1700's Traveling Trunk

Learn about the American Revolution from the time shots were first fired April 19, 1775 at Lexington and Concord until the treaty of Paris was signed September 3, 1783.

From cannons to muskets, period attire, and flags of the era, this traveling trunk brings the revolution to your town.

Educational

- Learn about the sacrifices patriots made as they fashioned shelters in the open.
- Immerse yourself in the sights, sounds and smells experienced by patriots who struggled for American independence.

- Interact with educators who bring insights into the daily lives of those who struggled and made do with what nature provided them with.

For All Generations

- Used during the revolution, imagine holding a Brown Bess musket weighing over 10 lbs. and measuring over 58”.

- History comes to life with this living history experience.
