The President-General's Message

COMPATRIOTS:

With bowed heads and heavy hearts we face the necessity of going forward without the aid and assistance of our beloved President General Shaler, who departed this life on the 2nd day of December. Having been closely associated with him in his work for our Society, I fully realize the extent of our loss. It seems irreparable. And, yet he, himself, would have us look forward rather than backward. We must accept the torch which he carried so actively and do our very best to complete, as satisfactorily as possible, the splendid program he had outlined. It shall be my main, and in fact, only ambition, to complete his year with flying colors. To the accomplishment of this end, I pledge the Compatriots everywhere the very best efforts of which I am capable. In all humility, but with a firm resolve, I take over the work. I am one of those who believe that the dead are near us and know what we are doing. I shall be comforted by his spiritual presence at all times. In his going away we have a case where "man proposed but God disposed." He had proposed and commenced a definite program of great value and promise. What was that program? It was, in part, as follows:

In the first place, he said "we must have a large and aggressive membership." No Compatriot, in my memory, ever equalled his record in obtaining new members. It was a real passion with him. We cannot better honor his memory than by adding more new members this year than ever before. Lets make his year the greatest in all our history in this respect. I call upon all Officers and individual Compatriots to exert every effort to obtain new members during the next few months. It would be a very fine thing if each Compatriot could obtain at least one new member.

In the next place, he desired that true Americanism be taught in our schools. He bitterly assailed subversive teachings. We should all aid California and other States in their courageous fights along these lines.

He was a Patriot himself. He enlisted personally in the defense of his country. He sincerely believed in our history and in the observance of our Constitution and Laws. He rejoiced in the celebration of its great days, such as Constitution, Flag, Bill of Rights and I Am An American Day. We should continue to observe these great anniversary occasions.

We will, of course, have other work. We shall strive to execute all of it. But, for the present, I urge, primarily, a completion of Captain Shaler's program.

I am deeply sensible of the great honor conferred upon me. I accept the assignment most humbly and ask God's guidance in my work. No one man or set of men can meet our need. In unison alone is there real strength. I covet and accept the aid and cooperation of every Compatriot. Thank you so much for that help.

In Memoriam

Resolutions of Respect and Affection by the National Executive Committee, National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, Upon the Death of President General Charles Bunn Shaler, 1884–1948

The untimely death of our beloved Compatriot Charles B. Shaler, President General, 1948–49, which occurred in his home city, Pittsburgh, has deeply grieved each member of this Committee and, as we are assured, all Compatriots of our far-flung Society throughout the entire Nation.

Compatriot Shaler served his Country and our Society in such an outstanding way that we feel all compatriots should know of these services, catch their inspiring spirit and, so far as possible, emulate them.

1. As a citizen of the Great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States Compatriot Shaler gave unstintedly of his talents and abilities. In all things tending towards cleaner government, finer citizenship, better health and higher morality he gave of himself and his resources to a degree which should mark the life and character of every American. He realized that we were living in dangerous, epochal times, and he strove to "do something about it." He was thoughtless of self when engaged in service to his State and Country.

2. As a Compatriot of our Society he achieved, by the unanimous vote of our membership delegations, at our Minneapolis Congress in 1948, the supreme honor of becoming our President General. He was awarded this high mark of our supreme confidence because of his devoted services to the Society from 1937 to 1948—by reason of which about 1,000 new members were brought into our Society from Pennsylvania alone,—an utterly unprecedented record. One of his striking accomplishments was his service as Chairman of our National Committee for the celebration of Constitution Day, whereby he did much to nationalize this great day by having it recognized conspicuously in many sections of the country.

3. As a Churchman (a member of the Waverly Presbyterian Church) he gave to the interests of religion the same fine zeal that he gave to his civic and patriotic activities. He recognized the great truth that a God-less nation is a nation without hope, and that the citizens of such a nation would be easy victims of the modern evil of Communism, which Compatriot Shaler recognized as a growing menace to our American System of Government, to our Churches, and our American Way of Life.

4. Charles Bunn Shaler was a well-rounded, four-square citizen, Churchman and patriot. As a member of our Society, as a Mason, as a Churchman, he gave his best to making his City, State and Nation better places for the propagation of our civic virtues and our religious ideals. In none of these activities was he narrow, selfish or intolerant. In all he was loved by all with whom he worked and served and by all his death is deplored.

How true it is that:

"Man proposes but God disposes."

Your Executive Committee knows that Compatriot Shaler had planned to visit during his term as President General from 1948 to 1949, every State where we have organized Chapters. But an all-wise Providence ended his program after he had flown to the Far West and injected some of his enthusiasm into several State organizations. Following his death your Committee elected our distinguished Compatriot, Judge Ben H. Powell, to succeed Compatriot Shaler as President General. We did this immediately believing that Compatriot Shaler would want his work to go on uninterruptedly and with increasing enthusiasm. By accelerating the work of the Society we will be memorializing our departed President General and showing afresh our own abiding love and affection for him personally and our personal grief that he is no longer with us to lead our Society into greater and higher service to our Country and our democratic institutions.

> Robert H. McNeill, Chairman, Albert C. Brand, A. Herbert Foreman, Frank B. Steele, ex officio.

Resolutions on the Death of Past President General G. Ridgely Sappington, November 9, 1948 1883-1948

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, held at National Headquarters in the City of Washington on the 9th day of November, 1948, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, in the death of Past President General G. Ridgely Sappington, death has taken one of our most devoted members, and

WHEREAS, for many years, in his service as President of the Maryland Society for two terms, as Chancellor General for three terms, as Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions at National Congresses, as President General and as a member of the National Executive Committee for seven years, he gave much of his time and keen ability for the benefit of the Sons of the American Revolution, Therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in the death of former President General G. Ridgely Sappington the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution has lost a most valuable and devoted member whose place it will be difficult to fill, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the members of the National Executive Committee desire to express their deepest sympathy to the wife of our late Compatriot, Mrs. Anne Sappington, and be it FURTHER RESOLVED, That these Resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of the Executive Committee of the National Society and published in the S. A. R. MAGAZINE, and a copy be sent to the devoted wife of Mr. Sappington.

ROBERT H. MCNEILL, Chairman, ALBERT C. BRAND, A. HERBERT FOREMAN, FRANK B. STEELE, ex officio.

For Important Historical Projects

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR HISTORIC SITES AND BUILDINGS recently organized, as its name vention of the threat to the immediate environs implies, is formed to promote the preservation and use of the Nation's heritage of historic sites and buildings. The Council has set itself the task of mobilizing and supporting on a national scale the efforts of many individuals and organizations engaged in the conservation of the treasures of American history and architecture. General U. S. Grant 3rd, is Chairman of the Council and Mr. David C. Finley, Director of the National Gallery of Art, is Chairman of the Executive Board, with many distinguished architects and directors of historical institutions associated thereon.

Among the immediate projects which the Council is endeavoring to promote are the preof Valley Forge State Park in Pennsylvania by the super-highway extension; the preservation of Oak Hill, home of James Monroe, as a shrine, and also of Woodlawn, home of Nellie Custis. These last two historic homes are close to Washington and are notable for their history and architecture, and interest in their preservation is widespread.

Compatriot Gardner Osborn, Secretary of the Empire State Society, S. A. R., is an active member of the National Council, and our National Society's Executive Committee acted favorably in endorsement and approval of the Council's policy and efforts.

A few Historical Calendars are still available. Please DO NOT send checks-30¢ each.

Public Relations and the S. A. R.

The principal work of S. A. R. Public Re- local oratorical contests and the sponsorship lations is to report to the newspaper and maga- of Boy Scout troops further the Society's zine reading public the good acts, achievements and ideas of the Sons of the American Revolution.

If we do our job well, we are helping to build public confidence in the S. A. R. and in the principles of American free government for which we stand.

In general, our Public Relations is guided by three objectives. These objectives summarize what we want the public to think about the S. A. R. They are:

1. The S. A. R. is a leader in teaching the principles of American free government.

2. The S. A. R. is sincere and unselfish in its work.

3. The S. A. R. is a desirable society to belong to.

If the public believes these things about our Society, we can expect S. A. R. prestige to grow and the number of its members to increase. For that reason, every newspaper release or magazine article we prepare and every public program or radio broadcast in which we take part should further these three objectives.

A better understanding of this three-point Public Relations program can be had by considering the public effect of the Society's major programs. They are:

1. The fight against the use of subversive textbooks in our public schools. This is a counter-attack against those groups in education which are trying to destroy belief in American principles by glorifying the fictitious advantages claimed by other political systems.

2. The Basic Documents program to place facsimiles of the Declaration of Independence, the U. S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights in every school in the nation. This program emphasizes that these three documents are the basis of our free way of life and makes them available to school children and teachers for close study.

3. Observances of special patriotic days (Constitution Day, Bill of Rights Day, Washington's Birthday, Flag Day and I Am An American Day) are reminders of our free American heritage and the advantages it has brought us.

4. The presentation of good citizenship medals to school children, presentation of R. O. T. C. medals, promotion of national and program of education for better American citizenship.

An aggressive policy of publicizing these programs on national, state and particularly on community levels is our Public Relations method for achieving our first Public Relations goal. That goal is to convince the public that the S. A. R. is a leader in teaching the principles of American free government.

The Society has undertaken these programs to strengthen the framework of the American way of life for one reason only. We believe that our basic American principles offer all the people their greatest chance for peace, prosperity, security and happiness. It was to achieve these desirable ends that the American Revolution was fought and our government was founded.

Sincerity and unselfishness in pursuing this high purpose are essential to building public confidence in the Society and its work. The only proof of our sincerity and unselfishness is our freedom from tie-ups with commercial, political and special-interest groups. The objective of such groups is private profit. The aim of the S. A. R. is public benefit.

The S. A. R. is a leader in patriotic education. It is sincere and unselfish in its work. And the quality of its members is evidence that it is a desirable society to belong to. S. A. R. Compatriots are men well-known and respected in their communities. They take part in useful civic affairs. They are leaders in city, state and national government. In a sentence, they are men with whom one is proud to associate in a common effort to make this a better land in which to live.

These three qualities-leadership, sincerity and desirability-are the major ones we want the public to associate with the S. A. R. They are the qualities which guide the entire effort of S. A. R. Public Relations.

S. A. R. Public Relations, however, is more than a policy set forth by officers of the Society and carried out by a Public Relations Committee. S. A. R. Public Relations also is an organization. An outline of that organization has been sent to every Chapter and State Society President. It provides for a Publicity Representative in every Chapter, a monthly S. A. R. National News Letter

Events of State Societies

Alabama

In lieu of calling a meeting of the State Society, which was found to be impractical, the mail vote of the compatriots was taken for the election of officers in October, 1948, which resulted in choosing the following to serve the Society for the coming year: President, John T. Bradford, of Tuscaloosa: Vice Presidents, William D. Partlow, Tuscaloosa, Dr. J. J. Pettus, Mooresville, and John I. Mason, Mobile: Secretary-Treasurer, Registrar, Col. William T. Carpenter. Tuscaloosa; Historian, Gilbert C. White, Tanner: Genealogist, Captain Fred G. Koenig, Birmingham: Chaplain, Rev. Franklin S. Mosely, Georgiana: Chancellor, Files Crenshaw, Montgomery: National Trustee nominee, Dr. Peter A. Brannon: Managers, Marion A. Baldwin, Jr., Henry W. Hill, Richard L. Hundley, Edgar P. Russell.

Vice President General Furman B. Pearce of the Southern District has contacted the Alabama officers at Montgomery and Tuscaloosa in a visit through his District, and also has visited compatriots at Charleston, Savannah and Jacksonville.

Arkansas

Compatriots will be glad to know of the recovery from a serious major operation of State Secretary Mason E. Mitchell who was suddenly stricken in the late fall. Felicitations to Compatriot Mitchell and to the Arkansas Society are extended.

The Society has also recently been called upon to record the loss of Compatriot Benjamin E. Isbell of De Queens, who passed on October 21st and who was a very valued member.

California

The State Society is pleased to acknowledge with thanks the voluntary contributions of a number of societies and individuals for its Americanism fund in response to the request appearing in the October S.A.R. Magazine. This interest and cooperation is much appreciated.

State President Wheaton H. Brewer has recently visited Southern California and met S.A.R. leaders. The State Society anticipates the organization of a new chapter at Fresno. At its regular luncheon meeting on October 25th, the Society heard with interest an address by Sidney A. Teller, World Traveller, on "The World's Trouble Centers." SAN DIEGO CHAPTER has named Hon. Everett N. Curtis as Acting President for the balance of the term of Dr. Harvey C. Cox, resigned.

Connecticut

NATHAN HALE BRANCH, New Haven-Carrying out its previously announced plan compatriots made an historical pilgrimage to Lebanon on June 27th, with Boy Scouts of Pequot Council and their families. Lebanon is one of the most historic Revolutionary centers of the country, containing the War Office, famous as the meeting place for 1200 sessions of the Council of Safety during that period, from which the Revolutionary armies were supplied with much of their requirements during the struggle, and it was the headquarters of the Quartermaster General, Governor Ionathan Trumbull. Many other historic buildings and sites of the area were visited and the Pilgrimage concluded with an address by Rev. Robert Armstrong, D.D., dressed in Colonial costume, his subject being "Trumbull Returns," in which he contrasted the days of the War with the present. Compatriot Harry F. Morse, Chairman of the Pilgrimage, presented a plaque to the Pequot Council, commemorating the occasion, which will hang in the War Office.

On August 18th the Branch presented to Compatriot Carey Congdon, the only surviving Charter member, a Life membership to mark his fifty years of active service in the affairs of the Chapter, at the meeting held at the home of Compatriot Forrest Budd in Oswegatchie.

A fine Constitution Day meeting was held on September 17th at American Legion Hall in Niantic where many Compatriots of the Chapter reside.

GEN. GOLD SELLECK SILLIMAN BRANCH of Bridgeport held a summer clambake. An American Flag was presented to the Bridgeport Y.M.C.A. Camp Plaintain in Mt. Washington, Mass., and the Chapter marked Constitution Day with an outdoor meeting at which some seventy compatriots and friends were present.

The accompanying cut shows the clever work of Compatriot George P. Weising who carved a replica of the Mayflower from a cake of ice which he did at the chapter's latest meeting, with interested members looking on. We agree that both artist and photographer were very much "on the job."

The members of this State Society were honored by a visit from President General Charles B. Shaler, shortly after he assumed office, on July 29th, 1948. Officers and members gathered with Mr. Shaler at Parker, S. D., on this occasion for luncheon, and constructive discussion for the benefit of the Society was held. President Jay B. Allen, Secretary Ottis Ross and Vice President C. F. Hackett were among those present. This was one of the visits made by President Shaler early in his term, and it was his intention to visit every state society in the country. His most untimely and sad death since this initial trip has grieved the members throughout the Society.

The National S. A. R. Library

During the year 1948 your library has been enriched by a number of excellent books and valuable genealogical material donated by compatriots and friends of the Society. The number of family histories that have been received is most encouraging; however much more of this genealogical material is needed and all members having copies of their family records are requested to provide the library with a copy where it will be catalogued and retained in the genealogical section. Books donated by authors and publishers have been given brief reviews in this section. All books received this year—those acknowledged as well as those reviewed—are deeply appreciated and are welcome additions to your collection.

Brief Book Reviews

(Copies of these recently published books have been donated to the National SAR Library by the publishers.)

"The Maryland Germans," by Dieter Cunz. Princeton University Press, $5.00. Princeton, N. J.—1948.

"The Maryland Germans" is a comprehensive history of the German immigration to the state of Maryland and shows the typical American juxtaposition of Anglo-Saxon and Continental European immigrants. It covers a period of some three centuries beginning approximately 1640 with the Calvert Colony and concluding in the present time when the "last German-American generation" is integrated into the American population. For the pious Amish, the nineteenth century agnostic, the radical city laborer, the conservative Western Maryland farmer, the wealthy Bremen merchant and the poor steerage-class immigrant America was the land of promise. The author shows why so many Germans came to Maryland, how they settled, how they took root, why they needed this country and why this country needed them, how their individual and collective existence has been blended into the history of America. This is the story of a special group under special circumstances in the development of our national economy. Compatriots will find some valuable genealogical and biographical material in the footnotes. The book is well indexed to facilitate research to the extent of the material covered.

"Diary of Independence Hall," by Harold Donaldson Eberlein and Cortlandt Van Dyke Hubbard. J. B. Lippincott Company, $3.50.

"The Diary of Independence Hall" covers a dramatic period in the history of our country, 1733 to 1824, with the scarred red brick structure on Philadelphia's Independence Square as the background for some of the most important events in our national history. The material drawn from contemporary newspapers, letters, documents and official records gives an intimate approach in the language and style of the age. Included are such epoch-making events as the meeting of the Second Continental Congress, the election of George Washington as Commanding General, the birth of the United States Navy, the adoption of the Declaration of Independence and the signing of the Constitution. As an example of other interesting episodes, the very abrupt and curt reception of the Marquis de la Fayette on July 28, 1777 is recounted. Fortunately, the determination of this youth to make a contribution in our fight for freedom resulted in his subsequent commission on July 31 as a Major General. The scholarly selection and treatment of material in this work give a new understanding and appreciation of our country's adolescent years. In the light of the many difficulties besetting our early years as a nation, new faith in the possibility of a successful United Nations is realized.

"The Autobiography of Benjamin Rush." Princeton University Press, $6.00. 1948.

"The Autobiography of Benjamin Rush" grips and holds the interest of the reader. It is difficult to perceive how this eminent physician and signer of the Declaration of Independence could find time for so much literary work. He had varied interests-medicine, politics, religion and and will await anxiously the forthcoming volumes.

above all his fellow associates. The story told by Benjamin Rush covers his schooldays at West Nottingham Academy, and his medical studies in Philadelphia and Edinburgh, his brief term in Congress and his long career as a physician. Naturally Philadelphia has a large place in the author's attention and this work is an important volume in Philadelphia history. Of particular interest to compatriots will be the character sketches of all the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The splendid index permits ready reference to the many famous characters known to this illustrious physician.

George Washington, Vols. I and II, by Douglas Southall Freeman; published by Charles Scribner, New York. Price $15.00.

This work represents a most ambitious undertaking. Prepared with the thoroughness and studious care for which Dr. Douglas Freeman is noted, there will be many years (if ever) before any further research in this field will be justified. The first two volumes cover the life of George Washington to his 27th year. To those who have deified Washington, some facts will come as a shock but the treatment is most fair. Young Washington begins to live as a human beinga superior one-and is quite real. This is a monumental work magnificently conceived and now in process of execution. Students, historians and compatriots will welcome these two volumes and a Public Relations Consulting Service. Its immediate goal is for every Chapter Publicity Representative to have the name of his Chapter appear in local newspapers at least once each month.

As you readily can see, the success of our S. A. R. Public Relations program lies almost entirely in the hands of the President and the Publicity Representative of each Chapter. If the Chapter takes an active part in the programs of the S. A. R. and if its activities are well publicized, the Chapter will be making a creative contribution to the over-all welfare of the Society. It also will be making a definite contribution toward the achievement of sult in increased prestige and membership for the Chapter and for the entire Society.

Members of the S. A. R. Public Relations Committee, which formulated this Public Relations program are: H. R. Baukhage, Washington columnist and commentator: Franklin L. Burdette, Professor of Government and Politics, University of Maryland; Arthur J. Carruth, Jr., editor and publisher, Topeka Journal, Topeka, Kansas; Edwin J. Heath, Historian, District of Columbia Society; Charles A. Jones, American Education Press, Columbus, Ohio: Lowell Thomas, radio newscaster and commentator: and the Chairman of the Committee, Donald L. Miller, Public Relations staff, Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

Voted: That Mr. McNeill act as Chairman of the committee to draft the resolutions.

Past President General Foreman spoke in nomination of Judge Ben H. Powell of Texas to fill the unexpired term of President General Shaler. The nomination was seconded by Colonel Ames, Mr. Shriner and Mr. Brand. There was a rising vote to elect Judge Ben H. Powell President General to fill the unexpired term of the late Charles B. Shaler unanimously.

Judge Powell then was escorted to the Chair and expressed briefly to the Executive Committee his appreciation for the honor paid himself and the Texas Society. He also spoke in tribute to Mr. Shaler whose splendid plans for the year had been interrupted by illness and death, and said it was his greatest ambition to make a success of the remainder of the term.

Colonel Ames made a token installation of Judge Powell to the office of President General.

There was discussion of the time and place of the next meeting of the Executive Committee and Mr. Shriner invited the Committee to hold its next meeting in Cincinnati.

Voted: To accept the invitation to Cincinnati, the exact date in February to be fixed by the President General.

I. Garfield Buell

1879-1948

Vice President General, 1943-44 and National Trustee

The death of Compatriot J. Garfield Buell on October 1, 1948, came as a shock to members of the official family and his loss to the Oklahoma Society and the National Society will be deeply regretted.

He had been a constant attendant at our National Congresses for many years, and was well known among the Compatriots throughout the Society.

He served the National Society as Vice President General for two terms from May, 1943, and was Past President of Tulsa Chapter and of the Oklahoma Society. He had been a member of the National Board of Trustees for several terms prior to July 1947.

Mr. Buell was an attorney and was active in the oil producing industry of Oklahoma, and in the civic life of Tulsa. His membership in the S. A. R. was by virtue of a long line of Revolutionary forebears.

Charles W. Tucker 1872-1948 Genealogist General, 1946-

News of the passing of this beloved Compatriot and National Officer on December 8th, brought shocked surprise to his friends and colleagues of Massachusetts and the National Society.

Mr. Tucker was elected Genealogist General at the Trenton Congress of 1946, and successively in 1947 and 1948. Previously he served the Massachusetts Society as its Registrar since 1945, and in the same capacity in the Brig. Joseph Frye Chapter of Andover for four years. He was a native of North Andover, and had devoted his mature years to genealogical work and historical research. He was a member of the S.A.R. by descent from William Tucker, shipmaster, and from an impressive number of Revolutionary patriots. He was an active member of the New England Historical Genealogical Society, Essex Institute, the Society of Colonial Wars, M.I.T. Alumni, and many other historical, genealogical and hereditary societies.

His accuracy and ability in the field of genealogical research was well known throughout the Society and his loss will be deeply felt both locally and nationally.
