Stay the Course

I am sincerely honored and humbled to be your President General. As the 118th President General, I stand in the footsteps of many of the Presidents General who came before me whom I admire so much.

One such PG was Ryall Morgan, who, like me, was a former Alabama Society president. He served as President General from 1972-73—50 years ago. He is buried at the Ryall Cemetery in Effingham County, Georgia, about 35 miles north of Savannah. During the coming year, and with the cooperation of the color guards of Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina, I hope we can mark his grave with a Compatriot marker. Perhaps future PGs will consider doing the same and mark other PG gravesites.

Allow me to acknowledge the Alabama Society for its support throughout the years.

My congratulations to those elected as General Officers and Vice Presidents Generals; I look forward to working with you to continue to grow and improve SAR in service to our nation and communities.

I would not be President General if it were not for my wife, Rita. I have been wonderfully blessed with her love and tolerance for 53 years. We have two children. Our daughter, Laura, is a school teacher with three children. Our son, Greg—a retired lieutenant colonel and compatriot—and his wife, Lyz, have two sons. All four grandsons are compatriots.

I was proud to present Greg, now a FedEx pilot, with the SAR War Service Medal and he and the grandsons with their member rosettes.

We were honored to have most of our family and our forever friends, Allen and Donna Reid, with us in Savannah for the Congress.

Thanks to President General Davis Lee Wright for his service over the past year. He made significant and far-reaching contributions to the SAR. He maintained a busy, full schedule among his family, professional career and the SAR. One of Davis' objectives was to ensure our presence in key activities and initiatives of other heritage organizations. We will continue to develop those relationships with his advice and assistance.

I also want to sincerely thank the members of the color guard both here and at home. It's true; the color guard is the face of the SAR. It's incredible to see what you have accomplished and proudly been a part of, whether it be a compatriot grave marking, a presentation of the colors, or simply standing with the ladies of other heritage societies in support of their activities. A special appreciation to you, Lou Raborg, for your unfailing devotion and superb work as color guard commander for the past year.

Congratulations to our new color guard commander, Historian General Brooks Lyles, and my deep appreciation to President General (2016-17) J. Michael Tomme and his Lady Cilla, the color guard members, and First Lady Janet Leishman of Delaware for the beautiful ring ceremony.

I would be remiss if I didn't acknowledge and also thank our excellent headquarters staff in Louisville for all they do for us. They truly go above and beyond to support us. You should know that they also profoundly believe, as we do, in our purposes and missions. During Congress, we honored Executive Director Don Shaw on his retirement. I have always enjoyed working with Don and wish him well.

Later this year, I will have been a member for 20 years, and this will be my ninth year as a General Officer. I've been honored to serve as Librarian General, Registrar General, Treasurer General and Secretary General. I've worked hard in each position, and I never believed any of them was just something where I was "holding the fort." I could not have fulfilled my duties as Secretary General without Dave Perkins being the Recording Secretary this past year. I am deeply grateful to Dave. Compatriots, I hope you know by now that I try to be a forthright person and have not hesitated to offer my comments or express my opinions, and I hope you will do the same. But gently, if you would, please.

I mentioned my admiration for those who came before. I know their efforts and accomplishments were not possible without everyone working together. The same will be true for you and me.

And now compatriots, to matters at hand.

My message is simple: Stay the course for those areas we've focused on this past year.

The first of these is the preparations and activities surrounding the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. We have approved the five-year operational plan, developed by the Strategic Planning Committee, known as "SAR 2026," identifying goals and objectives for us to accomplish as 2026 nears. State societies need to establish an America 250 SAR Committee. Many of you already have done so, just as many compatriots have started tracking their 250th activities to earn the Anniversary Medal.

In support of our 250th efforts and to bolster coordination among the committees, I have asked PG Wright to be the "Program Coordinator, 250th Programs and Commemorations" to ensure programs and efforts are aligned and not duplicative across the committees and to keep his eye on our involvement with other organizations

The President General's Message

at the national level. I ask that the committees and state societies derive their own goals and objectives in support of the SAR 2026 strategic plan and send them to Davis by Nov. 1.

It's proper that we celebrate this commemoration of our nation. And secondly, it is a terrific opportunity to attract new members through our activities.

The second area we have focused on this past year is the SAR Education Center and Museum. In early July, the Trustees approved the Design Deliverable documents of the museum plan prepared by Solid Light, Inc. Our objective remains to open the museum to the public by July 2026. I hope you will also be able to view the animated video of a walk through the museum that the Trustees have seen.

We have reached this stage after nine years and at the cost of $2.63 million, which includes the generous donations of our membership and friends. It also includes more than $500,000 given by Solid Light. I want to commend those involved over the long term for bringing the project to this point. We must especially thank the efforts of Project Manager Bill Stone, who conceived much of the museum and devoted countless hours to it. I also want to thank President General (2013-14) Joe Dooley for sharing his knowledge and time working with Solid Light on the "historical content" incorporated into the museum's design. These two individuals deserve our congratulations and respect for nine years of hard work.

Our next phase is the buildout of the museum, and we will need to make several choices along the way. As the first step of this phase, the infrastructure of the museum area needs to be upgraded. By that, I mean such things as a needed elevator; the electrical, heating and air conditioning systems; and the supporting steel beam structure for what we call the "upper world" of the museum. When we build the museum, we could do it gallery by gallery or, if the donated or borrowed funds are sufficient, continuously until completed. We are looking for approximately two or three million dollars to accomplish this next step to upgrade the infrastructure I partially described.

Ladies and gentlemen, this museum will be a reality. In support of the entire buildout, and in recognition that we finished the planning phase, I am appointing President General (2018-19) Warren Alter as Project Manager, SAR Museum, Construction Phase. I've asked Warren to pick a team to assist him. Project management will replace the present committee structure in guiding the project. Of course, major decision points along the way remain the purview of the Trustees.

We are going to get this museum built!

Surgeon General Keith Weissinger of the Washington Society is my committee coordinator. Many of you may already know that, as Keith and I have been working on the committee listing itself for a while. My thanks to the committee chairs for their cooperation. I want to thank three longtime serving committee chairmen who are stepping down: Flag Chairman Jim Alexander of Alabama, DAR Liaison Chairman Walt Timoschuk of Tennessee, and Eagle Scout Chairman Ed Rigel Sr. of Georgia. We thank them for their years of service as the chairs of their committees.

I am pleased to announce other appointments. Derek Brown of the California Society has agreed to be my travel coordinator. Ken Goodson of Michigan will remain VPG of the International Society. Ray Wess of Florida has accepted the position of Inspector General. David Boring of the D.C. Society will continue as the Chief Compliance Officer, and Dan Woodruff of South Carolina will continue as the Chief Risk Management Officer. John Berg of Oregon is appointed National Parliamentarian.

The appointed members of the Executive Committee have a vital role, and I am incredibly grateful for their acceptance to help guide the SAR. They are PG Wright, VPG Goodson of Michigan, Jim Klingler of California, Lee Popham of Florida and Edmon McKinley of Alabama. Paul Callanan is the senior advisor of the Executive Committee.

With a couple of changes, I am retaining the national committees structure instituted last year where, in some cases, selected committees are assigned to a major committee. Several room and noise problems arose at the previous Leadership Meetings. Some of that was, and is, unavoidable. However, Compatriot Weissinger took a fresh look at the Brown Hotel layout, and Keith, Paul, Kelly Moore of the headquarters staff, and I closely reviewed the room assignments and meeting times of the committees at Leadership. We have hopefully alleviated some of the previous issues. I'm sure we'll be told if it works or not!

I have another initiative to announce: a return to the practice begun by PG Alter of holding virtual meetings with the General Officers, the VPGs and the Executive Committee on a scheduled basis throughout the year. Communication among ourselves is vital.

We have many national priorities to accomplish in addition to the 250th Anniversary and the SAR Education Center and Museum. But I know, as do you, SAR's hard work is executed at the state and chapter levels, where our efforts in the local communities are most important. Look locally and there always opportunities to find positive activities into involve ourselves to further our mission.

Compatriots, I commend your dedication and perseverance to the society's patriotic, historical, and educational goals. President General (2015-16) Tom Lawrence said that, "many friends and Compatriots have worked hard to make this society one of the strongest lineage and patriotic organizations." Let's keep the good work going.

Lastly, Rita has chosen for her First Lady's project: your financial support for our youth programs and contests. As we travel around, you'll hear more about that from her.

Ladies and gentlemen, it takes hard work and years of planning to organize and ensure the success of a Congress. Thanks to the compatriots and ladies of the Georgia Society for a fabulous event in Savannah.

I look forward to welcoming many of you to the 133rd Congress in Orlando next year.

C. Bruce Pickette
President General

Savannah Hosts Congress

Annual event tainted by COVID-19 infections

By STEPHEN M. VEST
EDITOR OF SAR MAGAZINE

The 132nd Congress, hosted by the Georgia Society, drew more than 650 compatriots, guests and dignitaries to historic Savannah, surpassing the Colonial Williamsburg Congress in 2007. Tragically, dozens of compatriots, guests and staff members tested positive for COVID-19 during or following the Congress, and Georgia Society President Joseph Vancura, a key Congress organizer, died two days following.

According to President General (2017-18) Larry Guzy, also a Georgia compatriot, Vancura, 50, died of a possible COVID-related heart attack. He tested positive July 17 and collapsed at his Atlanta home after dinner. He was rushed to Kennestone Hospital in Marietta, where he died. Vancura is survived by his mother, Kathy, and sister, Betsy, who were with him at Congress in Savannah. Said Guzy, "Please keep both [Kathy and Betsy] in your thoughts as the shock of his passing sets in."

President General C. Bruce Pickett, installed July 14, said, "I join all in our mutual shock and deep sadness in learning of Joe's untimely death. He was a good friend to many of us, an exceptionally gifted and capable individual, always responsive to everyone, and a dedicated compatriot. We will truly miss him."

There was no pattern to the COVID spread. Compatriots from Alabama, Arizona, California, Kentucky, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Ohio,

Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Virginia reported testing positive. Foundation Development Manager Phil Bloyd spent much of the Congress self-sequestered in his hotel room. "It's disappointing," said Bloyd. "So many compatriots look forward to the relationships that can be built during events such as these and this time, that wasn't the case for many."

SCHEDULE SHIFT

To achieve the best rates, the Congress schedule was shifted a day, so the Memorial Service was held on Monday, with meetings beginning on Tuesday and going through Thursday. The Youth Awards Luncheon was held on Tuesday, and the Minuteman Induction and chapter awards were presented on Tuesday evening. The major banquets were held Wednesday and Thursday night.

President Vancura brought greetings from the host Georgia Society and read a proclamation from the governor. Present to bring greetings were Savannah Mayor Van R. Johnson II and Chatham County Commissioner Chester A. Ellis.

Other groups bringing greetings included the NSDAR, the NS C.A.R., General President Russell Rich of the Sons of the Revolution, President General Douglas Mabree of the Society of the War of 1812 and Grand Viscount General Roger Coursey of the Order of the Founders of North America.

President General (2006-07) Nathan White continued his attendance streak, 27 consecutive Congresses, dating back to 1996. Other presidents general attending were David N. Appleby, Edward F. Butler Sr., Joseph W. Dooley, Lindsey C. Brock, Thomas E. Lawrence, J. Michael Tomme Sr., Larry T. Guzy, Warren M. Alter and John T. "Jack" Manning.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

There were four contested seats at this year's Congress.

Foundation Board member Darryl S. Addington of Tennessee defeated Registrar General Tony Lee Vets Sr. of Louisiana for Treasurer General.

Gary O. Green of North Carolina defeated incumbent Genealogist General Robert B. Fish of West Virginia.

Reverend Dr. J. Vernon Welkner III of Kansas was elected Chaplain General, defeating Kenneth D. Roberts.

The at-large seat on the SAR Foundation Board was won by California Compatriot Daniel McKelvie, unseating South Carolina Compatriot and Minuteman inductee Daniel Woodruff.

Elected by acclamation were President General C. Bruce Pickette (Alabama), Secretary General John L. Dodd (California), Chancellor General Michael J. Elston (Virginia), Registrar General W. Allen Greenly (Georgia), Historian General T. Brooks Lyles Jr. (North Carolina), and Librarian General J. Fred Olive (Alabama).

Trustees and alternate trustees were elected.

Named to the Executive Committee by President General Pickette were William Lee Popham (Florida), James Klingler (California), Edmon McKinley (Alabama),

BUSINESS SESSIONS CONDUCTED

Dues remain unchanged for 2023.

The Congress unanimously approved changes to the Bylaws, regarding the Ethics Committee and outlining procedure to be used by states with complaints, and refined the process of hearings and appeals.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

The two major tours associated with the Savannah Congress were bus trips to nearby Parris Island and a trip to the 8th Air Force Museum.

2022 Minutemen Inducted

The Minuteman Award is the most prestigious award of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. The National Executive Committee established the award in 1951. The recipient may receive the award only once. Only those compatriots who have made distinguished and exceptional service contributions to the National Society may be recognized.

The first Minuteman Award was presented at the 1952 National Congress to former President General Benjamin H. Powell of Texas.

The award, given to a maximum of six recipients each year, has been presented annually since 1952. A total of 425 compatriots have been recognized with the Minuteman Award.

To receive this prestigious award, the compatriot must attend the National Congress, where it is presented, and a previously awarded Minuteman escorts each honoree.

Before the induction, a moment of silence was honored in memory of those Minutemen who passed away since the 2021 Congress. They included: President General Larry D. McClanahan (TN), 1997; Jack Jones Early (KY), 2002; President General Roland G. Downing (DE), 2003; Edgar E. Grover (KS), 2004; Garrett F. Jackson (CA), 2005; and Andrew M. Johnson (DC), 2005.

South Carolina Compatriot William T. Allgood, who escorted inductee Daniel K. Woodruff, was again the ranking Minuteman in attendance. Allgood was inducted in 1995. Only eight compatriots have earlier induction dates than Compatriot Allgood.

Tim Brown

Receives the BSA's Silver Antelope Award

Tim Brown, the president-elect of the Kentucky Society, was selected to receive the Boy Scouts of America Silver Antelope Award. Brown is one of 11 Kentucky's Blue Grass Council members to receive the award since 1942 and the first since Gov. Paul E. Patton in 1999. Of the 11, five have been Kentucky governors (Lawrence Weatherby, Ed Breathitt, Wendell Ford, Julian Carroll and Patton).

Brown, the immediate past president of the Lafayette Chapter, and his wife, Tami, live in Nicholasville, Ky. They have a daughter, Chelsea; a son, Zachary; and three grandsons.

Compatriot Brown has been in Scouting since joining as an 8-year-old Cub Scout in 1967. He is an Eagle Scout (class of 1976) and serves as the national chair for council support on the BSA Alumni Association National Committee. Brown is also a National Committee Task Force member for the BSA's National Scouting Museum.

In addition to the Silver Antelope Award, Brown has received the Silver Beaver Award, the District Award of Merit, the Council Alumnus of the Year Award, the Territories Alumnus of the Year Award, the William T.

Hornaday Gold Badge, the NESA Outstanding Eagle Scout Award and the Order of the Arrow Distinguished Service Award. He serves as chairman of the Kentucky SAR Eagle Scout Committee and as the BSA national events liaison on the National SAR Eagle Scout Committee.

Outside of Scouting, Brown is the past deputy director of the Kentucky Select Soccer League.

Brown is the senior environmental scientist for the Kentucky Division of Forestry, with more than 30 years of executive management experience in both the government and private sectors.

Medal of Honor Recipient Passes Away

Compatriot Hershel "Woody" Williams, the last surviving World War II Medal of Honor recipient, died in late June in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Huntington, W.Va. He was 98.

Williams initially was refused entry into the Marine Corps because he was too short. When that requirement was relaxed, he enlisted and was sent to the Pacific Theater, where his heroism in attacking Japanese concrete pillboxes with a flamethrower on February 23, 1945, earned him the Medal of Honor.

Following the war, he began a foundation dedicated to erecting monuments throughout the nation to recognize Gold Star Families. To date, 102 monuments have been erected. A chaplain of the Congressional Medal of Honor Society, he provided services to other recipients and their families, many of whom received their recognitions posthumously.

Woody was the recipient of the War Medal, the Patriot Medal and the Gold Good Citizenship Medal, and his foundation received the SAR Distinguished Patriotic Leadership Award.

Library Welcomes New Director

The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution is pleased to announce the appointment of Cheri J. Daniels as the new SAR Genealogical Research Library director.

Daniels earned a Master of Science in library science from the University of Kentucky, with emphasis in special collections and archival management, and a bachelor of arts in history (magna cum laude). She comes to the SAR from the Kentucky Historical Society, where she was head of the Library and Archives. Her 20-plus years of library experience will serve her well in her new position.

Daniels is a member of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

To quote Daniels: "While this is a great time to be researching our ancestors in the light of unprecedented record accessibility, the responsibility of the library staff remains steadfast in its duty to provide information literacy that emphasizes the plain, yet often ignored, fact that only a small portion of records are available via digital means. Never has there been a more challenging time for messaging and outreach to those seeking information and their ancestors. While this can often be an uphill battle, the implementation of streamlined reference services and research literacy standards can create a consistent and effective path to successful research outcomes."

Daniels welcomes your comments and questions at cdaniels@sar.org.

Younger Members Medal

BY REV. ANDY AKERS

On behalf of the Younger Members Committee, I am proud to introduce you to the Sergeant Joseph Plumb Martin Outstanding Young Member Medal.

It was created to recognize a member 40 years of age or younger for continued, exemplary service to their society mainly focused on leadership and service to youth and younger members. Approved by the Medals and Awards and Executive committees in December, the medal is named for Sergeant Joseph Plumb Martin, who enlisted at the age of 16, served for the duration of the war and fought in many notable campaigns before being mustered out in 1783. This young man, dedicated to seeing the war through to the end, is a Patriot that all our younger members should emulate!

The Outstanding Young Member Medal (OYMM) is gold, silver and bronze in color and bears a depiction on the obverse of Sgt. Joseph Plumb Martin in front of a circle of 13 five-pointed stars, representing the colonies. The reverse is inscribed "For the Duration—Outstanding Young Member" and has space to engrave the recipient's name and date of presentation. The medal is suspended from a ribbon drape of navy blue, buff, Old Glory blue, white, and Old Glory red. The bronze medal may be conferred by a chapter president and the silver by a state president. The National Society confers the gold medal upon recommendation by the National Younger Members Committee and approval by the Executive Committee. A recipient should have received the bronze and silver medal before being recommended for the gold, except in the cases of state societies that do not have chapters. Please indicate in the gold medal application whether this is the case. State presidents may put forward a nomination to the National Younger Members Committee for the gold medal if they believe that the compatriot is deserving of such an award.

The bronze medals shall be presented at chapter meetings and the silver medals at state meetings. The gold medals will be presented at the National Congress yearly. When considering a compatriot for this medal, in addition to the age requirement, the focus should be on leadership positions held—both elected offices and appointed chairmanships. Active participation in committees and activities, especially those focused on youth and younger members, including CAR, is highly desired.

We look forward to any submissions by state presidents for the gold medals. I am available (at nhveteran86@gmail.com) to field any questions!

Gifts of Real Property

By KEITH GILLIES, CFP

The Scenario:

Sam spent his childhood summers at his grandparents' North Carolina lake house. As an adult, he and his wife, Carol, spend summers at the lake house with their children, Annie and Tad. The property is now worth $2.5 million.

Sam inherited the place a decade ago. Both retired, Sam and Carol now spend more time traveling and have less time and energy for visits to the lake house. They're also tired of the taxes and mounting maintenance costs on this beautiful but aging property. They'd like to pass the house on to their children, but neither Tad nor Annie is interested in taking it over.

The options are limited, and the decision feels overwhelming. Sam wants the property to go to someone who will care for it and hopefully enjoy it as much as he has.

A Planning Strategy:

Sam and Carol have lunch with Ted, an old friend from college, who serves on the board of a charity that works with the families of children fighting cancer.

When Ted mentions his search for a suitable property they can use to create a peaceful retreat for these families, Sam and Carol suddenly see that this could be the answer to their dilemma. They had been thinking of making a significant gift to just such an organization, and this seems like a perfect fit.

A Gift of Real Estate:

The couple will benefit from a gift of real estate in several ways. In addition to knowing that others will be comforted by the tranquil surroundings during stressful times, a gift of the highly appreciated property allows them to avoid capital gains tax. It also removes the property from their estate, reducing future estate and inheritance taxes without incurring broker's fees and other costs associated with a sale.

Their first step is to get an independent appraisal, which comes in a bit higher than expected at $2.7 million. There is no mortgage, so the entire amount will be the value of their charitable gift for their income tax deduction purposes. (If there was a mortgage and the charity agreed to pay it off, this would reduce the amount of the charitable deduction.)

Life Insurance:

Even though they no longer visit the lake house, Annie and Tad oppose the gift, naturally resisting this loss of part of their inheritance. However, Sam and Carol purchase a life insurance policy in an amount designed to replace most of the value of the house and name their children as beneficiaries. They use their significant charitable income tax deduction to help fund the policy. The death benefit will eventually go to the children free of tax and outside the estate.

The Moral of the Story:

Many people hold real property they no longer use or that has become expensive to own (maintenance costs, property taxes, etc.). As this fictional story illustrates, donating the property to charity or a nonprofit such as the SAR Foundation is an attractive option. It can lower estate taxes, avoid capital gains and make a significant gift to a worthwhile cause. A life insurance policy can replace the property's value for donors who are worried about lessening the inheritance for their heirs.

CURATOR AND PROGRAM EXHIBIT DIRECTOR

"Business increases upon my hands so that I am obliged to rise early, that I may finish it with comfort by night. By means of my using the candle while the sun is in theeast, instead of after he has visited the west, I am master of myself & have no interruption."

— WILLIAM GORDON TO GEORGE WASHINGTON
DECEMBER 15, 1778

There may be 24 hours in a day, but without artificial light, how many of them can be productive? In the 18th century, the availability of light controlled the rhythms of life, of work, and especially of military campaigns. Long summer days provided a bounty of daylight hours, but short winter days called for various, and costly, forms of artificial lighting. Once the sun went down, people of the 18th century had to decide if performing an activity or task was worth the expense of lighting or if they would wait for daylight. As

Washington's correspondent and historian William Gordon described, by rising early to work by candle until daylight, he worked uninterrupted, rather than trying to work past dusk and be limited by the duration, supply and cost of candles.

Candles were the most common form of lighting in the era. They ranged in quality and price based on materials. Tallow candles were often made in homes or camps. General Heath noted that officers saved tallow from livestock to make, rather than buy, candles. Tallow were the least expensive candles and gave off a dull, sputtering light along with an unpleasant odor. At nearly three times the cost and emitting a sweet fragrance and brighter light were beeswax and bayberry-wax candles. The most desirable, and therefore nearly five times the cost of tallow, were spermaceti candles. Made from the oil of sperm whales, these candles were the longest burning and provided the most brilliant illumination.

James Blauer, California Society, donated a period six-tube mold that was used in candle production. A mold was the ideal way to make candles; without one, the process required long hours of repeated dipping to build the candle layer by layer. The cost of candles was a fundamental part of a household's and the Continental Army's budgets. Congress allowed three pounds of candles per 100 soldiers per week, which may have seemed adequate on Aug. 8, 1775, when Gen. Washington issued orders. It appears, however, that the reality of long New England winter nights set in when, in his Dec. 24, 1775, general orders given at Cambridge, Washington ignored Congress' limit and raised the ration to six pounds of candles per 100 soldiers per week.

Lighting an 18th century candle required skill and attention. Larry J. Hansen, California Society, donated a combination tinderbox and candleholder. These were popular among soldiers and civilians, as they were easily transported while containing all that was needed to create a flame. Matches were not invented until the 19th century, so flint and steel were needed or one had to find a flame. While in France, Benjamin Franklin corresponded with the naturalist Jan Ingenhousz, who drew on Franklin's research to solve the age-old problem and wrote "A Ready Way of Lighting a Candle, by a Very Moderate Electrical Spark."

Once a candle was alight, a spiral candlestick, like the one donated by John Ferris in memory of his ancestor Henry Sanders, South Carolina Militia, would help to burn it judiciously. A rotating insert moved the candle up as it burned, thereby keeping it protected. It could be carried by the small handle or hung on the back of a chair over a desk. Eighteenth-century wicks were not self-burning and required routine trimming with a wick trimmer, like the one donated by Diane Ungvarsky, second vice president of the National Ladies Auxiliary, in memory of Theresa Klotzbach. Candlesticks worked well indoors, but a lantern was needed to maintain a light outdoors. An American glass-pane lantern was a gift from the California Ladies Auxiliary in memory of James Blauer. Such a lantern was the ideal form of lighting. On April 18, 1775, two lanterns of this design were placed in Boston's Old North Church to signal Paul Revere; one of those lanterns can be seen at the Concord Museum.

There were many types of artificial light where candles were not available or affordable. Paula and Phillip Mitchell, in memory of their Maryland and Virginia colonial families, donated an 18th-century grease lamp.

These utilitarian devices held oil or grease with simple wicks from each spout. Grease lamps gave off just enough light to do manual labor or simple tasks. To our modern minds, a fire may seem a simple solution, but maintaining a large enough flame to work by required too much fuel to be practical or economical. When timing permitted, the sun's alternative could be utilized, such as on June 6, 1779, when Washington ordered several divisions to reposition, with "the whole to move at the rising of the moon."

Benjamin Franklin instructed that "early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy wealthy and wise." While certainly encouraging us to be disciplined and hardworking, taken in another light, it may also point out additional benefits. Rising before dawn and not staying awake late into the night prioritizes daylight and saves the expense of candles. The SAR's growing collection of lighting implements interpret how early Americans lived, adapted and reclaimed hours of the day. If you have similar artifacts in your collection from the American Revolution era, please consider donating them to the SAR. Cultivation of the Museum Collection on this subject as well as in the areas of musical instruments, childhood, textiles, science and medicine, and equestrian equipment help tell America's history.

*The Artifact Donor Program was created in 2019 to meet the goal of expanding the SAR Museum Collection. A curated wish list of artifacts that interpret the story of the American Revolution, from wig dusters to muskets, are sought and secured by reputable dealers and made available for purchase and donation to the SAR. When an artifact goes on public display, the exhibit text will credit the donor(s). # THOUGHTS OF A NEW COMPATRIOT

My journey to the National Memorial Day Parade in Washington, D.C., began with me traveling by train from Baltimore to Union Station, a trip I'd taken countless times but one that left me nervous about the day's events.

Other than President General (2013-14) Joe Dooley, the gentlemen I was about to meet and march with were strangers. The instructions to be in our area by noon were clear, and I intended to be in place, not to miss any pageantry. My anxiety soon passed as I met each compatriot and shared our lineages and how they affected us in ways we never expected, especially in my case. I never imagined that my ancestor was a free man of color before the American Revolution and that he had fought to help liberate the Colonies.

Our marching got off to an unhurried start, but I got rather excited once underway, as I could see masses of people. The crowd was estimated to be around 350,000 onlookers, and my questions became, "What is my role here today?" "How will I honor my ancestor today?"

My compatriots marched with a sense of joy. The compatriot in front of me was savoring every moment with his teenage son, waving and smiling with the exuberance of a returned hero. I was apprehensive about looking in the direction of the masses, not knowing whether they would wave back if I waved. What would the African Americans in the crowd make of my participation in this SAR entourage?

I even thought, "What are the Black folks in the crowd thinking about me in my blazer, khakis and straw hat?" I might have thought the same if I had been in their shoes. Where did this Black man come from without any connection to the American Revolution?

I reflected on the life of my Patriot Ancestor and all the courage and pride it must have taken for him to accept the call, the struggle for the hard-won independence of a soon-to-be nation. I stood proudly and marched that day in the parade because of his courage, determination and vision of what America would become.

With such thoughts, I soon started waving and smiling and recognized people of all races waving and returning the smile. The people I saw who came out to honor our country that day were of all ages, ethnicities, political parties and persuasions—men, women, children and young adults. After the parade, I met quite a few people from abroad who were taking time out of their visit here in America to show their support. I was inspired to consider the vision of America cherished by my Patriot Ancestor and my role in the future.

After the parade, I felt quite different about the notion of what it means to have been a part of the founding of this country, and that feeling has not left me.

Gen. George Washington's Signature

DIRECTOR, SAR MUSEUM; JAMES H. MAPLES, CHAIRMAN,
LIBRARY & ARCHIVES COMMITTEE; LIBRARIAN GENERAL

Following the official cessation of hostilities preliminary to the Treaty of Peace, Congress authorized Gen. George Washington to begin issuing conditional discharges for most of the Continental Army. The main army was then encamped at New Windsor, N.Y., and discharge certificates were printed in nearby Fishkill and delivered to Washington's headquarters in Newburgh by the general's express orders.

Unlike earlier wartime discharges, which typically were signed by the regimental colonel or commanding officer, the commander-in-chief insisted upon personally signing the honorable discharges of all remaining soldiers—his testament to their service and sufferings for the nation.

Those few Continental soldiers who were entitled to wear the Badge of Merit were to have their commendation recorded on a certificate appended to their discharge. Not to be confused with the Badge of Military Merit, which was awarded only to three Revolutionary War soldiers and served as the inspiration for the modern Purple Heart, the Badge of Merit or Badge of Distinction was given in recognition for three or six years of service in the Continental Army.

One such recipient of this rare, dual form was Sgt. James Bright of the Second, or New York, Regiment of Continental Artillery and is in the SAR Genealogical Research Library, thanks to a purchase initiated by the SAR Library and Archives Committee.

With the outbreak of war, Bright joined New Jersey's Western Company of Artillery in 1776, a state unit commanded by Capt. Samuel Hugg that fought with the Continental Army during the battles of Trenton and Princeton. The unit was absorbed by Col. John Lamb's Artillery Battalion of the Corps of Continental Artillery. Bright was enlisted "for the war" with the rank of corporal, to date from Jan. 1, 1777. Bright was on the Valley Forge muster rolls from December 1777 through May 1778.

Bright was one of the senior non-commissioned officers in the regiment at the time he received this discharge signed by Gen. George Washington at New Windsor. Dated June 8, 1783, countersigned by Col. Jonathan Trumbull (Washington's military secretary), and registered by regimental adjutant James Bradford, the discharge also has appended to it the rare Badge of Merit certificate for six years of honorable service, which is signed by Col. John Lamb, Bright's commanding officer.

A poignant reminder of the economic plight faced by many Revolutionary War veterans, on the reverse is the signature of the sergeant himself, applied to a transfer of his rights to 600 acres of bounty lands to a speculator "For Value Rec'd," for which the certificate and discharge are to serve as proof of ownership rights.

THE FOUNDERS' FORTUNES: How Money Shaped the Birth of America by Willard Sterne Randall, Dutton, 978-1524745929, (Feb. 8, 2022), 336 pgs., $29.

"Historians have attributed the American Revolution to ideology, nationalism, and restless ambition, but in this thoughtful book, Willard Sterne Randall reminds readers that the pursuit of economic gain was also a decisive motivating factor. Some merchants, land speculators, penniless lawyers, and debt-ridden office holders glimpsed a better material future through American independence, and some found that their dreams came true under the new national government in the 1790s. The Founders' Fortunes is a rewarding reconsideration of the birth of the American nation, all the more so in this time of an enhanced awareness of our frayed social fabric and economic inequities." — John Ferling, author of Winning Independence: The Decisive Years of the Revolutionary War, 1778-1781

POOR RICHARD'S WOMEN: Deborah Read Franklin and the Other Women Behind the Founding Father by Nancy Rubin Stuart, Beacon Press, 978-0807011300, (March 15, 2022), 224 pgs., $26.95.

A vivid portrait of the women who loved, nurtured and defended America's famous scientist and founding father. "An engrossing look at the human side of Benjamin Franklin ... Using a post-feminist lens that's critical of gender essentialism, Stuart rescues these women from obscurity . . . This is a terrific read: poignant, provocative, and probing." — Library Journal, Starred Review

DARK VOYAGE: An American Privateer's War on Britain's African Slave Trade by Christian McBurney, Westholme 978-1594163821, (July 5, 2022), 384 pgs., $35.

At the start of the American War of Independence, Great Britain dominated overseas commerce and was the leading slave-trading nation in the world. In 1776, American privateers—privately owned ships granted commissions by the Continental Congress to attack and disrupt enemy trade—began to prey on British merchantmen. In Dark Voyage, veteran researcher and writer Christian McBurney recreates the harrowing voyage of the Marlborough while placing it in the context of Atlantic World slavery

REBELS AT SEA: Privateering in the American Revolution by Eric Jay Dolin, WW Norton, 978-163149825, (May 31, 2022), 344 pgs., $32.50

"Yet another maritime masterpiece by one of the top historians of the oceans! Rebels at Sea is a brilliant exposition of a little-understood and underappreciated part of the American Revolution underway. Like his earlier works, it is full of fresh thinking and sharply observed anecdotes that both inform and delight. Eric Jay Dolin's books deserve a prominent place on every sailor's bookshelf." — Admiral James Stavridis, 16th Supreme Allied Commander at NATO and author of The Sailor's Bookshelf: Fifty Books to Know the Sea

STATE SOCIETY & CHAPTER EVENTS

News stories about state and chapter events appearing here and elsewhere in the magazine are prepared from materials submitted through a variety of means, including press releases and newsletters (which should be directed to the Editor at the address shown on page 2). Please note the deadlines below. Compatriots are encouraged to submit ideas for historical feature articles they would like to write. Each will be given careful consideration.

Deadlines: Winter (February) Dec. 15; Spring (May) March 15; Summer (August) June 15; Fall (November) Sept. 15.

ALABAMA SOCIETY

Little River Chapter

Mike Jones, chief of staff at the American Village, was the keynote speaker for the Little River Chapter's May meeting. Jones talked about the many displays they have that help tell America's story. He encouraged everyone to visit and witness it for themselves.

At the March meeting, featured speaker Tammy Brown was named history teacher of the year.

ARIZONA SOCIETY

The Arizona Society held its May 7 board of managers meeting in Mesa, Ariz.

Martin Shewry came from the United Kingdom to be our guest speaker. A well-known historian in the UK Midlands, Martin is a veteran of the Falklands War and seven tours of duty in Northern Ireland during "the Troubles." He presented "The American Revolution from a British Perspective," followed by discussing the Battle of Monmouth. Shewry's presentation provided an enlightening interpretation of the events leading up to, during and after the American Revolution.

Immediate past President Dr. William Baran participated in a grave-marking ceremony and presented a wreath from the AZ SAR to honor his maternal fourth great-grandparents, Captain John Boggs and his second wife, Mary Williamson Barr Boggs.

On June 4, the Ohio SAR Society and the Camp Charlotte Chapter SAR in Circleville, Ohio, held a grave-marking ceremony on the Boggs' original Elm Wood Farm. Four Revolutionary and two 1812 Patriots were honored. Five direct descendants and Gary Lamolinara from Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, were present. Gary lives in the original Barr's Fort stockade that Mary and her first husband Robert Barr built in 1769. He was dressed in Regimental uniform for the 1st Battalion Westmoreland

Co. Rifles and personified a younger brother of Robert Alexander Barr. Dr. Baran personified Patriot Barr.

They had the honor of striking the colors for both John and Mary. Gary and Dr. Baran participated in the color guard march, carrying the Westmoreland Co. and Arizona state flags, respectively. Dr. Baran participated in the honor salute by firing a 1777 Charleville Carbine on loan from the Ohio Society Commander Bob Hill. All three shots went off.

Above, Dr. William Baran at the Boggs Cemetery Ceremony. The event was the chapter's first grave-marking ceremony. The chapter officers, President Rick Hartinger and Secretary Rich Minshall, worked hard, with the help of Circleville Scout Troop 14 and the leadership of Eagle Scout Andreas Tsitroulis, to clear the forgotten cemetery and return it to pristine condition. Baran's 11-year-old granddaughter, Lacey, joined him. Right, Ohio Society Color Guard Commander Bob Hill and Arizona Society Immediate Past President Bill Baran.

ARKANSAS SOCIETY

Arkansas Society President Charles McLemore, above, presented Eagle Scout Luke Monk with the 2021 SAR Eagle Scout of the Year trophy as Old Fort Smith Chapter President Roger Rickard looked on.

Monk has received an appointment by U.S. Sen. John Boozman (AR) to attend the United States Military Academy at West Point this summer. Additional details can be viewed on our website: <https://arssarweb.wixsite.com/arkansassar>.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY

Kern Chapter

The Kern Chapter Color Guard has returned to schools, above, after two years being away because of COVID-19 restrictions. For years, the CG has been going to schools to talk about the American Revolution to fifth-graders and to plant seeds of interest about history and the revolution. Because of COVID, last year the CG developed eight modules through the Kern County Superintendent of Schools' media department to be used in classrooms while not being able to attend schools in person. SAR chapters are welcome to use the modules: https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL-5yq0uc2cvM\_F-KzGgTeXzDh2PD1\_3zX.

In March, the chapter returned to the schools to talk about the American Revolution. Present were not only SAR members but also DAR member MaryAnn Claxton, who discussed uniforms.

COLORADO SOCIETY

On April 23 and 24, Walter and Susie Weart, Robert Guy and Mike Conyor made five Patriot Chest presentations to two different grade levels at Ascent Academy. Approximately 180 students, six teachers and several faculty members attended.

The presentations included the role of taverns in the Revolutionary War period, an explanation of what was involved in "enlistment," and examples of houseware items and tasks such as transporting water and making tea.

The tavern presentation discussed the role of the tavern as a social hub for each town or city and as instrumental in the run-up to and participation in the Revolutionary War. Artifacts from the period were on display, and the use of spies was shown. The children were asked who would make a good spy and discussed methods used by spies, including "invisible" ink and the clothesline code.

Two presentations were made, one to 60 first-grade students and another to 30 first-graders. While there was some concern before these presentations about the students' ability to understand, that fear quickly disappeared. The students were engaged and, through several demonstrations, participated in the instructions. The levels of questions were exciting and showed an understanding of the topic.

On Thursday, we made three presentations to approximately 30 fourth-graders from different classes. Given the ages of these students, we were able to get them more involved in the presentations; again, their level of questions and understanding were particularly significant. There were some readings beyond just history, with stories set in that period, including that of a spy.

While Susie and Walter were unloading the second morning, some of the students were coming back from recess, and when asked what grade they were in, they replied that they were in the fourth grade. They also said they were looking forward to seeing us because they had heard about our group. While we were waiting for the presenters to assemble, a number of the first graders walked by and, remembering who we were, enthusiastically said "thank you" again.

Did the students enjoy the presentations? Judging by this teacher's e-mail, we connected with our audience:

Hello Mr. Guy,

I just wanted to reach out and say thank you for coming and speaking to the first grade yesterday! All three classes loved the experience. My students came back into our classroom asking many questions and wanted to play “soldiers” during carline (students waiting for their ride home).

Best,

Mrs. Samantha Graser

Pikes Peak Chapter

On May 13, four compatriots from the Pikes Peak Chapter set up a Revolutionary War soldier’s field camp for fifth-grade students at Chipeta Elementary School in Colorado Springs. Featuring a canvas tent, a “patriot chest,” and numerous artifacts typically found in an 18th-century soldier’s kit, the cadre spent the morning showing approximately 75 children what life was like for their Patriot Ancestors.

In recent years, COVID or weather forced the annual presentation indoors, but the team was able to set it up outside this year. Compatriots Dave Mann, Scott Tanner, Richard Robinett and C.J.

Jenkins were the Pikes Peak Chapter Color Guard members who set up the camp and engaged with the students. “We get a great reception from the staff and students at Chipeta Elementary School,” said Compatriot Mann.

Concerns about liability and insurance coverage led school administrators to ask that no weapons—not even antique black-powder rifles—be brought into the school building or onto the campus. Non-firing replicas were allowed.

The restriction did not dampen the children’s interest or the team’s enthusiasm. The school made a welcome donation to the chapter and invited us back next year.

CONNECTICUT SOCIETY

Roger Sherman Branch

In June, Branch Secretary William Carter called a dinner meeting that included the induction of William Marder and Peter Snyder. Compatriots Robert Clark, Timothy Van Hooser and Steven Orban were also welcomed to their first branch meeting.

Chapter President Stephen Taylor outlined preliminary plans for the state-hosted 2025 SAR Congress and provided an overview of Youth Protection Training requirements.

State Color Guard Commander David Perkins provided an update on SAR Youth Awards and Patriot grave markings.

Members of the DAR were also in attendance, with Historian Madeleine Eckert, wife of Compatriot Edd Eckert, delivering a Revolutionary War lecture on “Capt.

Stephen Betts, Hero of the Battle of Norwalk and the Battle of Yorktown.”

DAKOTA SOCIETY

DELAWARE SOCIETY

On Memorial Day, State President Larry Josefowski presented a Flag Retirement certificate to American Heritage Girl Troop 0412. The ceremony was conducted in conjunction with VFW Post #3238 in Camden and featured the troop retiring a flag, singing patriotic songs and reciting “In Flanders Field.”

With added focus on youth outreach, President Josefowski and Vice President Dennis Schrader also attended the annual Delaware C.A.R. meeting and presented outgoing C.A.R. President Carson Hastings (a member of the Caesar Rodney Chapter) with an America 250 pin.

Peter Jaquett Chapter

The Peter Jaquett Chapter recently met at the Delaware Military Museum to discuss some new research conducted by Ken Wiggins, curator of the museum, on the chapter’s namesake.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SOCIETY

William O. Ritchie Jr. was installed as the 113th (and first known Black) president of the District of Columbia Society during the 132nd Annual Awards and Installation of Officers Banquet on April 21 at the Washington Golf and Country Club. Ritchie succeeded Joel Hinzman, who led the organization during the two-year pandemic period.

Ritchie, known as Bill, authored his memoir, “A Black Man’s Journey to the Sons of the American Revolution,” chronicling his many life-enhancing experiences from the hills of Beckley, W.Va., to his membership in DCSAR on July 4, 2016.

A 1968 Olympic trials qualifier, Ritchie was a seven-time NCAA All-American in track and field at Howard University and the NCAA College Division 220-yard-dash champion in 1969.

Bill joined the Washington, D.C., Metropolitan Police Department and, during his career, commanded the Homicide, Public Integrity and Organized Crime branches. Upon his retirement in 1994, he held the rank of deputy chief and the position of head of detectives, leading investigators handling some of the capital's most heinous crimes.

Jefferson Memorial Ceremony

The 79th annual Jefferson Memorial Ceremony, in recognition of the 279th anniversary of the birth of President Thomas Jefferson, was held at the Tidal Basin in Washington, D.C., on April 13 at 11 a.m.

Richard E. Patten, past D.C. Society president, served as master of ceremonies. The DCSAR presented the event in cooperation with the National Park Services within the United States Department of the Interior and the Military District of Washington. "The President's Own" U.S. Marine Band Brass Quintet rendered the prelude, national anthem and postlude. Hillary Fisk, chaplain, D.C. DAR, performed the invocation and benediction. Guests were welcomed by Lori Swafford, chief of administration, National Mall and Memorial Parks. The presentation of wreaths followed.

The first wreath was presented at 9 a.m., on behalf of President Joseph R. Biden Jr., by Major Gen. Allan Pepin, commanding general, Military District of Washington.

The wreath from the Secretary of the Interior, the Honorable Deb Haaland, was presented by Lori Swafford, followed by the wreath from James E. Ryan, president of the University of Virginia, presented by Mark and Lucy Duke Tonacci. Ginger Huang Dietrich presented the wreath on behalf of Leslie Greene Bowman, president of the Thomas Jefferson Foundation. The wreath from Rob Epps, president of the Monticello Association, was presented by Angus Slater Lamond Jr., a seventh-generation descendant of Jefferson.

Representatives of DCSAR presented additional wreaths, as did the General Society of the War of 1812, NSSAR, MDSAR, VASAR, DCDAR, DC C.A.R., United States Daughters of 1812, Society of the Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, Children of the American Colonists, Society of the Descendants of the Signers of the Constitution, Hereditary Order of the Families of Presidents & First Ladies of America, National Society Descendants of American Farmers and Thomas Jefferson Heritage Society.

The program concluded with the sounding of Taps by Gunnery Sgt. Benjamin Albright, bugler.

FLORIDA SOCIETY

Fort Lauderdale Chapter

The chapter had a busy first half of the year, marked by several significant accomplishments. Revised chapter bylaws were approved on March 19, and a new website went live.

On Feb. 19, new members Herb Gardner and Steven DePaul were inducted by Chapter President Chuck Adams, assisted by Chapter Past Presidents Tom Shepherd and Ted Duay. Also at this meeting, Jim Lohmeyer received a certificate for his nearly 18 years in the SAR, serving in leadership including chapter president and chaplain. On March 19, Joe Motes was presented a certificate honoring his contributions to the chapter over the past 26 years, including serving as president and treasurer.

Naples Chapter

On May 12, the Naples Chapter held a Flag Certificate Award Ceremony to honor two Southwest Florida organizations. Both were recognized for proudly and prominently flying the flag regularly. The first honoree was Golden Paws, an organization that encourages independence for combat-wounded veterans and children with life-altering disabilities through a partnership with skilled assistance dogs. Craig Layton, CSM, USA (Ret.), represented Golden Paws with his support dog, Palmer. The chapter donated $200 to Golden Paws.

The second honoree was the Ritz-Carlton Resorts of Naples, which prominently displays the flag at its locations and provides space for the chapter's monthly meetings. Kevin Donahue, sales director, received the certificate on behalf of the Ritz-Carlton. Kevin is a former Eagle Scout and is highly active in the Naples-area Eagle Scout programs.

The chapter invited Wreaths Across America of Florida to give its members an overview of the organization's goals and activities in Southwest Florida. WAA coordinates wreath-laying ceremonies at more than 2,500 cemeteries, honoring veterans from the Revolutionary War to present-day conflicts. Representing WAA was Ms. Kristina Schira, the location coordinator, supporting five cemeteries in Cape Coral, Lehigh Acres, Fort Myers and Bonita Springs. She has volunteered with WAA for six years. Following Kristina's presentation, the chapter elected to collaborate with the WAA Lee County in 2022. On behalf of WAA, Ms. Shira accepted a certificate of appreciation and a $200 donation.

Chapter President Philip R. Thieler presented the origins of the Southern Campaign 1780-81, beginning with discussing the siege and surrender of Charleston, S.C., and the Battle of Monck's Corner.

Pensacola Chapter

On May 6, the Pensacola Chapter worked with the Pensacola Heritage Foundation to commemorate the 241st anniversary of the Battle of Pensacola and [Bernardo de] Galvez Day. This year's event consisted of more than 100 spectators and participants, including a Spanish delegation from the Málaga Province and Macharaviaya (the hometown of General Galvez). The Spanish delegation included Francisco Salado Escaño, president of the Málaga Province, and Antonio Campos, the mayor of Macharaviaya.

The event started with a multi-state SAR Color Guard unit mustering at Fort George to march down Palafox Street to join the Galvez Day celebration at the corner of Wright and Palafox in downtown.

The color guard consisted of compatriots from Georgia, Alabama and Florida, including the commander of the Alabama State Color Guard, the president of the Alabama Society and the first adjutant for the National Society Color Guard.

The SAR stood at the post flanking the Galvez Monument. At the same time, the crowd heard greetings from local politicians, the Spanish delegation and a musical presentation from students at the nearby Episcopal Day School. The main speaker was Bob Rasmussen, above, sculptor of the Galvez monument and former Blue Angel pilot.

The compatriots in the color guard came from the following chapters: Georgia—Athens Chapter; Alabama—Tennessee Valley, Cahaba-Coosa, General John Archer Elmore and Black Warrior River chapters; and Florida—Tampa, William Dunaway and Pensacola chapters. Additionally, compatriots in the audience were from Tennessee and Florida and are members of the Pensacola and Fort Pickens DAR chapters. The Pensacola Chapter is grateful to those who participated despite the short notice.

The Heritage Foundation has asked the SAR Color Guard to return for Galvez Day on May 8 with additional events. Plans are underway for the 2023 event, which will be even more significant. Please check our chapter website (www.pensacolasar.org) for the latest updates.

Saint Petersburg Chapter

The Saint Petersburg Chapter placed flags on veterans' graves on May 29 at Bay Pines National Cemetery, above, in observance of Memorial Day, along with other patriotic and veterans groups. More than 27,000 flags were placed that day.

Withlacoochee Chapter

Harley B. Nelson, 96, of Homosassa, Fla., passed away on Jan. 4. A native of Noble County, Ind., Nelson was born on March 25, 1925, and joined the U.S. Navy as a signalman on his 17th birthday, March 25, 1942. He was awarded the Bronze Star and written commendations from the Secretary of the Navy and President Harry S Truman for his Pacific War service. He put himself through college and the Indiana University School of Law. He and his wife, Beverly, had one daughter, Carla, who faithfully brought him to each SAR meeting until 2021. Carla said they moved many times for her dad's job, and she attended 16 schools in as many years. After Nelson retired, he moved his family to Florida. He served as chapter president and secretary and in the color guard. Chapter President David Hitchcock presented Carla with an American flag in a beautiful presentation case.

Hernando Elementary School student Isabella Evans was the chapter's poster contest winner, beating out more than 100 other entries. Her poster of the last naval battle of the Revolutionary War included a detailed drawing of the flag and an accurate historical rendition of a marine steering compass. Compatriot Chris Faust, one of her teachers, attended the presentation with her family.

GEORGIA SOCIETY

Coweta Falls Chapter

The chapter conducted its 17th annual Memorial Day Commemoration at the Veterans Garden, Parkhill Cemetery, in Columbus, Ga., on Memorial Day, May 30. After Chapter President Tommy Powell's assembly and greeting, the Coweta Falls Color Guard, commanded by Dan McMichael, posted the colors, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance and the King's Gap Ensemble singing the national anthem. After the Prayer for the Fallen, the King's Gap Ensemble sang "America the Beautiful."

Next came wreath presentations by the Coweta Falls Chapter, SAR; George Walton Chapter, DAR; Oglethorpe Chapter, DAR; Benjamin Hardin Chapter 366, United States Daughters of 1812; Lucy Spell Raiford Society, C.A.R.; King's Gap Chapter, DAR; Disabled American Veterans Chapter 7; Columbus Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists; Major Peter Field Chapter, Colonial Dames 17th Century; Charles S. Harrison American Legion Post 35; and Eddie L. Roberts American Legion Post 333. Our speaker was Compatriot and retired Col. John House, who spoke about those who gave their all to defend freedom and our country. The commemoration ended with a moment of silence followed by a gun salute, Taps, the retiring of the colors and a benediction.

INDIANA SOCIETY

The George Rogers Clark Memorial Wreath-Laying Ceremony, celebrating the 243rd anniversary of the capture of Fort Sackville, and Patriot Grave Marking was held May 28 outside of the George Rogers Clark Memorial, George Rogers Clark National Historical Park, in Vincennes, Ind., below. A record assortment of color guard members (31) and wreath presenters (50) attended after a two-year absence due to COVID-19.

Dr. Theodore Rex Legler II, Past Vice President General, Central District, presided. Charles D. McGriff, Indiana SAR chaplain, gave the invocation and benediction.

Indiana SAR Color Guard Commander Jacob A. Vink led an impressive unit, which presented and posted the colors. Color guard participants included compatriots from Indiana, Wisconsin, North Carolina, Missouri, Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia. Charles McMillan from the Missouri SAR was the drummer.

Indiana Compatriot Van D. Dreiman led the Pledge of Allegiance, and April A. Legler sang the national anthem. Colt E. Hout, Indiana SAR, led the SAR Pledge, and Cynthia Frederick, Indiana DAR, recited The American's Creed.

Park Superintendent Frank W. Doughman welcomed and made opening remarks.

Special guests included Vice President General William T. Austin (Great Lakes District), on behalf of President General Davis L. Wright; Brooks Lyles, vice commander, National Color Guard; Jeffrey W. Jones, president, Indiana SAR; Diane Ungvasky, second vice president, National Ladies Auxiliary; and Indiana State Regent Cherie Baxter. Many brought greetings, including Margaret A. McGriff, president of the Indiana Ladies Auxiliary. All presented wreaths.

A biography of George Rogers Clark was presented by Allen G. Manning, District 5 vice president, Indiana SAR. Dr. Legler read biographies of the honored Patriots: Nicholas Bailliargon, Michel Brouillette, Pierre Grimard, Francois Bazoinet and Pierre Bonneau.

Ricky A. Childers and Thomas S. Whiteman, Indiana SAR, escorted those presenting wreaths. Presenters included national, state and chapter SAR representatives; the Ohio Ladies Auxiliary; Indiana and Kentucky DAR chapters; several lineage societies; and an Indiana C.A.R. chapter represented by Henry Lancaster and Lily Dreiman. Flag streamers were awarded to all who presented wreaths. John R. Fish, Indiana SAR, led the SAR Recessional. Rob Baxter, Indiana SAR, took photographs.

During the weekend, the Indiana SAR hosted a tent on Saturday and Sunday at the 45th Spirit of Vincennes Rendezvous. Compatriots dressed in Colonial attire recruited prospective SAR members.

Compatriots interested in participating in the Saturday, May 27, 2023, George Rogers Clark Wreath-Laying Ceremony may contact Robert P. Cunningham by email at rpcunnin@indiana.edu.

Continental Chapter

Indiana Society Continental Chapter President Jon Russell, above left, presented Diane Knight of the DAR the Martha Washington Medal for her hard work in successfully getting more than five family members into the SAR.

Phil Knight, Diane's husband, served as chapter president and received the past-president's pin from President Russell during the June 11 meeting at Muncie's Hazelwood Christian Church.

IOWA SOCIETY

Iowa dedicated a memorial to Jean Marie Cardinal, Iowa's "Paul Revere," on May 14 in Dubuque, above.

The celebration included DAR members, American Legion and SAR color guards, the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and re-enactors of the War of 1812.

In 1780, Cardinal was a hunter, trapper, trader and lead miner on the western bank of the Mississippi River in present-day Dubuque County, Iowa. In the spring of 1780, British troops led by Lt. Alexander Kay attacked the Dubuque-area mines. The British intended to capture "rebels," turn the local Native Americans against the Colonists, and attack Spanish settlements.

Cardinal escaped the British attack at the Fox Village and raced down the river by canoe to St. Louis in time to give a warning. He then joined 29 Regular troops and 281 villagers who defeated the 1,500 British and Indian forces on May 26, 1780. He died from wounds suffered in that attack and is the only known Iowan to give his life to the cause of American independence.

Cardinal was buried in an unmarked grave near Cardinal Avenue and Fairground Park in St. Louis.

Nearly 185 years after the death of War of 1812 veteran Col. Rezin Redman, the Iowa Society SAR organized a ceremony and placed a stone to mark his grave in Freeland Cemetery in Lomax, Ill.

Iowa Compatriot Dave Nation is the third great-grandson of Col Redman.

Iowa Compatriot Mike Rowley was joined by Illinois Compatriots Doug Holmes, James Miller, Aaron Miller and Mike Tubbs.

Also present were Col. Gary Miller (USMC Ret.), commander of the Neponset Illinois American Legion Honor Guard Unit; Commander Scott Spitzer of the Monmouth American Legion/VFW Honor Guard Unit; descendants of Redman; and the public on June 11.

On May 7, the Iowa Society joined with the Iowa DAR and Society of Colonial Dames to honor veterans, heroines and Civil War nurses, below. The groups marked the graves of several women who served during the Civil War. Among them was Rosanna Rush Merrill, a Civil War nurse said to be a descendant of the family of Dr. Benjamin Rush, a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Also honored was Harriett Wallace, a black woman who served during the Civil War as an undercook for three years with the 39th Iowa during Sherman's March to the Sea.

Since January 2020, Iowa Compatriots Tim Rowley, Bob

Niffenegger and Mike Rowley have placed more than 200 stones on previously unmarked graves of veterans from the Revolutionary War to WWII.

Four Generations

The members of SAR and DAR all have various levels of genealogical backgrounds. We all arrived here in different manners. We had no formal training and stumbled down many paths with wrong turns. I stepped into genealogy when my wife, whose father and siblings were adopted, wanted to know more about her aunts and uncles.

We learned that her grandmother, Martha "Mattie," migrated to the U.S. as a child. She was born in 1877 in Norway and married Henry Cox Jr. Her father was born in 1906. They produced six children; Carol's father was the fourth of the six. When Martha died in August 1914, Carol's dad was 8. He and four of his siblings went to various orphanages, while Amy, the eldest, stayed with her father.

Once we solved the family mysteries, we got the bug.

I began researching my mother's side of the family. It had many surprises, twists and turns also. Once we got on the right track, things fell into place. The complication came with Abel Bentley and his wife, Mary Polly Jones. After Abel passed away, Mary married Aaron Osborn in 1840. She complicated things during two different censuses using the Bentley surname in one census and Osborn in the other.

In both censuses, she lived with her son, David, and his family. The issue was plain as day to me. DAR, however, says you must prove birth, marriage and death. It was obvious that by year of birth, Abel and Mary were the parents of Austin G. Bentley. A wonderful DAR lady (Nancy Nielsen) who was assisting me on the documentation was adamant about what I had to do to finalize this issue. I am glad she pushed me when I became frustrated. I finally found David's death certificate, which showed his parents as Abel and Mary Polly Jones. Our application went through the first time and was certified on Jan. 5, my 70th birthday. It was overwhelming and quite emotional.

I made several queries for a local SAR chapter in our area of Iowa and learned there was none. I was content to let it go. After all, I had successfully certified Mom as a DAR while she was still with us, which was my goal.

I began communicating with State Registrar Stephen Stewart in February 2021. With his daughter, Dr. Melissa Stewart, we documented three new members (me, my son and my grandson) for SAR and an additional DAR member (my granddaughter).

We felt exceptional with four generations belonging to both organizations. The family agreed to get a four-generation photo with our certificates. With everyone working in the service industry, coordinating schedules for the photo session was a challenge. We repeatedly rescheduled due to the virus.

KENTUCKY SOCIETY

Lafayette Chapter

Chapter President Dale Henley received a proclamation from the Lexington-Fayette County Urban Government declaring May 16 as Marquis de Lafayette Day in Fayette County, Ky. The declaration not only honors Lafayette as the county's namesake, which was the first so named for him, but also commemorates Lafayette's visit to Lexington on May 16, 1825, during his tour of 1824-1825 of all 24 of the United States.

Big Sandy Chapter

The chapter unveiled a Patriot Memorial Marker on May 28 honoring Revolutionary War sailor First Lt. Richard Wells (1736-1779) in Paintsville's Wells Cemetery.

Compatriot John B. Wells III delivered a tribute to his ancestor at the dedication.

MARYLAND SOCIETY

Colonel Aquila Hall Chapter

The Colonel Aquila Hall Chapter welcomes its newest member: 8-month-old Brooks Matthew Ross. Brooks was inducted

December 2021, joining his father, Matthew Evan Ross, and grandfather, Glenn Evan Ross. The Ross family is proud to have three living generations of compatriots representing ancestor Josiah Durgin, who fought in some of the pivotal battles of the American Revolution, including the Battle of Saratoga.

MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY

March 4 represents two anniversaries in the story of the American Revolution: the 252nd anniversary of the 1770 Boston Massacre and the 246th anniversary of the Siege of Boston.

On March 4, 1776, Colonial troops, under the cover of darkness and following orders from Gen. George Washington, outmaneuvered the British Regulars and secured Dorchester Heights overlooking Boston and the harbor.

The 2,000 men prepared the hilltop to receive the cannon delivered from Fort Ticonderoga, N.Y., by Boston native Henry Knox.

On the evening of March 4, the anniversaries were marked by the MASSAR Col. Henry Knox Regimental Color Guard with three events.

The first venue was Framingham town's old burying ground, where the first meetinghouse stood in 1698 and the final resting place of 89 Revolutionary War Patriots. They include family members of the Col. Henry Knox Color Guard. The color guard laid a wreath and delivered a prayer to the remembrance of the veterans, followed by a three-volley musket salute.

On April 19, 1776, in the early morning mists of that new day, Framingham's Minutemen responded to the alarm and mustered at the Buckminster Tavern, then marched off to meet the British Regulars in what turned out to be a 22-mile-long battle between Lexington and Boston. For the second venue, the color guard marched a quarter of a mile to Framingham's Buckminster Square, the location of the Patriot Blacksmith Minuteman statue, complete with anvil. The statue faces Lexington. It commemorates an extraordinary lesser-known story in the roll up to the Battle of Lexington and Concord that, in turn, set off the chain of events ending with the founding of the American Republic.

Author and historian Ray Raphael wrote of the pivotal role blacksmiths played in the American Revolution in Massachusetts. His book, published in 2011, titled Revolutionary Founders, Rebels, Radicals, and Reformers in the Making of the Nation, describes how in Worcester, Mass., Timothy Bigelow, a 33-year-old blacksmith in 1774, organized a trade convention for blacksmiths from the surrounding towns. From this meeting, 43 blacksmiths pledged to no longer do any work for "Tories" and to refrain from doing business with any laborer, mechanic, tradesman or others who collaborated with these enemies of the country. Further, they encouraged all others, including farmers, to call meetings in their towns to devise sanctions against their local Tories.

The result was that ordinary citizens began taking leadership roles away from the Tories in their respective towns. By the later part of 1774, these local blacksmiths were preparing for war, turning their shops into armament factories and dividing up powder, mending guns and casting bullets.

At Buckminster Square, the color guard formed a defensive circle around the statue of the Patriot Minuteman Blacksmith. Facing outward, the guardsmen fired three musket volleys in memory of the Minutemen.

For the third venue of the evening, the color guard, on behalf of the Framingham History Center, made themselves present at Framingham Village Hall for the opening of the Revolution 250 Speaker Series; the evening subject was “Boston’s Revolutionary Martyrs.”

The venue was the headquarters of the New England Historical Genealogy Society.

MICHIGAN SOCIETY

With support from the SAR George Washington Endowment Fund, the Michigan Society is dedicating historical markers, and President General Davis Lee Wright attended and spoke at the most recent unveiling, below. MISSAR Color Guard Commander Norm Palmer joined him in Walker, Mich., as 15-year-old fifer Moses Clark was honored.

Clark was a part of Capt. John Hart’s company, a part of Col. Samuel Webb’s Connecticut Regiment which saw action at the Battle of Setauket in 1777. It then was sent to the Hudson River Valley, where it served under Gen. George Clinton in the aftermath of the October Battle of Forts Clinton and Montgomery, followed by the Battle of Rhode Island in 1778 and the Battle of Springfield in 1780.

Fifers and drummers—most of them children—were critical military positions in the Revolution—as necessary as latter-day radio operators. Over the chaos of the battlefield, regimental commanders communicated their orders and maintained discipline through various musical tunes and drumbeats, relayed up and down the lines by these mostly teenage musicians.

After serving his three-year enlistment, he was discharged at age 18. Six years later, he married and lived in Connecticut, New York, Ontario and Michigan, where he died on Jan. 2, 1844, at 82.

Oaks Chapter

Col. John Francis Hamtramck’s grave was rededicated in a joint Memorial Day ceremony by the SAR, SR and DAR Michigan societies, led by the SAR Oaks Chapter, above. The rededication was delayed by two years by the pandemic.

Past Chapter President John Raya led the effort. The original markers were lost long ago and were replaced with new ones from each society. Hamtramck was initially buried in Detroit’s St. Anne Church’s cemetery and was buried a fourth time in Veterans Memorial Park in the City of Hamtramck, of which he is the namesake. The delay was fortuitous, as 2022 is the city’s centennial.

Col. Hamtramck was born in Quebec and joined the American 1st Canadian Regiment as a commissary, and he worked his way up to colonel of the 1st U.S. Infantry Regiment. He also served as the commandant of Fort Lernoult in Detroit and was the officer who took command of the fort from the British at the end of the war.

The Detroit News and Fox 2-TV covered the event.

MISSISSIPPI SOCIETY

Following an electric legislative effort to establish a state America 250 organization, Gov. Tate Reeves proclaimed Sons of the American Revolution Day in Mississippi in advance of the state society’s annual convention in Oxford, which was a record-setting success, with author-historian Mike Bunn as keynote speaker.

Incoming President Dr. Tommy Thompson laid out the theme for his tenure: “STARS Over Mississippi—Support, Training, Achievement, Recruitment, and Service.” Through our expanded Youth Awards programs, we recognized winners in the Americanism Poster Contest, Adams Middle School Brochure Contest, Knight Essay Contest and King Eagle Scout Program.

At the Spring Leadership Meeting, First Vice President and Central Mississippi Chapter President John McBride received the prestigious Robert E. Burt Boy Scout Volunteer Award. Earlier that month, his Compatriot-son Benjamin received the rank of Eagle Scout, and the chapter recognized 129 new Eagle Scouts, covering 80 Scouting troops in 22 counties.

The William Gray Chapter honored former State Senator, Circuit Judge and World War II veteran Fred Wicker of Pontotoc, along with other member-veterans on the occasion of Judge Wicker's 98th birthday. Wicker and his son, Sen. Roger Wicker, became SAR members in May 2001. Senators Wicker each received the SAR Military Service Medal.

At Lake Cormorant High School, Cadet-Captain Marcellus Odum received the Bronze JROTC Medal from Dr. Thompson and the DeSoto Chapter with the assistance of Bruce Smith of the William Gray Chapter. Smith represented Congressman Trent Kelly, answering cadets' questions regarding the service academies' nomination processes.

In addition, the Central Mississippi and James Lynam chapters presented a combined 23 JROTC medals.

History and genealogy enthusiasts enjoyed the Gulf Coast Historical and Cultural Expo. Lyman Chapter members distributed brochures promoting MSSAR membership and our Eagle Scout/Youth programs, and Horger Chapter members circulated in Colonial attire.

MISSOURI SOCIETY

Christopher Casey Chapter

The Christopher Casey Chapter of Jefferson City, Mo., observed the 279th anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birth on April 13 in a joint ceremony with the Jane Randolph Jefferson Chapter of the DAR.

Mayor Carrie Tergin addressed the group regarding the naming of our Capital City, among many other buildings and sites. DAR Regent Tina Sellner reviewed the work of their chapter, named for Thomas Jefferson's mother, as they celebrated their 125th anniversary.

Compatriot, Minuteman and author Clifford Olsen inspired the gathering with insights, quotes and the vision of President Jefferson. Chapter President Terry Sontag and Regent Tina Sellner presented a patriotic wreath in front of the bust of Thomas Jefferson in the city council chambers.

Ozark Mountain Chapter

On June 14, the Ozark Mountain Chapter joined the Greene County commissioners, staff and the GC Chorale in the rotunda of the historic county courthouse to take a patriotic moment to respect the flag and its origins, beginning with the Betsy Ross 13-star flag.

Also, we briefly described the federal laws that established the flag design and added stars/states.

The county chorale sang the national anthem and other patriotic songs at the end of the ceremony.

County Commissioner Bob Dixon and his deputy commissioners were each presented with a 250th-anniversary certificate and medal, framed and ready for their office display. We believe this may be the first presentation of this type in the country. The Greene County Commissioner's Office has long been partners with the Ozark Mountain Chapter for Flag Day and Nathaniel Greene's birthday celebration. In 2021, they partnered with the SAR, planted a liberty tree on the courthouse grounds, and placed a monument dedicating and commemorating the tree for its patriotic purpose.

The 2022 Commemoration of the Battle of Fort San Carlos

The most documented and chronicled significant battle west of the Mississippi River during the Revolutionary War (May 26, 1780) was commemorated at the St. Genevieve Catholic Church on Sunday, May 29. SAR color guard from Missouri and Kentucky joined the St. Genevieve Militia. They mustered near the French Cultural History Museum and, protected by 10 muskets, marched three blocks to the church. The colors were carried forward into the sanctuary in great ceremony to bagpipes played by Wayne Davis of the Spirit of St. Louis Chapter, and Linda Hartung, also from St. Louis. After colors were posted at the altar rail, Margaret Carr of the Fort San Carlos Society opened the ceremony with remarks and invited museum curator Geoff Giglierano to present a history of the battle. More than 300 of the men who fought off the British and Native American allies at Fort San Carlos were from St. Genevieve. One of the principal militiamen was Francois La Vallee. He and two sons, in European tradition, are buried beneath the church sanctuary. Following the commemoration, the colors were retired and led out of the church by the bagpipes. Those in attendance observed muskets from the militia and color guard each fire a separate single volley.

NEBRASKA SOCIETY

On June 11, the Nebraska SAR conducted a double grave-marking ceremony at Wyuka Cemetery in Lincoln for President General (1942-43) Sterling Faan Mutz, the only Nebraska compatriot to achieve the top office, and past Nebraska SAR President Herbert M. Bushnell, who was state president in 1916.

Mutz took the office of President General in Williamsburg, Va., and members of the Omaha and Lincoln chapters and the color guard were in attendance.

North Central District VPG Chris Moberg participated with the color guard and gave remarks on Mutz's SAR membership history. Nebraska SAR Historian John Reinert commented on the lives of Mutz and Bushnell. Wreaths were presented by the Nebraska SAR, Omaha SAR, Lincoln SAR, Minnesota SAR and three Nebraska DAR chapters.

Current Nebraska SAR President Tom Upton presided over the ceremonies.

In April and May, the Nebraska Society presented Bronze

ROTC medals to cadets in the JROTC program at 16 high schools in the Lincoln and Omaha metro areas, as well as Silver ROTC medals to deserving cadets at Creighton University, the University of Nebraska-Omaha and the University of Nebraska.

On April 24, the Nebraska SAR held its spring state meeting and presented deserving awards to members for their work with the SAR and the community. It also presented Eagle Scout Ryan Yost of Fremont with the state's Eagle Scout Award, certificate and $500 scholarship.

Compatriot Jeff Deeths of Omaha was presented with his 45-year member pin and certificate, joining the SAR on Feb. 19, 1976. He was then able to pin on the member rosettes during the induction ceremony for two of his grandsons, Anton and Grant Kerrigan, who became new members on Feb. 11. The new state officers for 2022-23 were also installed.

NEVADA SOCIETY

The Nevada Society held its annual meeting in Las Vegas on April 1-3, featuring an evening banquet on Saturday with a guest speaker, Lee Nishimoto, who presented "Nathaneal Greene and the Southern Campaign." Our newly elected officers were sworn in. Western District VPG and Nevada Society President Charles Smith presented the President's Medal to incoming President Jonathan "Jay" Dickey. Also sworn in were: Charles Smith, president emeritus; David F. Hess, VP North, secretary and historian; Timothy R. Hagan, VP South; Albert E. Conant, treasurer; and Richard L. Dalton, registrar.

The evening festivities commenced with the presentation

America 250 was a topic of extensive discussions during the weekend. The society was honored to have in attendance Librarian General Fred Olive; John Ferris, co-chair of America 250 SAR; California Society President Brian Stephens; and several former Western District VPGs. Another project discussed was a possible collaboration among the Nevada, California and Utah societies to support the development of "American Village West," a massive complex to be built in Southern Utah in time for the 250th Anniversary in 2026.

NEW HAMPSHIRE SOCIETY

On April 17, the New Hampshire Society Color Guard participated with the Connecticut Line in the Patriots Day observance in Concord, Mass., above.

The New Hampshire State Society held its annual meeting on May 21 in Concord, N.H., below.

Compatriots Andrew Akers, Russell Cumbee, Donald Hayes, Robert Walsh and Douglas Wood received the Silver Roger Sherman Medal or Oak Leaf Cluster, as appropriate. Also in the photo are Awards Chairman James Veach and NHSSAR President Sean Walsh.

NEW MEXICO SOCIETY

Gadsden Chapter

Compatriot Robert Vance, wearing a Carolinas period Continental Army uniform, presented SAR ROTC medals to New Mexico Military Institute cadets in Roswell, N.M. He gave the SAR JROTC Bronze Medal to Cadet Samuel Ursanic and the SAR ROTC Silver Medal to Cadet Joe Quiroz.

In June, Las Cruces' mayor and city council designated June 27 as the 274th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. A proclamation presented to the chapter was in remembrance of all soldiers and civilians who actively supported the cause of independence and freedom during the American Revolution, and acknowledged was the invaluable service of Spanish Gen. Bernardo de Galvez and those Presidio soldiers and civilians under his command.

EMPIRE STATE SOCIETY (New York)

Long Island Chapter

The Waverly Cemeteries, consisting of three cemeteries—Union, Gerard and the Old

Episcopal—were recognized by the Long Island Chapter with a 250th Anniversary sign, honoring the 16 Patriots buried within. The program is inspiring a greater sense of civic pride and amplifying the upcoming 250th Anniversary within the Patchogue community. The three cemeteries were merged when acquired by the Town of Brookhaven, N.Y.

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

New Bern Chapter

The New Bern Chapter presented the SAR Hero Medal Award to Deputy Sheriff Zach Bellingham of the Craven County Sheriff's Office on Jan. 20 at the Craven County Sheriff's Office, below. Deputy Bellingham was seriously injured from a gunshot wound on Oct. 1, 2021, while serving an Involuntary Commitment Order and continues in a rehabilitation program. The SAR Hero Medal Award recognizes outstanding bravery and self-sacrifice in the face of imminent danger, which involves great personal courage and risk. Craven County Sheriff Chip Hughes opened the ceremony by praising Deputy Bellingham for his performance of duties and offering encouragement for productive recovery. Sheriff Hughes pinned the medal, and Chapter President Bob Ainsley presented the framed certificate along with a check to the Friends of the Craven County Sheriff's Office Fund to support Deputy Zach Bellingham's rehabilitation. Compatriots attending in color guard uniform were Gary Gillette, Scott Brick, Bruce Martin and Lee Purcell, and others included Ken McCotter, Ed Stinson, Rick Layton and Bob Rigg.

Tammy Gillette represented the Richard Dobbs Spaight DAR Chapter.

The ceremony was attended by numerous law-enforcement officers and staffers from the Craven County Sheriff's Office and was covered by four local media outlets.

Halifax Resolves Chapter

The Halifax Resolves Chapter hosted the celebration of the 246th anniversary of the Halifax Resolves on the site of the Colonial Courthouse.

Vice President General Patrick J. Niemann (South Atlantic District) commanded the color guard, and Historic Halifax Site Manager Carl Burk welcomed everyone.

Chapter President Ken Wilson was the emcee. Greetings were brought by NCSSAR President Rear Admiral Jay A. DeLoach, USN (ret.); VPG Niemann; VASSAR President R. Bruce Myer; NCS C.A.R. President Davis Benedict; NS SR President Emeritus Daniel L. Hopping; and American Legion Post 38 Commander Col. David Sammon, USAF (ret.). Vernon J. Bryant, chairman of the Halifax County Board of Commissioners, brought greetings and presented a proclamation. Chapter Registrar William H. Riggan introduced the guest speaker, Mark Pace, who was in the persona of John Penn, a delegate to the Fourth Provincial Congress in Halifax and the Second Continental Congress.

VPG Niemann presented the NSSAR wreath, and state-society wreaths were given by their respective presidents. Eleven SAR and five DAR chapters presented wreaths.

Honors were also rendered by American Legion Post 38 and the Halifax County Government.

President DeLoach also presented the Silver C.A.R. Medal of Appreciation to Davis Benedict and State Senior President Kathleen Benedict.

Catawba Valley Chapter

The Catawba Valley Chapter conducted the June 4 commemoration of the 242nd Battle of Ramsour's Mill in Lincolnton, N.C., below. More than 140 people (27 in the color guard) were present from five states.

Dr. Steven Knapp of George Washington University presented a great program on the Southern Campaign.

OHIO SOCIETY

Camp Charlotte Chapter

The Camp Charlotte Chapter conducted a historical grave-marking ceremony on June 4, representing two years of research and physical labor, above. Four Revolutionary War soldiers and two soldiers from the War of 1812 were honored.

A highlight of the event was a presentation by Dr. William L. Baran, past president of the Arizona Society and a member of the Palo Verde Chapter SAR.

Dr. Baran and his niece, Raina Metz, a member of the Gila Butte Chapter DAR, honored Andreas Tsitroulis, above, who spearheaded the cemetery renovation and cleanup as his Eagle Scout Project. Andreas is a member of BSA Troop 14 from Chillicothe, Ohio. Andreas and 14 other Scouts donated more than 247 hours, cutting down vegetation that had overtaken the much-neglected cemetery.

Compatriots then gained access to the cemetery to reset and repair many of the tombstones. Dr. Baran's Patriot Ancestors were among the monuments in need of repair.

Andreas and the Scouts who aided in this project were presented with a collectible 250th Anniversary challenge coin by Dr. Baran and his niece in appreciation. In addition, incoming Ohio Society President John H. "Jack" Bredenfoerder honored Andreas and his mother, Joanna, and presented each with a Commemorative Ohio Society Coin.

Gary Lamolinarai, curator of historic Fort Barr in New Derry, Penn., attended with representatives of eight Ohio chapters, one Indiana and Pennsylvania chapter, the Society of the War of 1812 and three Ohio DAR chapters.

The old Boggs Cemetery contains the burials of 66 graves, representing 11 pioneer families of early Ross County, now Pickaway County, Ohio. Two of the honored soldiers also fought in the War of 1812.

Cincinnati Chapter

In May, 10 Cincinnati compatriots and three from the Lafayette Chapter in Lexington, Ky., gathered to honor and mark the graves of two Patriots: Thomas Paxton and John Ramsey. They were joined by members of the Clough Valley DAR, the American Legion and 130 local residents who braved a brisk day for a ribbon cutting for the newly renovated Paxton/Ramsey Cemetery in Loveland, Ohio, and a dedication of the Granite SAR Marker.

On June 11, at the Sharon Woods Village History Center in Hamilton County, Ohio, demonstrations and re-enactments from the Revolutionary War to Modern Military Re-enactments were made for the public from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Eight compatriots—Ohio Society President John H. Bredenfoerder, Cincinnati SAR President George Stewart, Highlanders Chapter President Gary Duffield, Bob Bowers, Ed Bonniwell, Tim Madden and Mike Gunn—joined Brad Jarard, who was deployed as a re-enactor. The Cincinnati Chapter had a tent along the military timeline re-enactment trail.

Besides the opportunity to learn how to become an SAR member, eight compatriots were in uniform, sharing information and displaying 18th-century items. While we were giving our demonstrations, the surprise firing of a large black-powder cannon regularly punctuated the silence of the surrounding woods, adding a warlike atmosphere for our ever-changing audiences.

Most visitors wanted to hold the 2-pound cannonball recovered from the Battle of Yorktown. Others were amazed at the mechanism of the flintlock muskets and rifles. All learned how the impoverished Continental armies ate from dried gourd bowls with spoons made from cow horns.

OKLAHOMA SOCIETY

President General Davis L. Wright was the honored guest and keynote speaker at the Oklahoma SAR 116th Annual State Conference held on April 9 at the Tulsa Country Club. Oklahoma SAR State President Lt. Col. Kenneth Young, USAF (ret.), presided over the meeting hosted by Tulsa Chapter President Philip H. Hunt and members. More than 75 attendees, including South Central District VPG Larry Stevens, Texas SAR Past State President Drake Peddie, Arkansas SAR State President Charles McLemore and various lineage society heads. Highlights of the day included the presentation of colors by the Oklahoma SAR Color Guard, "The Star-Spangled Banner" performed by bagpiper Major William Tetrick of the City of Tulsa Pipes and Drums Corps, and presentations given by Gov. Cherie Lawson of the Oklahoma Society of Mayflower Descendants and Kay Little of Little History Adventures. At the day's end, President General Wright was presented with a souvenir whiskey-barrel lid engraved with the state of Oklahoma and a Tulsa Chapter SAR challenge coin. President General Wright was also the honored guest at a pre-conference dinner held on Friday, April 8, at the members-only Summit Club Restaurant on the 31st floor of the Bank of America Center in downtown Tulsa.

Tulsa Chapter SAR President Philip Hunt presented a gift to PG Davis Wright.

Norman Chapter

Incoming Chapter President Mark Atterson and his son, John, made up half of a double-induction ceremony on May 10. John has been in the Air Force for 12 years, was home on leave from overseas and joined with Mike Eastman, the son of Chapter Chaplain Anthony "Tony" Eastman, as the chapter's newest members.

PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY

Philadelphia Continental Chapter

The Philadelphia Continental Chapter celebrated its 100th Washington's Birthday Event on Feb. 19 by placing wreaths at the Tomb of the Unknown Revolutionary War Soldier and in front of Independence Hall.

NSSAR Color Guard Commander Lou Raborg joined 11 Philadelphia Continental Chapter Color Guard members for the day. After placing wreaths in Washington Square and Independence Hall, the color guard marched to the Museum of the American Revolution for a photo in front of the cannon.

Fortunately, Philadelphia Safety Guidelines allowed the group to meet at P.J. Clarke's Restaurant across Walnut Street from Washington Square. Lecturer and re-enactor Noah Lewis provided a dynamic program on the situation of the black Continental soldiers.

At the May meeting, lecturer and author Gene Pisasale spoke on “The Forgotten Founding Fathers.” He focused on Caesar Rodney, famous for his midnight ride to Independence Hall to cast the deciding vote on the Declaration of Independence, who recently had his statue removed from the City of Wilmington’s Rodney Square.

Color guard training was held at Fort Mifflin in late March, which reignited the fondness compatriots feel for Fort Mifflin on the banks of the Delaware River. Compatriot Michael Carver, who is a historical interpreter, re-enactor and Colonial brewer, led the training. After drilling in near-freezing wind and rain, the contingent toured the facilities.

The Philadelphia Continental Chapter presented the Martha Washington Award to Randi Fonseca, VMD, wife of Color Guard Captain Fred Fonseca. Randi served as a photographer at numerous color guard events and recently participated in the chapter’s Washington’s Birthday celebration in period attire.

General Anthony Wayne Chapter

For the last 50 years, the chapter has asked Geneva College to submit the names of its best scholars, and this year it submitted seven.

The chapter reviewed them and picked Cassandre Hulle, who best matched its interests and values. She is a registered nurse with a 3.61 grade-point average and a large amount of community service. After graduation, she hopes to get a job with the Veterans Administration because of her immense respect for those in the armed services.

In terms of patriotism, she said she is honored to live in a country in which freedom and liberty are essential.

She was awarded her certificate and cash award in the college president’s office.

RHODE ISLAND SOCIETY

Society President Christopher C. Sparks and Compatriot Kevin P. England presented Cadet Major Matthew T. Mullins with the Outstanding JROTC Medal and scholarship. The presentation took place May 20 during the Rogers High School Army JROTC Awards Ceremony in the North Casement on the grounds of Newport’s historic Fort Adams.

SOUTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

Under the auspices of the State Society Grave Marking Committee, two Midlands chapters, Colonel Thomas Taylor of Columbia and Godfrey Dreher of Lexington, dedicated compatriot grave markers honoring three founding members of the society on May 13 at Columbia’s First Presbyterian Church, below, the oldest congregation in South Carolina’s capital city.

At the event, scheduled to precede the state society’s annual meeting, 45 compatriots and guests honored the memory of Fitz William McMaster, Fitz Hugh McMaster and Rufus Newton Lowrance. He joined 18 other men of substance in founding the South Carolina Society on April 18, 1889.

Guests included Gov. Henry McMaster, great-great-nephew and great-nephew of F.W. and F.H. McMaster; his wife, First Lady Peggy McMaster; and brother, William McMaster.

President David Smith represented the society, and his son “and driver” Joseph Smith represented the state C.A.R.

Vice Regent Alice Lamb Caskey graced the event on behalf of the DAR. Other SCSSAR leaders attending included Senior Vice President Ted Walker, Piedmont Regional Vice President Rick Morris; Upstate Regional Vice President Eric Barnhill; Bucky Haas, genealogist; and Bill Wilson, registrar and president of the co-hosting Godfrey Dreher Chapter.

Gov. McMaster addressed the group, recounting his family’s memories of the founding compatriots and their contributions to the state and the society.

Committee Chairman Ralph Welton and Regional Vice President Buddy Witherspoon conducted the ceremonial dedication of markers. After the ceremony, members toured the church’s historic graveyard to view the founder’s graves, resting among numerous Revolutionary War heroes, veterans, governors, statesmen, Woodrow Wilson’s parents and many others who left their marks on American history.

Gen. Francis Marion Chapter

On May 28, the National Society, the South Carolina Society and the General Francis Marion Chapter hosted the 242nd anniversary of the Battle of Waxhaws, better known as Buford's Massacre, at the battle site near Buford's Crossroads, about nine miles east of Lancaster, S.C.

The event began with a formal wreath-laying ceremony and guest speakers. Many guests wore period dress, including Continental and Militia attire.

The story of Buford's Massacre was told, as the bravery of the Patriots was commemorated and the fallen were honored. Col. Abraham Buford was the commander of a Virginia Regiment of infantry and a company of artillery comprised of about 300 men.

On May 29, 1780, British Lt. Col. Banastre Tarleton pursued Col. Buford from Nelson's Ferry to Buford near the Waxhaws District. Col. Buford attempted to surrender, but a bloody battle ensued, with American casualties numbering 113 against a handful of British fatalities. Even more were taken prisoner, and 150 of the 187 prisoners were wounded.

Tarleton became known as "Bloody Ban," and "Tarleton's Quarter!" became a rallying battle cry for Southern Patriots until the surrender of Gen. Charles Cornwallis at Yorktown.

Compatriot Greg Ohanesian has organized this public commemoration for the last 17 years and noted that this year's event drew more than 170 members of the public and SAR, DAR and C.A.R. hailing from many states, including descendants of those buried at the site.

South Carolina State Senator Michael Johnson, South Atlantic District VPG Patrick Niemann, SCSSAR President Lawrence Peebles, Virginia State President R. Bruce Meyer and SCSDAR Regent Ms. Bonnie Moffat were present and participated.

Gov. Paul Hamilton Chapter

Col. Harold Mills, USAF Ret., chairman of the chapter's Eagle Scout Committee, participated in an April 16 Court of Honor for six new Eagle Scouts from Beaufort County. The event, held at John Paul II Catholic School, was attended by many parents, siblings and grandparents in recognition of these young men and their Scout Leader, Michael Brock, who has guided them since 2013. Having been presented their Eagle Patches and scarves, each Scout gave appreciation pins to their parents. Col. Mills followed with SAR certificates of recognition and the SAR Eagle Patch, while notifying them of their option to compete for a local chapter scholarship and several National SAR Eagle Scout scholarships. Putting on another hat, Col. Mills, as chapter military awards chairman, completed numerous presentations of the SAR JROTC Medal in April and May. The chapter supports seven high-school JROTC programs in three Low Country counties: Beaufort, Colleton and Hampton.

The second quarter of the chapter's 2022 activities came to an end at the June 10 quarterly meeting held at Beaufort's Harmony Lodge. There was a surprise presentation of the Roger Sherman Medal to long-time Registrar Tom Wilson, who recently stepped down from his dedicated work.

Following this presentation, President Monahan called forward Eagle Scout "Beau" Cooper of Troop 200, who was recognized as the chapter's Eagle Scout of the Year. Beau described his project as permanent living memorials to two school classmates who had passed away unexpectedly.

His mother, Mary James Cooper, attended to see him receive his medal and certificate and a chapter stipend.

TENNESSEE SOCIETY

Isaac Shelby Chapter

The Tennessee Society has received requests for more than 1,000 new American flags for classrooms statewide. Providing flags is one of our America 250 projects, called "Flags for Freedom."

In anticipation of Flag Day on June 14, the Isaac Shelby Chapter presented 140 new flags at Bartlett High School, below, in Shelby County, Tenn., which also asked for wall-mounting brackets. Making the presentation were Chapter President Rick Treharne (in uniform) and Past State President Mark Norris.

TEXAS SOCIETY

In May, convention attendees honored 98-year-old Clifford "Cliff" Stump, a member of the 82nd Airborne Division of the United States Army during World War II. A full honor guard escorted him during his time at the convention.

Early June 6, 1944, Stump climbed aboard a wooden glider with eight other men, a Jeep and a small cannon. Gen. Dwight Eisenhower saw them off, and the glider (canvas wrapped around a frame) was towed across the English Channel and cut loose over occupied France. The pilot had to find a safe space to crash-land in darkness and avoid capture. Their goal was to help support the invasion that would come hours later. They were successful. According to Gen. George Westmoreland, they had no engine, no parachute and no second chance. Cliff told a fantastic story during his interview with Texas SAR President Drake Peddie.

More than 100 compatriots hung on his every word. President Peddie presented Stump with the Silver Good Citizenship medal from the Texas SAR. President Peddie also traded challenge coins with Stump, who received the first new Texas SAR Wounded Warrior coin, and President Peddie received an 82nd Airborne coin.

Cliff Stump was born in Van Meter, Iowa, on June 13, 1924, one of eight children. He was drafted into the Army in 1943 and was assigned to the 82nd. From the beaches of France, he then went to Holland and into the Battle of the Bulge. On VE Day, he was in Berlin when he heard the war was over. There was no celebration, as there was much work to do. They went house to house looking for weapons. Stump served three years and was honorably discharged in 1946.

Texas President Drake Peddie sat with World War II veteran Cliff Stump and interviewed him about his experiences landing in France the day before D-Day. Walt Thomas assisted.

Arlington Chapter

March 25 was a brisk North Texas morning as Robert Pope Jr., past president of the Arlington Chapter, embarked on a short journey to join dignitaries from across America who were gathering to begin designing a place to honor and remember all those extraordinary heroes who were Medal of Honor recipients.

One could feel the excitement in the air. Bob arrived in Arlington, parked his car, went through security and picked up his credentials. The Secret Service was comprehensive.

The venue set up for the groundbreaking ceremony was a vast, white canopy. A large stage was set up at one end of the shelter, with a video screen running the length of the stage. Images of our troops in action flashed across the screen while Matthew McConaughey narrated. In front of the stage was a large column with the image of the Medal of Honor carved in its center. There were two sections of chairs set up in front of the stage for guests. Fifteen Medal of Honor recipients were escorted by Marines to the front row and seated. A single aisle separated the sections. To one side of the stage, a smaller box was set up where dignitaries and speakers sat.

The Air Force Band from the West, stationed at Joint Air Force Base San Antonio, opened the ceremonies with fanfare and later played the national anthem as the Dyess Air Force Base Honor Guard from Abilene presented the colors.

Journalist, author and cartoonist Jake Tapper hosted the groundbreaking ceremonies, first introducing Gen. Mark Milley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The museum will feature an education center to share the stories of Medal of Honor recipients.

Speakers included Maj. Gen. Patrick Brady. Students in the sixth through twelfth grades were asked to submit essays defining honor. Miss Rylee Gould presented her award-winning piece. Former President George W. Bush commented, "When you look at the Medal of Honor recipient, you are looking at someone who has demonstrated gallantry under impossible odds."

Highlights included Medal of Honor recipients mixing the soil from all 50 states with the Texas soil to signify unity, a demonstration by the U.S. Marine Corps Silent Drill Platoon, a military flyover and a presentation by the U.S. Naval Academy Glee Club.

The big moment arrived. National leaders and Medal of Honor recipients placed their shovels in the dirt and turned them.

The National Medal of Honor Museum selected Pope to represent the Arlington Chapter at this prestigious event because his family has two Medal of Honor recipients.

North Texas Chapter

VIRGINIA SOCIETY

Colonel James Wood II Chapter

On April 2, the Colonel James Wood II Chapter conducted a grave marking to commemorate the service of John Holker at the Burwell Cemetery, Millwood, Clarke, Va.

Holker was born in Manchester, England. His father fled to Rouen, France, in 1745 and became prominent in French textile manufacturing. John returned to England between 1769 and 1772 to study the British manufacturing processes.

In 1777, he, along with his father, assisted American commissioners in Paris to obtain military clothing and supplies. The following year, he was sent to America as a diplomatic representative and observer of the American Revolutionary War effort.

When the French increased their aid to America in 1779, Holker became a crucial figure in the alliance. Gen. George Washington relied on him for information concerning the French fleet, becoming the go-between for Washington and Admiral d'Estaing. He was further instrumental in purchasing supplies for the French fleet and horses for General Rochambeau's French army.

Holker died in 1822 and was buried in the Catholic Cemetery in Winchester. In 1904, his remains were moved to the Old Chapel Cemetery (also known as Burwell Cemetery).

Dale Corey emceed the ceremony. Attending were Virginia Society SAR First Vice President Ernie Coggins and Third Vice President Dr. Michael Weyler; Surgeon General Dr. Ernest Sutton representing the national society; President Sara Cox from the Virginia Society C.A.R.; French Society Trustee Pat Kelly; and Rich Rattan from the Virginia Order of Founders and Patriots of America. France was represented by Col. Aymeric Tardieu De Maleissye, Lt. Col. Alain Abad and Lt. Col. Marc Gilles with their wives.

The Virginia State Color Guard presented the colors and fired a three-round musket salute to honor Holker and his support of the American Colonies during the Revolutionary War. Brett Osborn presented Holker's life and contributions.

Fairfax Resolves Chapter

On April 10, the Fairfax Resolves (FXR) and Sgt. Major John Champe (SMJC) chapters of Virginia and the Sgt. Lawrence Everhart (SLE) Chapter of Maryland sponsored the grave marking of five Revolutionary War Patriots at the New Jerusalem Lutheran Church Cemetery in Lovettsville, Va.

At least 69 lineage society members represented 28 NSSAR, NSDAR and C.A.R. chapters and societies. Participants included Christopher Hornbaker, vice mayor of Lovettsville; direct descendants of the Patriots; the American Legion; and other veteran organizations and church members.

Brett W. Osborn of the Col. James Wood II Chapter (CJWII) commanded the color guard. He organized it into three elements: the seven-member color guard, which carried the national, Maryland and Virginia colors; the 13-member Honor Guard, which had chapter and other flags; and a 12-member musket detail. Drummer Doug Hall (CJWII) accompanied the presentation of the colors and the musket firing.

Attendees gathered to commemorate the lives and service of five Revolutionary War Patriots, their families and community. All Patriots were members of the church founded in 1765, in what was then called the "German Settlement." Histories of Loudoun County describe the residents of the German Settlement as "intensely loyal" to the cause of freedom.

Vice Mayor Hornbaker presented greetings and read the town's proclamation declaring April 10 as Revolutionary War Patriots Day. Church Historian Michael P. Zapf summarized the church's history, from its beginnings in a log cabin in the corner of the present graveyard. The German-speaking congregation came from Switzerland, Alsace, Lorraine (now part of France), the upper Rhine territories of Wurttemberg, Baden and the Palatine. He described how the Colonies offered them an opportunity for asylum from the disasters of war and economic hardship. They came to see this new land as their das gelobte land—promised land.

The reading of short biographies of the five Patriots followed, starting with Don Cooper (FXR), who spoke about his Patriot Ancestors, Michael Cooper Sr. (1742-1815) and John Fawley (1719-1803). Dave Cook (FXR) told about Frederic Belse (1741-1831). Ed Spannaus (SLE) talked about Patriots Michael Bogar (1762-1822) and John Compher (1740-1814). The readings of the biographies concluded with three rousing huzzahs, a signal to prepare for the unveiling of the grave markers.

A fourth huzzah given immediately after the grave-marking dedication signaled the unveiling. Dale Corey (CJWII) led all in a hearty rendition of “God Bless America,” followed by the wreath presentations by five state societies, 11 SAR chapters, 10 DAR chapters, two C.A.R. chapters, and the Virginia Order of Founders and Patriots of America.

The musket squad moved into position. The sound of gunfire echoing across the valley reminded us of the skirmishes that could have happened on these grounds so many years ago.

Fincastle Resolutions Chapter

Both Virginia Society SAR President Bruce Meyer and Virginia DAR State Regent LeAnn Turbyfill spoke at a colorful ceremony dedicating the newly completed Col. William Preston Memorial in Botetourt County, Va., near Roanoke on June 11.

Co-sponsored by the Fincastle Resolutions Chapter and the county government, the event honored the founder of Botetourt County, who led the western Virginia militia in engagements against the British in North Carolina in 1781. The memorial features five granite stones engraved with the story of Preston's life. It was built by the Fincastle Resolutions Chapter over 12 years and was donated to the county as a public park on its completion. Participants in the dedication ceremony included Virginia SAR Chaplain Dr. Eugene Thomas and the Virginia SAR Color Guard Commander Gary Hall. A barbershop quartet sang the national anthem, Virginia Tech Professor of History Dan Thorp made the keynote address, and Boy Scouts of Troop 50 raised the Betsy Ross flag in Roanoke. More than 100 attendees enjoyed the indoor-outdoor event, including a walking tour of the nearby Historic Greenfield Preservation Park, which included the original Preston Plantation slave quarters and log summer kitchen. Rev. Robert Haley, president of the Fincastle Resolutions Chapter, served as host, providing the welcome and benediction. Compatriots Rupert Cutler and John Bradshaw led the team that organized and presented the ceremony.

Richard Henry Lee Chapter

The Richard Henry Lee Chapter (RHLC) celebrated Flag Day by conducting a flag-retirement ceremony for more than 30 flags from individuals and local businesses.

The chapter followed the procedure outlined in the SAR Handbook and plans to make it an annual event.

Before the ceremony, luncheon attendees were treated to a lecture on the 250th anniversary of the Gaspee Affair, when on June 9, 1772, Rhode Islanders, upset by new taxes levied by the Crown, lured the HMS Gaspee, a Royal Navy custom schooner, across the shallows near Namquid Point (now known as Gaspee Point), where it ran aground. Patriots captured the crew and burned the ship in what many see as a spark that ignited the American Revolution.

WASHINGTON STATE SOCIETY

“Learning and Leading” was the theme of this year’s dual state conference with the Oregon Society, hosted by the Fort Vancouver Chapter on April 8-9.

Secretary General C. Bruce Pickett (pictured above with his wife, Rita) of Alabama was the featured speaker. Awards for the National Elementary Teacher of the Year, JROTC and Knight Essay were presented. We also recognized the past state color guard commanders and current color guard leadership and handed out four 10-year and 25 five-year color guard participation certificates.

There were breakout sessions for the officers to discuss their duties while other conference attendees were offered “Medicine During the American Revolution” and “Shadow Patriots.”

While the state meetings were being held, a local elementary-school fifth-grade class had the opportunity to meet local George Washington portrayer Vern Frykholm.

The rededication of the only Real Daughter in Washington State was held on May 14. Her name was Isabell Johnson Savage Conway, the daughter of Phillip Johnson, who served under George Washington. He joined the Army in Ephrata County, N.Y. She was the 12th child in a family of 13. Her father died when she was 7. She married a teamster in New York and lived there and in Michigan. They had two sons. After being widowed, she married a Palouse farmer and Civil War veteran, Peter Conway. They moved to Spokane and bought the old Railroad Hotel in 1887, which they lost in the Great Fire of 1889, then operated the downtown Spokane Leland Hotel, which also burned down. When she was 75, she recounted for the newspaper stories from the Revolutionary War about her mother hiding from the British in a damp pit covered with brush. She also recalled a story about her father and two companions who were retreating and had to swim across a body of water infested with sharks.

“One of the men and my father made the shore safely, but were forced to witness the awful fate of the third man who was eaten by a shark,” Conway told the newspaper.

The DAR first dedicated the Real Daughter monument in 1928. Isabell Johnson Savage (1836-1915) is buried in the Greenwood Cemetery in Spokane.

Cascade Centennial Chapter

On June 9, Cascade Centennial Chapter Color Guard Capt. Greg Emerson gave his “Liberty’s Children” presentation to the U.S. Army Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) at Auburn Mountainview High School in Auburn, Wash. This was the first in-school presentation since 2019, as many of King County’s schools restricted visits because of COVID-19. Additionally, this was the first time Compatriot Emerson had given a presentation to high schoolers, who provide a new challenge when it comes to engaging them and maintaining their attention. They want to know, “How does this presentation apply to me?” As the traditional “Colonial Life” presentation is geared more toward elementary students, Compatriot Emerson created a hybrid presentation that can be conducted at both elementary and middle schools. This version focused primarily on a brief overview of what led up to America’s War for Independence, then centered on young people’s pivotal role in changing their world.

Along with hearing anecdotes concerning several young people like

Sybil Ludington, John Quincy Adams, Deborah Sampson and Alexander Milliner, the JROTC cadets were able to see and hold replica muskets, don a Continental Army jacket and hat, and touch artifacts dating back to the time of the American Revolution. Compatriot Emerson shared Washington SAR challenge coins with the cadets and presented one to the school’s administrators to thank her for allowing the SAR to come to the school.

Senior Military Instructor Lt. Col. Jason Shrader said, “The cadets hear about history all the time. Today they got to see and experience history. The foundation was laid for a beneficial partnership between SAR and the JROTC program at the high school.”

Fort Vancouver Chapter

We are hitting the news!

Published in the May 7 edition of The Columbian of Vancouver, Wash.:

Lincoln Elementary Fifth-Graders Experience Daily Life on a 1776 Farm

“Fifth-graders of the Lincoln Elementary School in Vancouver recently got a first-hand look at daily life on a farm in Colonial America. They came to appreciate that every day was a struggle to survive and that every family member played a role in ensuring safety, raising food, and learning a trade that would serve them throughout their lifetimes.

“The students and their teachers invited some special time travelers from 1776—namely members of the Fort Vancouver Sons of the American Revolution Chapter, who wore colorful Continental Army and militia uniforms.

“Members have traced their ancestry to great-great-grandfathers who fought in the American Revolution, and they shared several personal stories about the accomplishments of their ancestors with students.

“They also talked about some of the flags that were flown during the American Revolution. Most importantly, they gave the students several insights into what it took to make a living and survive on the edge of the wilderness and what work was required from dawn to dusk. The Compatriots shared several period items from the 1700s with the students—such as a brick of tea imported from England and pig’s bone and bristle toothbrush that an entire family shared. They also talked about how candles were made and how fires started.”

George Rogers Clark Chapter

How do you build a chapter in the middle of a pandemic? That’s what the George Rogers Clark Chapter in Olympia, Wash., did after being officially recognized by the NSSAR on July 2, 2020. Our numbers have increased from 15 original members to nearly 50! Follow our journey to build a band of brothers who have only met in person four times since July 2020.

The key to our success was following the principles of history, education and patriotism. It sounds simple, but execution and vision were critical. To bond the members, we had a charter-signing ceremony in 2021. Many of you have a charter with the signatures of the founding members. Think bigger.

At our signing ceremony in 2021, our numbers had grown to 26 members without having a single “in-person” meeting. After finding a venue for the charter signing, we had the original charter photocopied on a larger piece of paper, leaving a blank margin on the left. At the signing ceremony, each member stood before their charter and became the first signer of their “copy.” Moving clockwise, each member signed the subsequent members’ charters and the original. At the event’s conclusion, each member left with their original signed “copy” for their family record and a commemorative quill pen supplied by Compatriot

Lee Thomasson. Our chapter also commissioned an official chapter embosser to include our founding date and name: George Rogers Clark Chapter, founded July 2, 2020, Sons of the American Revolution.

Ninety percent of the original members attended the charter-signing ceremony. At its conclusion, we looked like giddy schoolboys filing out the building, charters in hand, anxious to show our families the remarkable document. Our chapter believes this is history, education, and patriotism at the local level and a significant bonding moment.

The original charter remains with the chapter.

Finally, the leadership determined that as a 21st-century chapter, we should offer online membership renewal. Our members embraced the concept. As renewal arrived last fall, 80 percent of dues were paid within 48 hours. A simple phone call, followed by a payment link email, resulted in a 100-percent membership renewal.

We are growing, now approaching 50 members in two years. We are not unique. We are the result of kindness, inspiration and guidance from dedicated members of an inviting heritage society. Our journey took a village of mentors ushering us through the mesh of forms, requirements, logistics, bank accounts, mailbox and more.

George Washington Chapter

On May 29, the George Washington Chapter posted colors at the dedication of the Gold Star Mothers Arbor in Ferndale, Wash., in support of the Chief Whatcom DAR Chapter. This event also dedicated the "Revolutionary War Patriots Marker" to the 250th Anniversary celebration.

Seattle Chapter

The chapter had the opportunity to participate in the reinterment of Army Cpl. Benjamin Bazzell at Tahoma National Cemetery in Kent, Wash., on April 21.

Bazzell, 18, was a member of the Headquarters Battery, 57th Field Artillery, 7th Infantry Division. He was reportedly killed in action on Nov. 30, 1950, when enemy forces attacked his unit near the Chosin Reservoir in North Korea.

The Battle of the Chosin Reservoir was one of the most brutal battles between United Nations Command troops and Chinese Communist Forces during the Korean War. About 30,000 U.N. troops fought enemy forces four times their number on rugged terrain in brutally cold weather for more than two weeks. More than 1,000 U.S. Marines and soldiers were killed, and thousands more were wounded.

On April 25 and May 16, the Seattle Chapter Color Guard participated in the Honor Flight at SeaTac Airport, welcoming home nearly 100 veterans. These were the first Honor Flights conducted in the past two years due to epidemic restrictions.

Spokane Chapter

On April 9, Compatriot Stan Wills presented Kayla Priebe with the annual Bev Wills Scholarship. Thanks to donations received, the scholarship award was raised to $1,000. Her community service project helped identify homeless people and provide services available for the homeless. The award is given to outstanding Gold Award Girl Scouts in Eastern Washington. Kayla now attends Eastern Washington University.

WISCONSIN SOCIETY

Compatriot Ben Hobbins and his DAR daughter, Ashley-Anne Hobbins, organized a National Memorial Prayer Ceremony when he was president of the Nathaniel Ames Chapter.

"The ceremony honored 13 heroes lost in Afghanistan at Kabul Karzai Airport," said Hobbins. "Hunter Lopez attended La Quinta High School with my daughters in La Quinta, California, and Hunter's dad is with the local sheriff's department."

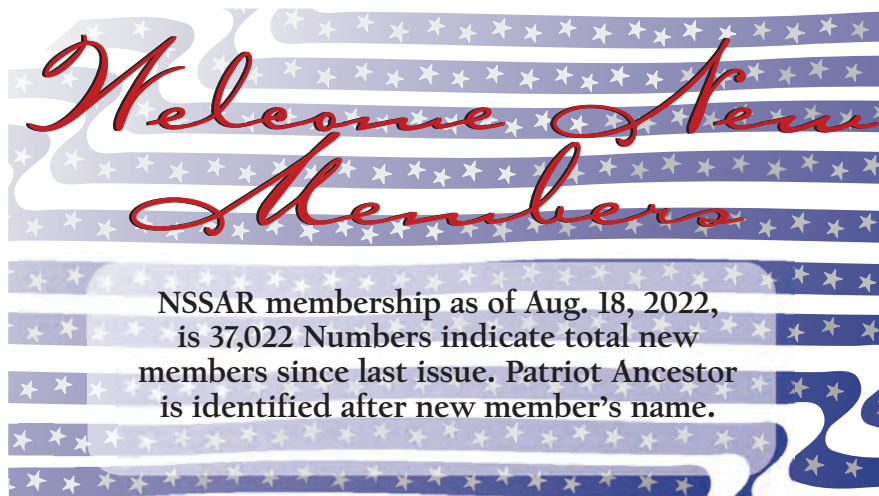

The John Bell Chapter of the DAR named Ashley-Anne Junior of the Year for her efforts.

How to Submit Items to SAR Magazine

The SAR Magazine welcomes submissions from compatriots, who often ask, "How do I get my story in The SAR Magazine?" Here are some tips:

1. Keep your piece as short as you can while still telling the story. Send stories in Microsoft Word format to sarmag@sar.org.
2. Send digital photographs as attachments and not embedded into the Word document. They also should be sent to sarmag@sar.org.
3. Make sure your images are high resolution, at least 300 DPI, and that no time or date stamps appear on the images.
4. Limit the number of photographs to those you'd most like to see. Please don't send a dozen and then question why the photo you liked least was the one selected.
5. Meet the deadlines published on the first page of "State & Chapter News" in each issue.
