THIS IS YOUR MAGAZINE

In the August Issue of the Quarterly Bulletin a suggestion was advanced by your Editor that might solve the problem of publishing a magazine of wide general interest and at the same time including personal items of special interest to a limited number of the total membership. An expression of opinion was invited by your Editor but no replies were received. We are therefore repeating this suggestion in the following paragraph, as this problem recurs constantly.

"Should a number of State Societies wish to cooperate on this idea of a special section, it might prove practical to add a number of pages to the regular size of the Magazine . . . and still enable the National Society to stay within its budget allowance. Your Editor feels certain that the actual cost of sending such a rather complete quarterly news story to a state's membership would prove economical. At any rate, your opinions will be greatly appreciated and may lead to a solution of the one main editorial problem facing the Society."

You will note in the Digest of the Minutes of the Executive Committee Meeting that the printer of this Magazine will receive instructions to use mailing wrappers to insure the condition of The Bulletin after its battle with the Post Office which seriously damaged many copies of the August Issue.

You will also note in the Digest of the Minutes of the Board of Trustees' Meeting that the decision was reached to omit the Genealogical Records of the lines of new members, and the supplementals, as being unnecessary and in the interests of economy; and to substitute therefore a geographical list by States on new members, with or without the name of the patriot ancestors, quarterly or annually. This decision was based upon action of the Executive Committee.

Your Editor regrets the late publication of this November Issue which however was unavoidable as last minute material of the utmost importance was received which President General Hall wisely instructed us to publish. We trust you will find this issue helpful in attracting new members to the Sons of the American Revolution.

ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT GENERAL WALLACE C. HALL AT VALLEY FORGE BOY SCOUT NATIONAL JAMBOREE

Mr. Shriner, Dr. Schuck, Distinguished Guests, Men and Boys of the Second National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America:

It is a privilege to bring greetings to this great organization from the National Society of The Sons of the American Revolution and to say a few words for the good of our country.

Our two organizations have stood together for many years in our mutual upholding of good citizenship and of honest, efficient and responsible government.

We are in complete accord as to the principles and ideals upon which our country was founded, has lived and developed, and which must be sustained to keep America free.

We believe in your organization, its objectives and program.

We could only wish that every boy in America could have a part in this program to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty."

We are standing today on the very ground where our forefathers met one of the most severe tests of good citizenship in the history of these United States.

Here General Washington knelt and prayed to God for help for our Nation, his men and himself in their hours of dire stress and need. Here those prayers were answered. Here by the Grace of God, our Nation gathered the moral and spiritual strength and courage to carry on.

The men who stood here in suffering and want, believed in God. They were not ashamed to profess it. They put God first, their Country second and themselves last. Their lives were dedicated to service. They knew from bitter experience that the price of freedom comes high.

We, today, must be willing to pay the price, but we must guard carefully lest the cost imposed by irresponsible officials destroys the very thing we seek to preserve and protect.

It is a privilege to pay taxes to support honest, efficient and responsible government.

It is a crime when tax money is wasted. When elected representatives spend our tax dollars foolishly, needlessly, or recklessly they are guilty of criminal negligence.

When they spend our tax dollars to perpetuate themselves in office without regard to the rights of the citizens then they are guilty of criminal misappropriation for personal benefit.

Dishonesty cannot be condoned in public life.

Character must be the test of eligibility to office.

The Citizens of the United States must learn the lessons the Boy Scouts of America is teaching its members.

A Scout learns:

1. What is required to be a good citizen.
2. To respect God.
3. The difference between right and wrong.
4. That freedom does not mean license.
5. That he cannot believe everything he sees, or reads or hears.
6. That he must think things through for himself and listen to his own conscience.
7. To accept responsibility for his own acts.
8. To be a self-disciplined and self-respecting citizen, who seeks no privilege, but will not submit to dictatorship or regimentation.

If all American Citizens live up to these lessons then the future of America is assured.

Sure its a tough world. It always has been and always will be tough to stand up for the right and oppose the wrong. But what American would give up freedom for the easy way. We never get anything for nothing. We pay for everything, in money or goods, or in labor and service, or by giving up some of our self respect. Consider the price, it may be too high to pay.

We must never be ashamed to show our patriotic emotion, our respect for the flag and our belief in God.

We should be truly appreciative of the blessings that have come to us under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

We should be very grateful for the unselfish leadership such as you have in Scouting from these men whose very lives are dedicated to service of God and Country.

It is therefore a pleasant duty which I now have to show the respect and appreciation of our Society for all that Scouting means to our Country.

To recognize the great personal contribution of one who lives such a life of dedicated service, of great constructive citizenship and is an inspiration to all the people of these United States.

And so, Dr. Schuck, our Society is privileged and I am honored to award to you the Gold Medal for Constructive Citizenship of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

May it remind you through the years, and symbolize to the Boy Scouts of America the deep respect, admiration for and confidence of our Society in this great organization, and with every assurance of our utmost cooperation in all your good works.

DEAR EDITOR:

Attached is a copy of the Presentation Address made by President-General Wallace C. Hall at the Boy Scout National Jamboree at Valley Forge on July 2. He presented the Gold Citizenship Medal of the Society to Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive, of the Boy Scouts of America.

It was a very colorful ceremony in the Avenue of Flags of the Jamboree. President-General Hall was escorted up the Avenue of Flags by the 200 piece Boy Scout Band from Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia.

It was my pleasant duty to open the ceremonies and present Dr. Schuck to President-General Hall. A large audience was on hand. 47,000 Scouts and leaders were in the great camp and thousands of visitors were there.

PITTSBURGH OBSERVES FLAG DAY TRADITIONS

At the apex of the "Golden Triangle" in Pittsburgh, where the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers unite to form the Ohio, stands the remnant of the once proud Fort Pitt. Here at the historic shrine, "The Block House, members of the Pittsburgh Chapter assembled on the 14th of June to do honor to the flag.

Later at the Frick Elementary School the Pittsburgh Chapter repeated another annual custom, that of awarding the good citizenship medal to one member of each 8-B class of the public schools of the city. This recognition, an honor eagerly sought, is conferred by classmates on the basis of Dependability, Cooperation, Leadership and Patriotism.

Fritchey, II; Historian General Mason E. Mitchell; Genealogist General Dr. Arthur Adams; Librarian General Robert H. McNeill; Executive Secretary Harold L. Putnam; and Past President General Loren E. Souers.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: John H. Babb, Wheaton H. Brewer, Ray O. Edwards, Past President General John W. Finger, Past President General A. Herbert Foreman, Past President General Ben H. Powell, III, Clarence E. Shriner and Harry K. Torrey.

NATIONAL TRUSTEES AND OTHER OFFICERS: O. Kenneth Baker, D.C.; Col. Frederic G. Bauer, Mass.; Alonzo N. Benn, Ill.; P. Harry Byerly, D. C.; Howard A. Chapin, Jr., Nebr.; John E. Dickinson, Wisc.; Harry I. Hadsell, Ohio; Louis J. Heizmann, Pa.; Samuel Herrick, S. D.; Douglas G. High, Ohio; Benjamin D. Hill, Jr., D. C.; S. Denmead Kolb, Md.; Milton M. Lory, Iowa; W. H. McKittrick, Ind.; Chester R. Martin, R. I.; Theodore Marvin, Dela.; Donald L. Miller, Pa.; Col. Alfred C. Oliver, Jr., D. C.; William Y. Pryor, N. J.; Frank A. Randall, Ill.; L. F. Ridgway, Ohio; Crawford S. Rogers, Va.; Earl M. Schroeder, Pa.; Robert W. Thompson, Texas; and Barry T. Whipple, Mich.

The meeting was called to order at 10:10 A.M. by President General Hall and the invocation was spoken by Chaplain Alfred C. Oliver, Jr., President of the D. C. Society.

On Motion, the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Trustees held on May 17th were approved as published in the August, 1950, issue of the Magazine.

On motion, the Board of Trustees approved the actions of the Executive Committee since its last meeting.

Secretary General Williamson reported briefly that he had carried out the duties assigned and also made a short statement as Chairman of the National Headquarters Committee.

Executive Secretary Putnam reported on new members and reinstatements for the period April 1 to October 1, both of which showed a gain over the previous year.

Mr. Putnam reported on the rehabilitation program, mentioning some of the problems which had to be overcome and explaining that the Headquarters soon will be completely renovated.

It was voted that the thanks and appreciation of the National Society be extended to Compatriot Oliver B. Wight of Baltimore, Maryland, for his architectural services in connection with the rehabilitation program.

Mr. Putnam commented on the loyal services of the Headquarters Staff and introduced these members in the persons of Mrs. Virginia L. Kagy, Mrs. Tennie S. Burk, and Mrs. Muriel W. McKnight.

The Executive Secretary reported that a protest had been filed with the owners and contractors in connection with the building operations next door to Headquarters to the effect that the National Society will hold them fully liable for any damage.

The report of Registrar General Dr. Fritchey was received and filed.

Treasurer General Robertson presented a financial statement and comparison with the budget for the six months period April 1 to September 30.

Genealogist General Adams reported that he had given rulings on several questions.

It was the consensus of the meeting that only the reinstatement fee is required and not per capita dues for reinstated members within the same fiscal year.

Librarian General McNeill reported briefly.

President General Hall reported on his visitation with the Boards of Managers of the New England States. He commented on the interest being shown in the work of the Society and noted that the excellent attendance at the Trustees' meeting was evidence of this fact.

President General Hall announced that the members present and their ladies were invited to be the guests of Mrs. Hall and himself at luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel.

The President General announced that the agreement with Secretary and Registrar Emeritus Steele had been drafted and signed and filed in accordance with the direction of the 60th Congress.

In accordance with the instructions of the Atlantic City Congress the following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees approves the recommendations of the Executive Committee and does hereby authorize and direct the Executive Secretary to perform the following duties, and that all acts in conformity herewith shall have the validity and effect of the act of the Society until the Annual Congress in 1951.

1. Take charge of, operate, and serve as custodian and manager of the Headquarters properties, both real and personal, and all equipment, furnishings, and records of the Society, and to reside in the premises for the convenience and protection of the Society and its properties.

2. To employ the necessary, authorized staff for the Society, and discharge the same in his discretion; all salaries to be fixed by the Board of Trustees upon recommendation by the Executive Committee.

3. To perform all administrative acts, consistent with the Constitution and By-laws, which may be delegated to him in writing by any of the General Officers of the Society, and for that purpose he is hereby designated as Assistant to, the Secretary General, the Registrar General and the Treasurer General, with power and authority to sign all necessary documents and papers, for the Society, as such Administrative Assistant.

4. To initiate, approve and place all orders for equipment and supplies for the Society, in such manner as the Executive Committee may direct.

That consistent amendments to the Constitution and By-laws of the Society shall be recommended to the 61st Annual Congress to fully implement and supplement such powers and duties.

As recommended by the Executive Committee the following were adopted unanimously:

The Treasurer General is hereby authorized and directed to accept single multiple vouchers for all salaries and reimbursements to the revolving fund of the Executive Secretary over signatures by the President General and Secretary General.

The President General, Secretary General and Treasurer General are hereby authorized to increase the Revolving Fund of the Executive Secretary from $200.00 to $1,000.00, and to procure a blanket fidelity bond covering the members of the Headquarters staff in the amount not to exceed $5,000.00.

On motion, the following recommendations of the Executive Committee in connection with the rehabilitation program were approved and adopted unanimously:

INSTALLATION OF OIL BURNER—at cost of $460.00.

PURCHASE OF SOUND SCRIBER—at cost of $709.00.

WINDOW SHADES—at a cost of approximately $340.00.

DRAPERIES—for windows of second floor.

HOT WATER HEATER—at an estimated cost of $190.00.

TYPEWRITERS—two, at a cost not to exceed $150.00 each.

CARD FILES—two 20,000 card capacity files.

LIGHTING—to be investigated and report made to the Executive Committee for action.

WORK TABLE.

LIBRARY LADDER.

ADDING MACHINE—The Executive Committee has accepted with thanks the gift of an adding machine by Past President General Finger.

It was voted that the Secretary General be reimbursed for expenses incurred by him in carrying out the duties of his office as requested by the President General, Executive Committee, or Board of Trustees.

It was voted unanimously that the President General send greetings from the meeting to Past President General Ames who was ill.

The meeting recessed at 12:10 for luncheon and reconvened at 2:20 P.M.

Appreciation of the hospitality of the President General and Mrs. Hall at luncheon was expressed by a rising vote of thanks.

On recommendation of the Executive Committee, the removal at a cost of $110.00 of the elm tree on the Headquarters property, which was infected with Dutch elm disease, was approved. The removal of the tree on the north front of the property also was authorized because it obscures the front of the building and obstructs the flag poles so that flags cannot be flown from the building, Compatriot McNeill being authorized to remove this tree at no cost to the Society and plant it on his property.

After lengthy discussion, a resolution of the Empire State Society in reference to the Bill of Grievances was laid on the table. Past President General Powell proposed that the Americanization Committee reword the petition of the Bill of Grievances to make the position of the Society clearer, which suggestion was approved without formal action.

On recommendation of the Executive Committee, it was voted that the 61st Annual Congress of the National Society be held at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, July 8th through 11th, 1951, and Compatriot Wheaton Brewer, Chairman of the Arrangements Committee, reported that a tentative program had already been arranged.

Compatriot Clarence Shriner, Chairman of the Organization Committee, then presented a detailed plan for a membership campaign to run from November 1st, 1950, through March 31, 1951, with the following prizes being offered:

A first award of a round trip railroad and pullman fare for the winning Compatriot and his wife to the 1951 Annual Congress; five $100.00 awards to the next five Compatriots; a rosette to each Compatriot who brings in one or more members; "Golden Gate Banners" to Chapters showing a net increase of 20%; "Honor Streamers" to State Societies showing a net increase of 20%; "Achievement Plaques" to Districts showing a net increase of 20%.

The membership campaign as presented by the Organization Committee and the solicitation of societies and individual members for funds, not to exceed $1,200.00, to cover the cash awards were approved.

President General Hall presented Compatriot L. F. Ridgway, Secretary of LaFayette Chapter of Akron, Ohio, who explained how his Chapter had more than doubled its membership since its reorganization.

It was voted that the Board of Trustees approve the resolution of the Texas Society and join with that Society in awarding the Good Citizenship Certificate and Medal of the National Society to Mr. Karl Hoblitzelle of Dallas, Texas.

On motion, the following statement of policy was adopted unanimously:

The only policy-making power within this Society rests in the Annual Congresses, regularly convened, and the Board of Trustees.

No Officer, Committee, State Society, Chapter, or Compatriot shall by letter, speech, press release, radio address, or writing represent that this National Society is committed to sponsor, endorse, protest against or participate in any program, activity or campaign, unless the same shall have been acted upon by an Annual Congress or by the Board of Trustees.

This shall not restrict any such Officers, Committee, State Society, Chapter or Compatriot in expression of individual opinions, so long as the same shall be clearly stated as such, and not as the policy of the National Society.

The request of Compatriot Marvin of Delaware for an amendment to the By-laws in connection with filling vacancies in the Board of Trustees was referred to the Committee on Constitution Revision.

The following resolution was adopted after presentation by Compatriot Torrey:

The New England Council of State Presidents, S.A.R., recommends that in its Quarterly Magazine, the National Society omit the Genealogical Records of the lines of new members, and the supplementals, as being unnecessary, and in the interests of economy; and substitute therefor a geographical list by States, of new members, with or without the name of their patriot ancestors, quarterly or annually, if, in the discretion of the Trustees, such printing be advisable.

There was some discussion of the publication of the genealogical data, and it was voted that the question of publication be referred to the Executive Committee with power to act.

It was voted that the Board of Trustees adopt the recommendation of Executive Secretary Putnam that the fee for filing supplementals be increased from $1.00 to $3.00 and that an amendment to the By-laws be prepared for presentation at the next Annual Congress.

It was voted that it is the interpretation of the Board of Trustees that the Permanent Record fee applies to all applications including transfers from the C.A.R. or Washington Guard and sons of S.A.R. and D.A.R. members, under 25 years of age, in conformity with the ruling of the Chancellor General.

It was voted that the National Society News Letter be used as a medium to report the results of the membership campaign and the expense thereof be charged to membership organization expense, and that the three issues already published this year be covered in the same manner.

It was voted that the Executive Secretary ascertain the cost of mimeographing the Constitution and By-laws and that the President General, the Executive Secretary and Treasurer General decide to which budget item it should be charged.

Voted that the Board of Trustees authorize the printing of 5,000 copies of the Society's handbook and that the President General appoint a committee to revise the information contained in the booklet.

The Treasurer General recommended changes in the price list of merchandise and, on motion, this matter was referred to the Executive Committee with power to act.

It was voted to establish the salaries for the Headquarters staff for the remainder of the year as follows: Mrs. Kagy—$275.00 per month; Mrs. Burk, $225.00 per month; Mrs. McKnight, $175.00 per month.

The matter of the sale of old copies of Harpers Magazine and use of proceeds to purchase genealogical volumes was referred to the Executive Secretary and Librarian General with power to act.

On motion, the President General and Executive Secretary were given authority to dispose of certain old furniture stored in Headquarters.

It was moved, and carried by a rising vote, that the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution is unalterably opposed to any surrender of the sovereignty of the United States and to the placing of any flag at the same level or above the Flag of the United States.

President General Hall thanked the members of the Board for their attendance and declared the meeting adjourned at 5:55 P.M.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING IN WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 14TH

There were present the following: President General Wallace C. Hall, presiding; John H. Babb, Wheaton H. Brewer, Ray O. Edwards, Past President General John W. Finger, Past President General A. Herbert Foreman, Past President General Ben H. Powell, III; Clarence E. Shriner, and Harry K. Torrey. Also present, Secretary General Edgar Williamson, Jr., Treasurer General George S. Robertson, and Executive Secretary Harold L. Putnam.

The meeting was called to order by President General Hall at 9:00 A.M., and on motion the minutes of the meeting of the Executive Committee held on May 17, 1950, were approved as published on page 30 of the August 1950 issue of the Magazine.

President General Hall noted that there was a 100% attendance and thanked the members for their interest in the work of the Society.

Executive Secretary Putnam reported on membership as follows: new members received from April 1 to October 1, 1949 — 456; and for the same period, 1950, 650. Reinstatements for the same period of 1949 — 108; 1950 — 138. After a report on the application of the Permanent Record fee, the Executive Committee approved the policy of accepting certain applications after September 1st without the Permanent Record fee, providing the approval of the State Society was August 31st or earlier.

Treasurer General Robertson presented a financial statement for the period April 1 to September 30, 1950, and a comparison with the budget for the same period which showed all items within the budget with the exception of salaries.

The Executive Committee voted to recommend that the Flag of the United States and the National Society Flag be flown from the Headquarters Building on all days that weather permits, and that the President General and Executive Secretary be given authority to purchase the proper flags if it is found that there are no flags in the Headquarters for this purpose.

It was voted that the Treasurer General be authorized to contract with the printer of the Magazine for mailing wrappers at the best price available.

In the interest of brevity for publication, a number of recommendations of the Executive Committee to the Board of Trustees are omitted here and appear with action taken in the Trustees' Minutes which follow.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 10:45 A.M.

CATHEDRAL OF THE PINES DEDICATION ANNIVERSARY

Reported by Howard E. Coe, Chairman,
Cathedral of the Pines Committee

The Chairman of the National Committee for the Cathedral of the Pines wishes to report as follows:

The Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral of the Pines was held on September 3, 1950 at Rindge, New Hampshire. The service was beautiful.

Earl Weidner played the organ prelude after which Ernest A. Hale gave the notices. His excellency Compatriot Sherman Adams, Governor of New Hampshire greeted the assemblage on behalf of the New Hampshire S.A.R. of which he is a Past President.

The hymn "God of our Fathers" was sung by all, and was followed by the invocation delivered by Chaplain General Mott R. Sawyers. The writer led the group in the pledge of Allegiance to the Flag which was followed by the hymn "America."

The scripture was read by Dr. J. Hall Long, Chaplain of the Vermont Society. Miss Doris Doe of the Metropolitan Opera Association rendered an anthem accompanied by Mrs. Effie Black.

Duane Squires, President of the New Hampshire Society recognized National Officers of the D.A.R. and S.A.R. followed by the hymn "A Mighty Fortress is Our God."

President General Hall made a stirring address and a plea that people think before they elect candidates to possible office in these parlous times. Miss Doe sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and invited the group to join in the last chorus.

Rev. Samuel R. Maxwell, Chaplain General of the New Hampshire Society made the closing prayer. The meeting ended when Chaplain General Sawyers pronounced the benediction following the "Star Spangled Banner."

In spite of a thoroughly rainy day there were 200 cars at the Cathedral at opening time. Unfortunately, only members and guests of the S.A.R. could be allowed to attend the services held in Hilltop House. Even with the steady rain a thousand people were present from many eastern states. If the day had been fair, we are confident that the audience would have filled the Cathedral to overflowing.

NOTES FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY'S MEMO PAD

Thanks to the generosity of Past President General Finger, the Headquarters Staff are now enjoying the use of an adding machine, which arrived in time to be used in totaling the unusual number of applications received in recent weeks.

Compatriot Ray Edwards has delivered the inter-communicating equipment which was promised and it will be in use within the next few days—just as soon as the painters and other miscellaneous workmen have finished their labors at Headquarters.

Compatriot Oliver B. Wight of Baltimore is the unsung hero of the rehabilitation of the Headquarters building. He has made an invaluable contribution by preparing plans, blue prints and specifications for the contractors, and making frequent inspection tours of the building.

One of the real needs of our library is that of a set of Chalkley's "Records of Augusta County, Virginia." The cost of one set now available is $40.00, and Compatriot Guy Tetrick has offered to pay for one-half of the cost if some other Compatriot will match his donation. If you are interested, write the Executive Secretary at Headquarters, or send your letter to W. Guy Tetrick, P. O. Box 267, Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Those who visited our Headquarters during the combined meeting of the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees got a preview of what the rehabilitation program is doing to improve our building and contents. Within another month we should be ready to receive visitors in a Headquarters of which we may all be proud.

Thanks to the thoughtful generosity of Mrs. G. Ridgely Sappington, the newly decorated President General's suite is embellished with a beautiful rug, contributed in memory of our beloved Past President General G. Ridgely Sappington.

When honors are distributed at the Congress in San Francisco it seems that our Headquarters Staff should receive a special decoration for valor in carrying on the work in the midst of the dust, dirt and noise incident to the rehabilitation of the building. It has been a trying ordeal and their devotion should be recognized.

President General and Mrs. Hall have contributed the furniture and draperies to furnish the Presidential suite. From now on the Presidents General will occupy quarters in keeping with the dignity and prestige of the Society, and will be able to hold conferences and receive guests in comfort and freedom from the interruptions caused by Headquarters activities.

If present indications are to be relied upon the "Golden Gate Marathon" membership contest is going to keep the Headquarters Staff swamped with new applications. That first Award is one well worth working for, and there are other prizes which should not be disdained. A number of Compatriots have already sent notice of their intention to win the trip to the San Francisco Congress. And, by the way, the Congress date is July 8th through 11th. May the best man, or man and wife, win.

Respectfully yours,

HAROLD L. PUTNAM
Executive Secretary

Historical Art Calendars for 1951 are now available through Headquarters at the usual price of $.30 each. The 1951 calendar is embellished with many notable patriotic scenes including reproductions of painting of Patrick Henry's memorable address to the Virginia House of Burgesses, Paul Revere's Ride, the Battle of Concord and other patriotic scenes. These calendars serve as appropriate remembrances for Christmas and as the supply at Headquarters is limited, prompt action is advisable. Remittances should be in cash or stamps.

ASHLAND CHAPTER

Here is some more material for your use in the next issue of the National Bulletin.

On June 17th I participated in one of the finest S.A.R. meetings it has been my privilege to attend. This was the installation of the new Ashland, Ky. Chapter with a membership already enrolled of 32. About 100 members and their wives were present at the Henry Clay Hotel. Dr. U. V. Garred is President. There are seven members from the Garred family in the chapter—probably a unique record. The Compatriots were kind enough to have me address the meeting which I did on the topic, "The Time is Now."

Attached is a copy of the material which appeared in the Ashland DAILY INDEPENDENT and a copy of the program booklet, printed for the occasion.

Harry Hadsell, President of the Ohio

Society and Charlie Jones, Secy.-Registrar of the Ohio Society were there. Also Dr. Adams and Compatriot Hall of the Ohio Society Board of Managers.

Buford Tynes, Vice-President General of the National Society from Huntington, W. Va., and Will Daniels, Secretary of the West Virginia Society, also of Huntington, W. Va., were present. Will Daniels presented a gavel made from one of the rafters of Old Ft. Henry at Wheeling, W. Va., where the last battle of the Revolution was fought.

Fraternally yours,

Secretary-Treas. Downey M. Gray, of the Kentucky Society, both from Louisville, Ky. were present; President Cassidy conducted the installation.

The ladies of the D.A.R. were a major factor in helping to organize the chapter and they were well represented at the meeting.

It was a very colorful affair and I was impressed by the number of fine young men who had been enrolled.

BASIC DOCUMENTS

The Sons of the American Revolution should make certain that the children who are being educated in our schools today are familiar with the principles of our American Heritage.

One way to accomplish this, is for the Chapters, State Societies and individual Compatriots to present facsimiles of the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights to the 200,000 schools in the United States. Over 50 chapters and State Societies and many individual Compatriots have purchased facsimiles and distributed them to schools and students. More should adopt such presentations as part of their year's program and include them as part of the Chapter's regular Washington's Birthday Celebration or other special meeting.

Each Compatriot should endeavor to see that his Chapter makes facsimiles of these Basic Documents available to the students of his community and thus help combat subversive influences. It's up to each member of the Sons of the American Revolution to do his part.

A two-page set of the Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights each 18" x 24" costs 65 cents delivered. A coupon has been prepared for the convenience of those Compatriots wishing to present sets of these Basic Documents. Checks covering the costs should be made out to the Basic Documents Committee, S.A.R. and mailed with the coupon to 110 East Bradley Lane, Chevy Chase 15, Maryland.

THOMAS PAINE STATUE UNVEILED JULY 4TH IN MORRISTOWN, N. J.

Members of the New Jersey Society, SAR, dressed in continental uniforms, led the grand parade and acted as honor guard at the unveiling ceremonies in Burnham Park, Morristown, New Jersey, on July 4th, 1950, when the heroic size statue of patriot Tom Paine was formally dedicated.

Others present were Dr. Herschel Murphy, New Jersey State president of the SAR; Gardner Osborne, vice-president-general of the National SAR; past State president of the Empire State Society of SAR; Edgar Williamson, Jr., secretary-general of the National Society of SAR, past State president of the New Jersey Society and past vice-president-general of the National Society.

For a time Tom Paine lived in Bordentown and in Morristown, where he wrote some of the "Crisis Papers" which helped revive the fighting spirit in Washington's weary troops. Modern generations need no more testimonial of his character and his patriotism than the fact that he had the friendship of Washington, John Adams, Jefferson, Monroe, Franklin and Lafayette.

Paine, soldier, writer and statesman, but who is too little known to most Americans, is credited with being a leading mover in the Revolution, first with his document on "Common Sense" and then with his inspiring "Crisis" papers starting with "These are the times that try men's souls. . ."

GENERAL FRANK MERRILL JOINS NEW HAMPSHIRE SAR

State Highway Commissioner Frank D. Merrill is shown as he was presented a membership in the New Hampshire Society, Sons of the American Revolution, at the state house. Shown left to right are Rep. Harry Sherwin of Rindge, society secretary; Rep. C. Murray Sawyer of Concord, treasurer; Governor Adams; Commissioner Merrill, and Dr. J. Duane Squires of New London, society president.

Major Gen. Frank D. Merrill won fame in the Far East where he first served as Chief of Staff to Gen. Joseph Stilwell in China and later participated in the fights at Saipan and Okinawa. He led the army that drove the Japanese out of Burma. His technique of jungle fighting gave his divisions the name of "Merrill's Marauders."

As the Gov. Sherman Adams awards were received by three New Hampshire high school students at the State House yesterday for top honors in the historical essay contest sponsored by the New Hampshire society, Sons of the American Revolution. The presentation was made by Governor Adams. Left to right, Dr. J. Duane Squires of New London, society president; Elmer Hunt, director of the New Hampshire Historical society, and contest chairman; William Beal of Hudson, a sophomore at Alvirne High school, third prize; Barbara Hanly, a senior at Franklin High school, a sophomore at Spaulding High school, Rochester, first prize, and Governor Adams.

Message from the President General

My dear Compatriots:

Greetings! Many of you have already visited the Headquarters in Washington since the rehabilitation program has been under way. It is a pleasure to inform all of you that the program is nearly completed. You are not only invited but urged to come to the Headquarters building at your earliest opportunity to see how the program has changed the appearance of the building for the better.

May I say a word of real appreciation for the splendid work of Harold L. Putnam as Executive Secretary, Mrs. Kagy, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. McKnight who now comprise the staff. They are all doing a splendid job. They are there to serve you and are not only diligently pursuing the course of their regular duties but are glad to be of special service whenever the opportunity offers.

While the staff is busy, they are not too busy to be interested in your problems and to help you. The good of the Society comes first in the hearts of every one on our staff and they will go out of their way to help you make a better Society.

Your President General and Mrs. Hall have had a very happy time during the last several months in connection with their visitations to various states. We have already attended the Cathedral of the Pines Anniversary celebration at Rindge, New Hampshire. We were much impressed by the dignity and the reverent atmosphere of this beautiful spot. If you have never visited it, you should. Be sure to make the acquaintance of Compatriot and Mrs. Douglas Sloane who have dedicated their lives to this great patriotic service.

We have also visited Connecticut, Rhode Island, Maine, Maryland, Vermont, District of Columbia, West Virginia, Tennessee, New York and Ohio and every place we go we find the same courteous, hospitable welcome. We are impressed with the renewed spirit of endeavor within the Society. We believe that there will be a great increase of membership and enthusiasm in the various societies this year.

On October 14th we had a very energetic Trustees' meeting at Headquarters. Full attendance by the Executive Committee, a large number of National Trustees, State Presidents and secretaries made the meeting effective.

In December your President General and Mrs. Hall plan to visit Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Sioux City, Iowa, Lincoln, Nebraska, and tentatively Topeka, Kansas, St. Louis, Missouri, and Cincinnati, Ohio.

We are looking forward with a great deal of anticipation and pleasure to this trip among our Compatriots in these societies.

The primary purpose of these visitations to the various states is to find out what the National Society can do to be of greater assistance to the state societies and chapters. There are so many things to be done. We are attempting to pick out those things in which we can do the most good so as to make the state societies function more effectively.

Our increase in membership since the Congress in Atlantic City has been most satisfactory as will appear from the Secretary General's report and we are looking forward with great interest in the months to come to the "Golden Gate Marathon" contest in connection with the Congress at San Francisco next July.

The quality and character of the compatriots now being added to the roles of the Society are so outstanding that I foresee a great increase in the strength and effectiveness of our Society in the years to come. We welcome these compatriots, we invite them to participate in the activities of the Society and urge them to stand up as good Americans for the things which good Americans must stand for if our American way of life is to continue.

It is only proper that I should say to all of the compatriots that the strength of our Society depends upon our numbers and helping to increase our membership is going to give you a great deal of personal satisfaction in the years to come in the good works that our Society will accomplish.

There is a real inducement in the marathon membership contest for a great many of the younger men to get active in the work of obtaining new members. We need young men and I wish that every Society would stress their program so as to attract and interest the younger men. It is imperative that they be brought in so that in future years the Society may not only maintain its effectiveness but may increase in its strength and capacity. We must be strong for America and strength not only means increased numbers but also means increased dedication of every compatriot to the service of our Country.

The time when it is safe to be passive is past. You now must be militant in your stand for America. Let us insist upon the selection of candidates for public office who are not only qualified but who have character and who will disclose the true facts. It is my firm conviction that the American people are intelligent enough to accept the truth and to act wisely and seriously upon it. In these days when it seems to be a habit for politicians to give the citizen only a part of the facts, our Society should take the stand that we are entitled to the truth and anything less than the truth is not fulfilling the functions of the office to which these men are elected or appointed.

If we are going to have good government again we must have more men of real character in public office. They must have a feeling that waste is inexcusable and that untruthfulness is un-American. Most men in public life are honest and desire to do the right thing. The pressures of minority groups have become so heavy that many of them have compromised with principle to a dangerous degree. Let us encourage them and aid them in re-establishing a government according to the principles and ideals which made this country great and let us urge other men of character to hold themselves available for public office. Let us eliminate from public office all men who have proved themselves unworthy of the trust.

Our Society has always taken the position that our country comes first and party second. We are strictly non-partisan and for that reason we can say to a public office holder of any party that he should perform the duties of his office in all good conscience. No one of us has the right to deny to our children and our children's children the right to live in a free America and if we are going to preserve that freedom we must do something now. Let us each and everyone Stop and Think for the good of our country.

Sincerely yours,
WALLACE C. HALL,
President General.

SYRACUSE CHAPTER HONORS GEORGE N. CRAIG, NATIONAL COMMANDER AMERICAN LEGION

SAR Good Citizenship medal was presented, June 16th, 1950, by Compatriot Charles P. Morse of the Syracuse Chapter, who said: "The Sons of the American Revolution is a 100% patriotic organization, established 91 years ago, to honor God and Country and our Flag; to preserve our Republic untarnished, from Reds from without and Pinks from within."

PINE TREE EMBLEM

Dr. Hugh S. Gregory (at left), director of the Binghamton State Hospital, is pointing to a framed replica of the Massachusetts Pine Tree Flag that he presented to the Binghamton Chapter of the Sons of American Revolution. George Beers, chapter president, is looking at the flag which was made by the Occupational Therapy Department of the State Hospital. Embroidered on the flag is the emblem of a pine tree with 13 upcurving branches and bears the legend "An Appeal to Heaven." Its base is of white silk from an army parachute. Dr. Gregory explained the symbolism of the flag by remarking that Washington's Navy of six cruisers flew such a device in 1775.

SAR HONOR PIERSON ON CONSTITUTION DAY

Left to right in the picture above are the following: Rev. Dr. Harry L. Bowlby, Chaplain, and President of the David L. Pierson Historical Library Memorial Assn., Inc., Edgar Williamson, Jr., Secretary-General of the National Society, S.A.R.; Harry Havell, Trustee; Mrs. David L. Pierson; Gardner Osborn, Vice-President General; Russell George, President of Orange-Newark Chapter of the New Jersey Society; Ross Cook, Vice-President of the Association and Past-President of Orange Chapter.

At the ceremony Dr. Harry L. Bowlby, chaplain of the chapter, announced that Dr. Evald B. Lawson, president of Upsala College, had agreed that the College would be an appropriate place for the location of books, magazines, papers and other data already in hand and the volumes yet to be collected of the David Lawrence Pierson Historical Library Memorial Association, Inc. The agreement was made after talks with Dr. Lawson by Dr. Bowlby and Ross K. Cook, vice-president of the Memorial Association.

Gardner Osborn, National Vice-President General was the principal speaker at the Sunday observance, and Edgar Williamson, Jr. of East Orange, Secretary-General, brought greetings from the National Society in Washington. During the ceremony, Mrs. David L. Pierson, placed a wreath on her husband's grave. Russell George, president of the Orange-Newark chapter, presided.

FLORIDA SOCIETY HEARS JUDGE W. A. HERIN

(ED. NOTE) Judge William A. Herin of the Dade County Florida Circuit Court delivered the following remarks before the State Convention of the Sons of the American Revolution at Miami on April 22, 1950.

* * * *

Some cynic has said—"The only lesson one learns from history, is that no one learns any lessons from History!" But—

A LESSON FROM HISTORY?

ROBERT E. LEE: "It is history that teaches us to hope!"

The need of the world now is for Peace, but not for peace at any price. Those who toil daily in the United Nations Organization are committed to the establishment of a form of international order which requires principle as well as power. The Atlantic Charter and the United Nations form the point of departure from which future world order must be developed, just as our own Declaration of Independence and Continental Congress gave rise to our great American Constitution.

Many of us forget that this Country fought its first and most crucial war, the Revolutionary War, entirely without a Constitution, but under a form of government which, as Washington said, could "merely recommend and leave it to the States afterwards to do as they please . . . in many cases to do nothing at all." Of course, the Constitution was not adopted until after the Revolution, and even then it did not contain the Bill of rights. These guarantees, embodied in the first ten Amendments, were not incorporated into the Constitution until more than ten years after the Revolutionary War had ended.

As we scan the pages of history we see an almost unbroken procession of tyrants who have constituted themselves leaders of the vast majority of governments instituted among men, since the beginning of time. We in America have every reason to express our debt of gratitude to the great men whose forbearance and self-restraint gave us what is in truth the only revolutionary government in history; a government which boldly asserts that the well-springs of its power are in its people and not in its leaders, a government which gives both dignity and purpose to the life of the individual. These gifts are unknown to docile and servile hosts of mankind elsewhere on earth, whose sensibilities have been dulled and aspirations thwarted by the unrelieved oppression of tyrannical dictatorship through the ages.

ORDER

WILLIAM TEMPLE, late Archbishop of Canterbury, in "Christianity and Social Order": "We must relate together freedom and order. Order is to be valued as the basis of freedom; only in a well ordered society are the members of society really free. If the roads are beset by highwaymen we are not free to travel. Freedom is a finer thing than order, but order is more indispensable than freedom. If freedom is so developed as to turn into anarchy and chaos, men will always accept the alternative of tyranny in hope that order may be restored."

Our primary postwar task is to bring some form of order out of world chaos.

Only on this platform of order can a structure of liberty be built.

LIBERTY

LEARNED HAND, the greatest of our Federal Circuit Judges, says:

"The spirit of liberty is the spirit which is not too sure that it is right. The spirit of liberty is the spirit which seeks to understand the minds of other men and women.

"The spirit of liberty is the spirit which weighs their interests alongside its own without bias. The spirit of liberty remembers that not even a sparrow falls to earth unheeded.

"The spirit of liberty is the spirit of Him who, near 2,000 years ago, taught mankind that lesson it has never learned, but has never quite forgotten; that there may be a kingdom where the least shall be heard and considered side by side with the greatest."

Of our heritage of Liberty we can justly be proud. It is indeed a challenge to all governments everywhere today! First must come Life (Based on Order); then Liberty (Freedom); and finally THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS!

CINCINNATI TRIPLETS WIN SAR GOOD CITIZENSHIP CERTIFICATES

Left to right are Jerry, Norbert and Joseph Gilman, triplet pupils in Allison Street School, Norwood, Ohio, a Cincinnati suburb, being presented Good Citizenship Certificates by Theodore White, president of the Cincinnati Chapter, Ohio, Society, Sons of the American Revolution. Similar Certificates were presented this spring by the Chapter to 214 eighth-grade pupils in 130 public and parochial schools in Hamilton County.

The annual awards are presented to one or two outstanding pupils in each school in recognition of qualities of "dependability, cooperation, leadership, patriotism and cleanliness in speech and habits." The selections are made by student vote, and at the Allison Street School, the pupils voted almost unanimously for the Gilman triplets. Whereupon, Chapter officers wisely decided to award each a certificate.

Under the energetic chairmanship of Compatriot John F. Locke, the Good Citizenship Committee Chapter has expanded the awarding of certificates during the last two years from pupils in a few schools to the present large number.

LETTER OF TRIBUTE TO JAMES W. WADSWORTH

DEAR EDITOR:

I am delighted to learn that Senator James W. Wadsworth has accepted the chairmanship of our committee on Americanism and will lead a movement to unite all American minded groups in an effort to restore and perpetuate the basic individual liberty on which this government was founded and which the constitution was designed to protect.

Throughout a long public career Compatriot Wadsworth has fought for this freedom as has his forbears since early colonial days. Political perferment, success or defeat in political life have been secondary to him in his efforts to maintain the constitution in the spirit in which it was formed.

I have known Senator Wadsworth for over forty years. As a minor officer in the educational work, I knew him better than he knew me. He was the member of the Assembly from Livingston county and later the Speaker of the Assembly, all while still under thirty years of age. I greatly admired his independent and forceful attitude on all public matters. He always hewed to the tried and proven American way of life and let the chips fall where they may. Later I followed his career in the United States senate and worked with him in his fight against Prohibition. We were facing a serious problem in the liquor traffic. He knew this. We all knew it and some restriction was necessary, but the 18th Amendment went so far that it infringed on individual liberty the foundation of our governmental structure. There was a time in that fight when the slightest concession on the Senator's part would have insured his re-election to the Senate. He was a statesman not a politician. Defeat was preferable to violation of principle. Prohibition is gone by vote of the people and we lost the opportunity to enact sound control. His record in the Congress since gears the same imprint of devotion to the constitution.

As a young man I was Principal of a school in Western New York and became a delegate to the convention for nomination of a member of Congress. The question was on the re-nomination of the father of the Senator Major James W. Wadsworth Sr., who had been member of Congress many years and had introduced a measure permitting the sale of oleomargarine. This brought the opposition of dairy farmers who made butter. A committee urged Major Wadsworth to "trim" on his position in the oleo legislation. They argued that it was against the interest of the farmers, the party and his own interest as he was the largest farmer in the district. His reply was in substance, "Boys, I do not trim. Oleo is not equal to butter as a food but is it a wholesome, farm grown product and the poorer people want it at the lesser price and they are going to get it. Go home and beat me if you want to." They did this. Oleo is still sold and in the present session of Congress James W. Wadsworth voted to repeal the tax on oleo.

I must go back more generations to show the inherent allegiance of the Wadsworth family to the American Ideal. My fathers brother recently died in his one hundred and first year. For over eighty years he carried a badly maimed left arm, the result of a wound received in the battle of the wilderness while fighting under General James S. Wadsworth, the Senator's grandfather. The General was killed the same day while leading his troops in a fight for the liberty of the slaves. Uncle Lot has often told me the story of that battle and the General's death, a story that he always finished in the vernacular of his day. "Freddy, we fit for the constitution." The constitution still stands.

There was a General Wadsworth who commanded the militia of Western New York in the war of 1812. He was one of two brothers who came from Connecticut in 1790. They came up the Mohawk to Rome and from there hewed their way through an unbroken forest 104 miles to Avon and the lands that they had purchased. This road was known as the Wadsworth road and five years later was widened and improved by Col. Stevens under support of the legislature and Governor Clinton into the Great Genesee Turnpike. In developing this estate the Wadsworths imported pure bred merino sheep and loaned the rams to other farmers thus doing their part in developing civilization as well as their estate.

Four Wadsworths and other ancestors of the Senator served as officers in the continental army and before that were leaders of public thought in Connecticut. Capt Joseph Wadsworth and other officers were present when Sir Edmund Andros, in the name of the King demanded the surrender of the charter of Connecticut. They handed Sir Edmund the charter, as commanded and it lay on the table. It was a windy night, the doors and windows were suddenly opened, the candles went out and before they could be relighted Capt. Wadsworth had taken the charter to the Wylie estate next door and hid it in an oak tree, an act that made even the old oak famous in our history. That charter is now the basis of the Connecticut constitution.

Senator Wadsworth is a real farmer. He knows every acre of the estate. I was with him when he built an oat bin and again when in his old clothes and with a heavy jug he went to drench his sheep. I am sure that his inclination would have been to spend his life on the land and in the home that he loves instead of public service but here he followed the line of duty.

Now he has retired from public service but at the call of public duty to our country, he again comes to the front, realizing that the constitution, as we know it, is in danger, that the liberties that have made this the happiest and most progressive people in the world are being undermined at home and attacked from abroad. Every one that loves American institutions must stand with him now.

Sincerely yours,

FREDERICK R. STEVENS
Empire State Society
Americanism Committee

Editor's note: The following letter has been received with a request for comments from S.A.R. members)

Mr. Channing R. Dooley, President
Passaic Valley Chapter, S.A.R.
41 Oakland Place
Summit, New Jersey

DEAR MR. DOOLEY:

As you may know, Mr. Bishop induced me to join the local chapter when I told him that I thought the S.A.R. should become an active defender of any American citizen whose constitutional rights were being attacked by government or by organizations whose resources could readily overpower the person being attacked. I have now come to the conclusion that recent events point up the validity of my proposal and therefore am formally presenting it in this letter.

My proposal is that the S.A.R. adopt the policy of organizing and financing the defense in the courts of any American citizen, regardless of race, creed or color, whether or not a member of the S.A.R., who is being attacked as a result of his or her exercising of his Constitutional rights, the choice of what cases to assist to rest solely in the discretion of a properly appointed S.A.R. committee.

The case of Mrs. John T. McCullough is now in the courts and were it not for help obtained through an interested columnist she apparently would not have had any means to finance the costly defense of the suit against her. The case of Joe Dickmon, "Punished for Trying to Exercise Right to Speak in Free America" to quote from David Lawrence's column in the New York Herald Tribune of April 26, 1950 is one where the S.A.R. should have defended him, I do believe. If such attacks can be made on citizens by governmental or other organizations of vast means, knowing that there is no truly American citizens group willing to jump to their defense in behalf of all citizens, then our Constitutional rights will be there in name only for fear will effectually prevent others from likewise relying on them. As David Lawrence wrote, "None of the so-called Liberal organizations active in promoting civil rights took up Dickmon's plight"; and so all union men know they had better not dare criticize their leaders.

On the other hand it was reported that the costs for defending the eleven accused as Communists in the case recently before Judge Medina, ran to $5,000 per day and apparently there is ample financing available for citizens in the left or liberal factions to help them out of legal difficulties.

If the S.A.R. would adopt this proposed policy I believe the members of the organization would be honoring their ancestors in the most effective manner, for in effect it would be carrying forward their fight against tyranny. Such a policy would give the members a fine reason for aiding the organization to be a greater power for good in the Nation.

Sincerely yours,

WADSWORTH W. MOUNT

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE F B I

The grave events of the past few months have awakened in many a new appreciation of the values of our democratic traditions, and have shown the world that the free people of this nation are determined to preserve the American way of life.

We all know that every citizen of this country has a tremendous stake in the future, and we must all be prepared to do everything in our power to insure the triumph of the forces of law and order. We must stand firmly together against those who seek to destroy the work of our forefathers.

I am convinced that the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution will, as they have in the past, take every possible step to secure our freedom. We of the FBI are charged by Presidential directive with the responsibility of protecting the internal security of this nation, and I would like to stress the desirability of prompt referral of all matters of possible interest directly to our nearest field office for investigation.

I know that we can count on the members of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

JOHN EDGAR HOOVER
Director

The above committee of the General Andrew Lewis Chapter, Huntington, W. Va. are raising $14,000 among their membership to purchase and turn over to the Boy Scouts of Huntington and vicinity a campsite of 240 acres to be developed for use by Boy Scouts in 9 counties of Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia, known as the Tri-State Area. This is perhaps the first project of this kind by an S.A.R. Chapter and the General Andrew Lewis Chapter is to be congratulated on setting a pace for others to follow. The Committee left to right are Edmond H. Long, Dr. Walter E. Vest, Buford C. Tynes, Carl R. Varnum, Col. J. H. Long, Hugh S. Daniel, and Clyde B. Pinson. Not in the picture are P. O. Duncan and Will Daniels.

SAR Aids On Boy Scout Camp Drive

Convinced that the nation's welfare and preservation of its patriotic principles rests largely with youth, the Sons of the American Revolution have dedicated themselves to a program of aiding the Boy Scout movement, it was announced here recently.

The program, leaders of General Andrew Lewis Chapter of Huntington said, will be pursued on a local, state and national level. Decision to cooperate with scouting was reached at the National Congress of the SAR at Jacksonville, Fla.

General Andrew Lewis Chapter of Huntington is the first chapter in the country to give practical expression to the new policy.

The Chapter has announced it will purchase and give to the Boy Scouts of the Tri-State Area a year-round camp site.

"Funds for buying the site will be raised among the members of General Andrew Lewis Chapter and other chapters," it was explained by President Clyde A. Wellman of General Andrew Lewis chapter.

"The project for buying the camp site will be confined to the Sons of the American Revolution. There is no intention of asking anyone outside the SAR for contributions. The members of the SAR feel that outside solicitation would conflict with the Huntington Community Chest and similar civic movements."

The committee consists of Carl R. Varnum, chairman, Frank H. Tomkies, M. W. Dugan, George N. Biggs and H. S. Daniel. All have been prominently identified with the SAR for years. Much of the fund-raising work will be carried on by correspondence, as some of the local chapter's 150 or more members live at a distance from Huntington.

The camp site to be purchased is a 218-acre tract located on the Mud River north of U. S. route 60 a short distance from Blue Sulphur Springs.

General Andrew Lewis Chapter, at the time of negotiating an option on the land, paid Azel Meadows, the owner, $1,000. A payment of $3,000 more will be made six months after the buyers take title, another $3,000 payment will be made six months subsequently, and a third $3,000 will be paid within 18 months. Also, an existing indebtedness of $4,000 will be paid off.

General Andrew Lewis Chapter has fixed a goal of $12,000 for its fund raising campaign.

The camp site was chosen by an SAR committee after inspection of numerous available sites, and the one selected was deemed the best. National officials of the Boy Scouts viewed the site and pronounced it satisfactory.

The site selection committee consisted of Edward H. Long, past president of General Andrew Lewis Chapter; Dr. Walter E. Vest, Buford C. Tynes, Carl R. Varnum, Colonel J. H. Long, Hugh Daniel, Clyde B. Pinson and P. O. Duncan.

Exercise of General Andrew Lewis Chapter's option to buy was made contingent upon proof that the site had an adequate supply of safe, pure water. A test well was drilled under the supervision of the National Council of Boy Scouts. The flow of water was found to be ample and chemical analysis showed the water to be pure and safe.

Judge H. Clay Warth, a member of the executive board of the Tri-State Area Council of Boy Scouts, and also a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, said that announcement of the General Andrew Lewis Chapter project to buy the camp site has encouraged the Boy Scout movement in the tri-state area.

He explained that the camp site project will cease to be that of the Sons of the American Revolution when the site, fully paid for by the SAR, is turned over to the Tri-State Area Boy Scout Council.

"The responsibility for developing the camp will be that of the Boy Scouts," Judge Warth said. "The site will be deeded to the Tri-State Area Boy Scout Council in perpetuity, and in a form insuring against future encumbrance. The land will be forever a camp site and outdoor recreation ground for Boy Scouts."

THE STAMP WHICH CAUSED THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

While this subject refers to the cause of the American Colonial uprising or the revolution against the revenue act of Great Britain passed in the year 1765 this article is really about the stamp which exemplified the taxation imposed on the Colonies in that part of North America now known as the United States.

Before actually writing about this stamp or why it was issued it might be well to start with certain events which led up to it.

In the year 1755 Great Britain levied by act of their Parliament a tax on the American Colonies. This tax was of varying amounts on deeds, bills of lading, probate of wills, mortgages, foreign and inland exchange, power of attorney, promissory notes, insurance policies, bonds, protests, etc. Documentary stamps were attached to each document as the tax was paid. These stamps were not as we generally know stamps to be, that is separate pieces of printed paper with gummed backs and attached to documents by wetting but were impression stamps imprinted on the document in the manner of notary public seals.

The Colonies were small and not too well organized collectively and did not have representation in the British Parliament. They may have, no doubt did pay this tax though they had no voice in setting the amounts of each taxable item or any other details regarding collection, etc. This tax was for a ten year period so in 1765 it became necessary to enact new legislation.

This time the Colonies not only desired to have their own representatives in the British Parliament but insisted upon it, only to be denied this right. The Parliament proceeded to enact this new legislative act and the American Colonies were again taxed without the right of protest. This documentary tax was as it implies and not in itself a tax on imported commodities. The famous Boston Tea Party was the first overt act of the Colonies against the dominance of Great Britain and what the Colonists justly thought an unfair tax.

These stamps of 1765 are sometimes called the Tea Tax stamps but this is incorrect. The import tax should not be confused with the documentary tax and stamps were not in use at that period of our country on anything taxable except documents. The British tax on tea and other imports was not passed until 1767.

This new documentary tax of 1765 on the Colonies was represented by an adhesive stamp about one and five eighths inches square, stamped, impressed or more correctly, embossed on a separate piece of coarse heavy dark greenish blue paper in the same manner as the 1755 issue. The design was somewhat in the shape of a shield with a five petal flower in a circle with a crown above. Above this was the word America. On each side was a branch design and the amount of the tax at the bottom. Around the center circle was the inscription "Honi-Soit-Qui-Mal-Y-Pense."

The British Government may have experienced trouble with forgeries of their stamps even in those days as they did something to these stamps which indicated they were afraid someone would try and duplicate them. About in the center of each stamp two parallel cuts were made about one eighth of an inch apart and three eighths of an inch long. Into these slits was inserted a small piece of lead or tin foil and then the impression was made. There is still another theory possibly the correct one that the inserting of the foil was to fasten the stamp to the document. This foil is not very stiff and they may still have had to use some glue or paste. It is hardly likely that the stamps were backed with glue and they were more than likely glued or pasted onto the document and then the impression made through stamp and document at the same time. These facts as far as the writer knows have not been authenticated however it is of little moment. The 1765 revenue act called for eighteen denominations but not over seven or eight varieties have been seen by anyone living today.

The representative of Great Britain, tax collector or "Stamp Master" as he was actually called would attach the embossed stamp to the respective document when the tax was paid. However these men who were supposed to administer the collection of these taxes were forced in nearly all the Colonies to resign and had to take an oath that they would never carry out the duties of their office.

As the writer has seen but one copy of the 2 Shilling 6 Pence stamp, namely the one he owns and has never seen any of the other denominations he is not able to determine whether these stamps were attached to the document before imprinting or embossing was made or after being attached.

It is assumed that some people paid their taxes but probably very few as the Colonists were so upset over being denied representation in the British Parliament that agitation was prevalent to secede from British rule and form their own government.

Florida being under military government at this time it is possible that some stamps were used there but very probably in none of the other Colonies. In most of the other Colonies ships from England

CINCINNATI CHAPTER SAR FLAG DAY OBSERVANCE

The Cincinnati Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution held one of its most enthusiastic and best attended celebrations of Flag Day, in its history, at the Hyde Park Country Club, June 24. The speaker of the day was former Governor Myers Y. Cooper of Ohio and member of the Cincinnati Chapter, who has been a leader in the promotion of Americanism which is so well exemplified in the program of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The former Governor had just returned from Los Angeles, California, where he delivered the principal address at a State Convention of Exchange Clubs on the subject "The Preservation of American Ideals and Institutions."

Ex-Governor Cooper was elected Governor of Ohio in the fall of 1928 and retired in 1931 and has been constantly in demand as a speaker on social, economic and political questions. His Administration was characterized by many constructive reforms, including an honest election law, rigid law enforcement, aid to education, elimination of waste and extravagance in the public service, and a sound administrative program to combat a nation-wide depression.

It is interesting to note that a book just off the press by Dr. Harvey Walker of the Political Science Department of Ohio State University, entitled "Constructive Government in Ohio," largely relates Governor Cooper's administration and is attracting wide attention from students of government.

The former Governor is Chairman of the Board of The Myers Y. Cooper Company, an important real estate and home building organization, President of the Norwood-Hyde Park Bank and Trust Company, two lumber companies, and either president or director in numerous other business organizations. He is a trustee of Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tennessee, and Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio, Vice Chairman of Bethesda Hospital, Cincinnati, President of the Hamilton County Agricultural Society, Member of the Hoover Committee and Vice Chairman of the Ohio Program Commission or Small Hoover Commission, to explore ways and means of securing better government at less cost in the State of Ohio. He is a Past President of the National Exchange Club, an important service organization in America.

In his remarks at the Flag Day celebration, he said in part:

"On an occasion such as this all are willing and anxious to stand up and be counted.

This great organization, the Sons of the American Revolution, has a very close relationship to the day we pay tribute to our flag, the Stars and Stripes, symbol of freedom and guardian of the rights of mankind.

"Our flag, which has inspired men to give their last devotion of service, today proudly waves as a symbol of individual freedom and a reminder of the sacrifices made in our behalf, on the part of those engaged in the American Revolution.

"The flag has been described 'as beautiful as a flower to those who love it; terrible as a meteor to those who hate it; it is the symbol of the power, the glory and the honor of millions of Americans.'

"Our forebears who fought, many of whom died in that struggle to bring forth a new nation, dedicated to the divine rights of man, left a heritage which every generation must fight to preserve if they are to remain free.

"We must stand firm to prevent the destruction of individual liberty and to banish forever the principles of the divine right of a single individual to enslave the American people.

"It was Lincoln who said, 'Nowhere in all the world is presented a Government of so much liberty and equality as our own.'

"Our forebears came to America, seeking freedom and opportunity, knowing full well there could be no opportunity without freedom.

"And the concern today, which has become a very real issue before the American people, is that the constructive forces in our land that have moved steadily forward since the founding of our Republic, shall not be destroyed by the subversive action of disloyal propagandists.

"John Marshall said, 'The supporters of the Constitution claim the title of being firm friends of the liberty and the rights of mankind.'

"Our forebears made it clear that 'with such a pattern they would be able to protect liberty, that they idolize democracy, while the opposition eulogizes monarchy.'

"It is well to remember that this new conception of government, did not grow out of any particular system. The Framers examined in great detail benefits in existing governments, and they were careful to omit any and all objectionable features that would hamper growth and narrow the scope of freedom, in the establishment of a government built on the eternal principle of the right of the people to rule.

"And so a great purpose was accomplished to bring forth as nearly a perfect plan as humanly possible wrought out of the experiences of the past, the needs of the present, and to advance the opportunities for the future.

"Let it be remembered always that the blessings which have been handed down from generation to generation, since the Declaration was adopted, and as a result of Constitutional Guarantees form the very essence of our progress as a nation.

"In the preamble of the Constitution it is set forth 'We the people do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.' It was not established for any special group or for special privilege but it was for all the people, for their welfare, to establish justice, to secure the blessings of liberty, to ourselves and our posterity.

"It was my great privilege to conduct the second largest foreign-born class into American citizenship in the City of Cleveland, during my term as Governor of Ohio. The number approximated 4,000 people of many nationalities. The largest class inducted was in Philadelphia by Woodrow Wilson, then President of the United States.

"Let me tell you that I never had such appreciation of what it meant to be an American with all the rights, privileges and blessings which we enjoy and which we all too frequently take for granted as I did on that memorable occasion. Here they were from probably 15 foreign countries, taking the Oath of Allegiance with tears streaming down their faces as they kissed the American flag, symbol of the rights of man and the fear of God.

"And yet we are constantly confronted with disloyalty even of some American born who find nothing good in our form of government and who are quite willing to join up with subversive influences from abroad to substitute foreign 'isms' that would narrow if not altogether destroy the rights, privileges and opportunities of a free people.

"Let me say, if we are to have an America of freedom, progress and happiness, then we have got to get back to constitutional government, putting a stop to bureaucratic controls that have little in common with the American pattern of Government and prudent spending of the taxpayers' dollar.

"Our forebears came here seeking freedom, opportunity and security—not the kind of security that depends on government hand-outs, but security that comes as a result of the encouragement of men to work, achieve and put more into industry's storehouse than they take out.

"Twenty-nine million people apparently are not very much concerned about their government since they did not vote at the last general election, many of whom complained after it was all over, because 'a lucky man' was elected President of the United States. It is estimated that fifty percent of this number were men of affairs and not those whom you might expect to be indifferent.

"Somehow, all too many people seem to think that good government simply happens, but it is well to remember that only eternal vigilance and the assumption of individual responsibility will insure the kind of government necessary for their safety and security.

"No one can be insensible to a menacing situation confronting peace loving peoples throughout the world. America demobilized her armed forces at the conclusion of the war and trustfully went home assuming that peace was won, while Russia remained at the front line armed to the teeth confronting the nations of the world with a power-mad program more vicious than the purpose of the conquered foe.

"It was hard for our statesmen to realize that Russia at the brink of disaster, saved by America, would come out of the conflict with such distrust of a loyal ally as she has evidenced since the war ended.

"That America took too much for granted in the making of bad trades at (Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam) is now quite clear. It has kept us in the throes of preparation for a third world war making it necessary to ready ourselves for defense against a nation whose agreements amounted to a scrap of paper.

"With a disturbed condition existing throughout the world that menaces every inch of soil trod by free men, it is perfectly evident that if we are to preserve our freedom we must be good and ready for any eventuality.

"I have outlined to you the importance of holding fast to a pattern of government ruled by the people and which is so closely identified with the spirit of man, a conception based not upon birth, not upon race, not upon religion, but upon a man's real worth as expressed in his patriotism, character and loyalty, and his desire to be helpful to society. When you realize this fact with its tremendous implications, you have found the key that unlocks the mystery of the American way of life.

"The American pattern of government has been hammered out on the anvil of noble resolves and strong determination for the good of mankind, beckoning persecuted and downtrodden people of every creed, race and nationality to come here and become as one people—Americans. It is well to never forget that every age must win its own way by fighting for the preservation of opportunity and freedom.

"America loves peace and hates war and will make any sacrifice that the peace of the world shall be permanently established and maintained.

"We hear a good many people complain about everything these days which leads me to say that they need to study something of the spirit, the faith, the sacrifice and the courage of those who brought our great nation into being and who recognized that there were some things above material values—things of the spirit—the rights of man to live in peace and the duty to make whatever contribution may be necessary to the happiness and well being of the people.

"It is a habit of the American people to have faith in their government and its future, and I say to you today as we celebrate the meaning of our glorious flag to all of us and what it will mean to our children and our children's children, our country's best days are ahead provided we preserve our liberty by standing united to preserve the American way of life."

bearing these tax stamps were not allowed to land, in some Colonies the stamps were entirely destroyed. As a very few stamps were used on ships' documents therefore very few copies escaped to be preserved.

The above picture of the 2 Shilling 6 Pence stamp is one of these genuine stamps issued by Great Britain in 1765. This stamp has been handed down thru the family of the writer from an ancestor who lived in Boston at the time of the American Revolution. There may be other copies in existence but the writer has never seen another nor does he know of anyone who may own one or even a museum or institution to have a copy. Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D. C. was reported to have a copy but upon investigation it was learned they had none. To say the least these stamps are very rare both from the standpoint of a collector and historically.

The writer would be happy to learn of any of the stamps of both issues in existence and the names of their owners. As a matter of general interest it might be nice to have a list of all known copies.

THE GENOCIDE CONVENTION

By Compatriot H. C. Shaw

This message is prompted by an abiding conviction that every Compatriot is imbued with a firm and enduring passion to help maintain and preserve the peace and freedom for which our forefathers so persistently and gallantly fought. It is, of course, impossible to cover adequately, in limited space, a subject fraught with all of the angles and ramifications of the proposed Genocide Convention now being considered by a sub-committee of the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate. Therefore it is hoped that sufficient interest will be created in relation to this subject, so vital to our future welfare and happiness, that every compatriot will obtain immediately copies of publications by eminent, reliable, national and international legal authorities which will be mentioned here later.

Genocide is the crime of race killing. No decent, humane person would approve or tolerate it. The word was coined by Raphael Lemkin who has exerted supreme efforts for years to drive this monstrosity from the face of the Earth. The word is derived from the Greek "genos" which means nation or race, and the Latin "caedere" which means kill. The derivation is mentioned here so that readers may fully realize later that the proposed Genocide Convention does not approach in the smallest degree the meaning of the word. Unquestionably, genocide is an abomination but it cannot be controlled or eliminated through the medium of another abomination. Any act which strikes at the fundamentals and principles of our Constitution and Bill of Rights should not be encouraged or tolerated.

It is well to keep in mind the fact that the Genocide Convention is a treaty and Article VI of the Constitution of the United States reads: "This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding."

It will be realized at once that whatever is written in this Genocide Convention treaty and ratified by the United States Senate will become the law of this land and take precedence over our state laws. Reliable legal authorities claim that this treaty could bring a citizen of this country before an international tribunal in some other country for alleged illegal genocide acts, such as causing mental harm to a group or a member of a group, even if the act was alleged to have been committed in this country. This method of punishing the Colonists was one of the essentials of complaint against King George III in our Declaration of Independence; "for transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses." When our illustrious and fearless forefathers had won liberty they put into the Bill of Rights; "In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and District wherein the crime shall have been committed." Who dares to say that our words and acts shall be subject to foreign, "standards of interpretation?"

Article I of the Genocide Convention states, "that genocide, whether committed in time of peace or in time of war, is a crime under international law which they undertake to prevent and to punish."

Article II reads; "In the present convention, genocide means any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such: (a) Killing members of the group; (b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; (c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part; (d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group; (e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group.

There is not one word in the Genocide Convention which denounces mass killing by governments. To prevent such killing should be the reason for the existence of any legal procedure of this character and such procedure should not in any way compromise or alter our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

On September 1, 1949 the following resolutions of the Special Committee of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association were adopted.

Be it resolved, that it is the sense of the American Bar Association that the conscience of America like that of the civilized world revolts against Genocide (mass killing and destruction of peoples); that such acts are contrary to the moral law and are abhorrent to all who have a proper and decent regard for the dignity of human beings, regardless of the national, ethnical, racial, religious or political groups to which they belong; that Genocide as thus understood should have the constant opposition of the government of the United States and all of its people.

Be it further resolved, that the suppression and punishment of Genocide under an international convention to which it is proposed the United States shall be a party involves important constitutional questions; that the proposed convention raises important fundamental questions but does not resolve them in a manner consistent with our form of Government.

Therefore, be it resolved, that the convention on Genocide now before the United States Senate be not approved as submitted.

Many able and experienced students of international law are agreed that the present Genocide Convention should not be ratified by the United States Senate—men of the character and ability of Mr. Frank E. Holman, Mr. Carl B. Rix, both former Presidents of the American Bar Association, Mr. George A. Finch, Editor-in-Chief of the American Journal of International Law and a Professor of International Law; Mr. Alfred J. Schweppe, Chairman of the American Bar Association's Committee on Peace and Law Through United Nations, Mr. Frank W. Grinnell, Secretary, Massachusetts Bar Association and many others.

It is recommended that every compatriot immediately get and study the, "Report of Special Committee on Peace and Law Through United Nations," of September 1, 1949. Copies may be obtained through your local Bar Association; the Secretary of your State Bar Association or through the American Bar Association's office at 1140 North Dearborn St., Chicago 10, Illinois. Also get from the same source a copy of the printed statements presented at hearings before the subcommittee of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate of the United States in opposition to ratification of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, as submitted.

When convinced that the Convention now being considered by the sub-committee of the United States Senate should not be ratified it would be advisable to so advise your United States Senators.

D.A.R. MESSAGE

As President General of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, it is a very real pleasure to greet the members of the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution, through the medium of your splendid Magazine.

For over sixty years our two organizations have worked for similar objectives, and in strength and cooperation there is power.

Never in the history of our National Societies have we faced more responsibilities than in this crucial period of world tension. Dangers to our American Way of Life confront us from within and from without our borders. Subversive elements are infiltrating into all strata of life, and we must be constantly on our guard against every form of subtle propaganda. We must preserve our freedoms.

Our members should be so well informed on the various phases of Communistic and Socialistic propaganda that we may be able to warn others against their insidious attacks. Especially should we be alert as to the patriotism of the teachers who are entrusted with the education of our youth.

Even with atomic weapons, America would be weak without the spirit and the faith of the men and women who founded our villages, towns and cities. To carry the burdens and privileges of leadership which now rest upon us we need today this same spirit of strength and faith in large measure.

Ours must be the true American tradition, with its love of liberty and its practice of human brotherhood. Freedom is the most precious heritage of America. Let us resolve to guard it with eternal vigilance.

Particularly, because of our personal obligations as direct descendants of the Revolutionary soldiers and patriots who won our national liberty by their courage and self-sacrifice and established our Constitutional form of government with their rare vision and wisdom, we, as members of our two great patriotic organizations, should continue to strive, unselfishly, fearlessly and unitedly, for the eternal principles of liberty and democracy.

161ST ANNIVERSARY OF BILL OF RIGHTS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED AT BIRTHPLACE, SUB-TREASURY BLDG.

The observance of the Bill of Rights Birthday was organized by Past President Messmore Kendall, President of the Bill of Rights Commemorative Society; Compatriot Clement D. Asbury, member of the board of managers of the Empire State Society, and Past Commander of the Wall Street Post of the American Legion; and Ye Editor, Gardner Osborn.

The Bill of Rights Gold Medal of the American Legion was received by Major General Frederick Osborn, New York City Chairman of The Crusade for Freedom, on behalf of that organization. The Gold Medal is now in Berlin on permanent display with the famous Crusade Liberty Bell there unveiled by General Lucius Clay. Wounded veterans from the Korean Battlefields were honored guests on the program.

Strong For America

Our Society Launches Nationwide Program

At the meeting of Trustees, Executive Committee, State Presidents and Secretaries in Washington on October 16, Clarence E. Shriner, Chairman of the Organization Committee outlined the "STRONG FOR AMERICA" Campaign starting November 1, 1950 and terminating March 31, 1951. Copies of the material have been sent to all National Officers, Trustees, Executive Committee Members, State Presidents and Secretaries and Chapter Presidents and Secretaries. Compatriot Shriner states that his office is deluged with mail and that he is appreciative of the fine support being given this patriotic program. He advises that he intends to answer each letter as fast as he can. The fine response being given by our Compatriots shows what the combined strength of our Society can do in performing an important service to our country.

When speaking about the program at Washington, Compatriot Shriner stated the purpose of the campaign as follows:

"In these days of world unrest when our country is being challenged as never before since the days of our founding fathers it is important that we, their descendants, assume a leading role in the protection of the vital principles which they established. Indeed, we must not only protect but we must also become vigorously alert in seeing that people understand these principles and are willing to stand up for them against all attacks. It is a well known fact that resolutions avail little unless backed by a strong and active membership putting into operation a plan of action in every community in America.

"The Communist menace is not confined to any special locality but is nationwide and world-wide in its scope. The Communist objective is to permeate our national life and bid against our free way of life for the minds of our people. If they succeed in changing enough minds our American way of life is doomed.

"The best antidote for such poisonous infiltration as it concerns our Society is as follows:

1. GREATLY EXPAND OUR MEMBERSHIP. We must have more members of our Society permeating our national life and giving vigorous support by word, deed and action to the strengthening of our American ideals.

2. GIVE GREATER VOICE TO THE OBJECTIVES OF OUR SOCIETY. Basically our objective is to have a strong, patriotic citizenship, steeped in the American tradition and with a deep sense of their responsibilities and privileges in our American society. But just saying this will not bring it about. It will take planning, work and energy. The stakes are high and we must meet the challenge.

3. CARRY OUT A VIGOROUS PROGRAM OF ACTION. We have plenty of activities in our Society which if properly used will provide the means for strengthening our American way of life. Let's look at three opportunities:

A. Good Citizenship Awards. An excellent opportunity to impress the value of good citizenship upon the minds of our young people and to recognize adults who have made outstanding contributions in this field. Greatly expand the use of this program and present the awards with dignity and ceremony.

B. Boy Scout Cooperation. Get behind this organization which is doing so much to train our youth in American principles and ideals. Scouting is active in every nook and cranny of America. Just recently 47,000 of these lads in their great Jamboree at Valley Forge stood on that hallowed ground and rededicated themselves to American ideals and principles. There is plenty that every chapter and individual can do to help expand the Scouting program among the youth of our land.

C. Historical Speaking Program. Think of this as more than just a "speaking contest." Think what it will mean if we can get widespread participation of high school youth locally, then state-wide and then nationally. Think of the effect of hundreds of youth delving into significant events in early American history and preparing their talks. The very act of speaking sells them more completely on America. The process of preparation also influences all who help them — parents, teachers, other students, the school leaders. Those who hear the final talks locally, state-wide and nationally, are impressed. And so the circle of influence widens.

In this connection it is recommended that every member read the Bill of Grievances, our petition to the Congress of the United States, for an investigation of subversive textbooks.

"There are many other avenues but these three demonstrate the possibilities already inherent in our program, if used.

"Of course, the doing of these things on a wide scale will cost a little money. But this is incidental compared to the larger good. Three thousand Continental soldiers died of hunger and privation at Valley Forge in order that the light of liberty might be kept burning. Thousands since then have given their lives in the same cause. Beside these sacrifices the call for a few dollars to carry on a vigorous patriotic program at home fades into insignificance.

"After a survey of the job to be done for America and the responsibility of our Society in the doing thereof your Organization Committee has reached the conclusion that we must build our own strength as quickly as possible. So we are in a very real sense, issuing a "Call to Service" to all Compatriots to mobilize our manpower and financial resources for a "STRONG FOR AMERICA" campaign of rededication and enrollment.

"Our objective is to 'Strengthen ourselves in order to strengthen America.' So we launch our most ambitious membership program."

National, District, State and Chapter Organization Teams are now being organized. In cooperation with the Daughters of the American Revolution, chap-

1951 CONGRESS SET FOR SAN FRANCISCO

On July 8, 9, 10, 11, the Sixty-First Annual Congress of the Sons of the American Revolution will convene at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco beside the Golden Gate. Although "there are ten gold suns in California while other lands have but one, for the Golden Gate must have due light and persimmons be well done," an average temperature of about 62 degrees with a humidity of about 30 is forecast by the San Francisco Weather Bureau, according to Wheaton H. Brewer, member of the National Executive Committee and General Chairman of the convention.

Details will soon be available on the proposed special train which will run from Chicago to San Francisco and return by way of the Pacific Northwest. Departure of the train is planned, at present, for the night of July 5th, with at least one stop-over en route at Salt Lake City where the Utah Society plans special attractions for the delegates.

The St. Francis Hotel, located on Union Square in the very heart of San Francisco and looking out on the famous Powell Street Cable Car line, is surrounded by all types of hotel accommodations that may be desired.

The next issue of the Quarterly will carry information as to advance reservations together with available hotel rates. Indications gathered at the last meeting of the Board of Trustees in Washington are for an all-time high turnout for this combination of business and pleasure under the guidance of President General Wallace C. Hall. For early reservation blanks, write to H. Lewis Mathewson, Chairman of Reservations and Arrangements, Sons of the American Revolution, 926 DeYoung Building, San Francisco, and application blanks will be returned for filling out promptly.

The California Society and the other Pacific States Societies are bubbling with enthusiasm at the opportunity to show our Eastern compatriots the sights and scenes of the fabulous West.

If you plan to wander very far afield from San Francisco, bring light summer clothing as well as the equipment for San Francisco's cool, fog-conditioned summer climate.

ters are listing prospective members of our society. Prospective new chapter organization is being listed in every state. Inactive chapters are being brought back to life. Every part of our society is getting back of this campaign. It is reasonable to expect, that with such activity and teamwork all down the line, at least 5000 new members can be added by next March 31.

The Washington birthday programs by chapter and state societies will be in the nature of a rededication built around the theme "STRONG FOR AMERICA." Think of the tremendous effect of such a simultaneous program throughout America featuring outstanding men speaking on this theme.

Recognitions will be provided for Compatriots, Chapters, States and Districts which achieve results. One night of the National Congress at San Francisco in July 1951 will be given over to recognitions. It is hoped that on this occasion many awards will be presented. It should be a great occasion.

The campaign is off to an excellent start. It is perhaps the greatest effort which our society has undertaken in recent years to build strength for America. With every Compatriot doing his part in this big patriotic enterprise, our Society can rise to new heights of glorious service to our country in, what may perhaps be, its hour of greatest need.

GOLDEN GATE MARATHON

As part of the STRONG FOR AMERICA campaign, in order to recognize achievement and in recognition of the fact that the 1951 Congress will be held in San Francisco a "GOLDEN GATE MARATHON" will be held terminating on March 31, 1951. In this Marathon, awards will be made as follows:

- A. A first award to consist of a round trip railroad and Pullman trip for the winning Compatriot and his wife to the 1951 National Congress in San Francisco, California. The award to be based upon cost from East of the Mississippi River or the equivalent in cash if desired.
- B. Five $100.00 awards to the five Compatriots in the Society who enroll the next largest number of new members. It is suggested that the winners utilize these awards to partially defray their expenses to the 1951 Congress of the National Society in San Francisco.
- C. Each Compatriot of the Society who brings in one or more new members will be awarded a Rosette with a special attachment.
- D. Individual members may enroll in the Golden Gate Marathon by filling in the individual enrollment form attached and sending it to our National Society Headquarters in Washington, D. C.
- E. Chapters recording a net increase of 20% or more members on March 31, 1951 over November 1st, 1950 will be awarded a special Golden Gate Banner.
- F. States recording a net increase of 20% or more members on March 31, 1951 over November 1st, 1950 will be awarded a special "Honor Streamer" for its flag standard.
- G. Districts recording a net increase of 20% or more members on March 31, 1951 over November 1st, 1950 will be awarded a special "Achievement Plaque."
- H. Chapters, State Societies, and Districts which set net membership objectives as of March 31, 1951 beyond 20% of the November 1st, 1950 membership and achieve them will receive special recognition in addition to the above listed awards.
- I. All awards will be presented to winning Chapter Presidents, State Presidents and Vice-Presidents General in a big Recognition Night Ceremonial at the National Congress in San Francisco in 1951.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

"The Golden Gate Marathon"

INDIVIDUAL ENTRY FORM

PURPOSE: To offer every member of the S.A.R. an opportunity for all or part of his expenses to the 61st Annual Congress of the S.A.R., to be held in San Francisco, California, in 1951.

HOW TO ENTER: Every active member of the S.A.R. is eligible to enter the Marathon. To qualify he must secure one new member (which counts toward his total) and with the filling of the application papers, fill out the entry blank attached. Mail entry blank to Organization Chairman.

AWARDS: There will be three awards. First award will be a round-trip railroad and Pullman trip to the 1951 Congress in San Francisco or its equivalent in cash based upon cost from east of the Mississippi River. The next five highest winners will receive $100.00 each. The winners will be determined on the basis of the number of new members secured by the individual contestants. The member having the most new members secured between November 1st, 1950, and March 31st, 1951, will win the First Award, the next five highest will win the $100.00 awards.

HOW CREDIT IS GIVEN: The credit for each application will be given to the member whose name appears as the first sponsor on the application paper.

JUDGES: The judges of the "GOLDEN GATE MARATHON" will be the Chairman of the Organization Committee and two members of his committee together with the President General and the Registrar General.

DATE OF AWARDS: The contest closes March 31, 1951, in order that the number of applications may be checked and the winners notified in ample time to make plans to attend the 61st Annual Congress in San Francisco, California, in 1951, the exact date to be announced.
