Secretary or Assistant Secretary to assist the State Societies in increasing the membership of their present Chapters and organizing new ones, and at the same time become acquainted with the work of the Secretary General.

Our beloved Secretary General, with commendable frankness and common sense, did himself make this suggestion to the Executive Committee some two years ago. It is due him as well as the Society that we no longer delay action on this important matter.

(i) We have caused to be prepared an itemized inventory of all our personal property at Headquarters, and covered it with appropriate insurance. One copy is at Headquarters, one copy filed with the Treasurer General, and one with the President General. The Librarian General volunteered to and did likewise prepare an inventory of our library, and that is now also covered with proper insurance.

(j) We should, without delay, microfilm or otherwise copy our priceless records at Headquarters. In case of fire, we can now recover some insurance money, but we could not ever replace some of our records. I have been advocating this since 1942. Some day it may be too late.

(k) We have this year expended approximately one thousand dollars in painting all the exterior woodwork and iron work at Headquarters and in redecorating a small part of the interior. It has been seven or eight years since this type of maintenance work has been done.

(1) There has been constructed in New Hampshire in the name of our Society, "The Cathedral of the Pines," a beautiful altar for religious worship for all creeds. The vista from this altar is one of the most magnificent in all New England. See Reader's Digest, April, 1947, issue.

(m) A sincere effort has been made to humanize, invigorate, and revitalize our organization. We have sent and received approximately four thousand personal letters during the year.

Having now briefly mentioned several matters of prime importance, may we ask your indulgence while we elaborate on some of them, and discuss other matters of great interest to the Society.

In the past, some fault was found on the basis that we do nothing. The facts refute the accusation. The privilege and duty which has been mine of visiting a large number of State Societies and of learning first-hand of the work they are doing has been definitely revealing.

Moving back several steps from the portrait, we have been enabled to get a bird's eye view of it, and, thus viewed, it has strength, value, perspective, color, action and living attributes. The bird, you know, has to a much higher degree than humans, the natural ability to see both telescopicly and microscopicly. With some 16,000 miles of travel in visiting more than a dozen State Societies and Chapter meetings, we have truly been enabled to get a bird's eye view of our organization.

It was with humility that I accepted the high honor and grave responsibility attendant upon the office of President General of the National Society, S. A. R. It is with equal humility that I report to you at the close of my administration. Credit for such measure of success as has attended us upon our way is due to the men in the field who have so loyally and diligently performed their respective duties.

A year ago we asked you for real teamwork—for unselfish co-operation. It has been accorded generously, and the results are conclusive evidence of the value of our working together. Such criticisms as may have been warranted, you have with fortitude and kindness kept submerged. For this your Society and your President General are grateful, and particularly so in view of our having invited constructive criticism.

We are very far from perfect—we need make many forward steps to become even approximately as effective as we can be and should be. Will you indulge me the privilege of making some suggestions:

(1) Each of the State Societies and Chap- the

ters thereof should be better informed of what other State Societies and Chapters are doing. It would be both helpful and encouraging

(2) Efforts of the State Societies and Chap, ters should be better coordinated and synchro, nized in keeping with a thoroughly prepared and announced plan and policy of the National Society. In my humble opinion it is necessary that we so operate if we are to attain any substantial portion of that power and influence for patriotic endeavor for which our Society exists.

(3) To effectuate that accomplishment, we must shake off some of the shackles of longtime custom and routine, do some things we have done in a different way, and likewise do some things we have not done at all. You know that, as a lawyer, I have great respect for precedent, but in the rapidly moving world of today, precedent alone is not enough. To be specific, we should:

(a) Promptly employ an organizing secretary or assistant secretary who would first familiarize himself with the routine of Headquarters in Washington, and then spend most of his time in the field, building our membership with high-class citizens. The plan might well include the various States where he worked meeting a fair portion of the expense.

(b) Make far greater use of our National Headquarters than at present.

(c) I again suggest, as I have for the past four years, that we promptly secure microfilm or other type of copy of our priceless records in Headquarters. In case of fire, they could never be fully replaced unless something along this line is done and the copy placed in a fireproof vault.

(d) That we modernize our method of doing business and our filing system.

(e) That we elect a Treasurer-General who would serve, as do all the other officers except the Secretary-General, without compensation except the payment of his annual dues, the routine book work of the Treasurer to be done by the staff at Headquarters. Because of the certificates of indebtedness, this may not have been practical heretofore, but now is.

These suggestions and recommendations are made with no other purpose than with the hope that they may be of value to our Society. At the beginning of our year, we outlined a few simple, non-glamorous specific objectives: The first of these was a continuance of the fine unselfish patriotic work of our predecessors. Each of them gave more of themselves, their time, thought, energy and funds than the great majority of you will ever know. Having followed in their footsteps as best we could for a brief twelve months period, we know whereof we speak. For them we have naught but praise. But if our Society is to accomplish its purpose, we should seek to make every succeeding administration more successful than the one before. It is my hope that with your united support, the administration which follows ours may be the most successful in the history of our organization.

A second objective was the liquidation of the small balance of indebtedness resting upon our Headquarters Building. Because of your generosity the money is in the till, the certificates have all been called, and upon the call date mentioned in the official legal notice, to-wit: July 1, 1947, all of them will be paid and cancelled and the interest stopped. This fine evidence of your willingness to do the needful is very deeply appreciated by your President General.

I would be recreant to duty did I not mention in connection with this liquidation the outstanding work of Wallace Hall of Michigan as Chairman of that committee. In order that credit may go where credit belongs, may I add that he volunteered to serve as chairman, and he got the job done. We all join in saying, "Thank you, Wallace." To those individuals, those State Societies and Chapters who gave generously we say, may you be happy in the consciousness of a duty well performed.

A third objective was that we might this year carry on the work of adding new members to our Society on a basis comparable to the pattern set by Wallace Hall as Chairman of the Organization Committee of the National Society in 1941-42 and so effectively carried on thereafter successively by Herbert Foreman of Virginia and Judge Ben H. Powell of Texas. They established a high standard. This year, under the chairmanship of Harry Sherwin of New Hampshire, we have added more new members to our tolls than in any year in two decades. Outstanding in this phase of our work, both last year and this year, are two State Societies: Pennsylvania under the leadership of Charley Shaler, and West Virginia under the leadership of Will Daniel. Just a few years ago Virginia and North Carolina were in the forefront, and the Empire State of New York for many years carried the banner for the largest increase. Let these fine State Societies be an example and an inspiration to the rest of us.

A fourth objective is one in which I have a very keen interest. It is that we approve a project for the establishment of a National Memorial Forest Park in America, in which there shall be maintained a living tree for each person who served in the Armed Forces of the United States during World War II, with his or her name and serial number thereon. For those who died during the war, an evergreen; for those who survived, a deciduous tree.

The cost would be nominal because the Government already owns several tracts of land in the central part of the United States on which the requisite trees are already growing and in approximately the proper ratio. Marble and bronze memorials have been erected throughout history, but as yet no nation has created a living natural National Memorial Forest Park such as this, so comprehensive, and yet so individualistic. Disabled veterans would be caretakers and guides. and as the years go by, the beauty and the significance of this National Memorial Forest Park would increase so that it would in time become one of the outstanding beauty spots of the world.

Since God alone can make a tree, and its shade is so restful and refreshing to man, this memorial would not only be a tribute to the patriotism of the men and women taking part in the war, but an ever-lasting expression of the hope that men may live in peace. Everywhere I have gone I have presented this idea, and literally thousands have clasped my hand offering assistance for the project. Not a single compatriot has offered an objection. I wrote a bill, now pending in Congress as H. R. 2057. I do not ask endorsement of that specific bill, but I do most earnestly ask for the adoption of a resolution favoring the idea.

The work of this great organization of nearly 20,000 patriots, is of necessity done largely through committees. To the chairman of each committee the work of that committee should be considered by him as perhaps the most important work in the Society. Many of our chairmen this year have so considered their responsibilities—and they have accomplished praiseworthy results.

One of the exceedingly unfortunate facts about our far-flung organization is that the right hand knoweth not what the left hand doeth, and the left hand knoweth not what the right hand doeth.

How many of you here today know what our Society has done in its open and aggressive fight on communism, and particularly against the efforts of the communist to sow and cultivate its seed in the public schools of our respective states? California has taken the lead in that fight, and they are at this very moment in the midst of it. Your Executive Committee took a hand in the matter too. It had a three-hour conference with the publishers and their sponsors, and we hope and believe made some worthwhile progress. At least, the attitude of the National Society, S. A. R. was unmistakenly made known to both publisher and sponsor.

I could easily have devoted almost the whole of this report to a statement of the activities of our individual members, our Chapters, State and National Societies in combating the growth of communistic ideas in our nation. But you are familiar with it: you are taking, or should be taking, a very active part in it in your respective states. Time and space forbid that I dwell upon it." But, Compatriots, the very life of our government and its basic foundation, our Constitution, are at stake. I am not an alarmist, but I tell you the situation is dangerous, and may presently become critical. I have heard it authoritatively stated that there are as many communists in America today as there were in Russia when they overthrew the Russian government and took over. I have told our compatriots of this situation in my brief talks all the way from the Atlantic to Nebraska. and from the Great Lakes to the Mexican Border. The time for mere speech-making and flag-raising is past. We need action, locally and nationally. We must bestir ourselves.

Again to the work of our committees-

How many of you know, even appr ximately, how many Revolutionary soldiers' graves we have marked this year? Several hundred. Surprised? Read these committee reports.

Most of us, I am sure, took some part in paying tribute on proper occasions to our Nation's great, and on other dates the observance of specific days such as Constitution Day, Flag Day, Bill of Rights Day, I am An American Day, Yorktown and Lexington Day Washington's Birthday, Franklin's Birthday etc. The President of the United States has issued proclamations, the Governors of many states have issued proclamations, Congress has taken official action, the schools of America have joined with us.

Patriotic Education and Citizenship, Memorials to our dead, Immigration, the Congress Arrangements Committee, the Budget Committee, the Headquarters Committee-how I would enjoy telling you of the work of each of these committees and their hard-working and enthusiastic chairman. But time forbids, Every committee has functioned. None has complained of the burden. When better committees are builded, S. A. R. will build them. I am proud of the unselfish work they have done.

But, Compatriots, we have done so little as compared with what we can do and what we should do! We are growing, but oh, how we need to grow. We are working, but oh. how we need to work!

We have a priceless heritage. We have, therefore, in my humble opinion, a larger responsibility and duty than those who are not eligible to our membership.

Let us, compatriots, move onward, willing to put into effect constructive plans on a nation-wide basis, carefully and prayerfully attempting to do our part as real American citizens.

It has been a delightful year of hard work. A thousand new friendships have been formed -may they last through life. Old friendships have been cemented in working together in our common cause.

For the gracious and cordial courtesies extended to me and my wife everywhere I went as your President General. I shall ever be grateful.

> ALLEN L. OLIVER, President General.

Secretary General and Registrar General to be able to report such a banner year in point of enrollments as the one just closed. Not since 1928-9 have we received so many new members, and this is mostly due to the wonderful increases in Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Both of these societies have concentrated on the organization of new chapters, which is the most effective method of bringing in a substantial gain in membership.

Pennsylvania reports total additions to its membership of 517, which was more than its guarantee of a year ago; West Virginia comes next with 107 new members. Both societies have organized and put into actual running order seven chapters. In each case the chapter is in a strategic locality where it can expect regular accessions.

Beside these two banner states, it is most pleasing to report the reactivation and reorganization of the Arizona Society, which a year ago was about to surrender its Charter; and the same is true with the Alabama Society which has been exceedingly inactive for several years past. In Alabama there is also a new chapter in process at Tuscaloosa, due to the interest of Captain Wm. T. Carpenter. We are largely indebted to our loval friend, Colonel Watson, for bringing about this reorganization. Colonel Watson also reports the organization of a new chapter of the Georgia Society, named for the Signer, Button Gwinnet. We are also pleased to announce the organization of a Chapter in Washington State, at Walla Walla.

It is especially gratifying to record these activities in our Southern and far Western societies. Revival of interest is also reported from Miami and Tampa, Florida. In New York we have new chapters at Binghamton and Ithaca, both through the interest of State President, Judge Hulbert, and both of which have brought in an excellent number of new members for the Empire State Society.

We find it necessary, however, to temper our rejoicing over these fine accessions, and in spite of them, to state a most disturbing fact; namely, that notwithstanding our largest enrollment of new members in years, we are unable this year to show such a fine NET gain throughout the Society as a whole, as was recorded last year.

In checking over the annual reports from the State Societies, there appears a most seri-

It is not only gratifying but almost thrilling ous loss in membership totals, in spite of the new enrollments. Last year more than 75% of the societies reported new gains for the year, but this year the situation has just about reversed itself, and a large percentage of the states have reported net losses. We do have, however, a net gain of 618, though much less than last year.

> Of course the losses by death cannot be helped, and often resignations are justifiable; but the loss of members dropped for non-payment of dues seems to me in most cases unwarranted, if proper and diligent effort were made to collect and follow delinquents. It seems strange to me that in one year there should be such a change and the losses from this cause should be so much greater than a year ago. While it is true many thus dropped will be reinstated sooner or later, this is a very unsatisfactory method of retaining your members. Incidentally the constant dropping of names and reinstating them in a few weeks or months causes a most troublesome manipulation of cancelled and restored stencils to our mailing list, and should be avoided if possible. It is plain from the reports that in many states nothing was done to collect the dues of members until February or March, which is too late to make good on the report. The splendid efforts of the officers of the Pennsylvania and West Virginia Societies in not only securing new members, but not DROPPING any, and in restoring former members by reinstatement, shows that it CAN be DONE. It is felt that what can be achieved in some states, can be done by others.

For the statistical record I submit the following:

New members enrolled-1584; reinstatements-369 (with 11 states missing) chapters organized-16; plus one in Georgia and one in Alabama in process.

The Traveling Banners will go first to Pennsylvania, the Syracuse Banner, for the largest number of new members; the Colorado Banner, for the largest percentage for societies of one hundred members or more, West Virginia will receive; and the Ohio Banner for the largest number (percentage) of new members under thirty, will again go to South Carolina, with 100% record.

Digressing now from the discussion of membership, I am very happy to mention the acquisition of a new assistant in my office of Registrar, in the person of Mrs. Tennie S. Burk, who in the short time since coming to us has more than proved her ability, not only as a competent typist and general assistant, but more especially as a very excellent genealogist with experience in D.A.R. work and expert knowledge of the requirements of eligibility; she has promoted the efficiency of my office to an extent not anticipated when she was engaged, and I am not only grateful to her but to the Society for making it possible to have her services. I doubt if our officers even, nor our membership generally has any conception of the extent to which our work in both offices has increased of late years. It has not only doubled, but quadrupled.

As an example of this, or at least of one phase of it, I would like to submit the following facts:

Last April I reported 18,068 members as of that date; since then by reference to the Magazine Records of New Members, we added to our mailing list in July, 431; in October. 158; in January issue, 385; in April, up to March 1st, 459, when copy was closed; and since March 1st in that month alone 339; a total of 1,772. I quote these figures to answer some queries raised as to why the Magazine issues so far exceeded the reported membership, and to say also that the losses by resignation, death and non-payment of dues, do not show up until all April 1st reports are in-at least not in total. It will be noted that these additions of 1,772, added to the 18,068 of last year make a substantial addition to our mailing list.

Mrs. Burk's assistance has also made it possible to resume to some extent the work on the binding of our applications which has suffered greatly during the war period when part-time help was impossible. We are gradually catching up on this important work.

Referring more specifically to the Magazine. I feel it has not suffered either in point of interest or as a messenger of information due the societies and membership. The figures I have just given will explain the larger circulation; the report in the Minutes of the last Executive meeting will show that I have been directed to drastically cut paging and content for the ensuing months, owing to the very heavy increase in printing costs, so that you must expect the next three issues to be much smaller and to contain only the most important and necessary information; it may be necessary to omit the lists of State and Chapter Officers, altho these will be retained if possible In fact, for at least the balance of this year. a very limited magazine will be the result. It is a pity, as I feel that our members have learned to rely on it and also that it has been a source of real interest aside from its important and essential information.

We have provided a new edition of the little handbook of information available at nominal cost; also the little ceremony suitable for use at the funerals of deceased members, authorized at the last Congress.

The routine work of my offices has continued as usual-more correspondence, more certificates to be engrossed and distributed, and more of everything, cheerfully and I hope satisfactorily, accomplished.

The outstanding accomplishment of this administration will no doubt be recorded as the clearing of the debt on our Headquarters Building and the report of the Committee on Debt Liquidation, for which contributions have come along nicely, will be of the greatest interest, and our outgoing President General will properly take full credit for having set this objective before the Society, and with the help of Mr. Hall's efficient committee, having seen it successfully attained.

With my sincere thanks to our President General and each and all officers and chairmen, for the fine cooperation rendered through the year.

FRANK B. STEELE. Secretary General and Registrar General.

Because of the curtailment of this issue of the July magazine, the Librarian's report will be held until the October issue, when acknowledgments of books received will be made.

It is with pleasure that your Treasurer General has submitted the foregoing figures which show the Society to be in a sound financial condition.

Probably the outstanding information regarding the finances of your Society is the fact that on July 1st all the Certificates of Indebtedness, which were issued in 1934 and 1935, will have been called for redemption. At the present moment there are $6,000.00 worth of these Certificates outstanding and they will all be retired on July 1st, 1947.

The final retirement of the Certificates has been brought about by the work of the Debt Liquidation Committee which has earnestly tary contributions so that this small amount of indebtedness of our National Society could be paid off; and, although at the time this report is being written the total amount has not been subscribed, it is sincerely hoped that by the time of the Congress, and certainly prior to July 1st, the entire amount will be in the hands of the Treasurer General for the redemption of these Certificates.

One of the greatest pleasures to your Treasurer General will be when the final check is issued and the last Certificate of Indebtedness has been retired and he knows that the Society is absolutely free of indebtedness. Your Treasurer General has been identified with the worked throughout the year to secure volun- acquiring of our Headquarters since its inception and had an active part in its purchase and payment, and it seems like a dream come true that the Building will soon be entirely paid for. The operating surplus of the Society has been increased, mainly through the acquisition of the largest number of new members taken in by the Society in any one year for sometime past. A vote of thanks is due the States of Pennsylvania and West Virginia for outstanding work which they have done in the securing of new members and the formation of new chapters. Pennsylvania having acquired considerably over five hundred new members accounts for one-third of the new applications secured by the National Society last year. This has been largely made possible through the constant efforts of its Past President and Chairman of its New Chapters Committee. Compatriot Charles B. Shaler.

One of the things which is of great worry to your Treasurer General is the fact that although during the past twelve months we have taken in an unusually large number of new members, the net gain at the close of the fiscal year is insignificant, as will be shown in the report of the Secretary-Registrar General. Unfortunately, we seem to be losing by death, resignation and dropping almost as many as we take in by new application. We cannot prevent death, but we have certainly got to see to it that we do not have such a big loss from other causes. We should be going steadily ahead and not just maintaining a fixed average.

The Permanent Fund of the Society has been increased during the past year by gifts of Certificates of Indebtedness which were redeemed. These gifts were made by Compatriot John B. Trevor, of New York; Compatriot Merle E. Towner, of Maryland; and the late Past President General R. C. Ballard Thruston, of Kentucky.

During the year a contribution of One Hundred Dollars was made to the Society by Mrs. Elmour D. Lum as a memorial to her late husband, Compatriot Elmour D. Lum, of North Dakota. The Executive Committee has authorized the purchase of some books which will be added to our Library in the name of Compatriot Lum.

A large percentage of the members of our Society who were in the armed forces of our country have now returned. Therefore, the per capita tax payment from each State Society will be larger for the coming fiscal year than in the past, due to the fact that there will be no exemption for these men and this additional money will help to offset some heavy expenses which must be met, especially with regard to the increased cost of publishing our Magazine. Printing costs have gone up terrifically, as everyone knows; and, consequently, our Magazine will cost us better than one-third more than it has in the past.

Also, as an item on the expense side of the ledger, we will have to make extensive repairs to our Headquarters Building. We have a splendid Building, which after July 1st will be entirely paid for, but we must keep it in first class condition.

Your Treasurer General has always been a great advocate of the wearing of the rosette of the Society and now that rosettes are procurable it is sincerely hoped that every member of the Society will secure a new one and wear it as a constant silent reminder of his Americanism.

Your President General is to be commended for diligently pursuing the work of his office and trying to advance the National Society, and your SecretaryRegistrar General deserves the commendation of every member of the Society for his untiring efforts in carrying on the work of his dual office.

In closing your Treasurer General wishes to express his thanks and appreciation for the cooperation of Chapter, State and National Officers in connection with the work of his office, and to express again to the membership his deep appreciation for the honor which has been conferred upon him by his continued reelection to his office thereby giving him the privilege of actively serving the Society.

The prize was creditably won by Compatriot George F. Bauer.

At the March luncheon meeting Compatriot Harry L. S. Halley, who served in World Wars I and II gave an instructive analysis and opinion of Russian-United States relationship.

TULSA CHAPTER June meeting was at the Chamber of Commerce on the 17th.

MONTFORT STOKES CHAPTER, Muskogee—Compatriot Thomas R. Corr, long time Secretary-Treasurer of this Chapter resigned on May 17 and the office will be filled by Col. Roy H. Cox. Medals for Good Citizenship were presented to the pupils of Compatriot Corr in the School for the Blind, on the staff of which he has served for many years, and retires now as he is in his 85th year.

Other officers elected were Justus O. Hall, President; I. F. Brett, Vice President; Robert L. Williams, Historian; Roy Paul, Chaplain.

Oregon

The Society held its annual meeting on April 18th at the University Club, Portland. A large number were present and enjoyed a very delightful dinner. President Boyd presided and the usual business was transacted. The Society elected officers as follows who were duly installed: William Bittle Wells, President; Harold J. Warner. Vice-president; Col. H. D. Bagnall, Secretary; William P. Stalnaker, Treasurer; Ira P. E. Reynolds, Registrar; George D. Dryer, Historian; the Rev. Thomas McCamant, Chaplain; William G. Harrington, Donald A. Peake, George H. Rumbough and Sigfrid B. Unander, members of the Board of Managers.

A fine piano recital by Compatriot John H. Hendrickson, Jr., was enjoyed after which the speaker of the evening, Compatriot the Hon. Charles A. Sprague, former governor of Oregon and editor and publisher of the Salem "Oregon Statesman," was presented. The speaker drew parallels between the Monroe Doctrine and President Truman's foreign policy, which he termed a "Great Gamble."

SOUTHERN OREGON CHAPTER, Medford, has elected Frank L. Applegate, President, and Walter H. Jones, Secretary.

Pennsylvania

Winding up its fiscal year so far as chapter installations are concerned the Society fulfilled its promises and since the last report, successfully put into being the CAMBRIA COUNTY CHAPTER at Johnstown on March 3rd; the Chambersburg Chapter on March 27th, preliminary meeting having been held February 19th; and at Greensburg, March 21st. All have been successfully promoted with excellent charter membership and are functioning actively. Many National and State Officers were in attendance at the organization meetings. The Chapter at Chambersburg will bear the picturesque title, CONOCOCHEAGUE.

The Pennsylvania Society has organized seven new chapters during the fiscal year ending April 1st, and, because of this, has added 519 new members to the rolls of the National Society. PHILADELPHIA CHAPTER—Active committees have been established to promote the patriotic observances of the Society with the following Chairmen: Membership, William H. Heffner; Entertainment, Kenneth F. Hill, also chairman of the Flag Committee; Memorial Day, James K. Helms; I am an American Day, George B. Stichter. The two latter days were appropriately observed, the speaker at the last, on May 18th, was the Honorable Owen J. Roberts, former Supreme Court Justice.

PITTSBURGH CHAPTER—Continuing its custom of many years, this Chapter presented Good Citizenship Medals to the honor pupils of the 8th Grades of the City schools on June 13th. Presentations were made by the State President, Col. Franklin Blackstone, and a short illustrated talk by Compatriot David W. Rial on "Lost Americans" featured the program.

Later the same day the PITTSBURGH CHAPTER met at luncheon at the William Penn hotel commemorating Flag Day when Mr. Rial repeated his address, which describes his several exploring expeditions into the Land of the Torreons in Southwest Utah. He will lead another expedition this summer into this region.

CONTINENTAL CHAPTERS, Germantown—Scheduled meetings have been held on April 11th at Vernon House, featuring the presentation of World War II Medals to seventeen veteran Compatriots. President Mathis made the first presentation to Naval officer D. B. Burke, and the remaining medals were in turn presented by Compatriot Burke; on June 8th, Boy Scouts were honored with a medal presentation to the outstanding boy of Troop 1, St. Pauls Church; June 14th, a Flag Day Pilgrimage.

HARRIS FERRY CHAPTER met April 21st and presented as its dinner speaker, Hon. J. Paul Rupp, first Vice President of the Chapter, whose topic was "Citizenship." Committees have been appointed to conduct the activities of the chapter and a Prize Essay Contest has been authorized by the Board. The Graves Registry Committee has been extremely active during the year. 100 Markers and flags have been ordered for Dauphin County graves which the committee has identified and recorded, and dedicatory ceremonies were held June 8th with impressive exercises.

HARRIS FERRY members are deeply interested in the projected Memorial Parish House to be erected to the memory of its late member and national figure, Vance G. McCormick. Silver Spring Church, for which the building is to be provided, dates back to 1734 and the original log church was the first meeting house west of the Susquehanna and north of Fork County. Many pioneers and military leaders of the Revolutionary war period were members of the congregation.

ERIE CHAPTER elected the following officers in April: President, Hon. Joseph O. Waite; Vice Presidents, Harrison R. Baldwin, Laurence M. Nagle; Secretary, Floyd L. Alexander; Treasurer, George W. Benedict; Registrar, Paul W. Cleveland; Genealogist, Richard P. Wright; Chancellor, Lyman C. Shreve; Historian, John E. Reed.

Virginia

Officers elected at the Society's annual meeting in Richmond, February 22nd, not heretofore reported, include Archis G. Ryland of Williamsburg, President; A. P. S. Robinson, Marcellus E. Wright, Crawford S. Rogers, Vice Presidents; W. MacFarlane Jones, Secretary-Registrar; L. Earl Smith, Ass't Secretary-Registrar; John J. Fairbank, Jr., Treasurer; Dr. W. H. T. Squires, Historian; Dr. G. McLaren Brydon, Chaplain. Walter B. Livezey, National Trustee nominee, confirmed at Huntington.

RICHMOND CHAPTER held regular meetings April 10th and May 8th, presenting on the first occasion Col. D. H. Mallon, Executive Officer for the Va. Military District, recently returned from Shanghai, where he served as President of the War Crimes Commission, and Advisor on Military matters in the Far East; at the later meeting a musical program was presented and proposed Charter Changes for Richmond were discussed.

NORFOLK CHAPTER was proud to present the newly elected President General, A. Herbert Foreman, its Past President, at a delightful reception on the evening of June 6, at the Women's Club. This is the first time a Virginian has been elected to this high office, and compatriots of the Chapter turned out in goodly numbers to do Mr. Foreman honor. Secretary General and Mrs. Frank B. Steele flew to Norfolk for the occasion. Chapter President John J. Baecher made the introductions.

Through the generosity of Judge Benjamin into friendly rivalry and to strive for preced-H. Powell of Texas, there will be offered at the next annual Congress in 1948 a new Traveling Banner to be awarded to the Society of LESS than 100 MEMBERS, for the largest number of new members enrolled during 1947-8, up to and including March 31, 1948.

The Societies which may compete for this award will include Alabama, Arizona, Hawaii, Mississippi, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Vermont, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

The competing states will be expected to secure a minimum of 20 members.

The design of the Banner has not yet been fully decided but it will have some special. significance historically and will be distinct in appearance from any of the present Traveling Banners.
