

Maryland Society Sons of the American Revolution
Welcomes you to the
2021 Atlantic Middle States Association Conference
August 13-14, 2021

The 2021 Atlantic Middle States Association (AMSA) Conference will be held at the Crowne Plaza Annapolis 173 Jennifer Rd, Annapolis, MD 21401. A special conference rate of $111 a night is available for Friday Aug. 13th and Saturday Aug 14th. Room reservations can be made under group code AMS, AMSA 2021 Conference by calling 1-877-227 6963 or online at <https://www.ihg.com/crowneplaza/hotels/us/en/annapolis/anpam/hoteldetail>.

The conference will begin with Friday afternoon registration followed by the evening welcome buffet social starting at 6 PM. The National Officer Candidate Form will follow along with a separate ladies program, “The women who sewed our flags from Betsy Ross to Mary Pickersgill” by Dr. Sandy Wallis.

On Saturday morning the AMSA meeting will start. The ladies will enjoy “Dressing the 18th Century Lady” by Vicki Embrey.

In the afternoon guests will take a short trip to central Annapolis to tour the Paca House and Gardens and the Hammond-Harwood House.

The day’s events will culminate with a Black-Tie Banquet where our speaker Sam Davis, PhD will portray Gen. George Washington, “The Dark Days: Boston to Valley Forge.”

On behalf of the Members of the Old-Line State we look forward to your visit.

C. Louis Raborg Jr.
Conference Chairman
AMSA Secretary

Ernest L. Sutton, MD
Vice President General
Mid-Atlantic District

Peter K. Goebel
Vice President General
North Atlantic District

PS: The event will NOT be available on Zoom unless the Governor prohibits indoor events.